WHAT IS A CHANTICLEER?

A Chanticleer (SHON-ti-cleer) gives Coastal Carolina University one of the most unique nicknames in all of sports. Chanticleer comes from Chaucer's Canterbury Tales and came to the University when it was a member of the University of South Carolina system.

A Chanticleer is a rooster who rules the barnyard with cunning and wit. His competitiveness never wanes as he battles to the end, using his brains to come out on top every time.

ABOUT COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY

Coastal Carolina University is a comprehensive, public liberal arts institution in Conway, S.C., that offers 104 major fields of study toward the baccalaureate degree, 27 master's degree programs, one educational specialist degree, and two Ph.D. programs.

More than 10,300 students from across the country and around the world engage with a world-class faculty, and they all enjoy an inspiring cultural calendar and a tradition of community interaction fueled by more than 180 student organizations.

The 19 Coastal Carolina athletic teams compete in Division I of the NCAA as members of the Sun Belt Conference. The University's mascot is the Chanticleer, a proud, fierce, and quick-thinking rooster derived from Geoffrey Chaucer's "Canterbury Tales." The football, lacrosse, softball, and baseball teams compete in the TD Sports Complex, which houses baseball's award-winning Springs Brooks Stadium. The Chanticleer baseball team won the College World Series in 2016, the University's first national championship.

The University has 115 main buildings on its campus, comprised of 621 acres, including the General James Hackler Golf Course, a public 18-hole golf facility located adjacent to campus.

Coastal Carolina University is accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to award the baccalaureate, master's, and doctoral degrees.

MISSION STATEMENT

Coastal Carolina University is a public, comprehensive liberal arts institution that seeks to develop students who are both knowledgeable in their chosen fields and prepared to be productive, responsible, healthy citizens with a global perspective. To deliver on this commitment, Coastal Carolina recruits highly qualified and motivated students, faculty, and staff from the region, state, nation, and world to create a diverse and dynamic student-centered learning environment.

Because Coastal Carolina embraces the teacher-scholar model, it places primary emphasis on high-quality teaching and engaged learning, and it supports faculty research, creative activities, and expert collaboration in the community, state, nation, and world. This focus enables faculty and staff to mentor students in collaborative research, creative opportunities, and internships. To nurture this active learning community, Coastal Carolina maintains a broad range of contemporary technologies, programming, support services, and innovative course offerings and delivery methods. The result is alumni who are well prepared for professional careers or graduate programs in their chosen fields and who continue to be connected to Coastal Carolina.

Inspired by its founding in 1954 to serve the educational needs of the region, Coastal Carolina has a tradition of a strong liberal arts core. As such, Coastal Carolina commits its resources to building undergraduate and graduate degree programs of national and/or regional significance in the arts and sciences, business, humanities, education, and health and human services. Coastal Carolina fully embraces its leadership role as a regional center of economic and intellectual resources, lifelong learning, cultural and recreational opportunities, and athletic programs.

As Coastal Carolina executes this mission, it recognizes its responsibility to be a role model to the community by assuring fair and honest treatment of people with whom it interacts and sustainable stewardship of resources entrusted to it; adopting the highest standards of integrity and accountability; and committing itself to excellence through continuous assessment and improvement.

Update adopted by the Coastal Carolina University Board of Trustees on July 19, 2014.
Update approved by the South Carolina Commission on Higher Education on Feb. 5, 2015.

SUN BELT CONFERENCE

The Sun Belt Conference (SBC) has established itself as a leader among intercollegiate athletics leagues since its move to the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) in 2001.

Founded in 1976, the Sun Belt now features 14 dynamic member institutions across 10 contiguous states. The Sun Belt boasts broad-based excellence across its 18 sponsored sports, in the classroom and in the communities across the league's footprint.

The 2022 campaign—the conference's first as a 14-team football league—was a banner year for the Sun Belt, which defeated four autonomy five programs, hosted ESPN's College GameDay for the second time in conference history and produced a conference-record seven Bowl Season participants—tied for the most among non-autonomy conferences and trailing only the SEC, ACC, Big Ten and Big 12.

Three of the conference's victories over autonomy five programs came on a statement Saturday in Week 2, when the Sun Belt became the first non-autonomy conference to knock off multiple Top 10-ranked opponents on the same day in nearly two decades (Sept. 20, 2003).

On the heels of these victories, the conference launched its Sun Belt Rising campaign, which featured in Times Square leading into College GameDay, Los Angeles during CFP week, each of the conference's seven bowl markets during Bowl Season and each of the conference's 14 institutional markets during the 2022 campaign.

The conference was home to the last two unbeaten teams and the last one-loss team from a non-autonomy conference in 2022 and was the lone non-autonomy conference to have multiple teams reach 10 wins during the regular season. No. 24 Troy (12-2) finished the year as 1-of-2 two-loss teams from non-autonomy conferences, alongside New Year's Six representative No. 16 Tulane (12-2).

The Hercules Tires Sun Belt Football Championship Game—which Troy won 45-26 over Coastal Carolina to claim its conference record seventh Sun Belt title—was the lone conference championship game to feature a pair of teams with two-or-fewer losses in 2022. Sun Belt champion and No. 24-ranked Troy also proved victorious in the Duluth Trading Cure Bowl—the only bowl game to feature a pair of conference champions in 2022—defeating Conference USA champion and No. 25 UTSA, 18-12.

Heading into the 2023 season, the Sun Belt continues to lead the FBS with a .614 bowl winning percentage since the dawn of the College Football Playoff era in 2014.

As part of the Sun Belt's commitment to racial justice, the conference launched BE THE CHANGE during the summer of 2020 – focusing attention on American civil rights, promoting civic engagement, and creating dialogue with law enforcement. The conference also established and encouraged its teams and fans to visit the Sun Belt Conference Civil Rights Trail, which highlights historic sites and landmarks found within the league's geographic footprint.

The Sun Belt supports more than 5,500 student-athletes in sponsoring 18 NCAA sports.

The Sun Belt's 14 member institutions are App State, Arkansas State, Coastal Carolina, Georgia Southern, Georgia State, James Madison, Louisiana, ULM, Marshall, Old Dominion, South Alabama, Southern Miss, Texas State, and Troy.

MEDIA INFORMATION

MEDIA SERVICES

The 2023 Coastal Carolina Football Media Guide is published primarily as a source of information for members of the media. Requests for additional information, interviews, and photographs should be directed to the Coastal Carolina athletics media relations office and Associate A.D. for Athletics Media Relations Kevin Davis (kdavis6@coastal.edu).

Football game notes and statistics are updated regularly throughout the season. Access to this information can be achieved by accessing the official Coastal Carolina University Athletics website at www.GoCCUsports.com. The media relations staff will email weekly releases to members of the media provided they have your most up-to-date email.

MEDIA CREDENTIALS

Media credentials will be LIMITED again for the 2023 season and issued ONLY to working members of the media. Requests for media credentials for Coastal Carolina University home games should be made in writing (preferably email) to Associate A.D. for Athletics Media Relations Kevin Davis (kdavis6@coastal.edu) or via the NEW Media Credentials Request form on the Football page at www.GoCCUsports.com. Only those requests submitted by the sports editor of a newspaper or the sports director of a radio or television station will be considered.

Priority is given to daily newspapers (by circulation), television stations, and radio stations that program sports for more than half of their daily broadcast schedules. A credential does not guarantee a seat and access to the team bench area is prohibited at all times. Press credentials will NOT be issued to spouses, friends, or children.

Media members can claim credentials 90 minutes before each game at the Media/Staff Entrance Gate next to Gate 1 (next to the entrance of the Marrio & Josh Norman Field House). A photo ID is required.

Single-Game Requests: Requests must be made at least one week in advance of the contest. No credentials will be granted after Thursday of game week.

Media Parking: A limited number of media parking spaces at various locations around Brooks Stadium are available. Please include parking requests along with credential requests.

Press Box: The Brooks Stadium Press Box is located on the fourth floor of the East side of the stadium. It includes space for working members of the press, as well as scoreboard and play clock officials. Also located on the press level are two radio booths, a television booth, an official replay booth, and both visiting and home team coaching booths. Access to the press box is via the stairs and elevator on the East side of the stadium. In accordance with the working code of the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) and the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA), the press box is a working area and cheering will be grounds for removal.

Sidelines: Photographers and videographers at practice and games are NOT permitted to use tripods. However, a monopod may be used. Photographers must shoot solely for the affiliation for which they are credentialed — photos are not to be taken for personal social media nor for any other distribution (players/family members, etc.) to ensure no NCAA regulations are being broken.

All media on the sidelines MUST have their credential in full display, stay within the designated dotted lines, and are restricted from being in either team bench area. Sideline media passes are good for the sidelines and access to the press box for a working area.

COLLEGEPRESSBOX.COM

CollegePressBox.com is an official media website for Coastal Carolina and Sun Belt Conference schools. Access and download weekly game notes, roster cards, statistics, media guides, coach or player head shots, and more for the Sun Belt and each of its member institutions throughout the season. Login information will be distributed to accredited media, or you can apply for a password by sending an E-Mail to password@collegepressbox.com. The login will also give you access to all 10 Football Bowl Subdivision conference partners and independents.

MEDIA AVAILABILITY

Monday: Head coach Tim Beck participates in the Sun Belt's weekly head coaches zoom teleconference each Monday morning.

 NOTE THAT THE BELOW DAYS AND TIMES WILL CHANGE ON WEEKS WITH MIDWEEK GAMES. ***

Tuesday and Wednesday: Coaches and student-athletes will be available after practices on Tuesdays and Wednesdays. Media members must provide a 24-hour notice and be approved ahead of time. Contact Kevin Davis (kdavis6@coastal.edu) with ALL requests.

* Phone/Zoom interviews will be filled as his schedule permits.

Wednesday: Coastal's weekly press conference will be on Wednesdays at noon (ET) on Saturday game weeks. We will return to in-person interviews but will also have a zoom option. Contact Kevin Davis (kdavis6@coastal.edu) for the zoom information each week.

Saturday (Gamedays): Postgame availability only. Members of the Coastal Carolina athletics media relations staff will escort media representatives to the appropriate postgame interview areas with five minutes remaining in the game. The Coastal Carolina locker room, home or away, is closed to the media at all times.

Following home games, Coastal Carolina head coach Tim Beck and select Chanticleer players will be brought to the team room for postgame press conferences. The team room is located on the third floor of the Marrio & Josh Norman Field House located on the North side of the stadium. Interview requests will be collected at the beginning of the fourth quarter.

For games in Conway, the opposing head coach will meet with the media directly outside of the locker room in the Southeast corner of Brooks Stadium. A representative from the Coastal Carolina athletics media relations staff will be on hand to assist the media in finding this area. Interviews with the head coach and players from the visiting team will be based on the postgame policy of the visiting institution and communications staff.

THE WEB AND SOCIAL MEDIA

The official website of Coastal Carolina athletics is updated daily with the latest on Chanticleer sports. It provides the most up-to-date schedules, rosters, statistics, and biographies on every student-athlete and coach. Fans and media are also encouraged to follow the team on its social media platforms. Coastal Carolina football will tweet live in-game updates during every game.

BROOKS STADIUM

The Coastal Carolina University football stadium officially opened as Brooks Stadium on Sept. 6, 2003, for the inaugural home game of the Chanticleer football program. Scoring a touchdown with just seconds left on the clock, the Chanticleers defeated Newberry College 21-14.

With a gift from the late businessman Bob Brooks, the stadium was named in honor of Brooks' children Coby Garrett and Boni Belle. The $2 million gift was among the largest gifts ever made to the University.

Brooks, who grew up on a farm in Loris, S.C., was the CEO and founder of Eastern Foods, Inc., creators of the Naturally Fresh line of products, and chairman of Hooters of America, Inc. He also created Hooters Air Charter Airline, the National Golf Association Hooters Tour, and the Hooters ProCup Series, a series of short-track races in small towns throughout the Southeast and Midwest. Brooks passed away in 2006.

Phase I of the stadium construction included 6,408 seats, while Phase II added almost 1,000 additional seats prior to the 2006 season. The third phase of Brooks Stadium was completed in 2010 when approximately 1,600 seats were added directly behind the north end zone. Affectionately referred to as the Chantourage section, the seating directly in front of the field house was designated as the student section in 2011.

Brooks Stadium has been ranked among the top stadiums in the nation in attendance based on capacity. In 2010, the Chanticleers hosted a first-round NCAA Division I Football Championship playoff game against Western Illinois. The game marked the first postseason game played in Brooks Stadium.

On Feb. 15, 2013, the women's lacrosse team opened its inaugural season on its new home field inside Brooks Stadium. Women's lacrosse was the 18th Division I sports program for the Chanticleers.

The facility underwent a major transformation in the spring of 2015 as Benton Field went from natural grass to artificial teal turf ... or "The Surf Turf." The first pieces of Powerblade SD turf were laid on April 2 and the project was completed later that month. The project had a budget of $1.2 million.

Brooks Stadium was designed and built with the capability to expand from its inception. That original design is coming to fruition as Coastal embarked on another two-phase expansion in the spring of 2017 that has brought the capacity to approximately 20,000.

The first phase boosted the seating capacity to 15,000 and included adding seats to both corners of the end zone nearest the field house, expanding the sections closest to the field on both sides toward the scoreboard, and expanding the upper deck on the east side to match the length of the lower deck.

Prior to the 2019 season, a second level and premium suites were completed on the west side to increase the capacity to 20,000. The cost of the two-phase project was $31.8 million.

NORMAN FIELD HOUSE

MARRIO & JOSH NORMAN

Former Coastal Carolina University football All-American Josh Norman made a major donation to his alma mater that will benefit both athletics and academics. It is the largest gift ever given to the University by a former Chanticleer student-athlete. In recognition of his philanthropic generosity, CCU announced in November 2018 that the athletics field house at Brooks Stadium has been named the Marrio & Josh Norman Field House, after Josh and his brother, Marrio, who also played football for the Chanticleers.

The major gift was designated for the Brooks Stadium expansion project, financial support for walk-on football student-athletes as well as CCU's communication and theatre programs.

Located at the north end of Brooks Stadium, the Marrio & Josh Norman Field House is a 55,400 square-foot facility that opened in 2010 and was the first green building on campus. The first floor features the 9,000-square-foot Watson Strength and Conditioning Center that is used by all CCU student-athletes, along with locker rooms and meeting rooms. On the second floor are various coaches' offices while the third floor is dedicated to football meeting rooms, position rooms, and coaches offices.

The stadium expansion project included increased seating capacity to 20,000, the addition of luxury suites, and an upper deck to the west side of the stadium as well as other features such as new entrances. Completed before the opening of the 2019 season, the stadium expansion was in response to the Chanticleers joining the Sun Belt Conference and meeting NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision requirements.

Josh Norman, a native of Greenwood, S.C., played cornerback at CCU from 2008-11. In CCU's career record books, he is ranked first in pass breakups and passes defended, and is ranked in the top-six in interceptions, unassisted tackles, forced fumbles and blocked kicks. He was named first-team All-Big South Conference in 2009, 2010 and 2011; was a first-team Associated Press FCS All-American in 2011, and earned third-team honors as a sophomore in 2009. Norman is the only player in Big South history to play in both the East-West Shrine Game and the Senior Bowl. He was a finalist for the 2011 Buck Buchanan Award, given annually to the top defensive player at the NCAA FCS level. In 2012, Norman became the third-ever CCU football player to get drafted into the NFL.

"My brothers and I grew up at Coastal," Norman said. "We did everything at this University. From relationships, jobs and of course you can't leave out the weekly parking tickets that plagued every student on campus. Coastal taught me a lot about myself, and I will never forget the impact the professors had on where I am today in life. The friends that I've made are life-timers. They, too, have gone on to do amazing things, and we will never forget the ones we lost due to illness and tragedy.

"You can never put a dollar amount on someone's personal influence on your path in life. I am beyond grateful for my experience at Coastal Carolina University.

"For my two brothers [Marrio and Phillip] and I who passed through these halls, may our voices be heard from a time long ago as we watch the evolution of CCU as a growing titan. I'm proud to be a Chanticleer! Hail to the Chants!"

In addition to his success on the field, Norman is making a name for himself off the field. He recently donated $50,000 to Horry County Schools to assist with recovery and support efforts after the historic flooding from Hurricane Florence, which devastated areas of the county that is also home to CCU. In May, he and partner Sharna Burgess finished runner-up on ABC's "Dancing with the Stars: Athletes." Last year, Norman founded the Starz24 Foundation to help children through programs that emphasize fitness and teamwork. In 2017, he was inducted into CCU's George F. "Buddy" Sasser Hall of Fame; and the CAF named him the 2016-17 Chanticleer of the Year. The University presented him with an honorary doctorate of public service in June in recognition of his philanthropic efforts.

Marrio Norman, also from Greenwood, was a defensive back for the Chanticleers in 2004 and from 2006-08. In 2007, he recorded 53 tackles and five interceptions and was named first-team All-Big South. He finished his career ranked in the school's top-10 in interceptions, passes defended, pass breakups, punt returns, punt returns yards and average yards per punt return. His professional career includes playing in the Arena Football League for Georgia, Cleveland, Orlando, Albany, and the Washington Viators. He was named first-team All-Arena in 2014 while playing with the Cleveland Gladiators, and in 2018 with the Albany Empire.

Coastal Carolina University has secured all required state approvals to begin construction on a $20 million indoor practice facility. The South Carolina State Fiscal Accountability Authority, chaired by Gov. Henry McMaster, approved the project at its meeting in Columbia on June 28.

“This is a very significant moment for our University as this facility represents the largest donor-funded project in Coastal Carolina University history,” said CCU President Michael T. Benson. “Not only will this multipurpose structure serve our intercollegiate athletic teams, but it will also be used for graduation ceremony staging, club and intramural sports, and various campus and community events. Many people have helped us get to this point, and I thank the generous donors who believed in our vision and supported this very important investment.”

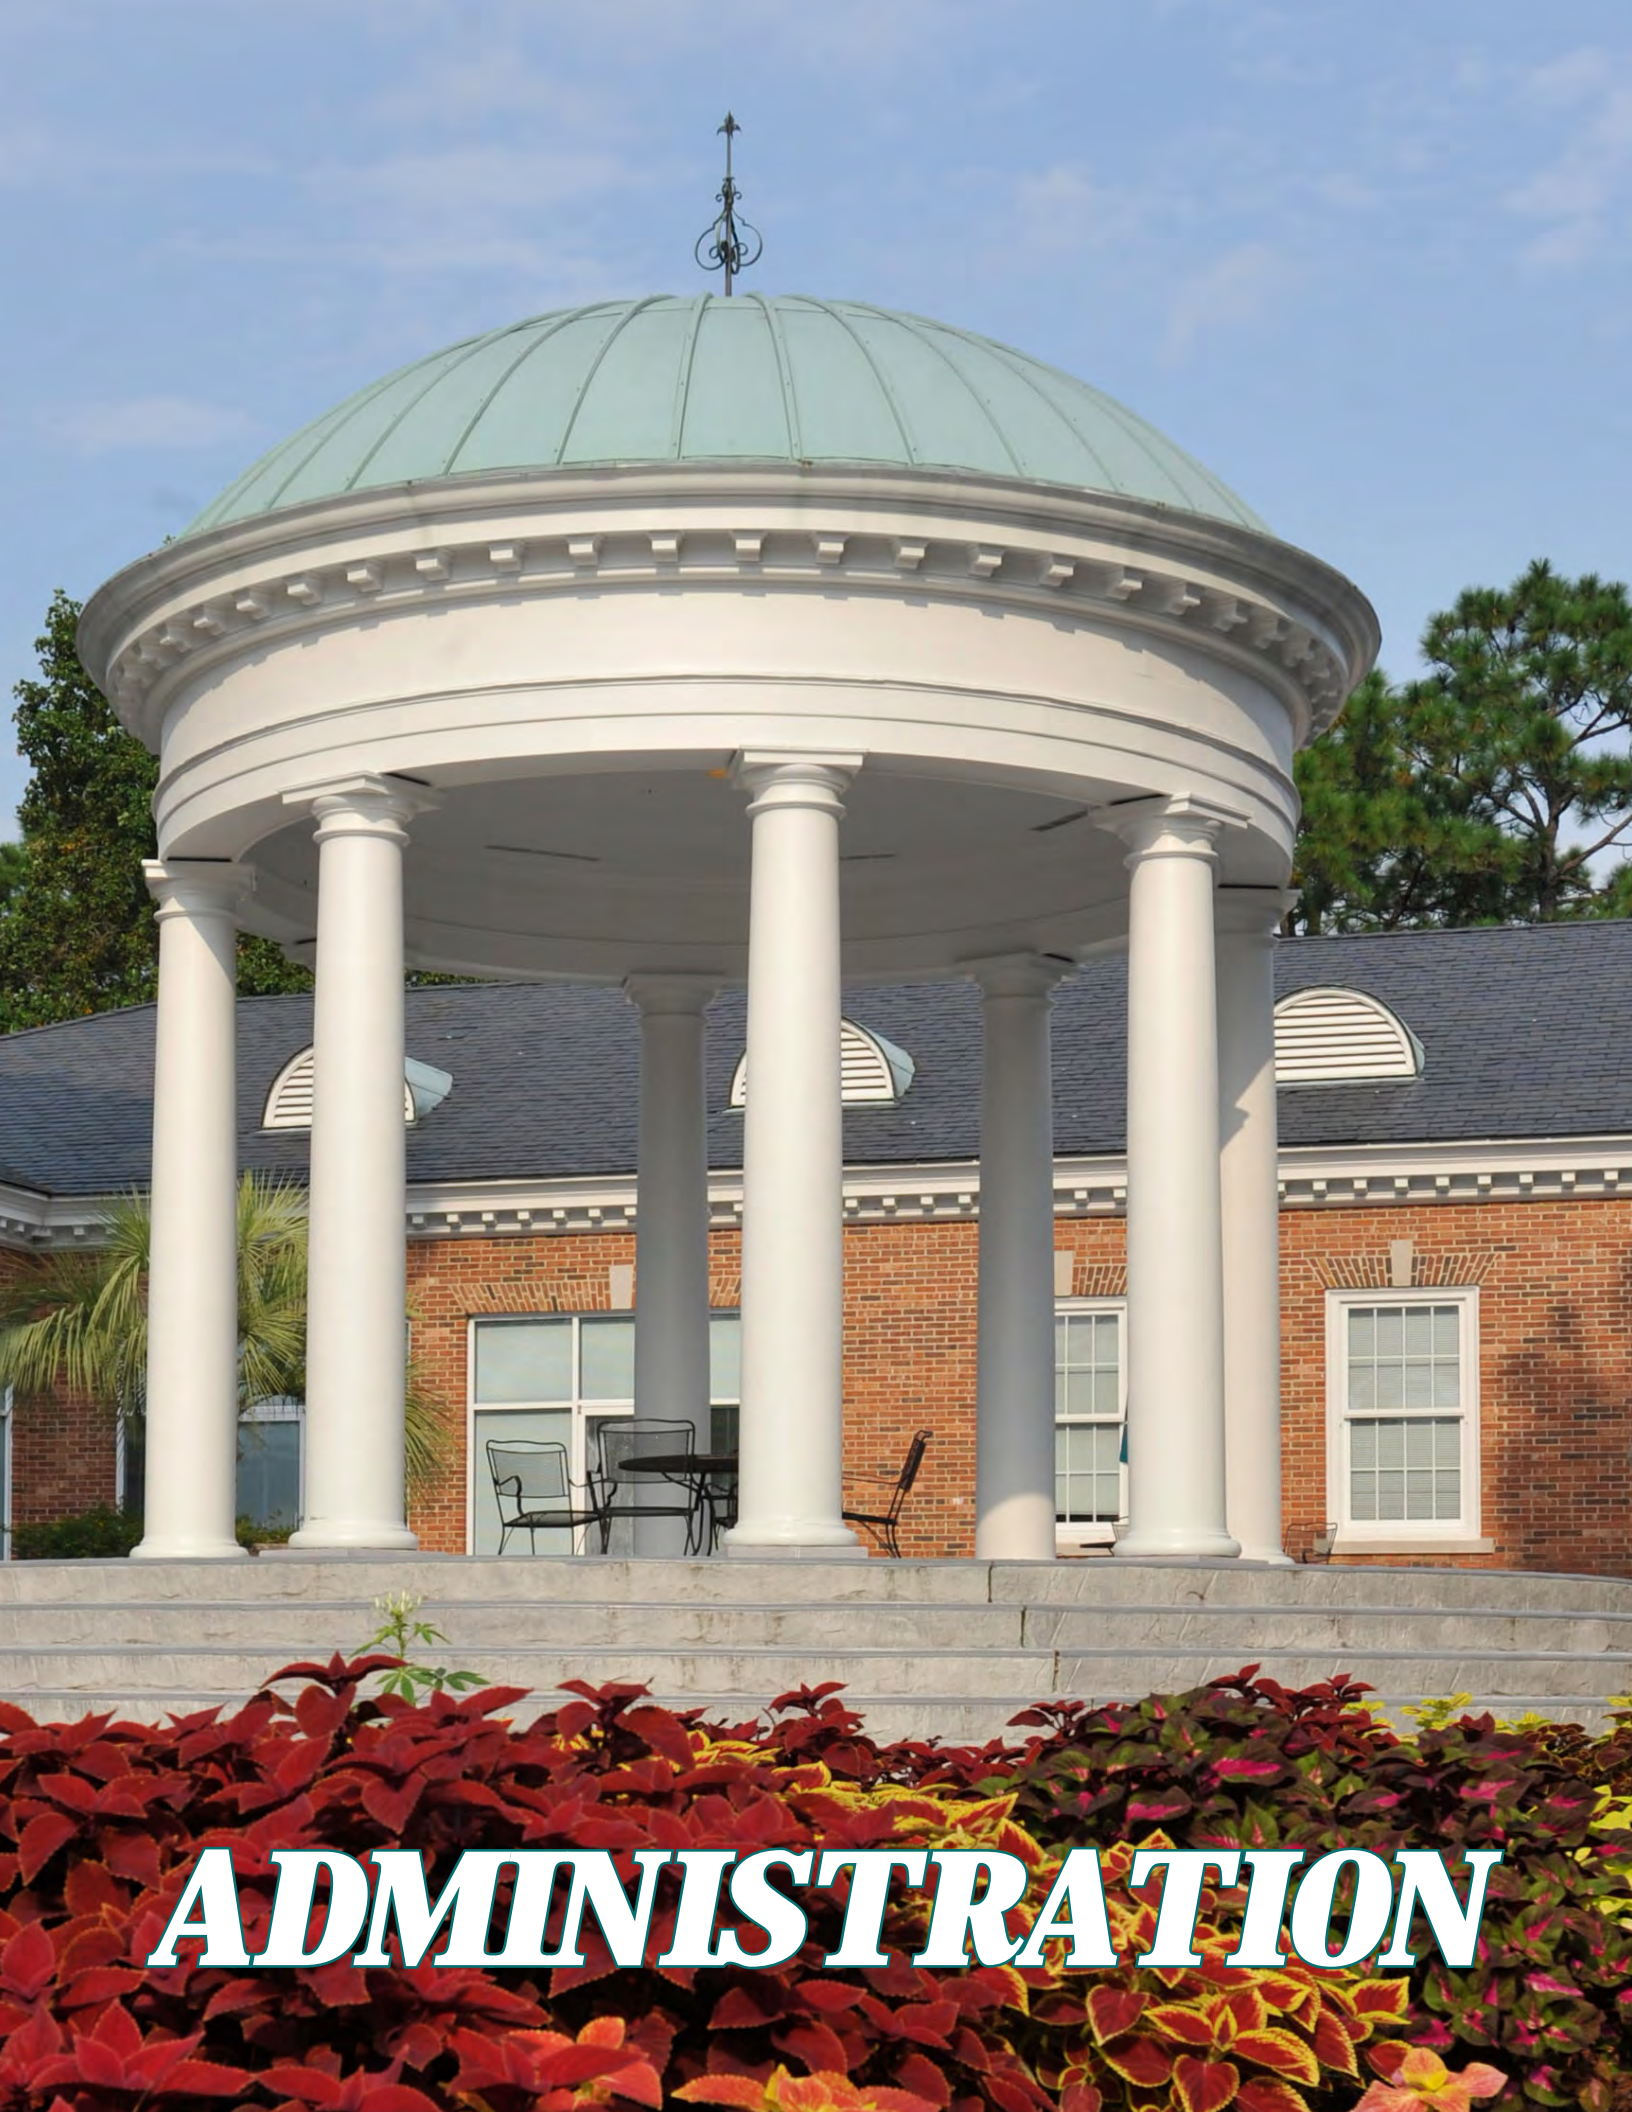

Located just south of Brooks Stadium and designed by Garvin Design Group, the 93,000-square-foot facility will be the first Construction Manager at Risk project ever undertaken by CCU. A groundbreaking ceremony for the facility, which will be built by Contract Construction, is scheduled for Sept. 7, two days before CCU’s 2023 football home opener in Brooks Stadium.

“The Construction Manager at Risk delivery method gives Coastal Carolina University several benefits, including a predictable budget with a Guaranteed Maximum Price, increased project speed, and the ability to hire based on construction managers’ qualifications not just price,” said David Frost, senior vice president for finance and administration/CFO.

Sherry Johnson, a member of CCU’s board of trustees and chair of its facilities and planning committee, said: “This state-of-the-art facility stands not only as a testament to our commitment to excellence as a University but also as a catalyst for transformation within Chanticleer Athletics. The facility presents numerous opportunities for our entire student body. We are excited about the impact it will have in propelling our athletic programs toward unparalleled success.”

The metal structure will accommodate all aspects of practice and includes a regulation-size football field featuring artificial teal turf. The facility also will include two filming platforms, restrooms, storage rooms, and an athletic training space that will be accessible from the interior and exterior practice areas.

“This next step toward the completion of the indoor facility shows that we are continuing to elevate this program to the highest level,” said Tim Beck, CCU’s football head coach. “The facility will feature many of the best design elements, making it one of the top facilities in the nation and home to our Coastal family. Thank you to President Michael T. Benson, Chair of Athletics and Executive Director of Football Joe Moglia, Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics and University Recreation Matt Hogue, Chanticleer Athletic Foundation Executive Director Kelly Moore, and everyone who has been involved in making this happen. It’s a great day to be a Chant!”

ADMINISTRATION

COASTAL CAROLINA UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Michael T. Benson, a veteran of higher education administration, became the third president of Coastal Carolina University on Jan. 1, 2021. He also holds the title of professor of history at the University.

Since his arrival, Benson has secured the largest donation in school history: a $10 million gift from Conway Medical Center. The endowed fund supports the University's newest college – the Conway Medical Center College of Health and Human Performance – that opened on July 1, 2022. In May 2022, he led the groundbreaking ceremony for the Thompson Library, a $29.8 million, two-story, 64,000-square-foot facility. Benson established the President's Council for Sustainability and Coastal Resilience, which is charged with transforming CCU into a more sustainable campus, centering sustainability in the University's curriculum and student services, and serving the surrounding communities to build toward a sustainable future. During Fall 2023, Benson will teach a graduate seminar on World War I. He previously taught an upper-level course titled History of the American University.

Actively involved in community service, Benson is a member of the Myrtle Beach Chamber of Commerce board of trustees. He worked closely with community partners to secure the renewal of the Horry County Penny Sales Tax, which supports local education. More than 68% of voters supported the tax that is now in place until 2039 and will provide over $300 million in capital funding for the University. Nationally, Benson serves on the Council of Presidents of the Association of Governing Boards of Universities and Colleges, and as the FBS presidential representative on the NCAA Board of Governors Committee to Promote Cultural Diversity and Equity. He also is the board chair-elect of Omicron Delta Kappa, the national leadership honor society.

Benson is president emeritus at Eastern Kentucky University, where he served as the 13th president from 2013 to 2020. Prior to ECU, Benson was the 15th president of Southern Utah University. He helped secure SUU's designation as the state's public liberal arts and sciences university; established the Hispanic Center for Academic Excellence; gained admission into the Big Sky Conference for all athletic teams; and directed the development and implementation of SUU's largest comprehensive fundraising effort, which raised a record $105 million.

Benson also served for five years as the 14th president of Snow College in Ephraim, Utah, where he helped raise more private money for the institution during his tenure than had been secured in the previous 115 years of the college's history combined. Appointed at age 36, Benson was the youngest college president in the history of the Utah System of Higher Education.

His scholarly work has focused on the development of the research university and its impact on society. Benson's latest book, Daniel Coit Gilman and the Birth of the American Research University, was released by Johns Hopkins University (JHU) Press in October 2022. He was a visiting professor in the Department of the History of Science and Technology at JHU in 2020.

Benson is regularly sought after for public speeches and appearances. He was a featured contributor to the Huffington Post for five years; has written articles for The Jerusalem Post, Lexington Herald-Leader, Louisville Courier Journal, The Kansas City Star, Deseret News, and The Salt Lake Tribune, among others; and appeared on ESPN's The Paul Finebaum Show.

Born in Utah and raised in Texas and Indiana, Benson has worked and studied abroad for nearly seven years in Italy, England, and Israel. He graduated cum laude with a bachelor's degree in political science and double minors in English and history from Brigham Young University in 1990. He completed his doctorate in modern history from the University of Oxford (St. Antony's College) in 1995, where he was a Rotary Foundation Scholar and recipient of the Oxford Graduate Overseas Fellowship. He also earned a master's degree cum laude in nonprofit administration in 2011 from the University of Notre Dame Mendoza College of Business, where he was the recipient of the prestigious Father Theodore Hesburgh Founder's Award. Benson graduated with a Master of Liberal Arts from Johns Hopkins University in August 2021.

An accomplished athlete, Benson played basketball at both BYU and Oxford, and his best marathon time – 2 hours and 41 minutes – won his age division in the St. George (Utah) Marathon, one of the largest marathons in the U.S. He also finished among the top 15% of all runners in the 1984 Boston Marathon.

Benson and his wife, Debi, are the parents of three children – Truman, Tatum, and Talmage. He also has two older children from a previous marriage. Emma is a TV anchor in Idaho Falls, Idaho; and Samuel, who recently graduated with a degree in sociology and Spanish from BYU, is a national correspondent for the Deseret News, covering the presidential campaign.

VICE PRESIDENT FOR ATHLETICS AND UNIVERSITY RECREATION

Hogue is best known for his 17-year stint as the “Voice of the Chanticleers” on the Chanticleer Sports Network, providing live game broadcasts, features, and weekly programs about CCU athletics.

In 2013, Hogue was named a finalist for the National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association (NSSA) Sportscaster of the Year for the state of South Carolina. He has edited a book entitled “Chanticleer Athletics: Fifty Years of Excellence” with other CCU contributors and dedicated the book to Edward M. “Dick” Singleton, former chancellor of the university. Partial proceeds from the book benefited the Edward M. Singleton Scholar-Athlete Award scholarship at CCU.

As the “Voice of the Chanticleers”, Hogue managed, produced, and coordinated the Chanticleer Sports Network. His colorful, exciting calls were synonymous with Chanticleer Athletics.

In his role as associate vice president of marketing, Hogue was charged with developing marketing strategies and advertising for university recruitment, academic, and specialty programs, as well as directing and monitoring the University’s trademark licensing program.

Previously, he served as the associate athletic director for enhanced media and assistant athletics director for marketing. He began his career at Coastal Carolina as the assistant sports information director.

Hogue earned his baccalaureate degree from the University of South Carolina and completed his MBA from Winthrop University.

He and his wife, Laura, live in Conway with their daughters Rachel and Caroline.

Matt Hogue is the vice president for intercollegiate athletics and university recreation for Coastal Carolina University, a title change he received in April 2021.

Hogue was recently named the 2020-21 Athletics Director of the Year by The National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA)—one of only four recipients of this award at the FBS level. He was one of 28 winners across seven divisions (NCAA FBS, FCS, Division I-AAA, II, III, NAIA/Other Four-Year Institutions, and Junior College/Community Colleges).

The ADOY Award highlights the efforts of athletics directors at all levels for their commitment and positive contributions to student-athletes, campuses, and their surrounding communities.

He is also a member of the NCAA Division I baseball selection committee, representing Coastal Carolina and the Sun Belt Conference since August 2020.

Hogue was named the director of athletics at Coastal Carolina University on Feb. 27, 2015, after serving as the interim director of athletics since March 2014.

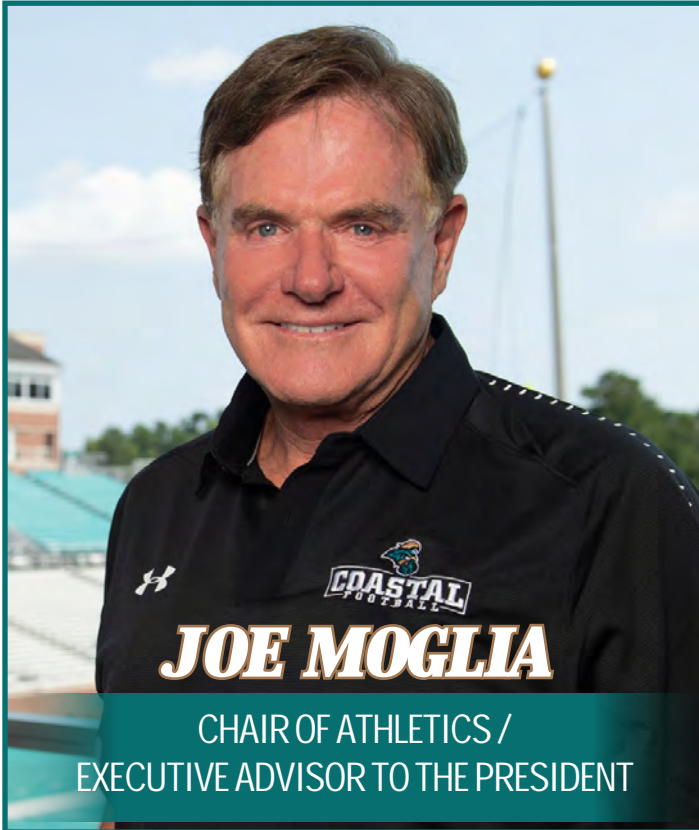

Since Hogue took over as the director of athletics at Coastal Carolina University in 2015, the CCU athletic teams have won 14 conference regular-season championships, as well as 17 conference tournament championships. The baseball team also won the department’s first-ever National Championship in 2016.

Hogue, who has a long-time association with Coastal athletics, previously served as CCU’s associate vice president of marketing.

Hogue joined Coastal in 1997 and has served in several different roles in the Department of Athletics and in the Office of University Communication, where he led CCU’s marketing and trademark licensing efforts.

CHAIR OF ATHLETICS / EXECUTIVE ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT

Joe Moglia is the Chair of the Coastal Carolina Athletics Division, the Executive for Football, and serves as an Executive Advisor to the President. He is also the former CEO and Chairman of TD Ameritrade and Chairman of Fundamental Global Investors and Capital Wealth Advisors.

His philanthropic efforts know no bounds, as he was most recently named the 2022-23 Chanticleer of the Year for his support of Coastal Carolina Athletics, joining an elite list of great Chanticleer supporters. He also was honored for his support of the Chicago Hope Academy, as the inner-city Christian school recently announced that The Moglia Fieldhouse will be the permanent home of Special Olympics Chicago.

In 1984, Moglia was one of 26 people who entered the MBA Training Program at Merrill Lynch - 25 MBA's and one football coach. By 1988, he was the number one producer in the world. By the time he left, he had been a member of both the Institutional and Private Client Executive Committees, and his final responsibilities were all Investment Products, the Insurance Company, the 401(k) Business, and the Middle Market Business. Prior to that, he was the head of Global Fixed Income Institutional Sales and ran the firm's Municipal division.

In the business world, he was at Merrill Lynch for 17 years before becoming the CEO at TD Ameritrade in 2001.

From when he became the CEO of TD Ameritrade in 2001, and when he stepped down in 2008, shareholders had enjoyed a 500 percent return. In 2009, he became chairman and stepped down in 2020 when TD Ameritrade was acquired by Charles Schwab. At close, the combined company was worth $100 BILLION with client assets of $7 TRILLION. When Moglia arrived, those numbers were $700 million and $24 billion.

He has served on the Boards of AXA Financial (2002-2011) and the Chicago Board Options Exchange (1997-2002).

Moglia has received the Ellis Island Medal of Honor and the Sharp Trophy for Leadership. He has been honored by the National Italian American Foundation, UNICO, the Columbus Citizens Foundation, the Irish Arts Center, the American Institute for Stuttering and the Stuttering Association for the Young.

He has been inducted into NINE Halls of Fame, is a member of the National Economics Honor Society and is the recipient of three Honorary Doctorates. Joe has already had a book written about his life, and he is also the only person to publish books on both football and investing, including "The Key to Winning Football: The Perimeter Attack Offense" (1981) and "Coach Yourself to Financial Success: Winning the Investment Game" (2005), while contributing to numerous national football coaching journals. He is currently writing a book on leadership.

He has also been a keynote speaker at the 2011 American Football Coaches Association ("It's About Being a Leader") and 2010 National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics ("Leadership in a 24/7 Stress Filled Environment").

He has served on the board of several not-for-profits and educational organizations, including STRATCOM Consultation Committee, Creighton University, Fordham Preparatory School, National Italian American Foundation, Omaha Chamber of Commerce, and Boy Scouts of America.

Moglia graduated from Fordham University with a bachelor's degree in economics in 1971, earning dean's list recognition, and acceptance into Omicron Delta Epsilon (National Economic Honor Society). He went on to receive his Master of Science degree in education from the University of Delaware in 1974 and holds honorary doctorate degrees from Fordham University (humane letters), Bellevue University (commerce), and Bentley University (commercial science).

Moglia was a football coach for 25 years, but it was certainly not a traditional 25 years. He began his career as a coach for 16 years, moved to the business world for more than 20, and returned back to coaching in 2009.

Before entering the business world, Moglia was a football coach for 16 years where he won two Ivy League championships as the defensive coordinator at Dartmouth (1982-83), set defensive and special teams' records at Lafayette (1978-80), and turned around two high school programs.

A five-time National Coach of the Year finalist and the 2015 Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award winner, Moglia stepped down as the head coach of the Coastal Carolina University football program on Jan. 18, 2019, after more than 25 years as a football coach, including six seasons on the sidelines in Conway, S.C., posting an overall record of 56-22.

He is the real-life inspiration for the Monty Burke book, "4th & Goal: One Man's Quest to Recapture His Dream," and garnered national media attention by the likes of Fox News, CNBC, MSNBC, FoxSports.com, ESPN Gameday, ESPN.com Grantland Series, Associated Press, 60 Minutes Sports (Showtime), The Sports Network, Yahoo.com, Yahoo!Sports.com, Esquire, USA Today, Wall Street Journal, and CNNRadio.com.

Yes, his story of leaving his first love of coaching to enter and later conquer the business world only to return to coaching is interesting. However, what ultimately proved to be the most compelling aspect of the move were the results.

CHAIR OF ATHLETICS / EXECUTIVE ADVISOR TO THE PRESIDENT

Moglia as a Head Coach

The former head coach of the United Football League's Omaha Nighthawks, Moglia was hired as the head football coach at Coastal Carolina University on Dec. 19, 2011.

He concluded his six seasons on the sidelines in Conway with an overall record of 56-22.

Moglia was a national coach of the year finalist in each of his first three seasons — finishing runner-up in 2014, before winning the Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year in his fourth year (2015). He was also the Big South Coach of the Year twice (2012 and 2014) and the American Football Coaches Association Region 2 Coach of the Year once (2014). In 2017, he was inducted into and received the Vince Lombardi Hall of Fame Award for his career. He was also awarded the 2015 South Carolina Football Hall of Fame Humanitarian award.

After a 29-28 overall record, including going just 1-9 versus the two best teams in the Big South, over the five years prior to Moglia, the Chanticleers went a combined 51-15 over his first five years at the helm of the program, including winning four conference championships (2012, 2013, 2014, and 2016*) and qualifying for the NCAA Football Championship Playoffs all five seasons.

During that span, the Chanticleers finished each year ranked in the top 25 nationally and ranked as high as the No. 1 team in the country in both 2014 and 2015.

CCU also won the program's first-ever postseason game in 2012, won a league-record 12 games and reached the NCAA quarterfinals in 2013, and went on to match both those feats the following season in 2014. The Chants were ranked No. 1 in the FCS for eight straight weeks in 2015 and went 10-2 in 2016, their first year in the transition to the FBS level.

He coached five Walter Payton/FCS National Offensive Player of the Year finalists, four Buck Buchanan/FCS National Defensive Player of the Year finalists, 33 All-Americans, and the 2014 FCS Athletic Director's Association Top Collegiate Linebacker in Quinn Backus.

While Moglia is like most coaches in putting a true emphasis on the three phases of the game — offense, defense, and special teams — his outside-the-box thinking on how to achieve this goal with his staff was visionary. On that level, he has just one standard "Be A Man" — better known as "BAM" — where his student-athletes are expected to "stand on their own two feet, take responsibility for their actions, always treat others with dignity and respect, and recognize they will live with the consequences of their actions."

Niccolo Mastromatteo received the 2013 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete Award and was a post-graduate scholarship recipient; Alex Ross was named 2015 CoSIDA Division I Academic All-America; 10 players earned CoSIDA Academic All-District honors; and 14 received a spot on the National Football Foundation Hampshire Honor Society.

In 2017, Coach Moglia's program was recognized, along with Northwestern, by the National Football Foundation & College Hall of Fame with 18 players seeking a second degree, the most graduates of any school nationally. Over his tenure, almost 50 players pursued their graduate studies while still eligible.

In his first season in 2012, Moglia led Coastal Carolina to an 8-5 record overall, a 5-1 league mark and a share of the 2012 Big South championship. The Chanticleers earned the league's automatic bid to the NCAA Division I FCS Championship, where he directed the program to its first win in the NCAA playoffs and led CCU to a ranking of 24th in both of the final national polls.

Coastal made huge strides across the board in his first season. One of the biggest was Coastal going from 100th nationally in yards penalized and 90th in the number of penalties to leading the Big South and ranking 17th nationally in fewest penalty yards and 18th in fewest penalties per game. Offensively in Moglia's first year, the team went from 90th to 18th nationally in total offense. While on defense, linebacker Quinn Backus was named an All-American and the Big South Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, Coastal's special teams truly became a weapon, safely converting five two-point conversions with Niccolo Mastromatteo and Tre Henderson each ranking 13th nationally in punt and kick returns, respectively. A total of 12 all-Big South honors were bestowed upon Moglia's players in his first season including first-team picks.

His second season was even more spectacular in 2013. The Chanticleers, ranked as high as No. 3 during the season, posted a 12-3 record overall, and went 4-1 in the Big South to win a second Big South title. Coastal won two playoff games, including victories versus No. 12 Bethune-Cookman at home and an improbable 42-35 win at No. 4 Montana before falling to top-ranked North Dakota State in the FCS quarterfinals and finishing ranked seventh in both national polls. At season's end, CCU set 25 individual and 23 team single-season records while establishing 17 Big South offensive team seasons records.

In 2013, Coastal Carolina defeated four conference champions and was 4-2 against teams in the final national polls. Coastal Carolina led the Big South in 12 categories while ranking among the NCAA FCS top 10 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (1st), fewest blocked punts allowed (1-1st), red zone offense (3rd), third-down conversions (2nd), fourth-down conversions (2nd), scoring offense (5th), first downs (5th), fewest fumbles lost (7th), rushing offense (8th), and passing efficiency (8th).

Individually, Backus not only repeated as the Big South Defensive Player of the Year, but he was also a consensus All-American and a finalist for the Buck Buchanan National Defensive Player of the Year Award. The honors did not stop there. Running back Lorenzo Taliaferro was also a consensus All-American as well as the Big South Offensive Player of the Year, and a finalist for the Walter Payton National Player of the Year Award. Taliaferro and Matt Hazel went on to represent CCU in the Senior Bowl and East-West Shrine Bowl, both were invited to the NFL Combine in Indianapolis, and they became the first pair of Big South teammates to be drafted in the same year — Taliaferro in the fourth round and Hazel in the sixth. In addition, LaDarius Hawthorne was tabbed the Big South Special Teams Player of the Year; Jamey Cheatwood earned All-American honors; Mastromatteo was one of 16 college football players (all divisions) to earn an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame; and a total of 16 Chanticleers earned All-Big South recognition.

Year three was even more impressive. The Chants (12-2, 4-1) won their first 11 games and were ranked No. 1 in the nation the final two weeks of the regular season in 2014. Coastal was a No. 7 national seed, earning a first-round bye to the NCAA FCS Championship and defeated nationally-ranked Richmond to advance to the NCAA quarterfinals for the second-straight season. Coastal led defending and eventual national champion North Dakota State in the fourth quarter before falling to the Bison. Moglia helped CCU establish league records by winning 11-straight games to start the season, winning seven road games in one season and starting a season at least 9-0 in consecutive years. Coastal's 24 wins in 2013 and 2014 were the second-best total in the nation, trailing only North Dakota State.

In 2015, Coastal won its first eight games and was ranked No. 1 in the nation for eight consecutive weeks. The Chants once again earned a berth to the NCAA postseason and hosted a first-round contest. For this and his many contributions, Moglia won the 2015 Eddie Robinson Award as the nation's top FCS coach and was selected the South Carolina Football Hall of Fame's Humanitarian of the Year.

In addition to leading CCU to a No. 1 ranking for eight weeks and his individual honors in 2015, Moglia coached All-Americans De'Angelo Henderson and Devin Brown, while Alex Ross was named both CoSIDA Academic All-America and American Football Coaches Association All-America. Coastal once again did well in the Big South year-end individual honors as Henderson was the Offense Player of the Year, Brown the Special Teams Player of the Year, and Ross the Scholar-Athlete of the Year. In fact, Ross, who owns nearly every CCU passing and total offense record, became the first Big South player to be a three-time first-team All-Big South selection as well as being the first player to be both a Player of the Year and a Scholar-Athlete of the Year.

The 2016 season was unusual, as Coastal was in the first year in its transition from the FCS to the FBS. The Chants played the season as an FCS independent (not a member of a conference nor eligible for the NCAA postseason) and played a full FCS schedule. Coastal went 10-2, with both losses coming to FCS top 10 programs, and finished the year ranked 18th in the national poll. However, CCU did play most of its previous rivals and went 5-1 versus former league foes to be co-conference champions*. Also, with Coastal's strong resume and being ranked No. 11 in the NCAA's SRS (a tool to help pick the NCAA field for the national championship), the Chanticleers would make its fifth postseason appearance*.

The 2016 season saw both Henderson (Walter Payton Award) and Alex Scearce (Buck Buchanan Award) be finalists for their respective national Player of the Year honors. Henderson, Scearce and Voghens Larrieux each earned all-American honors. Henderson, who set an NCAA Division I record by scoring a touchdown in 35-consecutive games, went on to be a sixth-round pick by the Denver Broncos.

After five seasons on the sidelines at CCU, on July 28, 2017, Moglia announced he would take a five-month medical sabbatical and Jamey Chadwell was named interim head coach.

Following a one-year hiatus from the sidelines in 2017, Moglia resumed his coaching duties on Jan. 5, 2018.

In only their second full season as an FBS and Sun Belt Conference member, the Chanticleers exceeded preseason expectations going 5-7 overall, including posting the program's first-ever wins over UAB (47-24), Campbell (58-21), Louisiana (30-28), and Georgia State (37-34).

The Chants' offense led the Sun Belt and ranked in the top 25 nationally in rushing yards per game, red zone offense, time of possession, first downs, and both third and fourth-down conversion percentage for much of the season in 2018, and finished the year ranked second in the league and in the top 10 nationally in fewest penalties, fewest penalties per game, and fewest penalty yards.

Three players in Jeffrey Gunter (first team), Massimo Biscardi (third team), and Tarron Jackson (third team) were named Sun Belt All-Conference, while four other Chants in Malcolm Williams, Trey Carter, Silas Kelly, and Connor Kubala earned honorable mention honors. Gunter was recognized as a finalist for the 2018 Blanchard-Rogers Award (South Carolina's Heisman), an award that goes out to the most outstanding collegiate player of the year that has South Carolina ties by the South Carolina Football Hall of Fame (SCFHOF), while Biscardi was tabbed a semifinalist for the Lou Groza National Collegiate Place-Kicker Award presented annually to college football's top place-kicker.

Moglia, who coached the "Stars Team" at the 2011 Eastham Energy College All-Star Game, coached the Nighthawks in the third year of the UFL's existence in 2011. Moglia's team led the UFL in passing offense, sacks, tackles for loss, punt returns, and blocked kicks. Also, the Nighthawks produced the 2011 UFL Defensive Player of the Year, Stuart Schweigert. Moglia joined an elite roster of UFL head coaches including Dennis Green, Jim Fassel, Marty Schottenheimer, and Jerry Glanville.

From 2009-10, Moglia served as executive advisor to the head football coach at the University of Nebraska in preparation for achieving his original lifelong pursuit, being a collegiate head football coach. In his two seasons at Nebraska, the Cornhuskers won two Big 12 North championships and played in the Holiday Bowl each season. In 2010, Cornhusker football student-athletes elected Moglia to receive Nebraska's prestigious U.S. Grant Sharp Admiral's Trophy for Leadership and Service.

HEAD COACH TIM BECK

A 35-year coaching veteran, Tim Beck was named the fourth head football coach in Coastal Carolina's history, Chair of Athletics, Executive Director for Football, and Executive Adviser for the President Joe Moglia announced on Dec. 4, 2022. Beck brings with him 18 years of Power 5 coaching experience to CCU, including spending the last 12 years as an offensive coordinator at Nebraska, Ohio State, Texas, and NC State.

As the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at NC State from 2020-22, Beck helped lead the Wolfpack to three-consecutive eight-plus win seasons, three-straight bowl appearances, and a combined record of 25-11.

As a collegiate coach, he has helped guide teams to 17 postseason bowl games. Beck has also coached in a postseason bowl game in every year since 2007, including helping Ohio State compete in the College Football Playoff in 2016.

"I have known Tim since my return to coaching 13 years ago at Nebraska. He is an excellent coach and coordinator, and has always had the best interest of his players, coaches, and school at heart," stated Moglia. "I take a lot of pride in what our program has accomplished in the last 10 years. Tim will do a great job of building on that."

In 2022, NC State finished the regular season at 8-4 overall and was ranked as high as No. 16 in the College Football Playoff Rankings and was most recently ranked No. 25 in the latest rankings.

NC State was also ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll for 11-straight weeks and in the USA TODAY Sports AFCA Coaches Poll for 12 consecutive weeks this season, reaching as high as No. 10 in both national polls in week four (Sept. 25).

Despite losing Heisman Trophy contender quarterback Devin Leary in a 19-17 win over Florida State in Week 6 (Oct. 8), Beck's offense was able to regroup and help the Wolfpack finish out the regular season with wins over Virginia Tech and nationally-ranked in-state foes Wake Forest and North Carolina.

"I could not be more excited to be the Head Football Coach at Coastal Carolina University. The complete alignment between Dr. Benson, Joe Moglia, and Matt Hogue has helped establish a championship program that is a tremendous fit for me and my family," said Coach Beck. "I fully embrace the expectations for how we will run this program each and every day. Coastal is a special place with special people. We are humbled and honored to become a part of the Chanticleer family and the Conway community."

Recognized as the nation's eighth-best recruiter by 247Sports.com in 2020, Beck has been a three-time nominee for the Broyles Award, an award given to the nation's top assistant coach in all of FBS.

In each of his last two seasons in Raleigh, N.C., Beck's offense has ranked in the top half of the highly-touted Atlantic Coastal Conference (ACC) in scoring offense, total offense, and passing offense, while continuing to set program records along the way.

Under Beck's tutelage, Leary set a new NC State school record for most touchdown passes in a single season in 2021 with 35. He became one of just three quarterbacks in ACC history to post a 3,400-yard and 35-touchdown regular season. He also passed for 27 touchdowns in ACC play, a mark that led the conference, and he became the first Pack quarterback to throw for four or more touchdowns against five ACC opponents.

Despite starting two different quarterbacks in 2020, Beck's offense posted some of the top offensive marks in school history: passing yards (3,154, 11th), passing yards per game (252.8, 9th), completion percentage (.628, 5th), scoring (363 pts, 12th), first downs (267, 10th), fewest turnovers (19, 10th), and fewest fumbles lost (4, 1st).

Both starting quarterbacks in 2020 finished the season with some of the top passing efficiency marks in school history. Leary's 148.33 mark is second in school history only to Philip Rivers, while Bailey Hockman's 138.08 mark ranks sixth in school history.

"We are delighted to welcome Tim, Tamara, and family to Coastal Carolina University. With his daughter, Haylie, having played volleyball here at CCU, they are very familiar with our community and I know they will receive a warm Chanticleer reception," stated Coastal Carolina University President Michael T. Benson. "Coach Beck has worked in some of the nation's premier football programs, and his reputation speaks for itself. We have every confidence that he and his staff will recruit, retain, and develop exceptional student-athletes as our program continues to advance.”

Prior to joining the Wolfpack in 2020, Beck coached for three years as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Texas from 2017-19.

Under his guidance, Texas’ offense ranked among the nation’s most prolific. In 2019, the Longhorns ranked 17th nationally in scoring (35.2 ppg), 17th in completion percentage (.651), 20th in passing offense (289.3), 12th in red zone offense (.920), and 14th in total offense (465.8). The offense also converted 86-of-175 (49.1 percent) of its third downs in 2019, the ninth-best conversion rate in all of FBS.

While in Austin, Texas, he mentored Longhorn quarterback Sam Ehlinger, who posted some of the top marks nationally in 2019, ranking fourth nationally in total offense, ninth in passing yards, and 13th in touchdown passes in the regular season. He was the sixth Longhorn quarterback, and first since Colt McCoy (2006-09) to rush for 1,000 yards. For the year, Ehlinger was 284-of-436 for 3,462 yards and 29 touchdowns and rushed for 4,590 yards and six touchdowns on 152 carries in 2019. He accounted for 4,052 yards of total offense, the third-most in school history, and 35 total touchdowns, which ranks fourth in Texas history, in 2019. He was a semifinalist for the Maxwell Award, Davey O’Brien Award, Wuerffel Trophy, and Earl Campbell Tyler Rose Award.

Texas featured a dynamic offensive attack in 2018 behind Ehlinger, who passed for 3,292 yards and accounted for 41 touchdowns (25 passing and 16 rushing), becoming the first player in UT history to pass for at least 25 touchdowns and rush for at least 15 in a season. Receivers Lil’Jordan Humphrey and Collin Johnson combined for 2,261 receiving yards, the second most for a duo in UT history, and 16 touchdowns on the season.

Controlling the ball while keeping it secure, the offense ranked 22nd in the nation in time of possession despite playing in the fast-paced Big 12, along with being 12th in total first downs. Texas was also tied for fourth in turnovers lost with just 11 and had a total of five turnover free-games for the season, including three straight full games without a turnover.

The Longhorns’ youth shined on the offensive side of the ball in 2017, as the previous two recruiting classes (sophomores, redshirt, and true freshmen) combined to make 66 starts. At quarterback, sophomore Shane Buechele and true freshman Ehlinger combined for 3,320 passing yards and 18 touchdowns. Ehlinger was also the Longhorns’ leading rusher with 385 yards, becoming the first Texas quarterback since McCoy in 2008 to lead UT in both passing and rushing.

“We are thrilled to welcome Tim and his family to Teal Nation. His coaching pedigree is elite and he provides the right mixture of experience and skill to best navigate the new world of college football roster management. He is well poised to build upon the solid tradition and success of our program,” said Vice President for Intercollegiate Athletics and University Recreation Matt Hogue.

At Ohio State from 2015-16, Beck’s offenses helped lead the Buckeyes to back-to-back double-digit win seasons, going 12-1 in 2015 and 11-2 in 2016.

Ohio State featured one of the top offenses in the nation in 2016 en route to an 11-2 record and an appearance in the College Football Playoff. The Buckeyes’ offense ranked 14th in the FBS in scoring offense with an average of 39.4 points per game. The rushing attack ranked 12th nationally at 245.2 yards per game, which led the Big Ten, while the team’s completion percentage (62.3 percent) also led the conference.

A large part of the offense’s success was due to the play of quarterback J.T. Barrett, who owns the school record for touchdowns responsible for with 100. For the season, Barrett posted 3,400 total yards (2,555 passing and 845 rushing) and accounted for 33 touchdowns (24 passing and nine rushing). He was one of two players to share the 2016 Chicago Tribune Silver Football Award, which is voted on by the conference head coaches and awarded to the Big Ten MVP, and he was also named the conference quarterback of the year.

In 2015, Ohio State’s offense featured a ground game that ranked 11th in the nation, matching the 2016 team with a 245.2 yards per game average. Much like in 2016, the Buckeyes also ranked in the top 30 in the country in completion percentage at 62.8 percent (29th), while their 35.7 scoring average ranked 28th.

HEAD COACH TIM BECK

Beck coached two starting quarterbacks in 2015 in Cardale Jones and Barrett, and Ohio State ranked second in the Big Ten in passing efficiency with a 140.0 rating. The duo helped Ohio State to the fifth-highest totals in school history in points scored (464) and touchdowns (62). Jones went on to be a fourth-round pick by the Buffalo Bills in the 2016 NFL Draft. The offense also featured All-America running back Ezekiel Elliott, who was named Big Ten Offensive Player of the Year and MVP. Ohio State finished the season with a 12-1 record, capped by a Fiesta Bowl win over Notre Dame.

Beck went to Ohio State following a seven-year stint at Nebraska, four as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach (2011-14), and three as the running backs coach (2008-10). He was named a nominee for the Broyles Award as the nation's top assistant coach in both 2012 and 2013.

Between 2011-14, Beck's Nebraska offenses ranked among the best in the Big Ten Conference and his passing attack amassed more than 10,000 yards during that time with 86 touchdowns. In his four seasons as coordinator, the Huskers averaged 33.5 points per game. The Huskers broke more than 50 individual records, including career marks for passing yards, completions, passing touchdowns, yards from scrimmage, and total offense.

In 2012, Nebraska totaled 2,500 rushing and passing yards in the same season for the first time in school history. The Huskers accomplished the feat again in both 2013 and 2014, despite using three starting quarterbacks during the 2013 season.

On the ground, Nebraska ranked in the top 20 nationally in rushing every season with Beck as coordinator. Five Huskers posted a 1,000-yard rushing season in his four seasons calling plays, including second-team All-American and Doak Walker Award finalist Ameer Abdullah, who ranked 12th nationally with 1,611 rushing yards in 2014. Abdullah, a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award and first-team All-Big Ten honoree in 2013, rushed for a conference-best 1,690 yards that year, the highest total by a Husker since 1997. He went on to become a second-round pick by the Detroit Lions in the 2015 NFL Draft.

Through the air, two of Nebraska's top six passing seasons in school history came under Beck's direction. Quarterbacks excelled under Beck with Taylor Martinez enjoying an outstanding career where he set more than 40 school records. He was the league coaches' choice as the All-Big Ten Conference quarterback following the 2012 regular season.

In 2011, All-Big Ten back Rex Burkhead tied a school record by scoring a touchdown in 10 consecutive games to open the season. His 17 touchdowns were seventh in NU history and the most by a Husker since Heisman Trophy winner Eric Crouch scored 19 touchdowns in 2001. Burkhead finished with 1,357 rushing yards, the seventh-most in school history and the most by a Husker I-back since 1997.

As the running backs coach in 2010, the Huskers ranked seventh nationally with an average of 5.47 yards per carry. Nebraska also posted its first 2,500-yard rushing season since 2003 and scored 30 rushing touchdowns for the first time since 2001.

Two-time All-Big 12 selection Roy Helu Jr. ran for a career-high 1,245 yards, the second-highest total by a senior running back in NU history, before being selected in the fourth round of the 2011 NFL Draft. Helu Jr. became the first Husker to post back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons since Calvin Jones in 1992 and 1993.

In 2009, Nebraska outrushed 11 of 14 opponents. Helu Jr. rushed for 1,147 yards and ranked fourth in the Big 12 to earn second-team All-Big 12 honors. In his first year, NU ranked third in the league in rushing (182.5 ypg).

Prior to Nebraska, Beck was at Kansas where he was the Jayhawks' receivers coach in each of his three seasons (2005-07). He was promoted to passing game coordinator in 2007.

Kansas finished second nationally in scoring offense in 2007 (42.8 ppg), eighth in total offense (479.8 ypg), and 17th in passing (291.0 ypg). The Jayhawks went 12-1 with a 24-21 victory over Virginia Tech in the FedEx Orange Bowl and finished with a final national ranking of No. 7. Marcus Henry led the team in receiving yards with 1,014 and was named second-team All-Big 12.

Beck came to KU as one of the most respected high school coaches in the state of Texas, serving three seasons at Summit High in Mansfield. He was the 2003 District Coach of the Year, and a season later, Summit High advanced to the quarterfinals of the state playoffs with a 9-4 record.

Beck was head coach at R.L. Turner High in Carrollton, Texas, from 1999-2001, leading the school to back-to-back playoff appearances and consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 25 years. Beck was named the district coach of the year in 2000.

Prior to coaching in the Texas prep ranks, Beck worked at Missouri State for three seasons from 1996-98, including one season as the offensive coordinator. In 1998, the MSU offense racked up 4,542 total yards - the fourth-best mark in school history.

Beck was hired at Missouri State after leading Saguaro High School in Scottsdale, Ariz., to the 1995 4A state championship – the school's first state title. Beck was named the regional coach of the year in 1994, and in his final two seasons at the school, Saguaro compiled a 23-4 record, compared to a 5-43 mark in the five seasons prior to his arrival.

Beck started his coaching career as an assistant at Miramar (Fla.) High School in 1988-89 and then moved to Illinois State as outside linebackers and punters coach in 1990. He spent two seasons on Bill Snyder's Kansas State staff (1991-92) as a graduate assistant.

An Ohio native, Beck played one year of football at Central Florida (1985), and he graduated from there in 1988 with a degree in liberal studies. He also has a master's in counseling and guidance from Kansas State University (1992).

Beck and his wife, Tamara, have two children – a son, Jordan, and a daughter, Haylie Marie. Haylie is a 2021 graduate of Coastal Carolina and was a member of the volleyball team from 2017-19 and the beach volleyball team from 2018-19.

TRAVIS TRICKETT

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

@COACHTRICKETT

Travis Trickett joined head coach Tim Beck's staff in December 2022 as the Chanticleers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

Trickett, who has worked on staffs with notable coaches such as Bobby Bowden, Jimbo Fisher, Nick Saban, and Rich Rodriguez, has served eight seasons as an offensive coordinator with stints at South Florida (2022), Georgia State (2017-18), Florida Atlantic (2016), and Samford (2012-15).

Trickett came to Coastal after serving one season at South Florida as the Bulls' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2022.

In his lone season as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at USF in 2022, Trickett oversaw a major improvement in the Bulls' offensive production despite guiding an offense that had a first-year primary ball carrier, three different starting quarterbacks, and saw 14 projected starters or members of the two deep miss all or parts of the season.

Trickett orchestrated major improvements in total offense (350.9 to 390.8 ypg), rushing offense (158.5 to 197.9 ypg), scoring offense (23.2 to 28.0 ppg), third down conversions (34.3 to 39.1 percent), red zone conversions (76.7 to 85.1 percent), pass efficiency (107.56 to 130.22), passing touchdowns (6 to 18), 100-yard rushers (3 to 10), and explosive plays (83 to 96) from 2021.

The Bulls posted seven 200-yard rushing games on the year and 25 rushing touchdowns for the second-straight season. The South Florida rushing offense ranked 28th nationally with an average of 197.9 ypg, posted 5.4 yards per carry, and averaged 6.1 yards per play, which all rank in the top five of the Bulls' single-season record book.

Sophomore running back Brian Battie became just the sixth 1,000-yard rusher in program history and first since 2018, as he ran for a career-best 1,186 yards and eight touchdowns to finish second in rushing in the AAC and log the sixth-best rushing season in USF history. Battie tied a USF record with five-straight 100-yard rushing games to end the 2022 campaign and his seven 100-yard games on the year rank third all-time in a season at USF. His 98.8 yards per game average ranked fifth in program history and his 6.7 yards per carry ranked fourth. Battie also set a program record with 1,936 all-purpose yards on the year, adding 659 kick return yards and 14 catches for 91 receiving yards to his rushing total.

Meanwhile, wide receiver Xavier Weaver posted career-bests of 53 catches for 718 yards and six touchdowns, posting the fifth-best season in program history in receptions and yardage. Wide receiver Jimmy Horn Jr. caught eight passes for 180 yards vs. ECU for the fourth-best receiving yardage game in program history and walk-on Sean Atkins posted nine catches for 115 yards and a touchdown at Tulsa for the ninth-best reception total in program history.

USF posted four of its top five offensive yardage games of the season in its final five games, despite starting a sophomore, backup quarterback for three games and a true-freshman, backup quarterback for two after losing junior starter Gerry Bohanon to a shoulder injury in Game 7. The Bulls averaged 444.38 yards and 31.8 ppg over that stretch with numerous starters missing beyond the quarterback, including the team's leading receiver for the last two games. The Bulls' three quarterbacks combined to complete 57 percent of their passes for 2,301 yards, 18 touchdowns, and nine interceptions on the year.

He ventured to South Florida after serving three seasons on Neal Brown's staff at his alma mater West Virginia as the inside receivers and tight ends coach from 2019-21.

In 2021, inside wide receiver Winston Wright Jr. earned Big 12 All-Conference honors for the second straight year, adding honorable-mention honors to his 2020 second-team selection, as he led the Mountaineers in receiving for the second straight year posting 63 catches for 688 yards and five touchdowns.

In 2020, West Virginia had one of the most improved offenses in the nation in terms of total yards, showing gains of more than 60 yards rushing per game, almost 30 yards passing, more than 90 yards of total offense, and almost seven more points a game. Wright Jr. was a second-team all-conference selection after leading the Mountaineers with 47 catches for 553 yards and two touchdowns, while tight end Mike O'Laughlin finished with 15 catches for 137 yards and a touchdown.

Trickett previously served as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Georgia State for two seasons from 2017-18.

In 2018, his quarterback, Dan Ellington, threw only five interceptions in 292 pass attempts to rank No. 2 in the Sun Belt Conference and No. 14 in the nation. Wide receiver Penny Hart, a three-time All-Sun Belt selection, finished his career as the fourth-leading receiver in conference history and was selected to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl. Offensive lineman Hunter Atkinson also was named to the all-league team.

In 2017, the Panthers finished with a school-record seven wins, marking their first winning season at the FBS level. Trickett's offense established school records for the highest completion percentage and fewest interceptions in a season (9) as well as the most total yards in a game (670) and the most points against an FBS opponent (47). Quarterback Conner Manning earned All-Sun Belt honors and was the most valuable player in the Panthers' bowl win over Western Kentucky, the first bowl game victory in school history. Hart led the league with a school-record 74 receptions for 1,121 yards and eight touchdowns.

In 2016, Trickett served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Florida Atlantic. His offensive unit set FAU season records for rushing yards (2,519), yards per carry (4.8), and rushing touchdowns (31), as well as most yards in a game (647), while the Owls receiving corps produced seven 100-yard efforts.

Prior to FAU, Trickett served five seasons at Samford, including the last four as the Bulldogs' offensive coordinator. He helped Samford record five straight winning seasons, highlighted by a Southern Conference championship and NCAA FCS playoff berth in 2013. He coached 23 all-conference selections in four years as the play-caller.

COACHING STAFF

In 2015, Trickett employed a pair of quarterbacks, and the duo led the nation in completion percentage (69.7 percent) while combining for 3,662 yards and 22 touchdowns passing. The Bulldogs posted a season-high 752 yards against Florida A&M and set school season records for completions (324) and first downs (324).

Samford's 2014 offense averaged more than 30 points per game while posting the program's largest margin of victory in a Southern Conference game (45-0 at Furman) and the program's largest output in a SoCon game (63 points vs. VMI).

In 2013, he mentored record-setting quarterback Andy Summerlin, the Southern Conference Player of the Year, who passed for a school-record 3,640 yards.

Trickett coached the slot receivers and tight ends in his first season at Samford in 2011.

Trickett's coaching experience also includes graduate assistantships at Florida State and Alabama. He spent three seasons (2008-10) with the Seminoles, working under Bobby Bowden and Jimbo Fisher, and before that, was an offensive graduate assistant on Nick Saban's Crimson Tide staff in 2007.

During these two stints, he worked with quarterbacks Christian Ponder and E.J. Manuel at FSU and John Parker Wilson and Greg McElroy at Alabama.

Trickett began his coaching career as a student assistant at West Virginia from 2003-07, where he served under coach Rich Rodriguez and worked with record-setting quarterback Pat White.

A native of Hattiesburg, Miss., Trickett earned his bachelor's degree in business administration and marketing from West Virginia in 2007 and his master's degree from Florida State in sports administration in 2009.

Trickett, and his wife, Tiffany, also a WVU graduate with a bachelor's degree in nursing, have three children, Maverick, Camilla, and Holden.

His father, Rick Trickett, is currently the offensive line coach at Jacksonville State. A long-time, well-respected collegiate coach, he had notable stints at West Virginia, Mississippi State, Auburn, LSU, and Florida State under Jimbo Fisher, helping win the 2013 BCS National Championship.

His younger brother, Clint, is currently the offensive coordinator at Marshall, helping orchestrate a huge upset at Notre Dame early in the 2022 season, and played quarterback at Florida State (2010-12) and West Virginia (2013-14).

His younger brother, Chance, is a scout for the NFL's Los Angeles Rams.

CRAIG NAIVAR

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / SAFETIES

 @COACH_NAIVAR

With nearly 30 years of experience, including in the Pac-12 and Big 12, Craig Naivar joined head coach Tim Beck's staff as the defensive coordinator and safeties coach in December 2022.

Naivar was on the same coaching staff as Coach Beck at Texas from 2017-19.

The native Texan came to Coastal Carolina after one year at SMU as the Mustangs' special teams coordinator and safeties coach in 2022.

In his one season at SMU, the Mustangs' special teams unit led the American Athletic Conference in blocked punts with four and was second in the league in net punting at 41.02 yards, both of which ranked in the top 25 in all of FBS. The unit also ranked fourth in the AAC in punt return defense (5.75 ypr) and punt returns (9.47 ypr).

He also mentored safety Nick Roberts, who had a team-high three interceptions, two forced fumbles, and two fumble recoveries, while also ranking third in total tackles on the team with 64.0 on the season.

Prior to his time at SMU, Naivar spent two seasons as the safeties coach at USC from 2020-21, where he mentored Talanoa Hufanga to consensus first-team All-America and Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year honors in 2020.

From 2017-19, he served as the safeties coach at Texas, while also serving stints as the special teams coordinator (2017-18) and co-defensive coordinator (2019).

Naivar helped the Longhorns to a win in the 2019 Alamo Bowl, limiting No. 12 Utah to just 254 total yards and 15 first downs. He coached Caden Sterns to Big 12 Defensive Freshman of the Year honors in 2018 and Jim Thorpe Award Finalist DeShon Elliott to unanimous All-America honors in 2017. That year, Texas also had one of the nation's top punt units, led by 2017 Ray Guy Award winner, Big 12 Special Teams Player of the Year, and unanimous All-American Michael Dickson. Dickson averaged a program-record 47.4 yards per punt and the Longhorn's net average (44.2) led the nation.

During the 2015 and 2016 seasons, he was Houston's co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach.

In his two seasons at Houston, the Cougars compiled a 22-5 record. In 2016, the Cougars ranked fourth in rushing defense, 13th in total defense, and 14th in sacks and tackles-for-loss. The 2015 season saw top-20 rankings in rushing defense (eighth) and scoring defense (20th), as UH was crowned the American Athletic Conference Champions, won the Peach Bowl, and finished No. 8 in the AP Poll.

Naivar spent the 2014 season at Kentucky, serving as special teams coordinator and safeties coach. His defense registered 15 interceptions, ranking 22nd nationally, after posting just eight picks in the two seasons prior to his arrival. Kick returner Stanley Williams and placekicker Austin MacGinnis were named freshman All-Americans.

In his second of two stints at Texas State in 2011-13, Naivar coached Michael Ebbitt to 2011 Independent Defensive Player of the Year honors and mentored NFL talent in linebacker Joplo Bartu and cornerback Darryl Morris.

In his first stint with the Bobcats in 2004-06, the Bobcats finished the 2005 season at 11-3, made an appearance in the FCS semifinals, and finished in the top 25 in both scoring defense and total defense. He led Fred Evans to Southland Conference Newcomer of the Year honors in 2004 and AFCA All-America, conference player of the year, and conference defensive player of the year honors in 2005.

COACHING STAFF

Naivar served as the co-defensive coordinator and safeties coach (2007-09) and special teams coordinator and defensive line coach (2010) at Rice in between his stops at Texas State.

At Rice, he helped Kyle Martens pick up All-America honors in 2010. The Owls ranked 26th in the nation in punt returns and had the nation's 10th-best kickoff returner, Charles Ross. Kicker Chris Boswell earned All-Conference USA first-team honors.

In 2001, he helped Sam Houston to an appearance in the FCS quarterfinals and spent four seasons overall with the Bearkats, working as the special teams coordinator and defensive coordinator, as well as working with the defensive line and safeties.

Naivar also had stints at Southern Illinois (1998-99), New Mexico (1996-97), and Hardin-Simmons (1994-95). A four-year letterwinner at Hardin-Simmons from 1990-94, Naivar played safety and quarterback. As a team captain his senior year, he earned all-conference honors and helped the Cowboys to a conference championship and a trip to the NCAA FCS DI national semifinals.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1994 and went on to earn a master's degree in sports management in 1996. Naivar attended Taylor High School in Texas. He and his wife, Michelle, have two children – Jordan and Gunner.

DAN CARREL

CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR / LINEBACKERS

@DANCARREL

Dan Carrel joined head coach Tim Beck's coaching staff as the co-defensive coordinator and linebackers coach in January 2023.

Carrel returns to the college ranks after spending one year as the defensive coordinator for the Michigan Panthers under head coach Jeff Fisher in the United States Football League (USFL).

Despite going 2-8 overall in 2022, the Panthers' defense was one of the better defensive units in the USFL on the season. The Panthers also recorded the only shutout victory of the 2022 USFL season, a 24-0 win over the Pittsburgh Maulers. Carrel coached Frank Ginda, who was second in the USFL in total tackles for the year.

Before coaching in the USFL, Carrel spent two seasons at UMass, serving as a defensive analyst in 2020 and the linebackers coach in 2021.

As the linebackers coach in 2021, Carrel tutored UMass' leading tackler Jalen Mackie, who finished the season with a team-high 100 tackles, 15.0 tackles-for-loss, 3.5 sacks, one interception, and one pass breakup.

During the four-game COVID-shortened season in 2020, Carrel worked with linebackers Cole McCubrey and Mike Ruane, who finished No. 1 and No. 2 on the team in tackles with a combined 64 made, including 5.0 TFLs.

Prior to his arrival at UMass, Carrel spent one year at New Mexico as the team's inside linebackers coach in 2019. Carrel tutored a pair of impact performers for the Lobos in Alex Hart and Alexander Vainikolo during his lone season at UNM. Hart, an All-Mountain West Conference honoree, filled the stats sheet with a team-leading 82 tackles, as well as 11.5 tackles-for-loss, 4.0 sacks, five pass breakups, an interception, and a forced fumble. Vainikolo posted a team-best 11.5 tackles-for-loss among his 76 tackles (second-most on the team) and also added 3.0 sacks.

Carrel held multiple roles as a member of the University of Houston coaching staff for four seasons, including two as a graduate assistant (2015-16), followed by two as the program's outside linebackers coach (2017-18).

The Houston defense ranked nationally in a multitude of categories during Carrel's four seasons, including fourth in rushing defense and 13th for total defense during 2016. The Flushing, Ohio, native tutored a pair of All-AAC standouts during his two seasons as the outside linebackers coach, including Emeke Egbule in 2019 and Khalil Williams during 2018.

The Cougars reached the postseason in all four of Carrel's years with the program, with appearances in the 2015 Peach Bowl, 2016 Las Vegas Bowl, 2017 Hawai'i Bowl, and 2018 Armed Forces Bowl. During his tenure, Houston went a combined 37-15 overall and 22-10 in the AAC.

Carrel previously served on staff at Ohio State (2013) and Kentucky (2014). He began his coaching career at West Liberty University (W.Va.) as a graduate assistant in 2012, where he played linebacker for the Hilltoppers from 2008-11. He graduated from West Liberty, Magna Cum Laude, as a dual-major in health sciences and physical education.

Carrel and his wife, Jamontenae, were married in 2017 and have three sons: Rocco, Vito, and Leo.

JIMMY BRUMBAUGH

DEFENSIVE LINE / DEFENSIVE RUN GAME COOR.

@COACHBRUMBAUGH

A former All-SEC defensive lineman, Jimmy Brumbaugh joined head coach Tim Beck's staff as the defensive line coach and defensive run game coordinator in January 2023.

Brumbaugh came to Coastal Carolina after one season at his alma mater Auburn in 2022.

Brumbaugh, who has nearly 20 years of coaching experience, helped the Tigers' defense rank in the top half of the SEC in sacks with an average of 2.17 last season. He also coached edge rusher Derick Hall, who was voted to the Coaches All-SEC first team, as he recorded 7.0 sacks and 12.0 tackles-for-loss among 60 tackles as a senior in 2022 while forcing two fumbles and making an interception. Hall also earned the Freddie Solomon Community Spirit Award from the Premier Players Foundation of Tampa.

He returned to the Plains after serving as a defensive line analyst at Oregon in 2021, helping the Ducks to a 10-4 record and a top 25 finish.

Over the 2019 and 2020 seasons, Brumbaugh was the defensive line coach at Colorado and the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Tennessee. Before joining the staff at Colorado, Brumbaugh was the co-defensive coordinator and defensive line coach at Maryland for two seasons from 2017-18.

He had spent the prior four seasons at Kentucky from 2013-16, establishing himself as one of the top defensive line coaches in the country. He also served as an assistant coach at Louisiana Tech (2008-09) and Syracuse (2010-11), and was an assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at LSU (2006-07). At LSU, Brumbaugh helped the Tigers win a BCS National Championship in 2007.

A total of 17 players developed under Brumbaugh have been selected in the NFL Draft, including six first-rounders.

During his time as a player at Auburn from 1995-99, Brumbaugh started 44 of his 48 career games, recording 291 tackles and 15 sacks. Brumbaugh was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1995 and garnered second-team All-SEC honors as a sophomore in 1996 before earning first-team All-SEC accolades as a junior in 1997.

Brumbaugh was a member of the Tigers' 1997 SEC Western Division champion team. He played in only three games in 1998 due to injury. He was granted a medical hardship waiver and had 51 tackles, six sacks, and three fumble recoveries after returning for the 1999 season.

Brumbaugh played in the Blue-Gray Classic All-Star Game following the 1999 campaign and participated in preseason camp with the San Francisco 49ers in 2000 after signing as an undrafted free agent.

Brumbaugh returned to Auburn after his pro career to finish up his degree, graduating in 2004. He then got into coaching, starting out as a student assistant for Jacksonville State, which won the 2004 Ohio Valley Conference. His first full-time position followed the next year, as he was the defensive line coach at Chattanooga in 2005.

COACHING STAFF

XAVIER DYE

RUNNING BACKS

South Carolina native Xavier Dye joined head coach Tim Beck's coaching staff as the running backs coach in January 2023.

Dye came to Coastal Carolina after three years on staff at South Florida from 2020-22, where he worked with CCU's current offensive coordinator Travis Trickett in coaching the wide receivers in 2020 and the tight ends group in 2021-22. He also served as the recruiting coordinator for his last two seasons in Tampa.

In 2022, Dye's tight ends contributed to major improvements in USF's total offense (350.9 to 390.8 ypg), rushing offense (158.5 to 197.9 ypg), scoring offense (23.2 to 28.0 ppg), third down conversions (34.3 to 39.1 percent), red zone conversions (76.7 to 85.1 percent), pass efficiency (107.56 to 130.22), and passing touchdowns (6 to 18) from 2021.

He went to USF after serving as the wide receivers coach on head coach Neal Brown's first staff at West Virginia during the 2019 season, also coaching alongside Trickett, after two years at his alma mater in Clemson.

A native of Greenwood, S.C., Dye served as an offensive graduate assistant coach working with the receiving corps for two years at Clemson from 2017-18, which included future NFL wideouts Tee Higgins, Justyn Ross, and Hunter Renfrow.

Over those two years, the Tigers posted a 27-2 record, won two ACC championships, and made two College Football Playoff appearances, including winning the 2018 College Football Playoff National Championship.

In 2018, the Tigers led the ACC in scoring (44.3 ppg) and total offense (527.2 ypg), ranking No. 4 and No. 3 in the nation, respectively. Clemson was also second in the ACC in rushing offense (248.2 ypg, No. 10 nationally) and third in passing offense (279.0 ypg, No. 23 nationally).

In 2018, Higgins led the league and ranked No. 8 nationally in receiving touchdowns (12) and was No. 6 in the ACC in receiving yards and No. 11 in receptions per game. Ross finished No. 2 in the league in receiving touchdowns and No. 5 in receiving yards.

Higgins and Renfrow were named to the ACC All-Conference second team, while Renfrow was selected for the Bursworth Trophy (top player who began their career as a walk-on) and the Bowden Award (dedicated to faith, family, friends, and football). Ross was named a Freshman All-American.

In 2017, Clemson had a balanced offensive attack, averaging 194.1 rushing yards per game (No. 35 nationally) and 429.6 yards of total offense (No. 38). The Tigers were No. 32 in scoring offense (33.3), No. 7 in third-down conversion percentage (.463), and No. 17 in first-down offense. Renfrow ranked No. 10 in the ACC in receptions per game, and wide receiver Deon Cain was No. 8 in receiving yards. The duo was named to the ACC All-Conference third team.

Prior to his return to Clemson, Dye served as offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach at Woodmont High School, helping lead the Wildcats to an appearance in the 2016 South Carolina 5A playoffs. He also spent two years at Greenville High School, serving the first year in 2014 as the wide receivers coach before adding offensive coordinator duties in 2015.

He spent the 2013 season at Western Carolina as a defensive quality control coach and an academic counselor.

A dean's list student at Clemson, Dye played wide receiver for the Tigers from 2007-10 and earned a bachelor's degree in sociology. A two-year starter (2009-10), he had a receiving touchdown from a quarterback (Kyle Parker), wide receiver (Jacoby Ford), and running back (C.J. Spiller) in 2009, becoming the first Tiger with a receiving touchdown from three different players in the same year, from three different positions.

While a student-athlete at Clemson, Dye was active in community service events and earned on spot on the American Football Coaches Association's (AFCA) Allstate Good Works Team as well as being named a finalist for the John Wooden Award. He was selected for the FCA Spiritual Award and served as a keynote speaker at numerous functions.

Dye and his wife Kelsye have a daughter named Xara.

CURTIS FULLER

CORNERBACKS

@CFULLER29COACH

A former NFL player and coach, Curtis Fuller joined the Coastal Carolina football coaching staff in January 2023. He will coach the cornerbacks.

Over his time in the NFL, he coached and worked with Josh Norman, James Bradberry, Budda Baker, Shaq Thompson, Mike Adams, Charles Woodson, Cortland Finnegan, Colin Jones, Jason McCourty, Patrick Peterson, Captain Munnerlyn, and Michael Griffin.

Fuller comes to CCU after a one-year stint as the safeties coach at Texas A&M – Commerce in 2022.

In his one season in the Lone Star State, the Lions' defense led the Southland Conference in total defense (305.0 ypg), scoring defense (19.9 ppg), pass defense efficiency (99.7), and pass defense (157.9 ypg).

The Lions' secondary totaled 10 interceptions on the season, led by All-Texas Sub-FBS team and All-Southland Conference first-team selection D'Ante Smith. Smith led the Southland Conference in interceptions and was fourth in passes defended with seven breakups and four interceptions, which led the conference during the regular season.

Fuller joined the staff at Texas A&M-Commerce in 2022 after serving as the head coach of Myers Park High School in North Carolina.

He spent three years at Myers Park, working his way up from defensive backs coach in 2019 to defensive coordinator in 2020 before taking over the program as the head coach in 2021.

Fuller has served as an assistant coach for 12 years in the NFL, including stops at the Dallas Cowboys, Oakland Raiders, Green Bay Packers, Tennessee Titans, Carolina Panthers, and the Arizona Cardinals.

He was an assistant special teams coach and defensive assistant with the Packers and part of the Super Bowl 45-winning coaching staff. He also coached in Super Bowl 50 on the Panthers staff as the assistant defensive backs coach and assisted in the special teams unit.

Fuller's most recent stint in the NFL came as a defensive assistant with the Cardinals in 2018.

After starting his collegiate career at Tyler Junior College for one year, Fuller was a three-year starter at TCU and served as the president of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes.

At TCU, he played in 32 games from 1998-2000, totaling 243 tackles and three interceptions from his safety position. During the 2000 season, TCU ranked No. 2 in total defensive and No. 1 in takeaways.

He was drafted by the Seattle Seahawks in the fourth round of the 2001 NFL Draft and had stints with the Seahawks, Packers, and Panthers as a player in the NFL.

Fuller lettered in football at Fort Worth Christian School.

PERRY PARKS

WIDE RECEIVERS

@COACHPARKS84

Coastal Carolina alum Perry Parks joined head coach Tim Beck's coaching staff in December 2022. He will coach the wide receivers.

Parks joined the Chanticleers' football team as a walk-on in 2002 and earned a full scholarship in 2003 before ultimately being named team captain before graduating in 2007.

Parks returned to Coastal after two years on the coaching staff at Charlotte, as he oversaw one of the 49ers' strongest units in the wide receivers from 2021-22.

Charlotte posted two of its top three passing seasons during Parks' two seasons as receivers coach. His group set a new school record with 27 receiving touchdowns in 2021 and matched that mark in 2022.

In 2022, the 49ers' wide receivers group included three Biletnikoff Watch Listers and three of the top four receivers in program history. Charlotte's passing game put up a school-record 271.0 yards per game and accounted for 70 percent of the 49ers' offense and 68 percent of the team's offensive touchdowns. The unit included the 49ers' second all-time leading receiver in Victor Tucker, who amassed over 3,000 receiving yards in his career, Grant DuBose, a 2022 second-team All-Conference USA choice who pulled in 15 TD passes in his two seasons under Parks' guidance, and sophomore Elijah Spencer, who led the 49ers with a school FBS-record 943 receiving yards after earning C-USA Freshman of the Year honors in 2021.

In his first year with the 49ers in 2021, Charlotte's high-powered offense was also led by its passing game. The 49ers averaged 253.7 passing yards per contest thanks to the wide receiver trio of DuBose, Tucker, and Spencer on the outside. DuBose, the season's top receiver, was named honorable mention All-Conference USA, while Tucker moved up to second all-time in receiving yards and touchdowns. Spencer, who matched DuBose with a team-high six touchdown catches, was named the 2021 C-USA Freshman of the Year.

Parks moved up into the college ranks in 2021 after six seasons as the head coach at Ridge View High School in Columbia, S.C. He led the Blazers to a 44-24 record in his six seasons. He ranks second in school history with 44 wins and had over 30 players sign to play collegiately. He also served as the assistant athletics director at Ridge View.

His success included a trip to the 2019 SCHSL Class 4A Upper State championship game and an appearance in the third round of the playoffs three times in his six years. In 2020, Ridge View made the playoffs in its first season after moving to Class 5A. The Blazers went 5-2 in the COVID-shortened season and lost in the first round to Upper State champion TL Hanna.

Prior to coaching at Ridge View, Parks spent three years as the head coach at Lakewood High in Sumter, S.C. He also served as the offensive coordinator at Pebblebrook High in Mableton, Ga., and Cedar Grove High in Ellenwood, Ga.

Parks was also one of the driving forces behind the Columbia Metro Senior Bowl, which has helped to showcase senior football players from the Columbia area since the inaugural bowl in 2018.

Parks graduated in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in sport management from Coastal Carolina, where he joined the Chanticleers as a walk-on in 2002 and earned a full scholarship in 2003 before ultimately being named team captain. He received his master's degree in secondary education from Grand Canyon University in 2011.

Prior to walking on the football team at CCU, he played wide receiver at Sumter High School.

Parks and his wife Katie have three children: sons Boaz and Zoren, and a daughter Lola.

KRISS PROCTOR

TIGHT ENDS

@KRISSPROCTOR

Kriss Proctor joined head coach Tim Beck's staff as the tight ends coach in December 2022.

Proctor came to Coastal from NC State where he served as the offensive quality control assistant under offensive coordinators Elijah Drinkwitz (now the head coach at Missouri) and Beck from 2016-22.

While working with Beck at NC State over each of the last three seasons (2020-22), he helped lead the Wolfpack to three-consecutive eight-plus win seasons, three-straight bowl appearances, and a combined record of 25-12.

In 2022, NC State finished the regular season at 8-4 overall and was ranked as high as No. 16 in the College Football Playoff Rankings and was most recently ranked No. 25 in the latest rankings.

NC State was also ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll for 11-straight weeks and in the USA TODAY Sports AFCA Coaches Poll for 12 consecutive weeks this season, reaching as high as No. 10 in both national polls in week four (Sept. 25).

In each of his last two seasons in Raleigh, N.C., in 2021-22, NC State's offense was ranked in the top half of the highly-touted Atlantic Coastal Conference (ACC) in scoring offense, total offense, and passing offense, while continuing to set program records along the way.

Before joining the Wolfpack in Raleigh, N.C., he spent the 2015 season at Indiana State as the wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator.

With the Sycamores, two receivers in Gary Owens and Robert Tonyan Jr. both tied the school's single-game record with three touchdown receptions, while both etched their names into the top 25 of the single-season record book for the most receiving yards in a year. The duo also totaled three 100-yard receiving games in their one year under Proctor's tutelage. Tonyan Jr. has gone on to play professionally for the Green Bay Packers.

Prior to his one season at Indiana State, Proctor spent three seasons working under various titles at Boise State. In 2014, he was an offensive quality control coach, during which time he worked primarily with the Broncos' quarterbacks.

The Broncos went 12-2 in 2014, winning the Mountain West Conference Championship with a 28-14 victory over Fresno State, as well as the Fiesta Bowl with a 38-30 win over Arizona. Boise State quarterback Grant Hedrick led the nation in completion percentage (70.8) and was in the top 15 in yards per pass attempt (seventh, 8.91 yards/attempt), passing efficiency (ninth, 157.2), passing yardage (13th, 3,696 yards), and total offense (14th, 306.3 yards/game).

During the 2012 and 2013 seasons, Proctor worked as a recruiting assistant for the Broncos. Under that role, Proctor was in charge of a variety of recruiting operations that helped Boise State land some of its best recruiting classes ever.

Proctor played from 2008-11 at the United States Naval Academy. He is ranked as Navy's fastest quarterback in the triple option era, running a 4.4 in the 40-yard dash and a 4.1 in the pro agility shuffle.

As a senior, he posted 211 rushes for 914 yards to lead the Midshipmen with 14 touchdowns on the year. He completed 52 passes for 787 yards and seven scores through the air. Proctor rushed for a season-best 176 yards against Delaware with three touchdowns. He added 97 rushing yards with two touchdowns in a nationally-televised 27-21 win over Army, earning MVP honors, to close out the season.

Over his career as a player, staff member, and coach, he has been a part of 11 postseason bowl games: player - 2008 Military Bowl, 2009 Texas Bowl, 2010 Poinsettia Bowl; coach - 2012 Vegas Bowl, 2014 Hawaii Bowl, 2016 Fiesta Bowl, 2016 Independence Bowl, 2017 Hyundai Sun Bowl, 2018 Gator Bowl, 2020 Gator Bowl, and 2021 Holiday Bowl (the game was canceled due to COVID-19).

A native of Big Bear Lake, Calif., Proctor earned his bachelor's degree in political science from Boise State in 2013.

JOSH MILLER

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS / SPECIAL TEAMS
FOURTH SEASON

 @COACHMILLER2525

Josh Miller joined the Coastal football coaching staff as the outside linebackers coach in January 2020. He also works with the special teams.

Miller came to CCU after three seasons as the defensive line coach at Furman from 2017-19.

In 2022, the Chanticleers went 9-4 overall and won the Sun Belt Conference East Division title for the second time in the three years (2020 and 2022). CCU went 6-2 overall in conference play and represented the East Division in the 2022 Hercules Tires Sun Belt Conference Football Championship game on Dec. 3, 2022.

The Chants started the season off at 6-0 for the third-straight year, the only team in all of FBS football to start the season at 6-0 in each of the last three years (2020, 2021, and 2022), and was the first Group of 5 program to become bowl eligible in week six.

Miller worked with two All-Sun Belt honorees in second-team selection Josaiah Stewart and honorable mention honoree Adrian Hope in 2022, as well as first-year spur linebackers Jahmar Brown and Jairan Parker.

Parker (39 tackles), Hope (36), and Stewart (36) all ranked in the top 10 on the team in total tackles for the season, while Hope led the team with 11.0 tackles-for-loss, just one more than Stewart and his 10.0 tackles-for-loss. Hope also led the team with 6.5 sacks on the season from his bandit end position.

In 2021, Miller helped the defense again sit atop of the Sun Belt Conference in several statistic categories and worked directly with Jeffrey Gunter, who earned All-Sun Belt second-team honors, and Enock Makonzo with honorable mention honors.

Gunter was selected by the Cincinnati Bengals in the seventh round (252nd overall pick) of the 2022 NFL Draft and wrapped up his career at CCU with recorded 174 total tackles, 40.0 tackles-for-loss, 18.0 sacks, one interception, five pass breakups, nine forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, and two blocked kicks. His 18.0 career sacks rank second all-time in CCU history, while his 40.0 tackles-for-loss also rank second in CCU history.

With a veteran-led defense in 2021, the Chanticleers outscored all their opponents 532-281 on the season. Coastal was one of only four teams in ALL of FBS to rank in the top-25 in both total offense (5th) and total defense (25th), one of only seven teams in ALL of FBS to rank in the top 30 in both first downs made on offense (25th) and fewest first downs allowed on defense (27th), and one of only eight teams in ALL of FBS to rank in the top-25 in both scoring offense (5th) and scoring defense (25th).

The 2021 defense ranked in the top 35 nationally in several categories, placing 16th in passing defense (190.3 ypg), 25th in scoring defense (21.6 ppg), 25th in total defense (339.5 ypg), and 32nd in red zone defense (77.5 percent).

In 2020, his first season at CCU, the "Black Swarm" defense swarmed the Sun Belt Conference in playing a pivotal part in the Chanticleers winning the program's first-ever Sun Belt Conference title. CCU posted an 11-1 overall mark, including an 8-0 Sun Belt Conference record, and played in the program's first-ever FBS postseason bowl game.

The 2020 season also marked Coastal Carolina's first-ever undefeated regular season and the first time that the Chanticleers ranked in either the Associated Press Top 25 Poll or the Amway Coaches Poll presented by USA Today Sports.

The Chanticleers posted two wins over FBS top 25 nationally-ranked opponents, the first two such victories in program history, four wins over top 50 opponents, and was ranked as high as No. 9 in the Associated Press Top 25 Poll and No. 11 in the Amway Coaches Poll, both Sun Belt Conference records. The Chanticleers were also ranked as high as No. 12 in the College Football Playoff rankings, also a Sun Belt record.

In 2020, the Chants' defense led the Sun Belt in fumble recoveries (9) and was second in interceptions (16), which also ranked third nationally. CCU led the Sun Belt in turnovers forced (25) and was second in turnover margin (+13), which both ranked among the nation's best at the end of the 2020 season.

The defense was also second in the Sun Belt in scoring defense (20.2 points per game), second in sacks per game (2.83), second in fourth-down conversion percent defense (44.4 percent), third in first downs defense (223), third in fewest passing yards allowed (204.2 yards per game), third in fewest rushing yards allowed (147.7 yards per game), third in tackles-for-loss per game (6.4), third in total defense (351.9 yards per game), and fourth in third-down conversion percentage defense (38.0 percent).

Individually, Miller mentored bandit end Jeffrey Gunter who led the nation with six forced fumbles and was one of three different Chants ranked in the top-five of the Sun Belt Conference in total sacks with 6.5 along with defensive linemen Tarron Jackson (8.0) and C.J. Brewer (6.5).

Along with his 6.5 sacks, Gunter finished the season with 58 tackles, a team-high 12.5 tackles-for-loss, an interception, one pass breakup, six forced fumbles, and 12 quarterback hurries to earn All-Sun Belt first-team honors. Fellow outside linebacker Enock Makonzo was named All-Sun Belt honorable mention after recording 76 tackles, which was tied for second on the team, 10.5 tackles-for-loss, 2.0 sacks, two forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, and three quarterback hurries from his spur position.

In his three years at Furman, Miller coached two-time All-SoCon performer Jaylan Reid (2017 and 2018) and All-SoCon selection Adrian Hope (2019).

While at Furman, the Paladins made two NCAA Division I Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Playoff appearances – 2017 and 2019 – and won a share of the 2018 Southern Conference championship, the program's league-best 14th title, going 6-2 in league play and winning six of their final seven games.

Miller went to Furman following four seasons at Charleston Southern from 2013-16, where he served as the special teams coordinator and outside linebackers coach.

While at CSU, Miller oversaw impressive special teams play and played a key role in some of the top defensive units in the FCS. From 2013-16, the Buccaneers posted a 35-14 record, won two conference championships, and earned a pair of invitations to the NCAA FCS Playoffs.

In 2016 one of Miller's pupils, Darius Hammond, earned All-Big South Conference honors for a third consecutive season and took home special teams' player of the year honors. In addition, long snapper Joseph Smith collected all-conference honors for a second-straight year to go along with second-team STATS All-America honors.

Among Miller's group of outside linebackers, Solomon Brown garnered first-team all-conference laurels in 2016 after registering 70 tackles, 14.5 tackles-for-loss, and 4.5 sacks, helping the Bucs rank seventh nationally in total defense (294.1 ypg) while also contributing significantly to CSU's third-place ranking in passing defense.

CSU finished the 2016 season ranked 14th in the final FCS poll, extending its streak of top 25 rankings to a school record of 22 weeks.

The turnaround that paved the way for Charleston Southern's impressive four-year run began in 2013 when Miller helped the Bucs win their first seven games, highlighted by a 27-24 win over FBS transition Appalachian State, en route to a 10-3 record and No. 22 final national ranking.

Miller joined the staff at CSU following one season at Delta State University in 2012, where he served in the same position.

Prior to Delta State, Miller spent the 2007-11 seasons as an assistant coach at Brevard College where he served as defensive line, strength and conditioning, and special teams coach.

Miller served as a student assistant coach at his alma mater, Appalachian State University, in 2007. He began his career as an assistant coach at West Alamance High School.

The Burlington, N.C., native graduated from Appalachian State in 2007 with a bachelor's degree in exercise science. From 2002-06, Miller played on the offensive and defensive lines and served as a long snapper. He was a four-time Southern Conference Academic Honor Roll recipient and in 2006 and 2007 he received the Southern Conference Commissioner's Medal.

DEREK WAREHIME

OFFENSIVE LINE

@COACHDWAREHIME

Derek Warehime joined head coach Tim Beck's staff in December 2022 and will serve as the offensive line coach. He has worked with Beck previously, as the two were on the offensive staff together at Texas from 2017-19.

Warehime came to Coastal Carolina after his second stint at the University of New Mexico from 2020-22.

In his second stint at New Mexico, Warehime was the offensive coordinator and tight ends coach for the program from 2020-22. He previously was on staff from 2012-14, serving as the tight ends coach, adding the duties of run-game coordinator in 2014.

With one of the youngest rosters in the country in 2022, Warehime and the Lobos saw four quarterbacks play in four or more games on the season for the second consecutive season. A total of 19 players hauled in at least one pass reception on the season, including 10 catches for 96 yards by tight end Elijah Queen, while 14 Lobos also recorded at least one rushing attempt on the year.

The 2021 season was a challenge offensively as UNM started four quarterbacks during the season, including a graduate manager in the final game of the season. One of those quarterbacks was Terry Wilson, who was named a Manning Star for the second week of the season when he threw for 381 yards and three touchdowns, going 26-for-37 against New Mexico State. UNM's tight ends were superb in 2021, as true freshman Trace Bruckler led the team in touchdown catches, which was amazing feat, as he was moved to tight end only a few weeks prior to the season. Overall, UNM's tight ends accounted for six of the 10 receiving touchdowns on the season.

In 2020, Warehime directed an offense that improved nearly a touchdown a game, scoring 23.9 points per contest in conference play. The Lobos moved all the way up to fourth in the Mountain West in total offense, and improved from 10th to fourth in passing offense. The Lobo offensive unit also improved in passing efficiency, first downs, third down conversion percentage, total third downs made, and total turnovers, as UNM committed just nine in 2020 after a whopping 19 in 2019.

Prior to his return to New Mexico, Warehime was with Beck at Texas under Tom Herman for three seasons, coaching the offensive line in 2017, tight ends in 2018, and then adding special team's coordinator in 2019.

The 2019 season saw Texas' special teams make great strides. The punt coverage team ranked 12th in all of FBS, allowing just 3.3 yards per return, while the 30 total return yards allowed ranked 11th in the FBS. Kicker Cameron Dicker converted 77.8 percent of his field goals, the best percentage for a Texas placekicker in seven seasons, to earn All-Big 12 honorable mention honors to go along with All-Big 12 first-team honors as a punter.

Also in 2019, Warehime's tight ends group was young, but they were a strength. Junior Cade Brewer ranked third on the Longhorns in yards per catch.

He made the switch to mentor the tight ends in 2018, and his group excelled behind fifth-year senior Andrew Beck, who garnered first team All-Big 12 honors. Beck, who was known as one of the best run-blocking tight ends in the nation, had a career year catching the ball with 28 receptions for 281 yards and two scores. Behind Beck, Brewer and true freshman Reese Leitao contributed both offensively and on special teams in 2018.

Warehime's offensive line group dealt with injuries for much of 2017, including one to All-American left tackle Connor Williams, who missed most of eight games. No Longhorn started all 13 games, with Warehime having to use eight different starting combinations throughout the season. Junior left guard Patrick Vahe led the way with 12 starts, while true freshman Derek Kerstetter started the final 10 games of the season at right tackle and sophomore Zach Shackelford started eight at center.

Warehime followed Coach Herman to Texas from Houston, coaching the offensive line for the Cougars from 2015-16.

In his second season with the Cougars in 2016, Warehime helped UH to a 9-3 record. UH had two top-five wins, the only program to defeat two top-five teams on the season, and joined Alabama as one of two programs nationally to beat two top-10 teams by double digits. The Cougars' offense finished the regular season ranked 36th nationally in total offense and ranked as one of the least penalized teams in the country. The Houston offensive line allowed just 30 sacks on nearly 500 pass attempts in 2016. UH ranked 15th in third down conversions, ninth in first downs, and 21st in scoring offense during the regular season.

In 2015, the Cougars went 13-1 on the season, won The American Championship, and defeated Florida State in the Peach Bowl to finish the year ranked No. 8 nationally. Behind Warehime's offensive line unit, the Cougar's offense finished the regular season ranked 13th nationally in rushing offense with 235.8 yards per game. Under his leadership, two linemen earned season honors from the American Athletic Conference (AAC). Both Alex Cooper, who started at three different positions along the line, and Will Noble, a true freshman who had his redshirt removed six games into the season, were recognized by the AAC. The two honorees under Warehime were part of a group that lost three starters to season-ending injuries and endured a total of 34 games lost due to injuries.

Warehime joined the Houston staff in 2015 after three seasons with New Mexico (2012-14) as the Lobos' tight ends coach, adding the title of run-game coordinator in his final season. In all three seasons with Warehime on staff, the New Mexico offense finished fifth or better in rushing nationally. With him serving as the run-game coordinator in 2014, the Lobos finished the year ranked fourth nationally in rushing with an average of 310.4 yards per game on the ground. Along with its power on the ground, New Mexico ranked fourth nationally allowing just 11 sacks during the season.

In 2013, Warehime was integral to the offensive line blocking schemes, as the unit paved the way for UNM to average 308 yards per game to rank fourth in the country. It was the second year in a row that New Mexico finished the season in the top five nationally in rushing. His tight ends also became a bigger part of the passing game in 2013, more than doubling their receiving yards from the season prior.

During his first season in Albuquerque in 2012, Warehime helped New Mexico become one of the most improved rushing attacks in the country. After finishing 103rd in the nation in rushing in 2011, the Lobos finished fifth in 2012, averaging over 300 yards per game. Under his mentorship, tight end Lucas Reed earned an invitation to the East-West Shrine Game following the 2012 season.

Prior to his time at UNM, Warehime spent two seasons as the offensive line coach at Sam Houston State from 2010-11. In 2011, the Bearkats featured the No. 6 rushing offense in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS), averaging 255.9 yards per game, and averaged nearly 40 points per game en route to the FCS National Championship Game. Sam Houston State center Travis Watson and offensive tackle Chris Crockett earned 2011 Sports Network/Fathead.com All-America honors under Warehime's tutelage. In his first season in 2010, the Kats led the Southland Conference in rushing and had three players earn All-League honors.

Warehime worked for two seasons as the offensive line and tight ends coach, as well as the strength and conditioning coordinator, at the University of Arkansas at Monticello (UAM) in 2008-10. Serving as the offensive coordinator in 2009, UAM led the Gulf South Conference in total offense (499.3 ypg) and rushing offense (244.4 ypg).

A 2006 graduate of Tulsa, Warehime started 34 games at center from 2001-04. He played on the Golden Hurricane's 2003 Humanitarian Bowl team and was named first-team All-Western Athletic Conference in 2004. He spent one season playing professionally with the Tulsa Talons of the Arena Football League.

The Choctaw, Okla., native began his coaching career as a student assistant for the offensive line at Tulsa in 2005. The Golden Hurricane won the 2005 Conference USA Championship and defeated Fresno State in the Liberty Bowl.

Warehime spent the 2006 and 2007 seasons as a graduate assistant for the offensive line at Rice. He was also the assistant video coordinator during that time. The Owls made their first postseason appearance in 45 years and were runners-up in CUSA's West Division, setting 40 new school records on offense.

Warehime and his wife Kelly have three children: daughters Kaysen and Kylee and son, Miller Hayes.

COACHING STAFF

QUINN BARHAM

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
SPEED, STRENGTH, AND CONDITIONING

@QUINNBARHAM

Quinn Barham was named the director of football speed, strength, and conditioning at Coastal Carolina in December 2022.

A rising star in the profession, Barham came to Coastal Carolina after working on The Ohio State University football strength and conditioning staff for seven years from 2016-22. With the Buckeyes, he played an instrumental role in four Big Ten Championships, multiple College Football Playoff appearances, and the development of numerous NFL Draft Picks.

In addition to working with the entire team at Ohio State, Quinn was also heavily involved in the Freshmen Onboarding and Integration, Speed Development, and Recovery programs.

Prior to his seven seasons at Ohio State, he had coaching stops at the University of North Carolina (2014) and NC State University (2015).

Barham was a member of the Penn State Nittany Lions football program from 2007 through 2011. He was named a team captain in 2011 and was a two-year starter along the offensive line. He was blessed to further his football career in the NFL as a free agent with the Detroit Lions before entering the coaching ranks.

He completed his undergraduate studies at Penn State University in 2011 and earned a master's degree in sport coaching from Ohio State in 2019.

The Durham, N.C., native and his wife, Chassidy, have a daughter named Aria.

Barham is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) through the National Strength and Conditioning Association, a Certified Sport Performance Coach with United States of America Weightlifting (USAW), and is certified through the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCa).

* invited to the game but did not play.

DE'ANGELO HENDERSON

- Set the NCAA Division I record by scoring at least one touchdown in 35 consecutive games. The record included all 14 games in 2014, all 12 games in 2015, and all nine of his games in 2016 (he missed three games due to injury).
- Scored 58 touchdowns over the 35-game span (52 rushing, six receiving).
- Was just three touchdowns shy of the NCAA all-division record (38 by Danny Woodhead of NCAA Division II Chadron State) and could have tied the mark had he not suffered an injury.
- Prior to his senior season, Henderson set both Big South and NCAA FCS records by scoring at least one touchdown in 26 straight games (2014 and 2015).
- In game two of his senior season, Henderson scored in his 28th-straight game to break the NCAA Division I (FBS and FCS) record previously held by Lee Suggs of Virginia Tech.
