Additionally, every SEC football game will be carried live on Sirius XM Radio as part of a broadcast & marketing agreement between the SEC and the satellite radio provider.

Scott Howard

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia athletics. He returns for his 30th season behind the microphone at both Georgia football and basketball games. Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside the late Larry Munson in the 1993 season. In 2007 he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game.

Howard has served as the Georgia basketball team's primary play-by-play reporter since the 1997 season. A 1984 UGA graduate, he also announced Georgia baseball games from 1990-96.

Eric Zeier

One of Georgia's greatest quarterbacks ever, Zeier begins his 16th season as a color analyst on the network. By the end of his senior season in 1994, he held 67 school passing records and 18 marks in the Southeastern Conference. Zeier played in the NFL from 1996 to 2001 with the Cleveland Browns, Baltimore Ravens, Tampa Bay Bucs, and Atlanta Falcons.

In addition to his broadcasting duties, Zeier is the Southeast Regional Manager for Homeowners Financial Group USA.

Loran Smith

A native of Wrightsville, Ga., Smith continues his long association with the Georgia Network as co-host of the popular pre-game "Tailgate Show."

A former Bulldog MVP and track captain, Smith has had varied responsibilities with the UGA Athletic Association over the years, including assistant sports information director, business manager of athletics and executive director of the Georgia Bulldog Clubs.

D.J. Shockley

Former Bulldog quarterback and Fox 5 Atlanta sports anchor D.J. Shockley joined the team for his first season as the sideline analyst in 2021. He is also featured regularly in the Napa Tailgate Show and leads his station's exclusive coverage of UGA Athletics.

The College Park native lettered three seasons at quarterback for the Bulldogs. He led Georgia to the SEC championship in his senior season of 2005, earning MVP honors in the title game. Shockley was drafted by the Atlanta Falcons, where he not only played but eventually got his start in broadcasting as host of his own feature show. He has had numerous roles on TV and radio, most recently working football broadcasts with ESPN and the SEC Network.

Jeff Dantzler & Kevin Butler

Longtime UGA broadcaster Jeff Dantzler and Bulldog All-America and College Football Hall of Fame kicker Kevin Butler appear on the airwaves multiple times during each football weekend:

Starting four hours prior to kickoff, and airing live from the Tate Center Plaza at home games, the Dawg Talk Pre-Game Show sets the stage for every Bulldog football Saturday.

Additionally, Dantzler and Butler co-host the Bulldog Brunch, which airs live from Hilltop Grille in Athens each Sunday from 10:00 a.m. to noon after a Georgia football game. The pair review Saturday's game and take calls from Georgia fans, as well as provide the first preview for next Saturday's game.

2023 Season Preview

QUARTERBACKS

The Bulldogs are looking to fill the starting spot behind center for two-year starter Stetson Bennett, who was the Offensive MVP in each of the last two CFP Semifinal and National Championship contests. Junior Carson Beck returns for the 2023 season having served as Georgia's primary backup last year. Beck completed 26 of 35 passes for 310 yards and four touchdowns. He also averaged 6.1 yards per carry after having seven rushes for 48 yards during the Bulldogs' defense of the national championship. Redshirt sophomore Brock Vandagriff played in three games with limited snaps and will join second-year quarterback Gunner Stockton, who redshirted in 2022, in the battle at quarterback.

RUNNING BACKS

Seniors Daijun Edwards and Kendall Milton are Georgia's top returners in the backfield after the duo combined for more than 1,300 yards and 15 touchdowns last season. Edwards added 101 yards receiving for the Bulldogs in 2022 while Milton had a receiving touchdown to complement his performance. Branson Robinson added additional firepower at running back last year with 68 carries for 330 yards and three scores during his first season in red and black. Fellow 2022 freshman Andrew Paul is expected to join the competition after sustaining a knee injury at the start of last year's fall camp. Sevaughn Clark and Cash Jones each had limited time with the offense last year and will return along with early enrollee Roderick Robinson II.

TIGHT ENDS

Georgia has boasted one of the deepest tight end rooms in the country recently and that trend will not change. John Mackey Award winner (nation's top tight end) and All-American Brock Bowers returns to the fold after hauling in a team-leading 63 catches for 942 yards and seven touchdowns while starting 14 of the Bulldogs' 15 contests. The versatile Bowers threat as a rusher also grew as the Napa, Calif., took nine carries 109 yards and three scores. One of the nation's best at the position during high school and a 2022 early enrollee, Oscar Delp saw an increased role late in the year to finish with five catches for 61 yards and a touchdown. Bowers and Delp also continued their development as solid blockers for a Georgia defense that averaged 41.1 points per game. Determined to stay at the top at tight end the Bulldogs added highly-touted Pearce Spurlin III and Bulldog legacy Lawson Luckie as early enrollees while also welcoming David Lalaian to the roster.

Center Sedrick Van Pran was named a team captain and earned Second Team All-SEC honors as the leader of one of the nation's top offensive lines.

Brock Bowers earned Georgia's first John Mackey Award for the nation's top tight end, closing the season with seven catches for 152 yards in the CFP Championship Game against No. 3 TCU.

WIDE RECEIVERS

The Bulldogs utilized a varied passing attack during their 15-0 run to keep defenses off balance. Ladd McConkey was the team's second-leading receiver with 58 receptions for 762 yards and a team-leading seven touchdowns and is back for his fourth-year junior season. Senior Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint will also be a go-to out wide after starting eight games last season and finishing with 29 receptions for 337 yards and two scores. Speedster Arian Smith is another starting option on the outside after he averaged 28.3 yards per catch during his seven receptions in 2022. Dillon Bell, Jackson Meeks, Mehki Mews and De'Nylon Morrissette have also been under receivers coach Bryan McClendon for a year and know the system. Freshmen last year, C.J. Smith and Cole Speer are also battling for time at the position. With the natural attrition in today's game, the Bulldogs also bulked up with a talented group of early enrollees in Anthony Evans III, A.J. Harris, Zeed Haynes, Tyler Williams and Izayah Reeves and picked up former Missouri receiver Dominic Lovett and former Mississippi State target Rara Thomas, among other summer enrollees.

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

Center Sedrick Van Pran was one of only two linemen who started every game for last year's squad that averaged a school record 501.1 yards per game. He will join returning starting guards Tate Ratledge and Xavier Truss on a line that was a finalist for the Joe Moore Award (nation's top offensive line) in 2022. Junior Amarius Mims started the CFP Semifinal and the National Championship game for an injured Warren McClendon and is back to become a regular starter in 2023. Austin Blaske, who played on primarily special teams or in goal-line situations, Dylan Fairchild, Chad Lindberg, Micah Morris and Jared Wilson are aiming to fill the gaps left by the departed lettermen as well. Four scholarship Bulldogs redshirted last year and will be on offensive line coach Stacey Searels' radar as well this spring in Aliou Bah, Drew Bobo and Earnest Greene III. The 2023 early enrollee class included Monroe Freeling and Joshua Miller as they add more depth.

OUTLOOK

2023 Season Preview

Defensive lineman Mykel Williams established himself as a force on the Georgia front in his freshman season, tallying two tackles for loss and four quarterback hurries in the College Football Playoff against No. 4 Ohio State and No. 3 TCU.

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

Smart agrees that games are won and lost on both lines and the Bulldogs have been particularly stout on the defensive line the past two seasons. Senior Nazir Stackhouse and sophomore Mykel Williams each played in all 15 games last season with Stackhouse starting all 15 and Williams getting the nod in a pair. The duo combined for 61 tackles, 9.5 tackles for loss, 4.5 sacks and a blocked field goal versus No. 13 LSU in the SEC Championship Game. They will be complemented by Zion Logue, who had six starts and finished with 16 stops, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. Arguably one of the most consistent veterans in the group is also back for another year as Tramel Walthour will attempt to improve on his 24 stops in 13 starts last year. In addition, Warren Brinson and Tyrion Ingram-Dawkins are in the rotation up front and will be targeting more havoc plays this season. Third and second-year players Jonathan Jefferson and Christen Miller are also predicted to share time in the middle as well. Finally, early enrollees Jordan Hall and Jamaal Jarrett got to campus in January and could get early reps.

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

Second-year coach Chidera Uizo-Diribe will be in search of filling the spots vacated by veterans Nolan Smith and Robert Beal. When Smith went down with a pectoral injury versus Florida, Chaz Chambliss filled in and logged 16 tackles, including three tackles for loss and two sacks. Jalon Walker wasted no time last year breaking into the rotation as the first-year linebacker highlighted his opening season with nine stops, including two tackles for loss, and a blocked punt against Kent State in just his fourth collegiate game. Also going into their second seasons, it will be time for Marvin Jones Jr., Darris Smith and C.J. Madden to establish their place among Georgia's defensive stoppers. The Bulldogs bulked their depth at the position by adding a trio of talented linebackers in Gabe Harris, Sam M'Pemba and Damon Wilson, Jr. who all started school in January.

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

The heart of Georgia's defense that allowed only 14.3 points per game and that gave up a single touchdown in the CFP National Championship returns at inside linebacker. Junior Smael Mondon was the unit's leading tackler with 76 stops, and he added one of 12 interceptions for Georgia. His friend and teammate Jamon Dumas-Johnson, who earned All-America honors in 2022, was next on the tacklers' list thanks to his 70 stops and a team-leading nine tackles for loss. With several games collectively under their belt, Xavian Sorey and E.J. Lightsey will provide depth along with early enrollee additions C.J. Allen and Raylen Wilson.

DEFENSIVE BACKS

Javon Bullard established himself as one of the nation's dominating forces on Georgia's defense during the final two games of 2022. He was named the Defensive MVP after both the CFP Semifinal versus No. 4 Ohio State and CFP National Championship versus No. 3 TCU. The Milledgeville native had a pick during the win over the Horned Frogs and provided a pivotal pass breakup in the opposing end zone as he aims to improve on those performances as a junior. It took all of one game to see Malaki Starks' collegiate potential after he had an interception and eight tackles during the victory over No. 11 Oregon. Kamari Lassiter, who started all 15 games as a sophomore, is back as one of the corners after collecting 38 stops and five tackles for loss in 2022. Playing a large role in the first seven games last season, Dan Jackson returns for an injury and subsequent rehab to play alongside Starks at safety. Tykee Smith headlines another group including Daniel David-Sisavanh, Daylen Everette and Nyland Green who will be targeting increased roles this fall along with JaCorey Thomas. The depth at defensive back got even deeper with early enrollees Joenel Aguero and Justyn Rhett and Texas A&M transfer Smoke Bouie getting their first Bulldog snaps this spring.

SPECIALISTS

Australian punter Brett Thorson returns for his sophomore season after averaging 45 yards per kick last year, including a 75-yarder that pinned No. 1 Tennessee inside its 5-yard line. Noah Jones is in place to back Thorson up. Georgia will have to replace Jack Podlesny at place-kicker/kickoff specialist and junior Jared Zirkel and freshman Peyton Woodring are in position to battle for that role after backing up Podlesny. William Mote, who shared duties with Payne Walker, returns to snap for both field goals and punts. Jonathan Washburn returns as a backup at the position. At returner, Ladd McConkey will be available as an option after having 16 punt returns for 197 yards and Daijun Edwards also returned a pair of kickoffs in 2022 for 37 yards and is back. As usual, Smart will aim to discover a new batch of talent on special teams as the preseason camp unfolds.

Defensive back Javon Bullard earned Defensive MVP honors in both Playoff games, picking off two passes and recovering a fumble against No. 3 TCU. 2023 Season Preview

Bulldogs Start with Four at Home

Due to the cancellation of a previously scheduled matchup at Oklahoma, Georgia plays host to four consecutive games at home to start the 2023 campaign, including South Carolina in game three to start its Southeastern Conference slate. The last time the Bulldogs played four straight contests in Sanford Stadium was in 2004, topping Marshall, LSU and Vanderbilt before falling to Tennessee in those showdowns. The last schedule that featured four home games to start Georgia's season was in 1999. That year, the Bulldogs went 4-0 with victories over Utah State, South Carolina, UCF and LSU.

Two of Georgia's first non-conference opponents, Ball State and UT Martin, the Bulldogs have never faced. Georgia has played UAB twice, winning both, including a 56-7 win in 2021.

Georgia's final home game of seven on the year is versus Ole Miss. The Rebels will be the Western Division crossover and will be making their first trip to Athens since 2012. The Bulldogs ran away with that contest, 37-10.

This is expected to mark the final season in the SEC before the league welcomes in another two teams in Oklahoma and Texas to give the conference 16 teams. The 2023 season will feature possibly the final one with the Eastern and Western divisions. This year, Georgia will play host to South Carolina, Kentucky, Missouri from the East and Ole Miss from the West. The Bulldogs will travel to Auburn from the West, Tennessee and Vanderbilt from the East and meet Eastern foe Florida in the annual Jacksonville, Fla., showdown.

2023 Bulldog Storylines

Signal Caller

The Bulldogs return nine players with starting experience on offense, including junior C Sedrick Van Pran and All-American and John Mackey Award winner junior TE Brock Bowers, who was the 2021 and 2022 leader in catches, receiving yards and touchdowns. Georgia ranked fifth nationally averaging 41.1 points per game last season.

Georgia will have to replace the player who lined up behind Van Pran and threw to Bowers in Stetson Bennett. The former walk-on turned Heisman Trophy finalist directed the Bulldogs to their second consecutive national championship in 2022 after completing 310 passes of 454 attempts for 4,127 yards while registering 27 touchdowns to only seven interceptions. Now, Georgia will have the option to roll with junior Carson Beck, redshirt sophomore Brock Vandagriff and redshirt freshman Gunner Stockton at quarterback.

Speaking of The Line

Georgia's offensive line is slated to return three of five starters after Warren McClendon and Broderick Jones had a combined 56 starts between them and have since moved on to the NFL. The Bulldogs welcome back junior C Sedrick Van Pran, who got the nod in all 15 games last season, redshirt sophomore guard Tate Ratledge and senior guard Xavier Truss, who each started 14 contests in 2022. Junior Amarius Mims filled in for McClendon after a knee injury sidelined him in the Playoff and is poised to battle for a starting spot in the fall. The Bulldogs have an assorted group of players with limited game time and newcomers who will fight to be one of Georgia's top five. The unit tragically lost Devin Willock in a car accident soon after the season. Willock played in all 15 games last year, starting a pair of contests.

Majority of Defenders Returning This Time

A year after Georgia had eight defenders selected in the 2022 NFL Draft, including the No. 1 overall pick in Travon Walker and four other First Round selections (Jordan Davis, Quay Walker, Devonte Wyatt, Lewis Cine), the Bulldogs return 12 players who have starting experience from a corps that ranked fifth nationally last season allowing opponents only 14.3 points per contest.

Starting up front, Nazir Stackhouse, Zion Logue and Tramel Walthour had 34 starts between them last year and will work to fill the void left by All-American Jalen Carter. The team's two leading tacklers from last season, inside backers Smael Mondon and Jamon Dumas-Johnson, also return to stabilize the middle of the defense. On the outside, the Bulldogs are aiming to replace captain Nolan Smith and veteran Robert Beal, Jr. with Chaz Chambliss and rising sophomore Jalon Walker, among others. Reigning Defensive MVP in both the CFP Semifinal and National Championship Javon Bullard is back alongside Kamari Lassiter, who started all 15 games at DB last season, in the secondary along with National Freshman of the Year finalist Malaki Starks. In addition, last year's leader in sacks, Mykel Williams, is expected to play a larger role in his second year while Dan Jackson will be returning at safety following a season-ending injury in 2022.

New, But Familiar Face on the Sidelines

The Bulldogs will feature a new offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach this season after Todd Monken left to accept a similar spot with the Baltimore Ravens. However, Mike Bobo is no stranger to Georgia. Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, had served in the role as a quality control analyst for the Georgia offense since January 2022. He also had a 14-year stint with the Bulldogs from 2001-14 under Mark Richt as quarterbacks coach and then offensive coordinator. Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

Another group of Bulldog coaches will be entering into their second year in Athens. Bryan McClendon, who won an SEC title with Georgia as a receiver in 2005, returns as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach; Stacy Searels starts his second year - and second stint - as the offensive line coach after serving in the same role for the Bulldogs from 2007-10; Fran Brown will head up the defensive backs again after his unit had 10 interceptions, four forced fumbles and two fumble recoveries; and Chidera Uzo-Diribe is back as the Bulldogs' outside linebackers coach after Nolan Smith and Robert Beal finished their careers and are now readying for the NFL Draft.

One Specialist Returns, Another Departs

Sophomore Brett Thorson, a native of Australia, earned All-SEC Freshman honors after arriving as a 2022 early enrollee thanks to his 45.0 average on 36 punts. He highlighted his year one performance by dropping a 75 yarder against No. 1 Tennessee that went out of bounds on the Vols' 1-yard line. Thorson will benefit from having snapper William Mote back in the fold. Mote has been the Bulldogs' primary snapper on punts the past two years and is expected to snap on field goals and PATs this season. Georgia will have to replace Jack Podlesny who anchored down the place-kicker spot the last three years. In 2022, Podlesny was 26-of-31 on field goals and drilled 73-of-74 PATs. Jared Zirkel is in position to replace Podlesny after kicking sparingly the last two seasons. The nation's No. 1 prep kicker, Peyton Woodring, is also scheduled to arrive this summer to provide additional competition at the position.

Piling Up The Points

* Georgia averaged 41.1 points/game, which is fifth nationally. In the SEC Championship Game victory over No. 14 LSU, the Bulldogs scored 50 points with 549 yards of offense to help capture the program's 14th SEC title. One game later, Georgia won the CFP Semifinal over No. 4 Ohio State 42-41 with 533 yards. The Bulldogs steamrolled No. 3 TCU 65-7 to complete their back-to-back national championship winning seasons.

* The Bulldogs outscored their opponents 616-214 in 2022, including 341-105 in the opening half. For the second consecutive year, Georgia led the nation in point differential. Last season it was plus-402 and it was plus-426 in 2021.

* The Bulldogs were 81 of 83 in the Red Zone (a national leading 98 percent) in 2022 with 57 touchdowns and 24 field goals.

* In the win over No. 4 Ohio State, redshirt sophomore Arian Smith had career highs of three catches for 129 yards, including a 76-yard touchdown catch. Sophomore AD Mitchell had three catches for 43 yards during a performance that included the eventual game-winning score with :54 left. He was limited to just five games in 2022 due to an ankle injury and has since left the program.

* Georgia jumped out to a 24-6 halftime lead on 306 total yards versus No. 1 Tennessee and eventually posted a 27-13 victory.

* Georgia's offense generated 49 points against No. 11 Oregon in the 2022 season opener. The Bulldogs tallied 571 yards of offense on 62 plays, scoring touchdowns on their first seven possessions. Georgia had a season-high 579 yards of offense vs. Vandy.

* Junior Ladd McConkey was second on the team with 58 catches for 762 yards (13.1 avg.) and seven scores. He had a career-long 70-yard touchdown run at Mississippi State. McConkey was the primary punt returner with 16 for 197 yards, including a career-long 39 yarder versus Georgia Tech.

Talented Tight Ends

* Georgia's tight end room features All-American and 2022 Mackey Award winner Brock Bowers and sophomore Oscar Delp. Bowers was also the 2021 National Freshman of the Year.

* Bowers, who was also a Rotary Lombardi Award finalist, was the team's leader with 63 catches (school record mark by a UGA TE) for a team high 942 yards and seven TDs. Bowers posted a career high 154 yards on five catches in the win over Florida and nearly matched that in the National Championship Game, snagging seven for 152 yards and a score.

* Twice in his career Bowers has had two receiving scores and a rushing score in the same game. He did it during the road win at South Carolina last season and also at Vanderbilt in 2021.

* Bowers has seven 100-yard receiving games in his career; three of his career TD catches have covered 75+ yards; his first career TD catch covered 89 yards against UAB.

Running Back Corps

* Georgia's veterans returning in the backfield are seniors Kendall Milton and Daijun Edwards and sophomore Branson Robinson.

* Edwards ranked second on the team with 769 yards for a 5.5 average and had seven touchdowns. During the win over Auburn, he became the first Bulldog RB since Sony Michel in the 2018 Rose Bowl Game to have three rushing TDs in a game. Edwards provided the go-ahead score in the fourth quarter of the 26-22 win at Missouri on a one-yard rush.

* Milton scored both a rushing and a receiving touchdown against No. 11 Oregon for the first time in his career. During the SECCG, Milton went for a career-high 113 yards on only eight carries (14. 1 avg.) to highlight a 255-yard rushing day for Georgia. In 2022, he has 592 rushing yards and eight TDs.

* Robinson capped his freshman season with a pair of touchdowns in the National Championship Game rout of TCU. He finished with 330 yards on 68 carries (4.9 avg.) and three scores.

Defense Setting The Tone

* The Bulldogs ranked fifth nationally in Scoring Defense, giving up just 14.3 points per contest. The defense posted 29 scoreless quarters, including holding five teams scoreless in the opening half.

* Georgia held seven teams to a season low in points, including No. 1 Tennessee (12) No. 11 Outpart (2) and No. 2 TCU (7) in the Network Champion him Course (13), No. 11 Oregon (3) and No. 3 TCU (7) in the National Championship Game. * Georgia shut down No. 1 Tennessee to the tune of 13 points after the Vols came in averaging a national best 49.4 points per contest. The 13 points was the lowest scored under head coach Josh Heupel. The Vols did not get a touchdown until 4:15 left in the contest. UT was just 2-of-14 on third downs (14 percent).

* Georgia posted its second shutout of the year with a 55-0 win over VU. This marked the 10th shutout in the Kirby Smart era (since 2016), the FBS' most during that span.

* Georgia allowed teams to convert on third downs only 27 percent of the time and that ranked second nationally.

* The 2022 Bulldog defense kept No. 11 Oregon to only a field goal in the season opener. This marked the first time Oregon had failed to score a touchdown in a game since 2017. Late in the fourth quarter, Georgia had an impressive goal line stand late that ended at the two yard line following a 19-play, 87-yard drive that lasted 8:47.

* Georgia's first touchdown allowed in 2022 came at South Carolina in game three with 53 seconds remaining in the game.

* The Bulldogs allowed only seven rushing TDs in 2022.

Tackles, Turnovers & Sacks

* Jamon Dumas-Johnson finished second on the team with 70 tackles, including nine TFL and four sacks. The Butkus Award finalist had one of the six sacks in the win over No. 1 Tennessee. Fellow junior ILB Smael Mondon was the team leader with 76 stops. Mondon also recorded his first career interception during the win over No. 14 LSU in the SECCG.

* Junior Javon Bullard earned CFP Defensive MVP honors in both the Semifinal Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl (three tackles, sack) and the National Championship Game (a tackle, two interceptions, a fumble recovery). Sophomore safety Malaki Starks finished third on the team with 68 tackles and had two interceptions on the year.

* Georgia had 12 picks on the year and recovered seven fumbles to finish +2 in turnover margin. S Chris Smith forced one of three turnovers versus No. 14 LSU in the SECCG with his team-leading third interception.

* The Bulldogs forced three interceptions during the victory at South Carolina. Starks had his second pick, one that he returned 42 yards, while S Dan Jackson and ILB Trezmen Marshall each had their first INT. Jackson missed the final eight games of 2022 because of a foot injury.

* Both Smith and Starks registered interceptions that eventually turned into 14 points and helped Georgia build a 21-0 lead versus #11 Oregon.

* This marked Smith's second in a row in a season-opening game after returning his INT for the game's only touchdown against No. 3 Clemson in 2021. Smith shared SEC Co-Defensive Player of the Week honors following his performance against Oregon. Smith was a 2022 Bronko Nagurski Trophy finalist.

Block That Kick

* Currently, there are three Bulldogs who have blocked a kick/punt in their Georgia career. In 2022, junior DL Nazir Stackhouse blocked a field goal that was returned 96 yards for a touchdown by teammate Chris Smith in the opening quarter of the SECCG versus No. 14 LSU. In addition, freshman OLB Jalon Walker blocked a punt that resulted in a safety versus Kent State. S Dan Jackson blocked a punt against No. 8 Arkansas in 2021.

Back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships (2021, '22), a 2017 CFP title game appearance, Southeastern Conference Championships in 2017 and 2022, five SEC Eastern Division titles, 81 wins and seven bowl victories are more than respectable rewards over a seven-year period. That's what Georgia got when it hired former Georgia player and Alabama defensive coordinator Kirby Smart to head the program in December of 2015.

His impact, along with a stellar coaching staff, players, and a passionate fan base has put Georgia on the national stage seven years running. The Bulldogs enter the 2023 season having won 33 of their last 34 games.

2022 - Georgia captured its second consecutive CFP national championship and second SEC title of the Smart era in dominant fashion. The Bulldogs went 12-0 in the regular season and soundly defeated LSU in the SEC title game, earning a No. 1 seed in the final CFP rankings. The Bulldogs then came back to defeat No. 4 Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl CFP semifinal and left little doubt who was the best team in the land with a 65-7 trouncing of TCU in the CFP title game at SoFi Stadium in Los Angeles. The Bulldogs were the only team to finish the 2022 season nationally ranked in the top five for Scoring Offense (41.1 points per game) and Scoring Defense (14.3 ppg). The 2022 senior class posted a 49-5 mark with two national championships and one SEC title

2021 - His 2021 team became UGA's first national champion since 1980, the first since 1982 to go undefeated in the SEC regular season, a No. 1 national ranking by all the major polls and the first ever to win 14 games. It marked the fifth straight team to finish the regular season ranked in the top ten of the College Football Playoff rankings. The team set 21 school records, highlighted by the nation's topranked defense. The third-ranked Bulldogs defeated #2 Michigan, 34-11, in the Capital One Orange Bowl in Miami and then No. 1 Alabama, 33-18, in the championship game in Indianapolis. The senior class also set the mark for most career wins by going 45-8. After the regular season. Smart was named SEC Coach of the Year for the second time in five years. Georgia's championship season enjoyed a fitting exclamation mark at the 2022 NFL Draft. The Bulldogs set a Draft record with 15 players taken, including five defenders in the first round, led by the first overall selection, junior Travon Walker.

2020 - The 2020 Bulldogs became Smart's fourth consecutive team to earn a New Year's Six bowl game appearance. With a Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl victory over undefeated Cincinnati on Jan. 1, 2021, the Bulldog seniors tied the record for the most wins by one class in school history (44).

2019 - Smart's 2019 Bulldogs became the first team in school history to win 11 or more games for a thirdstraight season. Georgia defeated three teams in the final Top 15 CFP ranking - Notre Dame, Florida, and Auburn — and finished fourth in the final polls. The Bulldogs capped their season with a dominant victory over Baylor in the Allstate Sugar Bowl game. 2018 - Georgia in 2018 posted an 11-1 regular season record, a second straight SEC Eastern Division title, and a ranking as high as number four in the CFP poll. Georgia landed in the Allstate Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 2019—the program's tenth all-time appearance in the New Orleans classic.

2017 - Smart's second season in 2017 was a special one, with an 11-1 regular-season record, an SEC title, a win over Oklahoma in the Rose Bowl Game (CFP semifinal) and advancement into the CFP National Championship Game. It was the first conference title since 2005 for the Red and Black.

Both Smart and his players reaped the bounty of their banner 2017 season. He was named George Munger National Coach of the Year by the Maxwell Football Club, SEC Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and SEC Coaches, and the Regional Coach of the Year by the AFCA. Roquan Smith earned first-team All-America honors and the Dick Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker.

2016 - In Smart's first season leading the Bulldogs, Georgia made its 20th straight bowl appearance and posted four fourth-quarter comebacks, including wins over No. 8 Auburn and No. 22 UNC. He led the Bulldogs to an 8-5 final record, which included a victory over TCU in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl.

As an Assistant Coach

When Smart officially came home to Georgia on Dec. 6, 2015, he had unfinished business as defensive coordinator at Alabama, which was still chasing a national title. He juggled both jobs for a month until Jan. 11, 2016, when the Crimson Tide won its fourth national championship in a 7-year span. Twelve hours later, he was at work in Athens, where he remains one of ten head coaches at schools from Power 5 conferences that are coaching at their alma maters.

Smart had served on the Alabama staff the previous nine years, seven as defensive coordinator. During his tenure at Alabama, the Crimson Tide won three BCS National Championships, one CFP national title, three SEC crowns, six SEC Western Division titles, and was ranked in the nation's final top 10 the last eight years in a row.

A first-team All-SEC safety as a senior in 1998, Smart finished his playing career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA history.

During Smart's time at Alabama, he coached players at three different positions, in addition to his coordinating duties. He was recognized as the 2012 AFCA Assistant Coach of the Year and the 2009 Broyles Award winner as college football's top assistant. He also was a finalist for the award in 2015.

Prior to joining the Alabama staff in 2007, Smart spent the 2006 season as safeties coach with the NFL's Miami Dolphins. He served six years on the collegiate level as the running backs coach at Georgia (2005), defensive backs coach at LSU (2004), graduate assistant at Florida State (2002-03), defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs coach (2000) at Valdosta State, and administrative assistant at Georgia (1999).

Smart was the running backs coach for Georgia's 2005 SEC Championship team. He coached Thomas Brown, Danny Ware and Kregg Lumpkin — all future NFL players. In 2004 at LSU, he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami).

As a Player

Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for Georgia, where he was a First-Team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, a mark that still ranks sixth in UGA annals, and paced the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. He led the SEC in interceptions during his final season.

A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart received his bachelor's degree in Finance from Georgia in 1998 and his master's in Physical Education from Florida State in 2003.

MIKE BOBO JOHN & ALICE SANDS OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR / QUARTERBACKS

A Georgia native who played quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97 and was an on-field coach for the program for 14 seasons, Mike Bobo was named a Quality Control analyst with the Bulldog offense on Jan. 28, 2022. He was promoted to Offensive Coordinator in February, 2023.

He is part of a coaching and support staff that led the 15-0 Bulldogs to the 2022 College Football Playoff National Championship with a 65-7 victory over TCU in the title game following a semi-final win over Ohio State in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl semi-final, 42-41.

The Georgia offense ranked among the top five nationally in both scoring offense (41.1 ppg) and total offense (501.1 ypg). The 'Dogs also finished first nationally in red zone offense (97.6%), first downs (375), and fourth down percentage (86.7%). Senior quarterback Stetson Bennett became the first player to be named the offensive Most Valuable Player in four CFP games including twice in a CFP National Championship Game.

A veteran coach in the Southeastern Conference, Bobo spent the 2021 season as offensive coordinator at Auburn. He worked in 2020 at South Carolina as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach after his five-year stint as head coach at Colorado State.

At Colorado State, he guided the Rams to bowl games in each of his first three seasons, making him the lone coach in program history to accomplish that feat. Bobo also joined Sonny Lubick as the only two to coach the Rams in multiple bowl games in their careers.

Overall, Bobo's teams left their marks on the offensive record book at CSU, as his squads own three of the top six marks for total offense in a season as well as the school record for most yards per game in a season (492.5, 2017). His Rams also posted three of the top seven scoring seasons in CSU history.

Bobo spent all but one of the first 22 years of his adult life at Georgia as a player or assistant coach. While in Athens as an undergraduate, he was a record-breaking starting quarterback and then spent 16 seasons working for the program.

1994-97Georgia — Quarterback, four-year letterman, holder of multiple school passing records at end of career

Bobo's 14-year stint at Georgia as a full-time coach began in January 2001 when Mark Richt hired him as quarterbacks coach. Bobo had previously worked on the football staff in an administrative role in 1998, then as a graduate assistant in 1999.

Bobo coached the Bulldog quarterbacks through the 2006 season. He then added the duties of offensive coordinator in 2007 and stayed in that post until accepting the Colorado State head coaching position after the 2014 season.

Bobo played four seasons with head coach Kirby Smart from 1994-97 at Georgia and coached alongside him in 2005 when Smart was running backs coach for a year.

During his time at UGA, Bobo helped lead the Bulldogs to 135 victories, including two SEC championships, five SEC Eastern Division titles and eight bowl victories. The 2012 Broyles Award finalist held the offensive coordinator spot for 92 games with the Bulldogs, scoring 30-plus points 57 times, 40-plus points 29 times and more than 50 points 13 times.

In fact, four of the top five seasons for average yards per game in history for the Bulldogs came under Bobo, including the school record mark of 484.15 in 2012.

Bobo guided several talented quarterbacks at Georgia, including Aaron Murray, Matthew Stafford and David Greene, along with wide receiver A.J. Green, running back Todd Gurley and many others. In all, Bobo helped mold four first-round NFL draft choices at Georgia: Stafford (No. 1 in 2009), running back Knowshon Moreno (No. 12 in 2009), Green (No. 4 in 2011) and Gurley (No. 10 in 2015).

Prior to joining Richt's staff at Georgia, Bobo served one year as an assistant coach at Jacksonville State.

Bobo was a quarterback for the Bulldogs from 1994-97, throwing for 6,334 yards, the seventh-most all-time by a Georgia quarterback, and set several Georgia passing records. As a senior in 1997, he threw for 2,751 yards on 199 completions in 306 attempts and had 19 TD to just eight interceptions.

Bobo, a native of Thomasville, Ga., and his wife, Lainie, have five children, a son Drew, who is a 2022 Bulldog signee; triplets Olivia, Jake and Ava Grace; and Kate. His father, George, was a long-time successful high school coach in Georgia.

Glenn Schumann was named Co-Defensive Coordinator & Inside Linebackers coach at Georgia in February of 2019 after three seasons in charge of the Bulldogs' inside linebackers.

Georgia has continued to set the standard in college football for defense. Schumann has played a central role in keeping the level of performance high. The Bulldogs have led the nation in Scoring Defense and ranked among the ghout the 2022 approxim Schumann was part of a 2021 staff that led the Bulldogs to the College Football Playoff National Championship with 33-18 win over Alabama in the title game. Georgia also finished first nationally in Red Zone Defense, second nationally in Rushing Defense and Passing Efficiency Defense. The Bulldog defense surrendered only three rushing and 10 passing TD's all year. Georgia set an NFL record with 15 picks in the 2022 NFL draft including five first round defensive players and eight overall.

During Schumann's tenure in Athens, in addition to the 2021 season, Georgia won 11 or more games in three straight seasons for the first time in program history (2017-19). The Bulldogs have also won five SEC Eastern Division titles (2017-19, 2021-22), earned five consecutive New Year's Six Bowl berths, won the 2022 CFP crown and played for the 2018 CFP title.

No. 3 Georgia 27, No. 1 Tennessee 13 Nov. 5, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium Athens, Ga.

GAME The Georgia defense quieted the nation's most prolific offense. The Georgia offense was ex-9 plosive at times and efficient at others. And at the end, amid a roaring and raucous atmosphere, the Bulldogs walked off of Dooley Field still undefeated

Quarterback Stetson Bennett threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score, while the Bulldog defense sacked Tennessee quarterback Hendon Hooker six times during a battle of unbeatens that Georgia won 27-13.

The polls may be up for debate, but the numbers told the story about Tennessee's offense. It was No. 1 in the country in multiple key categories going into the game -49.4 points and 553.0 yards per game - but the Bulldog defense, ranked among the nation's best in most categories, had the better day. Georgia outgained the Volunteers 389-289, with Bennett finishing 17-of-25 for 257 yards and the two touchdown passes plus a 13-yard scoring run.

It was the first home game since the passing of two Georgia legends, former football coach and director of athletics Vince Dooley, on Oct. 28 at age 90, and legendary football and baseball player Charley Trippi, who died on Oct. 19 at 100.

No. 1 Georgia 16, Kentucky 6 Nov. 19, 2022 • Kroger Field Lexington, Ky.

Powered by a dominant rushing attack, No. 1 GAME Georgia fought off Kentucky 16-6 on a cold 11 afternoon at Kroger Field, clinching a second straight undefeated run through its SEC regular-season schedule.

Kenny McIntosh led the way for Georgia, rushing for a career-high 143 yards and a 9-yard touchdown on 19 attempts. Georgia outgained the Wildcats 365-289, including 249 yards rushing on 44 carries.

Georgia built a 9-0 in the first half as kicker Jack Podlesny converted field goals from 27, 24, and 37 yards. It marked the fifth time this season that the Bulldogs didn't allow any points in the first half.

Georgia used its running game to get into the end zone for the first time in the third quarter. Running back Kendall Milton ran for a combined 28 vards on the first three plays, running back Daijun Edwards had an 8-yard run, followed by a 4-yard reception, and then McIntosh did the rest. An 8-yard McIntosh run gave Georgia firstand-goal at the 10, and two plays later, he ran the ball in for a 9-vard touchdown and a 16-0 lead with 6:22 remaining in the third. That capped an 8-play, 58-yard drive that lasted nearly four minutes.

The Bulldogs' next drive included a 35-yard pass from quarterback Stetson Bennett to receiver Dominick Blavlock on third-and-6 at the Georgia 31. On third-and-7 at the Kentucky 31, McIntosh ran left for 23 yards down to the 8. But on fourth-and-goal at the 1, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Milton was stopped short of the goal line.

Kentucky then drove 99 yards for a touchdown, coring from the 8 on fourth-and-2. The Wildcats went for the 2-point conversion and came up empty, keeping it the eventual final score of 16-6.

No. 1 Georgia 37, Georgia Tech 14 Nov. 26, 2022 • Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium Athens, Ga.

2022 Season in Review

With its 37-14 win over Georgia Tech, top-GAME ranked Georgia completed a second straight 12 undefeated regular season. In addition, the 22 members of the Bulldogs' senior class earned their 46th win, becoming the winningest class in program history.

Georgia had to work for the victory, getting behind 7-0 and struggling to finish off drives against a spirited group of Yellow Jackets. During what was for a long time a low-scoring matchup, kicker Jack Podlesny was pivotal, converting on field goals from 30, 50, and 36 yards. But then the Georgia offense got rolling and cruised to a blowout victory

McIntosh had a big day rushing and receiving. He finished with 86 yards on the ground and two receptions for 96 yards, including an 83-yarder early in the fourth quarter during a 99-yard scoring drive. McIntosh capped the drive one play after the long pass with a 2-yard TD plunge.

Bennett went 10-of-18 for 135 yards and touchdown passes to receiver Marcus Rosemy-Jacksaint and tight end Brock Bowers. The Bulldogs also cashed in on a 44-yard touchdown run by tailback Kendall Milton early in the fourth quarter.

Linebacker Smael Mondon led the defense with six tackles, including 1.5 for loss. Defensive back Tykee Smith was one of three Bulldogs with five tackles, and he also had 1.5 for loss. Georgia finished with four sacks and 11 tackles behind the line of scrimmage.

No. 1 Georgia 65, No. 3 TCU 7 Jan. 9, 2023 • SoFi Stadium Inglewood, Calif.

In a dominant performance, the Georgia Bull-GAME dogs etched their name in history with a 65-7 15 victory over TCU in the 2023 College Football Playoff National Championship Game. With the win, Georgia became the first team in the College Football Playoff era to win back-to-back national titles.

The Bulldogs jumped on the Horned Frogs early with mutliple long completions to Brock Bowers, leading to a 21-yard touchdown run from Stetson Bennett. Soon after, Christopher Smith forced a TCU fumble that was recovered by Javon Bullard and set up a 24-yard Jack Podlesny field goal. TCU then scored its lone points of the evening on a 2-yard run from Max Duggan, facilitated by a 60-yard completion to the Georgia 11. Georgia quickly responded with a 37-yard scoring strike from Bennett to Ladd McConkey.

Another Bennett rushing touchdown capped off a 92-yard scoring drive, followed by a Bullard interception of Duggan. The Bulldogs continued to march before Kendall Milton scored from one yard out. On the ensuing drive, Bullard grabbed another pick, allowing Bennett to hit Adonai Mitchell from 22 yards out to make the score 38-7 at halftime.

In the third quarter, Bowers finished Georgia's first drive with a 22-yard touchdown catch, contributing to his incredible 152-yard performance. Later in the period, Bennett tied a CFP record with his sixth touchdown, finding McConkey for a 14-yard touchdown. As the clock ran down, freshman Branson Robinson added to the final margin with a pair of fourth-quarter touchdowns.

Herschel Walker, TB

1982 Heisman Trophy Winner 1999 College Football Hall of Fame Inductee

"One of the greatest feelings in my athletic career was putting on the Red and Black and running onto the field 'between the hedges.' Being a first-round draft choice and playing in the NFL on Sundays was something I dreamed about all my life. Being a Georgia Bulldog was a big part of making that dream come true."

GEORGIA

Champ Bailey, CB

14-year veteran and 12-time Pro Bowl selection (the most of any CB) 2019 Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee

"Georgia has the excitement of big time college football. Playing for the Bulldogs helped me prepare for the many challenges I encountered in the NFL. I loved my time at Georgia."

Terrell Davis, RB Denver Broncos Super Bowl XXXII MVP

2017 Pro Football Hall of Fame Inductee

"Playing at Georgia made all the difference in my life. Bulldog fans are the best in college football, and you can feel the electricity every time there is a home game. I really felt the coaches and all of the great athletes I played with prepared me for the NFL and life after football. When people ask me what is the key to my success, I always point to my days as a Georgia Bulldog and the support I received from the University."

Hines Ward, WR Pittsburgh Steelers Super Bowl XL MVP

"The program Coach Smart has developed definitely prepares you. You are training your mind to be mentally prepared for things, keying in on the details because so much of the game is mental. What he brought and what he did definitely prepared me. Georgia is like a brotherhood, like a family. All of the guys take that seriously."

> Mecole Hardman, WR New York Jets (Formerly Kansas City Chiefs)

WHAT THE PROS SAY GEORGIA

I couldn't imagine choosing anywhere else to play or go to school, and I'll be back there as much as I can in the future. I'm a Dawg for life."

Sony Michel, RB Los Angeles Rams

"Being from the state of Georgia, it was one of my goals since I was a kid to play for the Bulldogs. I got the chance to go to school in Athens and it was everything I had dreamed it would be. Nick Chubb, RB Cleveland Browns

"Georgia has my eternal thanks for giving me the opportunity to grow and develop into the man I am today. My athletic and academic experience was second to none. My coaches believed that a skinny running back from Covington, Ga., could eventually become an All-American at defensive back. I will never forget stepping between the hedges to engage in battle with my brothers. Words can't express the feeling of being on that field and hearing the screams of 92,000 fans. I will always be a Dawg!"

Eric Stokes, CB Green Bay Packers

"Having the opportunity to play at Georgia was such a blessing in my life, and one that it took a while to completely realize. The brothers I will forever have from the team, the opportunity to live in Athens and get to know the town and the chance to attend a school like UGA was a once in a lifetime experience. I will always feel at home in Athens and in Sanford Stadium."

ACADEMIC HONORS

Records & History

1984 NCAA TOP SIX AWARD TERRY HOAGE ROV (1980-83)

Georgia's two-time All-America and Academic All-America roverback Terry Hoage probably best characterized the ideal of the student-athlete. For his achievements both on and off the field, Hoage became Georgia's first recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award at the NCAA convention in January, 1984.

The Top Six Award is presented annually to student-athletes who have achieved athletic success, shown leadership qualities and displayed academic prowess.

He set a school record with 12 interceptions during the 1982 season. He placed fifth in the 1983 Heisman Trophy balloting - the highest finish ever for a defensive back at that time. Hoage maintained a 3.7 grade point average in Genetics.

most decorated players in Georgia football history, Matt Stinchcomb, was honored with the 1998 NCAA Top Eight Award. The Top VIII Award is presented annually to eight student-athletes for their achievement in athletics, academics, and leadership. A two-time All-America OT, two time Academic All-America, and national Academic All-American of the Year in 1998, Stinchcomb also was a two-time member of the AFCA Good Works Team recognizing outstanding community service. A finalist for the Rotary Lombardi Award, he received post-graduate scholarships from the NCAA, National Football

Foundation, and won the Burger

King Scholar-Athlete of the Year for Division 1-A. He graduated with a 3.96 grade point average in business.

2002 TOP EIGHT AWARD JON STINCHCOMB OT (1999-2002)

Following in the footsteps of his older brother Matt, Bulldog lineman Jon Stinchcomb became the third Georgia football player to receive the prestigious NCAA Top VIII Award, presented to eight student-athletes for accomplishments in both academics and athletics as well as character and leadership.

A semifinalist for the 2002 Lombardi Award, Stinchcomb was named to the Walter Camp All-America team and the Verizon/CoSIDAAcademicAll-America squad. A first-team All-Southeastern Conference selection by the AP and the SEC Coaches, he anchored the Bulldog line in leading Georgia to a record-setting 13-1 record, SEC title and Sugar Bowl victory.

He was the male student-athlete representative to the University's athletics board of directors. He held a 3.75 grade point average in microbiology.

1997 NCAA TEDDY ROOSEVELT AWARD BILLY PAYNE, DE (1966-68)

Payne, president and CEO of the Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, (ACOG) received the Theodore Roosevelt Award - the NCAA's highest honor - during the annual convention in January, 1997.

The award is presented annually to a distinguished citizen who is a former college athlete and has exemplified the ideals and purposes of college athletics by demonstrating a continuing interest and concern for physical fitness and sport.

Payne, a three-year letterman for the Bulldogs (1966-68), graduated from Georgia in 1969 and earned his law degree from the University in 1973. After a successful law practice in Atlanta, he began his work of bringing the Olympic Games to Atlanta in 1988.

NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD

(presented to former student-athletes, on the 25th anniversary of their senior year, who have distinguished themselves in their chosen career field)

1996 NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD DR. TOM LYONS, C (1968-70)

Former University of Georgia All-America center Dr. Tom Lyons, director of the Center for Women's Care and Reproductive Surgery in Atlanta, was one of six selected nationally to receive the 1996 award. Lyons was chosen to present the acceptance response in behalf of all Silver Anniversary winners at the 1996 NCAA convention, a group which included football legends Joe Theisman of Notre Dame and Jack Youngblood of Florida and track great Marty Liquori of Villanova. Since beginning his medical practice full time, Lyons has become one of the nation's leading physicians in the field of obstetrics and gynecology.

A two-time All-America and All-SEC lineman (1969 and '70), Lyons was awarded the prestigious NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship and National Football Foundation and Hall of Fame Post-Graduate Fellowship. He was a six-year starter with the NFL's Denver Broncos, attending medical school and completed his internship and residency at the University of Colorado during his NFL playing career.

1986 NCAA SILVER ANNIVERSARY AWARD FRAN TARKENTON, QB (1958-60)

Fran Tarkenton, All-America quarterback at Georgia and All-Pro with both the Minnesota Vikings and New York Giants of the NFL, became the Bulldogs' first recipient of the prestigious NCAA Silver Anniversary Award in 1986.

A native of Athens who first played in Sanford Stadium as part of the Athens YMCA's youth games prior to Bulldog contests, Tarkenton was a two-time first-team All-Southeastern Confernce selection and led Georgia to the 1959 SEC Championship.

After throwing four touchdowns in his first NFL game, Tarkenton enjoyed an illustrious 18-year pro career and was named the league MVP in 1975. When he retired from the NFL in 1978, Tarkenton was the league's all-time leader in passing attempts (6,467) completions (3,686), vardage (47,003) and touchdowns (342). Vikings coach Bud Grant said Tarkenton was "the greatest quarterback ever to play the game."

The same year Tarkenton received the NCAA's Silver Anniversary Award, he was also inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The following year, 1987, Tarkenton was enshrined into the College Football Hall of Fame as well.

148 GEORGIA

Nothing like being "Between the Hedges" at Georgia's Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium

With a $25 million expansion completed in 2003 and another $8 million in 2004, Sanford Stadium added a second upper deck on the north side and 27 new north side SkySuites bringing the new stadium capacity to 92,746--the ninth largest on-campus stadium in the country.

Named for the late Dr. S. V. Sanford, former president of the University and Chancellor of the University system, Georgia's Sanford Stadium celebrated its 75th anniversary in 2004. An overflow crowd of 30,000 saw the stadium's first game on October 12, 1929, when Yale University made its only trip South. Georgia won the now famous game when a young sophomore end from Macon, Vernon "Catfish" Smith, scored all 15 of the Bulldogs' points. Final score, Georgia 15, Yale 0.

Through the years, the stadium has experienced various expansion projects. In 1940, lights were added to the field level paving the way to the first Sanford Stadium night game, a 7-7 tie between Georgia and Kentucky on October 26, 1940. Eventually, the East end of the stadium was enclosed, more lights added, and the capacity increased to 82,122. The 1991 project enclosed the West end at a cost of $3.7 million. The price tag was rather hefty, considering that the original price to build the stadium was a mere $360,000.

Sanford Stadium added yet another chapter to its history by hosting the medal round of the 1996 Olympic men's and women's soccer competition, watched via television by over 3 billion people around the world.

Prior to Georgia's 2019 home opener, the playing field at Sanford Stadium was formally renamed in honor of Vince Dooley, the Bulldogs' all-time winningest head coach. Dooley served as head football coach of the Bulldogs from 1963 through 1989 and director of athletics from 1979 to 2004. As head coach, he won 201 games, one national championship and six SEC championships. While Dooley was athletic director, UGA won 23 national championships and 78 SEC team championships.

Sanford Stadium grew to its current capacity of 92,746 in 2004.

The Centennial Olympic Games of 1996 added an historic chapter to the 70-plus year history of Sanford Stadium. The home of the Bulldogs hosted the medal round of the men's and women's Olympic soccer in July, 1996.

The largest crowd ever to witness a women's soccer game saw the United States defeat China, 2-1, to claim the first-ever women's Olympic gold medal in the sport.

DR. STEADMAN V. SANFORD

Born August 20, 1871, Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford joined the Georgia faculty in 1903 and instantly became one of the University's most popular people. He founded the Henry W. Grady School of Journalism in 1921, served as University Dean from 1927-32, and held the post of University president and chancellor until 1935 when he was named chancellor of the entire University System of Georgia. He also held the position of faculty chairman of athletics while on the UGA faculty. He was the force behind the construction of Sanford Stadium in 1929 and was termed many times as "the best friend of athletics." He was largely responsible for persuading the Bulldogs of Yale to make their first trip ever south of the Mason-Dixon line to play the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. He died September 15, 1945.

Bullpups vs. Baby Jackets

For 60 years, Thanksgiving Day was a special day in the history of the Georgia - Georgia Tech rivalry. It was on that day that the Georgia and Georgia Tech freshman football teams, and in later years the junior varsity teams, met at Tech's Grant Field. The game, played from 1933 to '93, annually benefitted the Scottish Rite Children's Hospital and became a nationally-recognized event.

During those years, freshmen were ineligible and each school played an annual freshman or junior varsity schedule. As such, many who would become the greatest players for both schools were showcased in this annual game. Among the many who played in the annual classic were legendary Georgia players like Fran Tarkenton, Bill Stanfill, Frank Sinkwich, and Charley Trippi and Tech greats like Ray Beck, Buck Martin, Pepper Rodgers and Kim King.

The charity game had its origin in 1930 when teams representing the northern and southern divisions of the old Southern Conference played an all- star game. In 1933, Georgia coach H.J. Stegeman and Tech coach William Alexander convinced a group of Atlanta businessmen to serve on a committee for the purpose of selling tickets to a freshman game between the two schools. The proceeds were designated to Scottish Rite. The Governor's Cup was presented each year to the winning team.

The game became a southern tradition and prospered for decades. However, scholarship and roster limitations caused discontinuation of the game in 1993; but in 1994, a "Legends Game" was held to maintain the tradition of the game. The NCAA, at the schools' request, agreed to recognize the varsity rivalry and beginning in 1995, the Children's Healthcare of Atlanta annually presents the Governor's Cup to the winning team.

* later became head coach

Dr. Charles Herty (Georgia), 1892

Herty was Georgia's first coach, but in those days he was referred to as the "trainer." Commonly known as the father of Georgia football, he was a member of the University's faculty working as a professor in the chemistry department. Herty was a graduate of Georgia and received his Ph.D. at John Hopkins University. While at the Baltimore school he saw a different version of the sport of Rugby, referred to as football. Herty returned to Athens in the fall of 1891 as a member of the faculty. He gathered some students and told them of the games that he had seen. Herty initiated the formation of a team by helping the students prepare a field of play or "gridiron". The University's Glee Club contributed the princely sum of $50.00 to finance the removal of rocks and the filling of holes on the field. Goal posts were set up and Herty became the first coach of a Georgia football team. Herty later earned national fame as a scientist in the development of the turpentine and pine pulpwood industry. Georgia's football field was later renamed in his honor.

Ernest Brown (UGA), 1893

Brown was a Georgia graduate student who volunteered to coach the Bulldogs during the 1893 season. Brown led the Bulldogs to a 2-2-1 season, and also played halfback that season.

Robert Winston, 1894

Winston was an Englishman and former Rugby player and coach who had coached Yale, Amherst, Rochester and Syracuse prior to arriving in Athens in the fall of 1894. Winston was Georgia's first "paid coach" and was known to put Georgia's players through some rigorous training prior to the season. He coached Georgia to a 10-8 win over Auburn and four other victories during that 5-1-0 season.

Glenn "Pop" Warner (Cornell), 1895-1896

Warner is a name that is synonymous with the game of football . A Cornell graduate, Warner came to Athens in September of 1895. He was signed to a $34-a-week salary for ten weeks in his first season and received an increase to $40 for his second season. He coached the Bulldogs, then known as the Red and Black, for two seasons, and led Georgia to one of its three undefeated seasons—4-0 in 1896. Warner later went on to coach at the Carlisle Indian School, where he coached the legendary Jim Thorpe, and later at Pitt and Stanford.

Charles McCarthy (Brown), 1897-1898

McCarthy, a Brown University graduate, became Georgia's fifth head football coach and was almost the school's last. McCarthy inherited a fine Georgia team from Warner, including an outstanding quarterback named Richard "Von" Gammon. Gammon was critically injured in a game against Virginia, and died later that day. Although many called for the abolishment of football, the sport survived after a plea to state government officials by Gammon's mother. In 1898 McCarthy coached the Georgia squad to victories over Tech and Vanderbilt, but suffered a controversial and disputed 18-17 loss to Auburn.

Gordon Saussy (Cornell), 1899

Saussy was a former Cornell player who came to Athens from Savannah and at the age of 26, coached Georgia for one season. During the 1899 season his Bulldogs defeated both Georgia Tech and Clemson and played Auburn to a controversial 0-0 tie. The Tigers led 11-6 with a minute to play when the contest was disrupted by an unruly mob that prevented the official conclusion of the game. Saussy went on to become Mayor of Savannah and Chairman of the State of Georgia Bicentennial Celebration (1933), bringing President Roosevelt to Savannah. He was awarded the first Lucas Trophy by the City of Savannah and later brought to Savannah Dr. Charles Herty, the father of pulp paper production and Georgia's first coach. Dr. Herty was living in Saussy's home when he passed away.

E.E. Jones (Princeton), 1900

Jones succeeded Saussy at the helm of Georgia's program but didn't fare much better. He was a Princeton graduate that came to Athens on the recommendation of university benefactor Arthur Poe. His team finished 2-4, lacked offensive output, and was outscored 159 to 28 in their six contests.

Billy Reynolds (Princeton), 1901-1902

Reynolds came to UGA from the University of North Carolina, where he had coached the previous four years. Reynolds, a Princeton graduate, inherited a below average team, but in two seasons he was able to turn the Georgia program around. After a woeful 1-5-2 season in 1901, his 1902 squad went 4-2-1, with victories over Alabama and Auburn.

M.M. Dickinson (UGA), 1903, 1905

Dickinson came to UGA at the turn of the century as a transfer from Mercer University. While at Georgia he played football and baseball on the 1900, 1901 and 1902 teams. In football he was a halfback and baseball a catcher. He was captain of the 1901 baseball team. After graduation he coached both sports at the University in 1903, leading the football team to a 3-4 record with wins over Tech and Auburn. He played professional baseball in the Texas League in 1904 and returned to Athens in 1905 to coach football and baseball. The 1905 team won only one game against Dahlonega, 16-12, and lost five. Dickinson left Athens in 1905 and entered the newspaper business, where he worked until his death in 1950.

Charles A. Barnard (Harvard), 1904

Barnard, a native Bostonian, was none too popular with his players and became more and more unpopular to fans as his team lost five consecutive games after their opening 52-0 win over Florida.

FORMER HEAD COACHES

W.S. "Bull" Whitney (Syracuse), 1906-1907

Whitney was a Syracuse graduate that came to the University in 1906 from North Carolina A & M where he had gone undefeated the previous season. He did not achieve the same success, however. During the 1906 season, the forward pass was legalized. Whitney tried to take advantage of this new play, but it was an errant pass that led to Georgia's first defeat of that season. His 1906 team went 2-4-1 and was part of the "Ringer" controversy in the 1907 Tech game that forced his vacating the coaching duties to interim coach Branch Bocock who coached the final three games of that season. Whitney was very superstitious and would not reveal his starting lineup until just before kickoff.

Branch Bocock (Georgetown), 1908

Bocock was a Georgetown graduate and former player who took the reins of the Georgia program after Whitney. Bocock worked in the law office of Judge Hamilton McWhorter, and it was McWhorter that allowed Bocock to leave the office in the afternoons to train the Georgia team. Bocock led Georgia to a 5-2-1 record in 1908. Perhaps his biggest coaching win was when his Georgia team upset Auburn 6-0 in 1907 when he was the interim coach after Whitney left Georgia after the Tech game.

J. Coulter and Frank Dobson (Brown), 1909

Coulter and Dobson served almost as "co-coaches" of the Georgia team in 1909. Coulter, a Brown University graduate, had no previous head coaching experience and was unable to get the Georgia offense in gear. So he hired Frank Dobson, a Roanoke, Va., native who had assisted John W. Heisman at Tech. He inserted several trick plays into the Georgia offense, and they became the talk of Athens, but that still didn't prevent UGA from going 1-4-2. Dobson moved on to Clemson in 1910, where he was its first paid football coach and also the school's baseball and first basketball coach.

W.A. Cunningham (Vanderbilt), 1910-1919

Cunningham gave the Georgia program what it had so desperately needed at that juncture in its history— continuity and a winner. Until Cunningham, a Vanderbilt graduate, arrived in Athens, the Georgia coaching post had been held by 13 coaches in 18 years. Cunningham was hired by Dr. Steadman Vincent Sanford and remained coach for nine years. He coached Georgia's first All-American, Bob McWhorter, and the legendary George "Kid" Woodruff. He led Georgia to seven winning seasons, and an overall record of 43-18-9. Cunningham entered the Army when the United States entered World War I, and came back to coach one more year, before re-entering the Army where he reached the rank of General.

FORMER HEAD COACHES

Herman J. Stegeman (Chicago) 1920-1922

Stegeman was a 1919 graduate of the University of Chicago, where he played under the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg. He was sent to Athens by the Army to install a physical training program for the University's R.O.T.C. students. Stegeman also doubled as an assistant under W.A. Cunningham and later assumed his role as head coach of the program in 1920. Stegeman was the coach of the original "Bulldogs" of 1920 that went 8-0-1 and won the Southern Conference Championship. Stegeman coached two more years and had a 20-6-3 career mark at the helm of the Georgia program. Stegeman's contributions to the University were not solely limited to coaching the football team. He also coached baseball, basketball, track, and held the positions of Athletic Director and Dean of Male Students. Stegeman remained at Georgia for 18 more years as Athletic Director and Dean of Male Students. Stegeman Coliseum on the Georgia campus is named in his honor.

Woodruff, a captain and star on the 1911 Georgia team, returned to his alma mater in 1923 as its head football coach. Woodruff introduced the Notre Dame "Box 4" shift offense to southern football.

He had witnessed the effectiveness of the offense when the Fightin' Irish destroyed Tech 35-7 in 1923. He decided that he wanted to implement the same system at Georgia. Woodruff brought three of Rockne's disciples, Frank Thomas and Harry Mehre, and later Jim Crowley to tutor the Georgia men about the finer points of the most popular offense of the day. Woodruff, an extremely successful businessman from Columbus drew a salary of only a dollar per year, and Georgia got more than its money's worth from him. Woodruff's 1927 squad went 9-1 and won the Southern Conference Championship, and he went on to compile a 32-16-1 record over his five seasons at the helm. His most notable accomplishment might be that he gave three legendary coaches their start in the profession: Thomas of Alabama, Mehre of Georgia and Ole Miss and Crowley of Michigan State and Fordham. The football practice fields behind the Butts-Mehre building are named for Woodruff.

Harry Mehre (Notre Dame) 1928-1937

Mehre came to UGA as an assistant coach on the recommendation of Knute Rockne. Mehre took over the head coaching duties in 1928 and led Georgia to a 59-34-6 record in his ten years as coach. He was a master at getting his team prepared for the big game, and perhaps none bigger than Georgia's 15-0 victory over Yale in the dedication game of Sanford Stadium in 1929. Mehre was the only coach in the country to knock off Yale five straight times when Yale was at its height. These victories over Yale and other eastern schools brought Georgia to national prominence. Mehre also led the Bulldogs to a 7-7 tie against the "Seven Blocks of Granite," undefeated Fordham, and knocked them out of the Rose Bowl. Mehre left Georgia in 1937 to assume the head coaching duties at Ole Miss where he remained for eight seasons and compiled a 39-26-1 record. Mehre left Ole Miss in 1945 and became a soft drink wholesaler and football analyst for the AT-LANTA JOURNAL for 22 years. The Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall on the University of Georgia campus is named for him.

Joel Hunt (Texas A&M), 1938

Hunt came to the University in the winter of 1938 and remained for only one season. He was a star player at Texas A&M and won that school's award for being the top athlete in 1929 when he scored 19 touchdowns for the Aggies. After serving an assistantship at LSU he came to Athens and guided the Bulldogs, captained by Quinton Lumpkin, to a 5-4-1 record in the 1938 season. Hunt never captured the favor of Georgia's fans and alumni and left Athens after just one season. Perhaps Hunt's greatest accomplishment was leaving a little-known line coach behind to succeed him, Wally Butts. Hunt went on to coach at the University of Wyoming and later returned to LSU.

Wally Butts (Mercer), 1939-1960

Butts came to UGA as an assistant under oneyear head coach Joel Hunt and remained for 22 years at the head of Georgia's program. He was known as the 'Little Round Man' to most fans, but as a bona fide coaching genius to others in the profession. He led the Bulldogs to previously unparalleled success with six bowl appearances, four SEC championships, 140 victories and an undefeated season in 1946. He was known as an advocate of the passing game and brought that to the forefront of offensive thinking in Southern collegiate play. He coached a Heisman winner (Frank Sinkwich, 1942), a Maxwell award winner (Charley Trippi, 1946), and the "Peerless Pilot" Francis Tarkenton. Butts resigned in 1960, but stayed on at Georgia as Athletic Director until his retirement in 1963. He later went on to a highly successful career in the insurance business until his death in 1973. The Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall on the University of Georgia campus is named in his honor.

Johnny Griffith (UGA), 1961-1963

Griffith was a former Bulldog player and member of the undefeated 1946 team, and succeeded the legendary Butts by taking the reins of the Georgia program on January 6, 1961. Griffith was known as an excellent recruiter in his days as a Georgia assistant from 1956-1960. He was unable to establish a winning program in those years after Butts, and was a combined 1-8 against Florida, Auburn, and Tech. His biggest coaching victory was a 30-21 upset win over Auburn in 1962. He did coach one of Georgia's all-time greatest passers, Larry Rakestraw, who is still prominent in the Bulldog record books. Griffith resigned his coaching duties in December,1963, and later went on to establish a successful construction business in Atlanta. He became a tireless worker in behalf of the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame and was selected for induction into the Hall in 1997.

Records & History

Vince Dooley (Auburn) 1964-1988

Dooley is the most successful coach in Georgia history. He guided the Bulldogs to over 200 victories in a quarter century at the helm of the Georgia program and is one of the best known and most highly regarded coaches in the country. He was hired in January 1964 by then Athletic Director Joel Eaves to bring life back to the Georgia program and succeeded beyond all expectations. His teams became known for their outstanding toughness, sound fundamentals, and finding a way to win en route to a career record of 201-77-10. He became only the ninth coach in NCAA Division I history to win over 200 games. The Bulldogs won one national championship (1980) and six SEC Championships under his direction. He took his teams to 20 Bowl games and coached a Heisman Trophy winner (Herschel Walker, 1982), a Maxwell Award Winner (Walker, 1982), an Outland Award Winner (Bill Stanfill, 1968), 40 First Team All-Americans and 10 Academic All-Americans. He was named NCAA National Coach of the Year by every major poll in 1980 and by Chevrolet-WTBS in 1982. A former president of the American Football Coaches Association, Dooley was named SEC Coach of the Year seven times and NCAA District Coach of the Year on six occasions. During his tenure, seven of his players earned the prestigious National Football Foundation post-graduate scholarship and 11 former players received the equally-coveted NCAA post-graduate scholarship. Seventy-seven of his players earned Academic All-SEC recognition. He holds the unique distinction of being inducted into the Sports Hall of Fame in two different states, Georgia and Alabama. Dooley is a 1994 inductee into the National College Football Hall of Fame.

Ray Goff (UGA), 1989-1995

Goff succeeded Vince Dooley in 1988. He was a former player and All-SEC quarterback under Dooley from 1973-1976, and captain of the Southeastern Conference Champions in 1976 when he was named SEC Player of the Year. After serving three years as an assistant coach at South Carolina, he became one of Dooley's assistants at Georgia from 1981-1988. In seven seasons, Goff coached the Bulldogs to a 46-34-1 record, four bowls (with victories over Arkansas in the 1991 Independence Bowl and Ohio State in the 1993 Citrus Bowl), and an eighth place national ranking after the 10-2 campaign in 1992.

@GeorgiaFootball

FORMER HEAD COACHES

Jim Donnan (NC State) 1996-2000

In Jim Donnan's five years as head coach, UGA compiled a 40-19 overall record, including 25-15 in SEC play (5-6 in '96, 10-2 in '97, 9-3 in '98, 8-4 in '99, and 8-4 in 2000). And for the first time in school history, the Bulldogs won bowl games in four consecutive seasons.

Under his direction, Georgia also finished in the nation's top 20 a school- record four consecutive seasons – 10th in '97; 14th in '98, 16th in '99, and 17th in 2000. In addition, Georgia set two home game attendance marks averaging 85,618 per game in 1998 and in 1999 and 2000 sold out every home game for an average of 86,117 in 1999 — fifth best in the country — and 86,520 in 2000.

A native of Burlington, N.C., Donnan came to Georgia after a record-setting run at Marshall. In six years, his teams won 64 games, one national title (1992), three national runner-up finishes (1991, '93,'95), and five straight trips to the post-season playoffs. He was named national 1-AA Coach of the Year twice (1992,'95) and was inducted into College Football Hall of Fame in 2009.

Mark Richt (Miami, Fla.) 2001-15

Mark Richt built quite a legacy in 15 seasons as UGA's head coach. By winning percentage, he ranks first among all Georgia coaches at .740 over 15 seasons, and he ranks second only to Vince Dooley in victories with 145.

Richt led Georgia to two SEC Championships (2002, '05), five SEC Eastern Division titles and tied for another. He was named SEC Coach of the Year in both 2002 and 2005. He was also one of only seven coaches in history to win two SEC championships (2002, 2005) in his first five years, and one of just seven head coaches in SEC history to record four straight 10-win seasons (2002-05). His record against non-conference teams was 60-11 and his teams were an impressive 49-16 when playing in an opponent's home stadium.

Just as important as Richt's win-loss record was his stewardship of the program away from the playing field. More than 300 players under his guidance earned academic degrees. The Bulldogs drew praise nationally for their work in the Athens area community. Perhaps most important, however, was his founding of the Paul Oliver Network, a program that supports lettermen in their transition to life after football.

Bryan McClendon (UGA) 2015 ('16 TaxSlayer Bowl)

Four-year UGA letterman Bryan McClendon was named Interim Head Coach of the Bulldogs on Dec. 3, 2015, and he served in that capacity through Georgia's victory over Penn State in the 2016 TaxSlayer Bowl.

McClendon had been a member of the Georgia coaching staff since 2007. Prior to his appointment as Interim Head Coach, he had been the Bulldogs' Assistant Head Coach, Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach in 2015.

Vincent J. Dooley The University of Georgia Director of Athletics, 1979-2004

There may have been no more decorated director of athletics in the country than Georgia's Vince Dooley who served as head football coach at UGA from December, 1963, to Jan. 1, 1988, and as Director of Athletics from 1979-2004. He was a man of great foresight in times of charting the future, stability in times of change, and vision in critical times that shaped the path of college athletics.

His national stature was evident by his numerous honors: 2010 Bear Bryant Lifetime Achievement Award; 2004 James J. Corbett Memorial Award presented annually by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), the highest honor one can achieve in collegiate athletics administration; the 2004 John L. Toner Award presented annually by the National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame for superior administrative abilities and outstanding dedication to college athletics; 2005 Francis J. "Reds" Bagnell Award Contributions to the Game of Football by the Maxwell Club; and the 2004 Contributions to College Football Award presented by National College Football Awards Association and ESPN. He was also selected to the Georgia Trend Magazine Hall of Fame in 2004 and was named by the magazine one of the Top 100 Georgians of the Century in 2000.

Under his watch as athletic director, Georgia teams won 20 national championships (ten in his final six years) including an unprecedented four during the 1998-99 year (women's swimming, gymnastics, men's tennis, men's golf). During Dooley's tenure, Georgia athletic teams won 78 SEC team championships and numerous individual national titles in both men's and women's sports. In the annual Directors' Cup national all-sports competition, Georgia teams earned top-10 finishes in five of his final seven years as Director of Athletics.

He was also a standard-bearer for academic excellence. Under his leadership, more than 100 Georgia student-athletes were named first team Academic All-America, more than 50 received NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarships, seven were named recipients of the SEC's Boyd McWhorter Scholar-Athlete of the Year award, seven NCAA Top Eight Award winners, three NCAA Woman of the Year recipients, two Walter Byers Award winners, and well over $275,000 was awarded to the University's general scholarship fund through performances by Georgia student-athletes.

In May of 2019, the Georgia Board of Regents approved the naming of the playing field at Sanford Stadium in Dooley's honor. Officially, the facility's name is now Dooley Field at Sanford Stadium.

RETIRED JERSEYS

#21 FRANK SINKWICH 1942 Heisman Trophy Winner Jersey Retired in 1943 1940, '41, '42 (Capt.)

In 1942, Frank Sinkwich became Georgia's first Heisman Trophy winner after leading Georgia to an 11-1 record, SEC championship, and victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

It was the culmination of a great college career highlighted by the Heisman Trophy and All-America selection two consecutive years. In his three-year career (1940-42), Sinkwich rushed for 2,271 yards, passed for 2,331, and accounted for 60 touchdowns—30 rushing and 30 passing.

Born in McKees Rock, Pa., Sinkwich was an outstanding high school star at Cheney High School in Youngstown, Ohio. In his record setting senior season with the Bulldogs, Sinkwich gained 795 yards rushing and set the SEC passing record with 1,392 yards, a mark that stood for eight years. He set the SEC total offense record of 2,187 yards that same season. Sinkwich led Georgia to another SEC record -4,725 yards of team total offense. Although playing with two sprained ankles, he scored Georgia's only TD in 9-0 victory over UCLA in the Rose Bowl.

In 1941, Sinkwich set an SEC rushing record with 1,103 yards which stood for eight years, and gained 713 yards passing for a new SEC total offense record of 1,816 yards. He led Georgia to a 40-26 victory over TCU in the Orange Bowl New Year's Day in 1942 with a performance still considered by many as the best in all bowl history. Sinkwich gained 139 yards, completed 9 of 13 passes for 243 yards and three touchdowns — a total offensive effort of 382 yards. That season, Sinkwich played from the third game on with a broken jaw in a protective mask.

Sinkwich was All-Pro with Detroit in 1943-44, but a knee injury received in the Air Force game in 1945 ended his playing career. He was inducted into the National Football Hall of Fame in 1954.

RETIRED JERSEYS

On Sept. 2, 1985, the jersey #34 of 1982 Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker (L) was retired during halftime ceremonies of the season-opening Georgia-Alabama game. In a rare gathering of former UGA superstars, Walker was joined by the other three former Bulldogs who have retired jerseys: #40 Theron Sapp, #62 Charley Trippi, and #21 Frank Sinkwich.

Records & History

#62 CHARLEY TRIPPI 1946 Maxwell Award Winner Jersey Retired in 1947 1942, '45, '46

Charley Trippi is still regarded by many as the greatest all-around athlete ever to play for the University of Georgia.

Trippi began earning Hall of Fame distinction as a sophomore by leading the Bulldogs to a 9-0 victory over U.C.L.A. in the 1943 Rose Bowl game in which he was named the game's outstanding player after rushing for 130 yards.

Born Dec. 14, 1922, in Pittston, Pa., Trippi was a unanimous All-America selection in 1946 after leading Georgia to a perfect 11-0 record, SEC championship, and victory over North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl game. His senior season, he led the SEC in scoring with 84 points and finished the year with 1,366 yards total offense (744 rushing and 622 passing). He was runnerup for the Heisman Trophy in '46 and won the Maxwell Award, given annually to the most valuable player in the country.

He signed with the Chicago Cardinals following his collegiate career and in his rookie season, led them to the world championship. In the championship game, he scored twice on a 44-yard rush and 75-yard punt return. He played with the Cardinals for nine seasons.

Following his playing career, Trippi was selected to the National College Football Hall of Fame, National Pro Football Hall of Fame, Rose Bowl Hall of Fame, and State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame. He is one of only four Georgia players to have his jersey retired.

Trippi became a regular halfback on the 1942 SEC championship team that finished 11-1 and earned the Rose Bowl invitation. He gained 1,239 total yards (672 rushing on 98 carries and another 567 passing completing 30 of 58).

He spent 1943-45 serving in the Air Force, but following his discharge, he returned to Georgia to play the final six games of the 1945 season. One of his most memorable performances was leading the 'Dogs to a 33-0 victory over Georgia Tech—a game in which he set the SEC record for yards gained passing (323) and also total offense (384 yards on 323 passing and 61 rushing). Against Florida that same year, he set the SEC record for rushing in a single game with 239 yards. In his junior season, he led Georgia to a 20-6 victory over Tulsa in the Oil Bowl at Houston, Jan. 1, 1946.

Trippi was also an All-America baseball player in 1946 and played with the Atlanta Crackers in 1947. He later served as an assistant coach at Georgia (1958-62) and with the St. Louis Cardinals.

#40 THERON SAPP, FB

Jersey Retired in 1959 1956, '57, '58 (Captain)

He will always be known as "The Drought Breaker" for his great touchdown against Georgia Tech in 1957. His score was the difference in a 7-0 Georgia victory which ended an eight-year losing streak to the Yellow Jackets. But that single score sometimes overshadows a great career at Georgia which included being named All-SEC in 1958 and his election as team captain.

He was drafted by Philadelphia in 1960, and was in the lineup when the Eagles defeated Vince Lombardi's up-and-coming Green Bay Packers in the NFL championship game. He was traded to Pitt in 1963 and responded by rushing for over 500 yards and helping the Steelers to the eastern division title.

Georgia set an NFL Draft record when five of its defensive players were taken in the first round in 2022, led by Travon Walker, who was drafted first overall by Jacksonville.

CHAMPIONSHIP HISTORY

Over the 130-year history of football at Georgia, seven Bulldog teams have actually been declared national champions at season's end in at least one of the national polls recognized by the National College Football Hall of Fame and included in the official NCAA Football Record Book. Two of those – 1980 and 1942 – were consensus selections, having been chosen in at least half of the recognized polls. The two most recent champions, in 2021 and 2022, won their titles on the field and were voted No. 1 unanimously in the aftermath. Three other Georgia teams - 1927, 1946, and 1968 - were recognized by polls such as the Williamson, based on a power ratings system, and the Litkenhous, a difference-by-score formula.

THE CONSENSUS NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

2022 - With a dominant 15-0 season, Georgia became the first team in the College Football Playoff era to win back-to-back championships.

After opening the season with a 49-3 victory over No. 11 Oregon, Georgia again used a forceful defense and a high-powered offense to post an undefeated season and earn its first SEC title since 2017. Quarterback Stetson Bennett became the Bulldogs' first Heisman Trophy finalist in thirty years, finishing fourth in voting while also winning the Manning Award. Tight end Brock Bowers won the program's first John Mackey Award, while defensive back Christopher Smith was a finalist for the Bronko Nagurski Trophy. Bowers, Smith, defensive lineman Jalen Carter and linebacker Jamon Dumas-Johnson each earned First Team All-America honors.

Holding the top ranking for much of the season, the Bulldogs grabbed control of the SEC race with a 27-13 victory over CFP No. 1 Tennessee in one of the most anticipated games in program history. Following a 50-30 win over LSU in the SEC Championship Game, Georgia used a fourth-quarter comeback to top Ohio State in the Peach Bowl before an unprecedented 65-7 title game rout of TCU.

2021 - There was no debating Georgia's claim to the 2021 national title, its first in 41 years and first in the college football playoff era.

Indeed, the Bulldogs posted a perfect regular season in which they were rarely threatened, winning their first 12 games by an average score of 49-8. This dominance was highlighted by a defense that featured winners of the Outland Trophy (Jordan Davis), Chuck Bednarik Award (Davis) and Butkus Award (Nakobe Dean), as well as the first overall pick in the NFL Draft (Travon Walker). Fittingly, the first and last touchdowns of this historic season were scored by the Georgia defense.

The Bulldogs ascended to the No. 1 spot in the polls by mid-October. A loss to Alabama in the SEC Championship Game proved to be their lone misstep. After steamrolling Michigan in the CFP semifinal at the Orange Bowl, Georgia

The other three....

1927 - Georgia's famous "dream and wonder team" of Coach George "Kid" Woodruff won its first nine games, including the Bulldogs' first win ever over Yale, a college football power of the 1920's, in New Haven, Conn. It ranked No. 1 in the nation with one regular-season game left. However, Georgia Tech spoiled the perfect season by upsetting the 'Dogs in the rain, 12-0, in Atlanta. But the Bulldogs were still voted number one in two final recognized polls — Boand and Poling.

1946 - The 1942 juggernaut was dismantled by the events of World War II. But Charley Trippi and several of his Rose Bowl teammates returned to school in 1946 and led Georgia to a perfect 10-0 regular season and 20-10 victory over North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl. Despite Georgia's perfect record, Notre Dame was declared national champion by the majority of the polls; however, the Bulldogs were voted No. 1 in the final Williamson poll.

1968 - In 1968, another of Vince Dooley's teams went through the regular season undefeated, but tied twice, finishing 8-0-2 and earning an invitation to the Sugar Bowl. Despite suffering a 16-2 loss in the bowl game to Arkansas, Georgia was still voted No. 1 in the Litkenhous poll.

Some that came close....

Several other Georgia teams have flirted with national titles. After the 1980 season, Georgia had a magnificent run that produced three straight teams that had a shots at the winning national title—1981, '82, and '83. Two Mark Richt-coached teams (2002, 2007) also came close. Most recently, the second squad of the Kirby Smart era came agonizingly close to winning it all.

1981 - Despite an early season loss to Clemson, 13-3, in which the 'Dogs had nine turnovers, Georgia fought its way back to a No. 2 national ranking by winning the final eight regular season games. But a loss to Pitt in the Sugar Bowl in the final 20 seconds extinguished any chance at a second consecutive national title.

1982 - Led by Heisman Trophy winner Herschel Walker, Georgia marched through the 11-game regular season undefeated and untied and was ranked No. 1 heading into the bowl games. But second-ranked Penn State upended the Bulldogs, 27-23, in the Sugar Bowl to claim the national crown.

avenged the Alabama game by defeating the Crimson Tide 33-18 for the national championship, scoring 20 fourth-quarter points to put an unforgettable stamp upon its season.

1980 - Vince Dooley's 1980 team steadily climbed the polls amid a perfect 12-0 season, culminating with its 17-10 victory over Notre Dame in the Sugar Bowl that decided the national title.

The Bulldogs, scarcely ranked in pre-season polls, had entered the Top 10 by October. In the season's eighth game, Georgia defeated South Carolina 13-10 and moved to the No. 2 spot in the polls. The next week in Jacksonville, it needed the now legendary Belue-to-Scott touchdown pass in the final minute to defeat Florida and keep its storied season on track. Two days later the Dogs vaulted over Notre Dame -- which had tied Georgia Tech in its most recent game -- into the No. 1 spot.

The two teams met in the Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1. Led by freshman sensation Herschel Walker's two touchdowns, Georgia defeated the Irish, 17-10, to lay claim to its undisputed national crown.

1942 - In 1942, James Wallace Butts of Milledgeville, Ga., molded what was regarded as the Bulldogs' most powerful team in the first 50 years of Georgia football. Georgia was led by All-Americans Frank Sinkwich, who would win the Heisman Trophy following the season, and end George Poschner, along with a young back named Charley Trippi, who would years later be called perhaps the greatest all-around athlete ever to play for the Bulldogs.

Georgia knocked off nine consecutive opponents and ranked No. 1 in the nation. But Auburn ambushed the 'Dogs in Columbus, 27-13. Georgia, however, came back to win a Rose Bowl bid by blanking previously unbeaten Georgia Tech in Athens, 34-0, in the regular season finale. Georgia then edged UCLA, 9-0, in the Rose Bowl to finish the season 11-1. In the final polls, Georgia was declared national champion in six polls recognized by the NCAA—DeVold, Houlgate, Litkenhous, Williamson, Poling, and Berryman.

1983 - One of Georgia's favorite teams, the defensive-minded Bulldogs headed into the bowl games with a 9-1-1 record but faced undefeated, untied, and second-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl classic at Dallas. Despite being heavy underdogs, Georgia's defense stymied the Longhorns and the opportunistic offense scored a touchdown with 3:22 to play to give the 'Dogs a 10-9 upset. The nation's top-ranked team also lost that day, but the final polls ranked Georgia fourth.

2002 - Head coach Mark Richt's second team won more games (13) than any team in UGA history to that point and won Georgia's first SEC championship in 20 years. Only a 7-point loss to Florida in Jacksonville kept the Dogs out of a shot at the national championship game. The 13-1 Bulldogs, after defeating FSU in the Nokia Sugar Bowl, still finished the season ranked No. 3 in all major polls.

2007 - Although not selected for the national championship game, the 'Dawgs finished 11-2 with a No. 2 final national ranking.

2017 - The SEC champion Bulldogs advanced to the College Football Playoff, where they played a pair of overtime thrillers. As the No. 3 seed, Georgia defeated second-seeded Oklahoma 54-48 in double overtime in the 2018 Rose Bowl Game. One week later in the championship game, the Bulldogs led Alabama 13-0 at halftime and 20-7 in the third quarter but were defeated 26-23 in overtime.

And some others that had a shot....

1976 - The SEC champion 'Dogs finished 10-1 in the regular season and went into the bowl games ranked fourth but had a shot by playing No. 1 Pitt in the Sugar Bowl. But the Panthers, led by Heisman Trophy winner Tony Dorsett, defeated Georgia, 27-3, to claim the national crown.

1971 - Sophomore quarterback Andy Johnson led Georgia to nine straight victories before undefeated Auburn ended the 'Dogs hopes of a national title with a 35-20 victory in Athens. Despite the loss, Georgia still finished 11-1 by beating Georgia Tech in the final regular season game and defeating North Carolina in the Gator Bowl.

1966 - Georgia soundly defeated SMU in the Cotton Bowl but could not overcome a single regular season defeat to Miami by a single point as the 'Dogs finished the season 10-1 and ranked No. 4.

UGA TRADITIONS

The Arch

Serving as the official symbol of the University of Georgia, the Arch was built in the 1850s and originally served as part of a larger iron fence securing the campus. Daniel Redfearn (BL 1909, BS 1910) is credited with making the Arch the sacred symbol of UGA. Recognized as one of the school's finest icons, students today hold the Arch in high regard as its three pillars represent the virtues of wisdom, justice, and moderation.

"Glory, Glory"

Among the University's oldest and most lasting traditions is the school fight song, "Glory, Glory," which is sung to the tune of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." It was sung at games as early as the 1890's, but arranged in its present form by Georgia's immortal musician-composer Hugh Hodgson in 1915. There have been many Bulldog songs through the years and at least two collections dating back to 1909 have been published, but none have enjoyed more acceptance than "Glory, Glory."

"How 'Bout Them Dogs"

This is a slogan of recent vintage, but one that has become a battle cry of Bulldog fans probably because of its obvious grammatical slur. It first surfaced during the mid to late 1970's especially during the 1978 season when the Bulldogs posted several remarkable, come-from-behind victories. It gained national attention and exposure when Georgia won the national championship in 1980. A major wire service used the phrase in its story of Georgia's victory over Notre Dame and many newspapers picked it up in glaring headlines across the country proclaiming "How 'Bout Them Dogs!"

"Bulldogs"

Many oldtimers say Georgia acquired the nickname, "Bulldogs," because of the strong ties with Yale, whose nickname is "Bulldogs." Georgia's first president, Abraham Baldwin, was a Yale man and the early buildings on campus were designed from blueprints of the same buildings at Yale. However, the first references to the nickname "Bulldogs" actually came in the 1910's (1911-20) by Atlanta newspaper writers covering both football and baseball games. Although used occasionally during the previous decade, the nickname began to be consistently used around 1920.

On Nov. 3, 1920, Morgan Blake of the Atlanta Journal wrote about school nicknames and said "The Georgia Bulldogs would sound good because there is a certain dignity about a bulldog, as well as ferocity." After a 0-0 tie with Virginia in Charlottesville on Nov. 6, 1920, Atlanta Constitution writer Cliff Wheatley used the name "Bulldogs" in his story five times. Gene Hinton also used the term "Bulldogs." The nickname seemed to be off and running.

"Between The Hedges"

A reference to Sanford Stadium that dates to the early 1930's. The famous Chinese privet hedges that surround Sanford's playing field were only one foot high when the stadium was dedicated in 1929 and were protected by a wooden fence. It was natural for a clever sports writer, referring to an upcoming home game, to observe "that the Bulldogs will have their opponent 'between the hedges." At least one old-timer says the phrase was first coined by the legendary Atlanta sportswriter Grantland Rice.

"Lone Trumpeter"

Seven minutes before kickoff in Sanford Stadium, the Bulldog Nation directs its attention to a lone trumpeter standing in the upper deck of the southwest corner of the stadium. The soloist is recognized and begins to play the first 14 notes of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic." The Battle Hymn solo was originally composed in 1987 as a student project by Jeff Simmons and became a part of the pre-game traditions in 2000. Each year, 25-30 members of the Redcoat Band audition for one of the 4-5 soloist positions.

The "G"

In 1963 after becoming the Bulldogs' Head Football Coach, Vince Dooley redesigned the football uniform, choosing a red helmet with a black "G" on a white background as the dominant feature of the new uniform for the 1964 season.

He discussed with his staff that a forward-looking "G" would be an appropriate emblem for the helmet of the Georgia team. Dooley had just hired John Donaldson, former Georgia player from 1945 to 1948, as backfield coach. Donaldson was keen on the idea of a new image and volunteered his wife, Anne, who had a BFA in commercial art from UGA, to design a logo for the new Georgia helmet with the general specifications Dooley had outlined. Dooley accepted Anne's original "G" which fit his vision for a forward look to Georgia's new emblem.

Since the Georgia "G", though different in design and color, was similar to Green Bay's "G", Coach Dooley thought it best to clear the use of Georgia's new emblem with the NFL team. Athletic Director Joel Eaves called for permission, which was granted. However, since its inception in 1961, the Green Bay "G" has been redesigned several times and now looks like Georgia's original 1964 "G." Georgia is proud that the Packers apparently liked the special nuances of the Bulldogs' forward-looking "G".

Georgia's oval "G", eventually replacing Georgia's old block "G" as the official UGA symbol, has stood the test of time. It made its first appearance in the opening game in 1964 and was an immediate hit with the Georgia fans, especially after Dooley's first three teams were so successful—highlighted by the 1966 SEC Championship.

"Silver Britches"

Silver Britches were an innovation of Coach Wally Butts, who took over as head coach in 1939. The handsome pants complemented the bright red jersey and made for a striking uniform. Through the years, fans referred to the Bulldogs' silver britches in their chants and on banners, but the phrase really caught on in the early fifties with a cheer, banners, and colorful vests that proclaimed "Go, You Silver Britches." Coach Vince Dooley re-designed the uniform when he came in 1964 and used white pants; however, he re-instituted the silver britches in 1980 just prior to what turned out to be Georgia's national championship season.

The Chapel Bell

The ringing of the chapel bell after a Georgia victory is a tradition that continues even though freshmen are no longer ordered to do the chore. In the 1890's, the playing field was located only yards from the Chapel and first-year students were compelled to ring the bell until midnight in celebration of a Bulldog victory. Today students, alumni, and townspeople still rush to the Chapel to ring the bell after a gridiron victory.

Back-to-Back National Champions

Although the University of Georgia is now known as the home of Uga, the pure white English bulldog, several mascots led the Red and Black before Frank W. Seiler provided the current lineage beginning in 1956.

The Goat -- Feb. 22, 1892

Georgia's mascot for its first football game against Auburn, February 22, 1892 in Atlanta, Ga., was a goat. Old newspaper clippings indicate that the goat wore a black coat with red U.G. letters on each side. He also had on a hat with ribbons all down his high horns, and the Auburn fans yelled throughout the game "shoot the billy-goat."

Trilby, 1894

In 1894, Georgia's mascot was a solid white female bull terrier owned by a student, Charles H. Black, Sr., of Atlanta. Trilby, named after a novel by George Du Maurier, served as the campus pet and mascot for the Chi Phi fraternity.

Disputing stories speculate the origin of the Bulldog nickname, and the story of Trilby provides yet another opinion: "...every day

Trilby took herself down to old Herty field with her master for football practice. She ran signals with the best of them and became an accustomed figure on the athletic field...One morning, Trilby failed to appear for her breakfast and after a frantic search she was finally discovered proudly washing the faces of her newborn family, 13 white puppies...Late one dusky fall afternoon, Trilby appeared for a grid workout and scampering after her came her 13 children, darting through players' legs, barking and pace. 'Well,' suggested one of the players, 'Trilby has brought us a name, Bulldogs.' ... Every time a game was played on Herty Field, the boys would floss Trilby and her 13 offerings up with red and black ribbons, and so attired they have gone down in history as perhaps the first 'sponsors' in southern football." - Ruth Stanton Cogill (Atlanta newspaper)

"After the rein of Trilby and her family, chaos developed in the mascot department at the university. Many games had several, depending on which alumnus got his dog to the game first." - AJC, Nov. 18, 1962

Mr. Angel, 1944-46

Mr. Angel, a brindle and white colored English Bulldog owned by Eastman, Ga.,physician, Warren Coleman, filled a void during some of the war years.

There was no mascot roaming the sidelines and Coleman took Mr. Angel to games and stood with him on the sidelines. His picture on the field and with the Georgia cheerleaders appears in the 1945 and '46 UGA annual, the Pandora.

Butch, 1947-50

Butch was a brindled English bulldog owned by Mabry Smith of Warner Robins,

Trilby with owner Charles H. Black

Ga. He was spotted by students who were attending the 1946 Georgia-Georgia Tech game in Athens, and the canine appeared to be suited for the mascot position. Smith agreed to loan Butch to the University during the football season along with a female puppy named Tuffy. The female died of a heart attack following the Georgia-Kentucky game in 1948, but Butch continued to serve. Spending the off-season at Smith's home in Warner Robins, Butch was tragically shot in the summer of 1951 by a policeman after the dog escaped from his pen and was found roaming the streets. Butch is buried behind Smith's business along Watson Boulevard.

MASCOT TRADITION

In 2004 plans for a marker honoring Butch in his hometown were put into motion by longtime Warner Robins resident Guy Fussell.

Mike, 1951-55

Butch was succeeded by Mike, another brindled English bulldog, owned by C. L. Fain. Mike lived in the field house on campus and died of natural canine causes in 1955. As his master's thesis. Gene Owens of Fort Worth, Texas, cast the bronze statue of Mike which is located at the entrance of Memorial Hall

Uga Takes the Field

In the last 100 years of intercollegiate football, Georgia's Uga has established himself as the nation's most well-known mascot. The line of pure white English bulldogs, which epitomizes everything Georgia, has been owned by the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah, Ga., since Uga I first graced the campus in 1956.

Through the years, Uga has been defined by his spiked collar, a symbol of the position which he holds. He was given his name, an abbreviation for the university, by William Young of Columbus, a law school classmate of Seiler. Each of the Uga mascots is awarded a varsity letter in the form of a plaque, identical to those presented to all Bulldog athletes who letter in their respective sports.

As determined and published by the Pitt Press, the University of Georgia is the only major college that actually buries its mascots within the confines of the stadium. Ugas I-IX are buried in marble vaults near the main gate in the embankment of the South stands. Epitaphs to the dogs are inscribed in bronze, and before each home game, flowers are placed on their graves. The memorial plot attracts hundreds of fans and visitors each year.

For the past 20 years, Uga's jerseys have been custom-made at the beginning of each season from the same material used for the players' jerseys. Old jerseys are destroyed.

Uga's on-field home is a permanent air conditioned doghouse located next to the cheerleader's platform, providing comfort in the heat of August and September. The custom-made doghouse is a gift from the Bahamian Bulldog Club of Nassau, Bahamas, through the courtesy of Fred Hazlewood.

Uga I, 1956-66 "Hood's Ole Dan" Record: 53-48-6

The current Uga line of solid white English bulldogs began with Uga I, Hood's Ole Dan, born Dec. 2, 1955, in Columbus. Uga I was given to Cecelia Seiler by a friend, Frank Heard of Columbus and appeared in his first game in the 1956 home opener. As recalled by Sonny Seiler, "...his original red jerseys were made by Cecelia. It was necessary to take up children's t-shirts to fit the dog in the right places. There is no telling how many of these jersey's he wore out. During the early games in Athens, especially the hot ones before he had a dog house, the large green hedges that surround Sanford Stadium afford welcomed shade in the heat of battle. Unfortunately, the hedges constantly tore these jerseys and new ones had to be made."

Uga I was succeeded by his son, Ole Dan's Uga at an impressive pregame ceremony at Homecoming, 1966. With the Georgia Redcoat Band lining the field, Uga II was led to the center of the field by Charles Seiler, son of Sonny and Cecelia. The student body erupted in a cheer that was picked up by the entire stadium, "Damn Good Dog!"

Uga II had an impressive reign as he watched Georgia participate in five bowl games and win two SEC championships. epitaph: Not Bad for A Dog

After winning his first two games, fans cheered, "2-and-0 with Otto!" Dooley, serving as head coach during Otto's brief tenure, favored the substitute the most. "I have always had a great affection for those who came off the bench and performed, and he did that and had a great time," Dooley said. Otto is buried in the Seiler's backyard.

He led Georgia to six bowl games in nine years and closed out his career in ultimate fashion winning the 1980 NCAA championship. Named in honor of one of the greatest Bulldogs, Dan Magill, former Assistant Athletic Director for Public Relations and longtime tennis coach and sports information director. Surprisingly, the Seiler family became aware that Uga IV's mate was expecting only 10 days before the litter was due. This notice came a week after Uga IV had passed away at his home in Savannah from kidney failure. There were only three pups in the litter and the last one born on March 6 was the only solid white male.

Uga V had been perhaps the most well known of all the Bulldog mascots, highlighted by his appearance on the cover of the April 28, 1997, Sports Illustrated which declared him the nation's best college mascot. Rocketed to stardom, he also appeared in Clint Eastwood's "Midnight In The Garden Of Good And Evil" — filmed in his hometown of Savannah, Ga. He died on Nov. 22, 1999, just over

Uga VI, 1999-2008 "Uga V's Whatchagot Loran" Record: 87-27

In 2007, Uga VI became the winningest mascot in school history and owned a record of 87-27. The fall of 2008 would have been his 10th season after Uga VI reigned over more games than any other mascot with 114. He e Buildees defeated Hawiei '41.10 in died on June 27, 2008. In his last game, the Bulldogs defeated Hawai'i 41-10 in the 2008 Sugar Bowl in New Orleans.

The pregame passing of the bone ceremony from Uga V to his heftier and friskier son, Whatchagot Loran, took place at the 1999 Georgia-South Carolina contest. Only a year old at his coronation, Uga VI stood as the biggest of all the Uga mascots weighing in at 65 pounds -20 pounds heavier than his father.

His first season climaxed in a magnificent come from behind victory over Purdue at the Outback Bowl in Tampa. The 2000 season ended in Hawaii, but due to the distance and a quarantine rule, Uga VI missed the O'ahu Bowl, marking the first time the Georgia mascot had missed the postseason game since the 1969 Sun Bowl.

Alongside first-year head coach Mark Richt, Uga VI saw his third consecutive 8-4 season, which included a 26-24 win at then-No. 6 Tennessee for the Bulldogs' first win in Knoxville since 1980.

Uga VI and Georgia experienced their best run in two decades during the 2002-05 seasons. That stretch included 44 wins, a pair of SEC titles and appearances in the Sugar, Capital One and Outback Bowls.

In 2007, Uga VI passed Uga IV (77-24-4) for the most wins of any bulldog in school history.

Uga VII, 2008-2009 "Loran's Best" Record: 16-7

The seventh in the Uga line of Georgia mascots was introduced to the Georgia people on Aug. 30, 2008, during pre-game ceremonies of the Bulldogs' season opener against Georgia Southern.

"Loran's Best" officially became "Uga VII," when he was introduced for the first time to the Sanford Stadium crowd prior to kickoff of the Georgia vs. Georgia Southern game. He was escorted onto the field by members of the Frank W. "Sonny" Seiler family of Savannah who have owned the continuous line of mascots since Uga I took up the mantle in 1956.

Uga VII passed away unexpectedly on Nov. 19 of heart-related causes. It was the Thursday before the final home game of the 2009 season and the Bulldogs did not have a live mascot at the game. Instead, a wreath was placed on UGA VII's doghouse, and the players wore a special UGA VII decal on their helmets to remember him. "Russ," the five-year-old half brother of Uga VII, served as the Bulldog mascot for the Georgia Tech game in Atlanta and helped his squad to a 30-24 win. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986. Epitaph: Gone Too Soon

Uga VIII, 2010 "Big Bad Bruce" Record: 4-2

Born Sept. 12, 2009 in Savannah, Ga., Uga VIII is the grandson of Uga VI. He carried on the tradition of more than 60 years of all-white bulldogs bred by Frank "Sonny" Seiler and family.

Uga VIII was named in honor of Dr. Bruce Hollett from the University's School of Veterinary Medicine. Dr. Hollett has been a longtime caregiver for the famed line of English bulldogs. UGA VIII served six games in the 2010 season before he became ill and missed the AutoZone Liberty Bowl. He passed away with lymphoma on February 4, 2011.

Epitaph: He Never Had a Chance

Uga IX, 2012-14 ("Russ", 2009-2012: 16-9) Record: 44-19

"Uga IX, formerly "Russ," the half-brother of Uga VII, served as interim Bulldog mascot for a total of 25 games. He worked nine games during the 2009 and 2010 seasons after Uga VII and VIII passed away. He roamed the sidelines at all 14 games during the 2011 season. He then served for two wins at the beginning of the 2012 season before being promoted as Uga IX prior to the Florida Atlantic game on Sept. 15, 2012. His time as mascot included the 2011 and 2012 SEC Eastern Division championships, three road wins at Georgia Tech, a victory over Texas A&M in the 2009 Independence Bowl in Shreveport, La., and a win over Nebraska in the 2013 Capital One Bowl. He was the first substitute mascot since "Otto" in 1986.

Epitaph: He endeared himself to the Georgia people. His dedication to duty when called upon was exemplary.

Uga X, 2015-22 "Que" Record: 91-18

Uga IX officially retired as the Bulldogs' mascot at the end of the 2014 season. After a three-month "audition" in that role, his grandson "Que" was formally crowned as his successor in a collaring ceremony prior to the Georgia-Georgia Southern game on Nov. 21, 2015. Que assumed the title of Uga X at the age of 2 1/2 years. During his audition, he made appearances at the Countdown to Kickoff event in July 2015, as well as Picture Day in August, before presiding over the entirety of the 2015 football season. Que capped his inaugural season by leading the team to a 24-17 victory over Penn State at the 2016 Taxslayer Bowl.

In the 2021 season, Que reached heights attained by just one of his ancestors, UGA III, when Georgia won the 2022 CFP National Championship Game. Que closed out his career with a second-consecutive national title, retiring after the 2022 season as the winningest mascot in program history.

Uga XI, 2023-present "Boom" Record: 0-0

Following the retirement of Uga X, 10-month old puppy Boom assumed the vaunted role of Georgia's on-field mascot. During a pregame ceremony at the annual "G Day" game, University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead joined J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks and his son, Davis, in the ceremonial collaring of Boom. Boom is the 11th solid white English Bulldog to serve as Georgia's mascot since the line began in 1956.

The Seiler family was joined by University of Georgia president Jere W. Morehead, J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks, and his son, Davis, for the traditional collaring ceremony of Uga XI prior to the 2023 G-Day Spring Game.

SEC & SPIRIT SQUAD

Southeastern Conference

The Southeastern Conference, now into its 91st storied year of athletic achievements and academic excellence, has built perhaps the greatest tradition of intercollegiate competition of any league in the country since its inception in 1933.

Since its formation, the SEC achieved both stature and stability by designating governing/voting power to the presidents of the member institutions. They have determined the policies of the conference and, through the years, this involvement has been the principal source of strength in the evolution of the SEC. Throughout its history, the SEC has provided leadership on the vital issues facing intercollegiate competition. In 1993, the member institutions adopted The Principles of Gender Equity. Committed to increasing the quantity and quality of women's athletic opportunities, each school will provide at least two more women's intercollegiate programs than the number of men's.

On July 1, 2012, the conference expanded to 14 teams, welcoming Missouri and Texas A&M. It was the first expansion in the SEC since 1992 when Arkansas and South Carolina came into the SEC. The four schools join charter members Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, LSU, Ole Miss, Mississippi State, Tennessee and Vanderbilt to form the current membership. The addition of Arkansas and South Carolina allowed for the SEC to split into divisional play and have the nation's first-ever Division I football conference championship game in 1992.

SEC schools began athletic competition with one another almost 100 years ago as members of the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Seven institutions (Alabama, Auburn, Georgia, Georgia Tech, North Carolina, Sewanee and Vanderbilt) attended the SIAA organizational meeting of faculty representatives, called by Dr. William L. Dudley of Vanderbilt, in Atlanta on Dec. 22, 1894.

The first football game in the Southeast was played April 9, 1880, on the ground now called Old Stoll Field at the University of Kentucky. Kentucky A & M (now UK) organized a team and in November 1881, played Transylvania College in a three-game series. By 1895, 11 current SEC members were playing football.

The administration of women's athletics officially came under the auspices of the conference office on Sept. 1, 1984. The SEC currently regulates nine men's sports and 12 women's sports: Men - baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, swimming, tennis and track (indoor and outdoor); Women - basketball, cross country, equestrian, golf, gymnastics, soccer, softball, swimming, tennis, track (indoor and outdoor) and volleyball.

Since 1990, the SEC has won 200 national team championships for an average of more than six per year. In the last Learfield Director's Cup final rankings (2023), 11 SEC schools placed among the top 40 programs.

Redcoat Band

Coach Vince Dooley often referred to the Redcoat Band as the "Heart of the Bulldog Spirit." Indeed, the band's colorful presence, limitless enthusiasm, and compelling presentations are part of what makes Georgia Football special to so many.

The 440 students of the Redcoat Band are the most important factor in its success. Once they arrive on campus, the work has just begun. Redcoats arrive five to ten days before most students for evaluation, conditioning, and a whirlwind of training in Georgia traditions. During Fall Semester, they commit six to eight hours of rehearsal per week, and a typical Game Day can last between 10 and 20 hours of non-stop activity that isn't as easy as they make it look.

As the season progresses, members refine and reinforce the fundamentals of their technique, while learning new material on a weekly basis for pregame, halftime, or their other contributions to game days. Throughout the year, Redcoats also perform at volleyball, soccer, basketball and gymnastics competitions, as well as other events that total about one hundred performances per academic year at athletic events alone. At a place with such a broad variety of academic fields--about 85 percent of Redcoats major in something other than Music--their time in the band is just one part of a rich collegiate experience.

Director Brett Bawcum and associate director Rob Akridge, Triple and Double Dawgs respectively, lead the 118th edition of the band and its extensive part-time staff. Percussion instructors John Cypert and John Moates, Flagline instructors Cassie Moates and Amanda Foley, twirl/dance instructors Ashley Clark and Kristina Howell, and hornline instructors Brad Barnes and Nathan Lawrence are among the local band alumni who moonlight with the Redcoats to keep this massive operation humming. Factor in the support of the Athletic Association, Student Activities, the Franklin College of Arts and Sciences, the Hugh Hodgson School of Music, the Redcoat Alumni Band, and a generous group of supporters, and it's clear that the Redcoat Band truly is a huge machine in Red and Black.

Keep your seats, everyone, the Redcoats are coming!

ADMINISTRATION

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks - 2023 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year finalist - has led the University of Georgia Athletic Association through historic success.

Georgia finished seventh in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, the Association's best mark since 2005 and tying for the fourth-highest ranking in program history. Seventeen of the Bulldogs' athletic programs finished with a top-20 ranking, while nine ended the year in the top 10.

The Bulldogs became the first program to earn back-toback College Football Playoff National Championships, while three of Georgia's athletic teams won SEC titles and five athletes won NCAA individual crowns during the 2022-23 athletics season.

Among notable achievements, the women's soccer and volleyball programs made history as both teams earned bids to their respective NCAA tournaments in the same year for the first time ever. Georgia's track and field programs finished with four top-10 rankings in the indoor and outdoor championships, both men's and women's tennis captured SEC championships, softball finished with a second-place mark in the conference and both golf programs swept team and individual titles at their respective NCAA regionals.

The Bulldogs also posted a record-breaking academic year, setting a new schoolhigh mark with a 3.19 cumulative GPA in 2022-23, breaking the fall GPA record before earning the second-highest spring GPA in school history.

From academic and athletic success to historic fundraising and a multitude of facility projects, Brooks has continued to sustain Georgia's standing as a national powerhouse. The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last two years with $86.4 million raised in 2022 and $97.7 million in 2023.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility off South Milledge Avenue. This project will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia and will allow the Bulldogs to host NCAA and SEC events as well as summer camps.

Brooks' tenure has also included impactful and significant coaching hires, with a pair of national champions in track and field's Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer's Keidane McAlpine. In 2021, he hired Tony Baldwin to take over the softball program, while Stefanie Williams Moreno and Neil Versfeld were named head women's and men's swimming and diving coaches.

He also hired two prominent coaches to lead the Georgia Basketball programs in Mike White and Katie Abrahamson-Henderson. Following the 2022-23 baseball season, Brooks brought on renowned pitching coach Wes Johnson to lead Georgia Baseball.

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of ULM from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the University of ULM beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at LSU University, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl, 2002 Sugar Bowl, and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.
