In March, the Chambers Elite Climbers visited New York City for a cultural field trip while enjoying some professional networking opportunities with WVU graduates running businesses in the Big Apple. Highlights included a trip to the UGG showroom, the Museum of Modern Art, Madison Square Garden for a Knicks game, and the Richard Rodgers Theatre on Broadway to see Hamilton.

The Chambers Elite Climbers program is the premier, enhanced, off-the-field development program in all of college football. The career preparation, cultural field trips, humanitarian efforts and networking opportunities shape the future of WVU student-athletes. Being able to study abroad is an amazing lifetime experience that very few college football players ever get to enjoy.

John and Elaine Chambers give $1.6M gift to 5th Quarter Program

WVU Football's 5th Quarter program created a unique educational opportunity for select student-athletes thanks to a nearly $1.6 million gift from WVU alumni John and Elaine Chambers. The Chambers Elite Climbers is a supplemental two-year program that provides additional personal and professional growth opportunities to student-athletes chosen through a competitive application process. Each cohort will dive deeper into key areas of interest – entrepreneurship and innovation, technology, financial education and communications – through a variety of educational resources, complete a study-abroad experience and select a West Virginia-focused humanitarian venture to pursue each year.

2023 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"Just to have my name mentioned in the same sentence as Tommy Nickolich makes me proud. I take a lot of pride in being a good person and a hard worker. I want to be a good person on and off the field and be a good example to those who follow me. I also want to be a hard worker, and that is what got me here. I wouldn't be here if it wasn't for my work ethic. As I'm here, I want to inspire those around to work even harder. That's one of my roles on this team. There are a lot of things you can measure – speed and strength – but one thing you can't measure is heart. So when you go out on special teams, giving 100% for that – however long it is – that's what really separates me. Going back to my work ethic, I feel that every single time I step under the squat rack, benching or lining up for sprints, I am picturing myself in the game. When you have the opportunity, you have to take advantage of it."

2022 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD Winner as the program's top Walk-on

"At West Virginia, we don't get treated as a walk-on. The culture here, everybody is one. But being a Morgantown guy, and a walk-on, it's a privilege to earn the Nickolich Award. I'm blessed to get it, and it was a very good feeling when I heard my name called."

GRAESON MALASHEVICH

2021 TOMMY NICKOLICH MEMORIAL AWARD WINNER AS THE PROGRAM'S TOP WALK-ON

"Being a walk-on gave me the opportunity I needed. I knew I had to put in a lot of hard work and effort in every day to earn the respect of my teammates. There are guys from all over the country coming in who were great, were stars at their high school. I just looked for any way and did anything I could to work hard, compete and earn my way."

I love the game, but I definitely love this state more than I love the game of football. That is what pushed me." – Jake Abbott

MEMBER OF 2018 SUPER BOWL CHAMPION PHILADELPHIA EAGLES

"When I first walked on, I was just trying to get to the next level. For me, that next level was getting a scholarship and playing hard. After I got there, the next level was to become a consistent starter and a good leader. Once I did that, it was keep improving and maybe have the possibility of playing in the NFL. It was a long shot. I was hoping and praying for it, and I just kept working hard. Now that it's here, I still can't believe it."

HEAD COA	CH NEAL BROWN	l10	16

Neal Brown is in his fifth year as the head coach at West Virginia.

It's a proven fact that you win with people, and no one knows that better than Brown. He has a commitment to investing time and resources in his staff and players, mentoring and preparing them to carry out the mission of Mountaineer Football, not only on the field but off of it as well.

One of the key areas in which his commitment is paying huge dividends is recruiting. Brown has taken a young and depleted roster, established a strong foundation and has it heading in an upward direction toward the future.

Since arriving in Morgantown in January 2019, Brown has covered a lot of territory representing Mountaineer Football as its chief ambassador, ensuring the great story about his program is told to everyone.

In his first four full classes, the average signee star rating has been among the best in the program's history, highlighted by the signing of 15 four-star recruits during that time. The program has landed multiple targets after beating out many high-level schools. WVU has landed the top in-state recruits every year that the program has pursued these coveted prospects, including All-American Zach Frazier and Wyatt Milum.

The 2021 class had the highest average star rankings (3.25) for WVU according to Rivals since the start of the company. With the landscape of college football changing more than ever, Brown has had to evaluate and give even more attention to his role as the CEO, overseeing the big picture, managing all areas of the program and making sure all areas concerning the players and staff are accomplished.

This past offseason, Brown showed his investment in his staff even more by elevating former co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach Chad Scott to the offensive coordinator role. Scott has an extensive understanding of the scheme, has done an outstanding job in player development and was responsible for coordinating the run game for the Mountaineers in 2022.

Brown continues to support and champion program leadership by the players, emphasizing a dedication to the individual student-athlete. His mission is in the development of each player as a complete person, not only on the field, but off, and for each to continuously build themselves and their brand to make a difference in the world after their football career is finished.

One of the first player initiatives that Brown implemented for the team was the 5th Quarter Program to assist in the development of the total player, not only on the field, but for life beyond graduation. The pillars of the program are character development, leadership development, real life, social responsibility and career development. With the name, image and likeness legislation enacted in July 2021, Brown did his due diligence in advance to ensure that his players were prepared, no matter how involved the process becomes in the future.

Another component of the 5th Quarter Program is the Bridge program. Its goal is to introduce the student-athletes to the college experience when they first enter WVU and give them their final training before they embark into life after graduation.

In 2022, WVU expanded the 5th Quarter Program by adding the Chambers Elite Climbers Program. The Chambers Elite Climbers was created to provide unique educational opportunities for select student-athletes thanks to a nearly $1.6 million gift from WVU alumni John and Elaine Chambers. The Chambers Elite Climbers is a supplemental two-year program that provides additional and professional growth opportunities to student-athletes chosen through a competitive application process.

The 2022 Mountaineers defeated rival Virginia Tech to hold on to the Black Diamond Trophy and won two of the final three games, including victories against Oklahoma and at Oklahoma State. The win over Oklahoma marked the first Big 12 Conference win over the Sooners, and the win over the Cowboys was the first since 2014 and snapped the Cowboys' 14-game, home winning streak. WVU also defeated 2021 Big 12 Champion Baylor.

West Virginia had 21 student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big 12 Teams, and kicker Casey Legg earned a spot on the prestigious College Sports Communicators Academic All-American Second Team. WVU also had nine players named to one of three postseason Big 12 all-conference teams by media organizations with Dante Stills and Zach Frazier earning first-team all-conference honors, and Stills was drafted by the Arizona Cardinals.

The 2021 squad finished with six wins and had its share of positives, including earning a bowl bid to the Guaranteed Rate Bowl, its second in a row under Brown. WVU has earned a spot in a bowl game in 18 of the last 20 years and is one of only 15 programs in the nation to accomplish that feat. Running back Leddie Brown rushed for 1,000 yards for the second year in a row, and WVU was fourth in the Big 12 in average passing yards per game (247.9). The Mountaineer defense finished No. 5 nationally in red-zone defense, No. 18 in the fewest first downs allowed and No. 29 in third-down defense.

The Mountaineers defeated No. 15 Virginia Tech, marking the highest-ranked win of the Brown era and also defeated No. 22 lowa State to tie for the most wins against ranked teams in a season since 2007.

West Virginia had a program-best 24 student-athletes named to the Academic All-Big 12 Teams, safety Sean Mahone was a finalist for the William Campbell Trophy, the academic Heisman, and he earned a spot on the National Football Foundation's Scholar-Athlete Team. Kicker Casey Legg was named a semifinalist for the Lou Groza National Kicking Award and WVU had nine players named to one of three postseason Big 12 all-conference teams by media organizations.

Brown's Record at West Virginia: 22-25 (4 years)
Overall Record: 57-41 (8 Years)

Center Zach Frazier was named to the Walter Camp Football Foundation and American Football Coaches Association's All-America teams, and tackle Wyatt Milum was named to three freshman All-America teams. Defensive lineman Dante Stills was named an All-Big 12 First Team honoree, and Frazier was on the second team.

The 2020 season was Brown's most challenging season to date, testing his ability, not only as a coach, but as a leader. He was forced to deal with the COVID-19 pandemic since mid-March, which didn't allow for spring practice or offseason workouts and skill instruction, while social unrest was at a high level nationally during the summer.

Even though the program constantly was forced to deal with the effects and protocols of COVID-19 during the season, the Mountaineers stayed the course, finishing the season 6-4 overall and 4-4 in the Big 12. Brown made his first bowl appearance as the coach of West Virginia against Army in the AutoZone Liberty Bowl, winning the game, 24-21.

Five players earned All-America honors, led by Darius Stills, who was the school's first Consensus All-American since 2006 and 12th in school history. Tony Fields II, Tykee Smith and Dante Stills were named to at least one All-America team, and freshmen Zach Frazier and Akheem Mesidor were named to Freshman All-America teams. In April, Fields was drafted by the Cleveland Browns to extend WVU's string of consecutive years of having at least one player selected in the NFL Draft since 2008, while five players signed free-agent contracts.

Eight players were named to the All-Big 12 Conference postseason teams, led by first-team honorees Fields II, also defensive newcomer of the year, Darius Stills, also defensive lineman of the year, and Leddie Brown, a first-team running back.

The Mountaineers finished the 2019 season with a 5-7 mark, in what was called a transitional year. WVU finished the regular season winning two of the final three games, at Kansas State and at TCU, and had a 3-3 mark on the road, including a 3-2 road record in the Big 12 Conference.

Five of Brown's players were named to All-Big 12 postseason teams, and Colton McKivitz was named the Big 12's Co-Offensive Lineman of the Year. McKivitz earned spots on two All-America teams - Walter Camp Football Foundation's Second Team and the Associated Press' Third Team, and Tykee Smith was named a freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America. McKivitz played in the Reese's Senior Bowl and was selected in the fifth round of the NFL Draft by the San Francisco 49ers.

Brown, one of six FBS coaches to win 10 or more games in 2016, 2017 and 2018, was named WVU's 35th head football coach on Jan. 5, 2019.

He spent the previous four years as the head coach at Troy University (2015-18), compiling a 35-16 record, including 3-0 in bowl games. In his final three seasons, the Trojans posted a 31-8 record (.795), tying for the highest winning percentage nationally among non-Power 5 schools.

Before Brown left after the 2018 season, Troy had won 17 of its last 20 games and 22 of its last 26 games. After directing the Trojans to the 2017 Sun Belt Conference Championship, Brown was honored as the league's coach of the year.

During his highly successful tenure at Troy, Brown's signature wins included a 24-21 victory in 2017 at then-No. 22 LSU in Baton Rouge, which snapped the Tigers' 49-game nonconference home winning streak, and a 24-19 win at Nebraska. Also impressive was his team's 30-24 loss at eventual 2016 national champion Clemson.

In 2018, Troy finished 10-3, including a victory over Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl in Mobile, Alabama.

The 2017 campaign featured an 11-win season for Troy, including a win over North Texas in the New Orleans Bowl. The Trojans once again finished with a 7-1 conference mark, earning Brown his first conference championship. Troy finished the season with the 27th most votes in the final Amway Coaches Poll, marking the highest final ranking by a Sun Belt Conference squad in league history.

Troy finished 10-3 in 2016, including a 6-2 mark in the Sun Belt and a victory over Ohio University in the Dollar General Bowl. The Trojans became the first Sun Belt Conference school to ever open a season with eight wins in its first nine games, and they became the first league school to appear in a major top 25 poll, checking in at No. 25 in the Associated Press' Nov. 13 poll. Additionally, Brown's 2016 squad tied for the best turnaround in the country (six wins).

Prior to Brown's first season at Troy in 2015, he spent two years (2013-14) as the offensive coordinator under Mark Stoops at Kentucky. Under his direction, he led the Wildcats to some new heights on the offensive side of the football. The Wildcats posted more than 440 yards of total offense in three Southeastern Conference games in 2014, its highest total since 2001.

The Wildcats totaled 380 yards or more of total offense in their first three SEC games in 2014 – Florida, Arkansas and South Carolina – marking the first time a UK team had done so since 1998. Kentucky scored 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play in 2014.

The two years prior to Brown being named offensive coordinator, Kentucky had a combined 21 offensive touchdowns in SEC play.

He also spent three years at Texas Tech (2010-12) as the offensive coordinator after his first stint at Troy as an assistant coach from 2006-09.

As Texas Tech's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the Red Raiders ranked in the nation's top-seven teams in passing offense, top 15 in total offense and top 25 in scoring offense, having increased production in all three categories each year since 2010. TTU finished the 2012 season second nationally in passing with 355.9 yards per game, 13th in total offense at 495.4 yards per game and 20th in scoring with 37.5 points per game.

The 2012 campaign was an expansion of the success from 2011, when Texas Tech ranked 13th nationally in total offense at 470.6 yards per game. The Red Raiders lit the scoreboard at a tune of 33.8 points per contest. In his first season in Lubbock, Brown's offense notched 460.2 yards of total offense per game, including 318.9 passing, and scored at a 33.1-point clip as Tech went 8-5 and won the TicketCity Bowl.

At Troy, Brown was the inside receivers coach the first two years (2006-07) with the Trojans before transitioning to offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2008-09. Troy won four Sun Belt Conference titles and appeared in three bowl games during Brown's initial tenure.

He began his coaching career with one-year stints at UMass (2003), Sacred Heart (2004) and Delaware (2005).

At Delaware, Brown served as wide receivers coach, starting three freshman wideouts as the Blue Hens went 6-5

In 2004, Brown coached the quarterbacks and wide receivers at Sacred Heart, boasting the top-ranked scoring offense in the conference.

In 2003, he was the tight ends coach and offensive line assistant at Massachusetts, helping the Minutemen win a share of the Atlantic-10 championship and a berth in the FCS playoffs.

Brown was a wide receiver at Kentucky for three years (1998-2000) before finishing his career at UMass in 2001-02. He was a member of two bowl teams with the Wildcats and was named to the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll.

While at UMass, he was an Atlantic 10 All-Academic honoree and an NCAA Division I-AA Athletic Directors' Academic All-Star team selection.

Brown graduated from UMass with a bachelor's degree in business management in 2002 and earned his master's degree in business administration in 2005.

Born in Louisville, Kentucky, Brown grew up in Bardstown, Kentucky, before moving to Danville, Kentucky, where he was an all-state wide receiver at Boyle County High School, finishing his career as the No. 2 receiver in state history.

Brown and his wife, Brooke, have two daughters, Adalyn and Anslee, and a son, Dax.

Chad Scott is in his fifth season on Neal Brown's coaching staff at West Virginia, coaching the running backs in the four previous years. Additionally, Scott was the co-offensive coordinator for his first three years at West Virginia before serving as the run game coordinator in 2022. Scott will continue to lead the running backs in addition to his new duties as offensive coordinator.

Under Scott, West Virginia's running game averaged 171.5 yards per game in 2022 as he built a strong unit of depth and consistency. Running backs Tony Mathis, Justin Johnson, CJ Donaldson and Jaylen Anderson combined for 1,793 yards and 18 touchdowns. The Mountaineers have had a 1,000-yard rusher twice in Scott's five years as position coach. In 2021, running back Leddie Brown finished with more than 1,000 yards rushing for the second straight season (1,065) and finished with a team-high 14 offensive touchdowns.

In 2020, the Mountaineers had the most improved offense in the country in terms of total yards. Their running game improved its production by more than 60 yards per game, more than 90 yards of total offense and almost seven points a game.

Leddie Brown had a productive year, rushing for 1,010 yards and nine touchdowns, earning All-Big 12 Conference First Team honors. Brown averaged 5.1 yards per carry and was ranked No. 14 nationally in rushing yards (1,010), No. 26 in touchdowns (11), No. 27 in rushing yards per game (101.0) and No. 31 in rushing touchdowns (9).

Scott has worked with coach Neal Brown during three different coaching tenures: Kentucky (RB/2013-14), Texas Tech (RB/2010-12) and Troy (RB/2007-09). He also was a teammate of Neal Brown's at UK. He came to WVU after serving as the tight ends and hybrids coach at North Carolina from 2016-18.

In 2018, the Tar Heel offense ranked No. 31 nationally in total offense, averaging 442.1 yards per game. Tight end Carl Tucker was named to the Mackey Award preseason watch list, and he and his teammate, Jake Bargas, averaged more than 10 yards per reception. In 2016, Scott was part of an offensive staff that oversaw the establishment of more than 40 individual and team records including passing yards and passing yards per game.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run-game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 yards per attempt.

He spent three seasons at Texas
Tech from 2010-12. While the Red Raiders were known for throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked No. 115 in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to No. 75 nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked No. 66 in rushing offense and No. 77 in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to No. 35 nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and No. 16 in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked No. 3 in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons, he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris, who has played in the NFL for seven years, ranked No. 2 in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077

In Scott's last season at Troy, he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, earning Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

A native of Plant City, Florida, Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina, where he lettered in 2003 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with the Cleveland Browns and Pittsburgh Steelers before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

He graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky. The couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

three years coaching the quarterbacks before moving to tight ends in 2022.

In 2022, despite losing a veteran starter, his tight end group still made its presence felt in the offense on more than 800 snaps.

In 2021, WVU was fourth in the Big 12 in passing yards, finishing with more than 3,200 yards through the air. Mountaineer quarterback Jarrett Doege was second in the league in passing yards, being one of only two passers with more than 3,000 yards, and was fourth in total offense.

Jarret Doege threw for more than 2,500 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranked No. 10 nationally in completions per game (23.9), No. 16 in passing yards (2,587), No. 23 in passing yards per game (258.7) and No. 37 in completion percentage (.639). Reagan came to West Virginia in 2019 after serving as an assistant coach at Troy from 2008-18, including the last four years as a member of Brown's staff. He was the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2018, oversaw the quarterbacks and running backs the previous three years (2014-17) and was the guarterbacks coach from 2011-14. He also served as a graduate assistant in 2010 at Texas Tech, where he worked with Brown, the offensive coordinator of the Red Raiders at the time.

In 2018, Troy finished 10-3 and tied for the Eastern Division championship in the Sun Belt Conference. The Trojans went on to defeat Buffalo in the Dollar General Bowl, marking the third consecutive season with a bowl win. Quarterback Kaleb Barker started the first six games and posted more than 1,000 passing yards and 10 touchdowns and ran for 261 yards and three touchdowns, before a season-ending injury forced him to hand the reins to Sawyer Smith. Prior to that, Reagan worked with three record-setting quarterbacks at Troy: Brandon Silvers (2014-17), Corey Robinson (2011-13) and Levi Brown (2008-09). In 2017, Troy finished 11-2 with a Sun Belt

In 2017, Troy finished 11-2 with a Sun Belt championship, New Orleans Bowl victory and a regular-season win at No. 22 LSU, ending its 49-game home non-conference winning streak. Troy finished the 2016 season 10-3 with a victory on the Dollar General Bowl, the first top-25 ranking in school and Sun Belt history and tied for the best win-improvement in the country.

Reagan also coached the running backs for three years on Brown's staff. During that time, Jordan Chunn finished with 1,288 yards and 16 touchdowns and went on to set the Troy career rushing and total touchdown records in 2017. He also mentored running back Brandon Burks, Troy's eighth 1,000-yard rusher, finishing the 2015 season with 1,005 yards and seven touchdowns.

Robinson also had an impressive career with the Trojans, finishing as one of the top passers in school, Sun Belt and NCAA history. He led Troy with school and league records for touchdown passes, attempts, completions, passing yards and total offense. He finished with career as one of five players in NCAA history to throw for more than 3,000 yards and have more than 3,000 yards of total offense in four different years. He finished No. 9 in FBS history in passing yards and set the NCAA record for completion percentage in a game (30-of-32 against UAB in 2013), earning Capital One National Player of the Week honors.

After returning to Troy in 2011 as the quarterbacks coach, Reagan coached All-Sun Belt performer Deon Anthony. In 2012, Anthony set the Troy single-season record by completing 69.9 percent of his passes (79-of-113) and was named the Allstate Sugar Bowl Manning Award Player of the Week.

As a graduate assistant coach in 2008-09, Reagan was on the Trojans' staff that won two Sun Belt Conference championships, including finishing with an undefeated conference record in 2009.

Reagan began his coaching career at the high-school level as an assistant at Rockdale High School in Conyers, Georgia, for four years (1998-01), before moving to Chestatee High School in Gainesville, Georgia, for four years (2002-06), including the final two as the offensive coordinator. He spent the 2006-07 seasons as the offensive coordinator at Monroe Area High School in Monroe, Georgia, before heading to Troy.

A native of Conyers, Georgia, Reagan received his bachelor's degree in physical education and leadership from North Georgia College & State University in 2008. He, and his wife, Elizabeth, are the parents of three daughters: Heidi, Chloe and Maggie.

PITTSBURGH, PA. (SEPT. 1, 2022)

The game hadn't been played in 11 years, but the 105th edition of the "Backyard Brawl" turned out to be an instant classic that entertained the college football world.

Playing in front of a Thursday night, ESPN national audience and 70,622 in attendance at Acrisure Stadium - the largest crowd ever for a Pittsburgh sporting event - Pitt capitalized on a late West Virginia miscue for a 38-31 victory.

The Panthers opened the scoring with 6:48 left in the first quarter, when kicker Ben Sauls converted a 42-yard field goal. The Pitt lead held until the 12:45 mark of the second quarter when West Virginia quarterback JT Daniels connected with receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton on a 10-yard touchdown pass. The 75-yard scoring drive was highlighted by a 44-yard run from freshman running back CJ Donaldson.

The 7-3 Mountaineer lead held until the 3:17 mark of the half when the Panthers went up 10-7 on Rodney Hammond Jr.'s 4-yard run. However, West Virginia made the most of the last possession of the half and used the final 3:17. A 13-play, 75-yard drive ended with a 24-yard field goal from kicker Casey Legg and tied the game at 10-10 after two quarters of play.

The Panthers had the first possession of the third quarter and were forced to punt, which was blocked by Donaldson and returned by teammate Hershey McLaurin to the Pitt 5-yard line. Donaldson took it from there as his 5-yard run gave the Mountaineers a 17-10 advantage early in the third.

The game was starting to live up to its nickname as the two teams traded scoring punches the rest of the way. Pitt tied the game at 17-17 with 5:51 left in the third on a Daniel Carter 1-yard rush that was set up by a 64-yard completion from Kedon Slovis to Jared Wayne.

The Panthers regained the lead with 4:42 left in the third when Hammond broke loose for a 49-yard run followed by his 11-yard scoring run, giving Pitt a 24-17 advantage heading to the fourth quarter.

A Donaldson 20-yard run was a key play in West Virginia's nine-play, 75-yard scoring drive. The score tied the game at 24-24 early in the fourth as Daniels hit Ford-Wheaton for a 16-yard scoring toss.

The Mountaineers took a 31-24 lead with 10:37 left in the game. Donaldson once again set up the scoring drive with a 39-yard scamper before Daniels powered in from 1-yard away.

WVU seemed to have the advantage, but couldn't control the clock. The Panthers tied the game at 31-31 with 3:41 left on a Slovis 24-yard touchdown pass to Israel Abanikanda. Pitt then grabbed the victory on WVU's next possession, when Daniels' pass went through the hands of Ford-Wheaton, and Pitt's M.J. Devonshire returned the interception 56 yards for the victory.

West Virginia finished the game with 190 yards rushing and 214 yards passing for 404 yards of offense. The Panthers rushed for 76 yards and gained 308 through the air for 384 total yards.

Individual leaders for West Virginia were Donaldson with 125 yards rushing on seven carries and Ford-Wheaton with 97 yards receiving and two touchdowns. Pitt got 308 yards passing from Slovis and two scores from Hammond Jr. to pace the Panther offense.

The Pitt win broke a three-game losing streak to WVU, and the Panthers now lead the overall series by a 62-40-3 count.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 10, 2022)

Kansas overcame three, 14-point deficits to win for the first time in Morgantown by a 55-42 margin in overtime.

West Virginia started fast. Just four plays into the game, quarterback JT Daniels connected on a 59-yard touchdown pass to receiver Sam James. The Mountaineers took a two-score advantage with 5:03 left in the first quarter on a 1-yard run from CJ Donaldson

Kansas got on the board in the second quarter as Mason Fairchild caught a 10-yard scoring pass from Jalon Daniels. The Mountaineers answered with a 67-yard touchdown from Daniels to receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton for a 21-7 WVU lead at the 13:15 mark of the second quarter.

The Jayhawks bounced back with a 6-yard scoring run from Devin Neal, closing the deficit to 21-14. The Mountaineers took their third 14-point advantage with 3:11 left in the half, when Ford-Wheaton hauled in a 5-yard touchdown pass from Daniels.

However, Kansas made the most of the final drive before intermission as Neal's 17-yard reception put the score at 28-21 in WVU's favor at the half.

Kansas took the first possession of the third quarter 75 yards to tie the game at 28-28 on Daniel Hishaw's 3-yard run. Counting the drive before halftime, the Jayhawks went on a 21-0 run to grab a 35-28 lead with 4:00 left in the third quarter. Neal's 2-yard run capped the three-touchdown spurt and took advantage of a muffed punt by the Mountaineers that changed the momentum of the game.

West Virginia ended the Jayhawk scoring run with 12:58 remaining on Casey Legg's

27-yard field goal. But Kansas regained the momentum at the 10:59 mark on a 30-yard touchdown run from Hishaw for a commanding 42-31 lead.

Suddenly, West Virginia found itself down by 11 points with under 11:00 to go and used a 64-yard drive to add a 28-yard field goal from Legg. The scoring drive, however, took 6:55 off the clock and gave Kansas the ball with 4:04 left in the game.

Kansas was forced to punt on fourth-and-1 with 2:17 left, and Daniels took over from there, leading the Mountaineers on a 12-play drive capped by a 1-yard run from Donaldson. West Virginia's two-point conversion from Daniels to Ford-Wheaton was good, and the Mountaineers erased the deficit to force overtime.

A roughing the passer penalty in overtime extended the Jayhawks' drive, and they made the most of a new set of downs. Daniels hit Quentin Skinner for a 4-yard scoring toss, forcing WVU to score a touchdown. The game ended when Jayhawk Cobee Bryant intercepted Daniels on third down, giving Kansas the Big 12 victory.

Daniels was special for West Virginia, throwing for 355 yards and three scores. Ford-Wheaton was equally as special with 152 yards receiving and two touchdowns.

Kansas turned in a balanced attack with 200 yards rushing and 219 passing for 419 yards of offense. Daniels accounted for 309 yards of total offense in the victory, while Rich Miller and Kenny Logan combined for 22 tackles.

West Virginia finished with 146 yards on the ground and 355 in the air for 501 yards of total offense.

The Kansas victory broke an eight-game losing streak to the Mountaineers.

MORGANTOWN (SEPT. 17, 2022)

West Virginia got its first win of the 2022 season with a convincing, 65-7 victory over the Towson Tigers at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Nearly 80 players saw action in the contest, West Virginia was able to provide valuable game reps and experience to reserve players, which should pay dividends as the season progresses.

The Mountaineers never punted in the contest and placed two running backs in the 100-yard rushing category.

First-quarter action saw the Mountaineers take a 21-7 lead after a touchdown pass from starting quarterback JT Daniels to receiver Kaden Prather. A Tony Mathis Jr. 3-yard run and a big, 82-yard run from CJ Donaldson Jr. provided the other points in the quarter for the Mountaineers.

However, after West Virginia's first touchown in the opening quarter, Towson kick returner D'Ago Hunter tied the game with a 96-yard kickoff return. That play and Hunter's special teams' performance proved to be a bright spot in the game for the visitors. Hunter finished the day with eight kickoff returns for 227 yards, an average of 28.3 yards per return.

While the WVU special team units worked to contain Hunter, the Mountaineer defense had a bounce-back game, holding the Tigers to -3 first-half rushing yards and 59 passing for 56 yards of total offense after two quarters of play.

Taking a 21-7 lead into the second quarter, West Virginia's 24 points in that stanza put the game away and allowed coach Neal Brown the second-half luxury of getting more players in the game. WVU's 24 points came from a 26-yard Casey Legg field goal, two more touchdown runs from Donaldson and a 2-yard burst from tailback Mathis.

The Mountaineers totaled 415 yards and possessed the ball 11 more minutes than Towson.

West Virginia played all four of its talented quarterbacks in the contest and all four got in on the scoring action. Garrett Greene's 11-yard touchdown run capped an 84-yard drive and was the only points scored in the third quarter, giving the Mountaineers a 51-7 advantage.

Quarterbacks Will Crowder and Nicco Marchiol took over in the fourth quarter. Crowder passed for 57 yards, including a 5-yard scoring strike to Jeremiah Aaron, while true freshman Marchiol accounted for 32 yards passing and a 26-yard touchdown throw to Preston Fox.

West Virginia's defense was equally as impressive in the second half, as the Tigers finished with 82 yards rushing and 98 passing for 180 yards of total offense. With many players able to step in and see playing time, redshirt freshman linebacker Caden Biser led the Mountaineers with six tackles, followed by redshirt freshman safety Davis Mallinger with five tackles and a sack.

Mathis led all rushers with 104 yards to go with his two scores. Donaldson added 101 yards rushing and topped everyone with three touchdowns.

The Mountaineers finished with 316 yards on the ground and 308 yards passing among their four quarterbacks to total 624 yards of offense. WVU scored on all 10 of its possessions totaling nine touchdowns and one field goal.

The win improved West Virginia to 2-0 all-time vs. Towson and 23-0 against FCS opponents.

BLACKSBURG, VA. (SEPT. 22, 2022)

Earning its first win in Blacksburg since 2002, West Virginia recorded a convincing, 33-10 victory over Virginia Tech in front of a sellout crowd of 65,632 fans and an ESPN Thursday night, national-television audience.

The Mountaineers put together a balanced offensive attack, while holding Virginia Tech to just 35 yards rushing. Kicker Casey Legg was an offensive weapon for the Mountaineers, as he converted on four field goals and accounted for 15 points in the contest.

Legg's first field goal started the scoring as he converted on a 23-yarder with 3:19 left in the first quarter. The three points capped off an impressive, 92-yard drive by the Mountaineers in 14 plays.

The Hokies took their first and only lead in the game at the 14:52 mark of the second quarter. Quarterback Grant Wells connected with Kaleb Smith for a 28-yard touchdown reception and a 7-3 lead.

The Mountaineers answered the score with Legg's second field goal at the 1:50 mark. The 35-yard kick cut WVU's deficit to 7-6.

However, thanks to a strong defensive stand, the Mountaineers were not done and got the ball back with 1:01 left in the half. Quarterback JT Daniels made the most of the final minute as he led a 70-yard drive in just six plays and ended it with a 24-yard touchdown pass to receiver Sam James. The score gave West Virginia a 13-7 halftime lead, which was critical, since the Hokies had the first possession of the third quarter.

The West Virginia defense came up big again, holding the Hokies to just three plays on the opening second-half drive. The Mountaineer offense took it from there, embarking on a 14-play, 79-yard drive that ate 6:31 off the clock. The Mountaineers got three points out of the possession as Legg converted from 25 yards away, giving the visitors a 16-7 lead.

Virginia Tech scored its only points of the second half on its next possession. Kicker Will Ross got in on the field goal parade with a 44-yarder, cutting the West Virginia lead to 16-10 at the 4:19 mark of the third quarter.

West Virginia made it a two-score game again early in the fourth, as running back Justin Johnson Jr. scored from 6-yards out for a 23-10 advantage.

After the WVU defense forced another Hokie punt, Legg converted on field goal number four with a 38-yarder at the 10:16 mark.

Capping off its strong performance, the Mountaineer defense closed out the game's scoring, when defensive back Jacoby Spells intercepted Wells and returned it 27 yards for a touchdown and a 33-10 Mountaineer victory.

Daniels was solid with 203 yards passing, and true freshman CJ Donaldson Jr. impressed once again with 106 yards rushing. Linebacker Lee Kpoqba led the defense with six tackles.

Wells and Smith turned in the top performances for Tech. Wells had 193 yards passing with 70 of those yards coming from Smith receptions.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with a strong 218 yards rushing and 203 passing to total 421 yards of offense. Virginia Tech came away with 35 yards on the ground and 193 passing for 228 total yards.

The victory gave the Mountaineers two wins in a row against Virginia Tech, and West Virginia now lead the series by a 30-23-1 count. The WVU victory also keeps the Black Diamond Trophy in Morgantown for the foreseeable future with no more games remaining in the current series contract.

AUSTIN, TEXAS (OCT. 1, 2022)

Texas scored the game's first 28 points and coasted to a 38-20 victory over West Virginia in front of 100,740 fans at Darrell K Royal - Texas Memorial Stadium.

At one point in the first half, the Longhorns scored a touchdown on four straight possessions to take control of the game. Backup quarterback Hudson Card accounted for three touchdowns and 303 yards passing to lead the Longhorn attack.

With West Virginia unable to score on its first two possessions, Texas got the scoring started on its second possession with a seven-play, 60-yard drive. Card connected with Xavier Worthy for a 15-yard touchdown pass and a 7-0 Texas lead.

Texas took advantage of the West Virginia secondary for a good portion of the game, and that was the case on its second touchdown. A trick play from Card to Worthy resulted in Worthy's 33-yard touchdown pass to Ja'Tavion Sanders to give the Longhorns a 14-0 advantage heading to the second quarter.

Texas used passes of 22 and 24 yards to set up its third score as tailback Bijan Robinson scored on a 1-yard run. The drive covered 71 yards in only six plays.

On its fourth straight scoring drive, Texas went to the air again and used a 45-yard completion from Card to Worthy, and Card's 13-yard touchdown pass to Sanders gave UT a 28-0 advantage at the 4:17 mark of the second quarter.

West Virginia managed to get on the board just before halftime with a 13-play, 83-yard drive. Receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton accounted for 40 yards on the drive, while fellow receiver Sam James added a 21-yard reception. Quarterback JT Daniels ended the drive with an 8-yard touchdown reception to Kaden Prather, putting the halftime score at 28-7 in favor of the Longhorns.

Texas started the third quarter much like it ended the first half, by doing damage to the Mountaineer defense through the passing game.

A five-play, 70-yard drive took only 1:51 off the clock and ended with Card's third passing touchdown in the game. Worthy hauled in a 44-yard bomb for his second score, giving the Longhorns a commanding, 35-7 margin.

With no further scoring in the third quarter, the Mountaineers did outscore the Longhorns, 13-3, in the fourth quarter, but the game was long out of reach.

The Mountaineers used a 7:31 drive to earn their second score, when running back Tony Mathis Jr. ran in from 1-yard away.

Texas' final points came with 10:22 left to play as kicker Bert Auburn converted a 45-yard field goal, putting the score at 38-14. West Virginia closed the scoring with 4:25 left on a 4-yard touchdown run by Justin Johnson Jr. capping off a 14-play, 75-yard drive.

Bright spots for Texas aside from Card's performance were the 101 yards rushing from Robinson and 119 yards receiving from Worthy. Jaylan Ford and Jerrin Thompson combined for 24 stops.

Daniels finished with 253 yards passing, with 93 yards going to Ford-Wheaton on eight catches and 86 yards to James on seven receptions.

Texas won the statistical battle with 110 yards rushing and 336 passing for 446 yards of offense. Final numbers for West Virginia showed 61 yards on the ground and 253 through the air for 314 total offensive yards.

MORGANTOWN (OCT. 13, 2022)

A good, old-fashioned Big 12 shootout saw West Virginia use a late field goal to defeat No. 23 Baylor 43-40 on a Thursday night in Milan Puskar Stadium.

The scoring got started on WVU's first possession with a 64-yard drive that ended with a 7-yard touchdown run by running back Tony Mathis Jr.

As good as the WVU offense looked on its first drive, it would take a backseat early on to the Baylor offense, which scored the next 17 points. The Bears started the streak with a 40-yard field goal from John Mayers in the quarter and then added two touchdowns to begin the second quarter.

A 1-yard run from Ben Sims capped an 85-yard drive and a 35-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Blake Shapen to Gavin Holmes ended a 70-yard drive.

Trailing 17-7 with 10:52 left in the first half, West Virginia got back on the board at the 4:22 mark of the second quarter, when kicker Casey Legg converted on a 23-yard field goal.

Next, the Mountaineer defense got in on the action as linebacker Jasir Cox scooped up a Baylor fumble and rambled 65 yards to tie the game at 17-17 with 2:41 left in the half.

However, the Baylor offense was in high gear and it took only 1:27 to recapture the lead. Shapen hit Craig Williams for a 39-yard scoring reception, giving the Bears a 24-17 lead at the intermission.

The Mountaineers made the most of the opening possession of the third quarter as quarterback JT Daniels engineered a 75-yard drive and found receiver Kaden Prather for a 24-yard touchdown pass to tie the game at 24-24.

In typical Big 12 fashion, the scoring was far from over, and the shootout was just getting started. Shapen went out with an injury, but the Bear offense never missed a beat with backup quarterback Kyron Drones. Baylor regained the advantage at the 5:21 mark on a 2-yard pass from Drones to Hal Presley.

Before the quarter ended, the Mountaineers struck back on a 19-yard rushing touchdown by Justin Johnson Jr. The score was set up by a 32-yard completion from Daniels to receiver Sam James. The barnburner was tied 31-31 heading to the fourth.

A 74-yard Baylor drive gave the lead back to the Bears, but the PAT was blocked and returned for two points by WVU's Jacolby Spells. Those two points would turn out to be big for the Mountaineers as they now trailed, 37-33.

A key Baylor fumble deep in West Virginia territory was recovered by Cox for his second big play in the game. The fumble led to a 34-yard scoring run from Mathis and a 40-37 WVU lead.

An Aubrey Burks interception with 3:19 left seemed to put WVU in command, but a Daniels interception set up a 44-yard field goal by Mayers to tie the game with 1:33 remaining.

Daniels more than made up for the interception though, directing WVU on a 61-yard drive, resulting in Legg's game-winning, 22-yard field goal.

Mathis finished with 163 yards rushing, Prather added 109 yards receiving and Cox came up with two huge plays on defense. Holmes was outstanding for Baylor with 210 yards receiving on seven catches.

Baylor finished with an impressive 590 yards of offense, while the Mountaineers had 217 on the ground and 283 through the air for 500 yards of total offense.

The victory was West Virginia's first Big 12 win of the season, and the Mountaineers improved to 7-4 all-time versus Baylor, including 6-0 at home.

LUBBOCK, TEXAS (OCT. 22, 2022)

Texas Tech scored its fourth straight victory over West Virginia with a convincing, 48-10 victory at Jones AT&T Stadium.

The Red Raiders started fast and never looked back, as they ran 103 plays in the game, averaged 5.8 yards per play, held the ball nearly eight minutes more than West Virginia and turned in the trifecta of a 100-yard rusher, 100-yard receiver and a 300-yard passer.

The game's first possession saw the Red Raiders march 75 vards in only 1:37 to take a 7-0 lead on a 19-yard run from Tahj Brooks.

Tech's next possession was more of the same as its fast-paced offense marched 80 yards to take a 14-0 lead on Brooks' 1-yard

West Virginia got on the scoreboard before the end of the first quarter when kicker Casey Legg converted a 38-yard field goal, ending a 61-yard drive that took 7:50 off the clock.

However, those were the only points scored by the Mountaineers in the first half, and Texas Tech upped its lead to 17-3 at the half on Trey Wolff's 46-yard field goal. The kick was the only scoring in the second quarter, before the Red Raiders put the game away in the second half.

Texas Tech outscored West Virginia, 31-7, in the second half to complete the rout. When the Mountaineers failed to score on the third quarter's first possession, the Red Raiders pounced, scoring on a 55yard touchdown pass just two plays into the drive. Quarterback Behren Morton connected with Xavier White for the explosive play, putting Tech up, 24-3, at the 13:14 mark of the third quarter.

On its next possession, Texas Tech turned in a 91-yard drive, which ended with a 12-vard touchdown pass from Morton to Loic Fouonji.

West Virginia's only points in the second half and only touchdown in the game came at the 5:05 mark of the third quarter, as quarterback JT Daniels connected with receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton for a 28-yard touchdown reception. The drive covered 75 yards in six plays.

Leading 31-10, Texas Tech added 17 points in the fourth quarter to finish the rout. The Red Raiders scored on a 13-yard touchdown run by SaRodorick Thompson, added a second field goal from Wolff and finished with a 2-yard scoring toss from backup quarterback Donovan Smith to Brady Boyd, capping an 84-yard drive.

On the day, Morton passed for 325 yards and two scores as the Tech quarterback connected with 11 different receivers in the offensive arsenal. Brooks ended his day with 107 yards rushing, and White posted 139 yards receiving on eight catches. West Virginia ran only 66 plays compared to Tech's 103, and Marquis Waters, Dadrion Taylor-Demerson and Kosi Eldridge combined for 21 stops on those 66 plays.

The Mountaineers got 194 yards passing from Daniels, but his three interceptions ended potential scoring opportunities. Ford-Wheaton topped the WVU receivers with 53 yards and one score. Aubrey Burks and Davis Mallinger collected 10 tackles each to pace the WVU defense.

Final numbers illustrated the Texas Tech domination. The Red Raiders turned in 239 yards rushing and 355 passing for 594 yards of offense. West Virginia came in with 73 yards on the ground and 209 passing for 282 yards of offense.

The Red Raider win evens the all-time series between the two schools at 6-6, including a 3-3 mark in games played in Lubbock.

MORGANTOWN (OCT. 29, 2022)

TCU broke a four-game losing streak to West Virginia with a 41-31 win on Homecoming weekend in Morgantown.

Both teams surpassed the 400 yards of total offense mark, and the shootout was eventually won by TCU behind the strong performance of quarterback Max Duggan.

The senior signal caller threw for 341 yards and three touchdowns in leading the Horned Frogs to victory. Duggan had impressive touchdown passes of 71, 55 and 29 yards in addition to completions of 57 and 28 yards on the afternoon.

A beautiful October day got off to a strong start for the Mountaineers as they scored the game's first points after completing an 80-yard drive in eight plays. Running back CJ Donaldson Jr. powered in from the 1-yard line for a 7-0 WVU lead.

TCU answered 1:29 later when Taye Barber hauled in a 71-yard touchdown reception, tying the game at 7-7 heading into the second stanza.

The fireworks continued as the Horned Frogs outscored the Mountaineers by a 21-14 count to take a 28-21 lead at the half.

Donaldson Jr. scored his second touchdown in the game early in the quarter, and the Mountaineers added a 5-yard score from running back Justin Johnson Jr. for their 14 points.

TCU's 21 points came on big plays and big chunks of yardage against the Mountaineer defense. Duggan connected with Quentin Johnston for a 55-yard scoring play. Later in the quarter, a Mountaineer fumble set up a 51-yard touchdown run by Kendre Miller and a 30-yard touchdown scamper by Emani Bailey closed the scoring in the first half.

The Mountaineers ran 18 more plays than TCU and controlled the football more than nine minutes longer, but the Horned Frogs' big-play attack enabled them to take the seven-point advantage at the half.

Knowing that it had to keep pace with the big-play Horned Frogs, the West Virginia offense added a 33-yard field goal by kicker Casey Legg, that turned out to be the only points in the quarter. Heading to the fourth, TCU clinged to a 28-24 lead.

Fourth-quarter action saw the Horned Frogs outscore the Mountaineers by a 13-7 count to take the road victory. TCU answered the Legg field goal with Griffin Kell field goals of 30 and 46 yards for a 34-24 advantage.

The Mountaineers were not done and turned in a 12-play, 78-yard drive that resulted in a 23-yard touchdown pass from quarterback JT Daniels to receiver Reese Smith with 4:12 left to play.

Trailing by three, a Malachi Ruffin interception gave West Virginia one last chance, but TCU held and added a late touchdown for the 10-point victory.

West Virginia got a strong day from Donaldson Jr. with 104 yards rushing and two scores. Receiver Sam James finished with six catches for 95 yards and Daniels turned in 275 yards passing and two scores. Linebacker Lee Kpogba led the WVU defense with seven stops.

Aside from Duggan's strong day, Miller rushed for 120 yards to lead the TCU rushing attack and Barber had 99 yards receiving. Jamoi Hodge turned in 13 tackles, two TFL and one sack for the visitors.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 155 yards rushing and 275 passing for 430 total yards. TCU came in at 153 yards on the ground and 341 through the air for 494 offensive yards.

The Mountaineers held the ball nearly 13 minutes longer and ran 24 more plays, but it was not enough to stop the No. 7/7 ranked Horned Frogs, who improved to 8-0 on the season.

AMES, IOWA (NOV. 5, 2022)

lowa State used a balanced offensive attack, mixed with a stingy defense, to grab its first Big 12 Conference victory of the season with a 31-14 win over West Virginia at Jack Trice Stadium.

The Cyclones ran 74 plays compared to West Virginia's 49 and eventually wore down the Mountaineer defense. Number of plays and nearly 17 minutes more in the time of possession battle proved to be the winning formula for the home team.

Both offenses got off to a slow start, which enabled the defenses to control the first quarter and much of the first half. lowa State scored first on a 30-yard field goal from kicker Jace Gilbert near the end of the first quarter.

Second-quarter action saw both teams score a touchdown before the half. The Cyclones upped their advantage to 10-0 at the 7:51 mark with quarterback Hunter Dekkers finding tight end DeShawn Hanika for a 16-yard scoring toss, ending an 86-yard drive that took 7:02 off the clock.

West Virginia got its first score of the game with 34 ticks left on the second quarter clock, when quarterback JT Daniels connected with receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton from 25 yards out. The touchdown pass finished a 68-yard drive in eight plays.

With Iowa State holding a 10-7 lead at the half, the two defenses again took over in the third quarter. Neither team scored in the third, but a West Virginia special teams miscue early in the fourth quarter spelled doom for the Mountaineers.

With Iowa State forced to punt, WVU's Reese Smith was flagged for roughing the kicker, which gave the Cyclones a fresh set of downs.

It didn't take long for lowa State to make the Mountaineers pay for the mistake. A 38yard run from Deon Silas followed by a 24yard touchdown catch by Xavier Hutchison gave lowa State a 17-7 lead with 13:18 left in the game.

After the roughing the kicker penalty, the wheels fell off for the Mountaineers. The Cyclones went on to add two more scores in the quarter to break the game open.

A 33-yard run by Silas set up a 5-yard touchdown run by Cartevious Norton for a 24-7 ISU advantage.

Norton came back on the next Cyclone drive and add a 3-yard rushing touchdown for a 31-7 ISU lead with 3:52 remaining.

West Virginia added a late fourth quarter score, when backup quarterback Garrett Greene engineered an eight-play, 75-yard drive that ended with an 8-yard scoring toss to receiver Sam James.

Top performances for the Mountaineers came from defensive lineman Dante Stills with five tackles, three TFLs and one sack. Punter Oliver Straw finished with a 42.8 average on nine punts. Straw's longest in the game traveled 61 yards, and he placed four punts inside the 20-vard line.

Hutchison topped the Cyclones with 10 catches for 123 yards, while Dekkers passed for two scores and 219 yards.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 76 yards rushing and 124 passing to total 200 offensive yards. Iowa State's balance came in the form of 172 yards rushing on 38 carries and 219 yards passing on 36 attempts for 391 total yards.

The win improved Cyclone head coach Matt Campbell to 4-3 all-time against West Virginia, while the Mountaineers now lead the overall series between the two teams by a 6-5 count.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 12, 2022)

West Virginia finally broke through to defeat Oklahoma in Big 12 Conference play with a 23-20 victory at a rain-soaked Milan Puskar Stadium.

The win over the Sooners was sparked by backup quarterback Garrett Greene, who relieved starter JT Daniels and delivered 119 yards rushing with two scores to go along with 138 yards passing and one touchdown. Greene accounted for 257 yards of offense and three touchdowns in the win.

After a scoreless first quarter, Oklahoma took a 3-0 lead at the 9:42 mark of the second quarter. After missing a 54-yarder in bad weather conditions, kicker Zach Schmit converted on a 32-yard field goal to end a 75-yard drive. The score was set up by a 54-yard run from tailback Eric Grav.

OU extended its lead to 10-0 on Gray's 12-yard touchdown run, which was set up by a 67-yard completion from quarterback Dillon Gabriel to Marvin Mims.

However, the Mountaineers were left with one possession before halftime and got a 42-yard kickoff return from Sam James, followed by 33-yard run from Greene, setting up a 5-yard scoring rush from Greene. However, the PAT was fumbled and returned by Oklahoma for two points, giving the Sooners a 12-6 lead at the break.

With Greene at quarterback, WVU took its first lead in the game with 3:29 left in the third quarter. He connected with receiver Bryce Ford-Wheaton on an 8-yard reception for a 13-12 advantage.

The lead didn't last long as Oklahoma regained it on the next possession. Gray rushed for 41 yards in the 59-yard scoring drive and his 5-yard scamper put the visitors back in front. Gabriel's successful run for the two-point conversion gave the Sooners a 20-13 lead heading to the fourth quarter.

WVU used a 12-play, 72-yard drive to tie the game on an 11-yard run from Greene. The big plays in the drive were a 35-yard completion to James, three completions for 25 yards to receiver Kaden Prather and a 5-yard fake punt conversion from James on 4th-and-4.

Two possessions later, Oklahoma got down to the West Virginia 29-yard line with 6:24 left in the game. However, Schmit missed his second field goal on the afternoon, when his 46-yarder hit the right upright.

The Mountaineers would not give the ball back to the visitors as the ensuing 15-play drive took up the remaining ticks on the clock. West Virginia's offense methodically moved the ball down field, converting three third-down plays and one fourth-down play to reach the Sooner 6-vard line.

Kicker Casey Legg took it from there. His 25-yarder as time expired gave West Virginia its fourth win and second gamewinning kick from Legg on the season.

Aside from Greene, West Virginia got 90 yards receiving from James and seven catches from Ford-Wheaton. Jasir Cox turned in a strong defensive effort with 12 tackles, including nine solo.

Gray led the Sooner attack with 211 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Mims turned in 98 yards receiving on four catches and the Sooner defense got 25 combined tackles from Danny Stutsman and DaShaun White.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 203 yards rushing and 203 passing for 406 total yards. Oklahoma had 236 yards on the ground and 190 through the air for 426 total yards. The Mountaineers held a 37:15-22:45 edge in time of possession.

The win broke a nine-game Sooner winning streak in the series and gave the Mountaineers their first win over OU in Big 12 Conference play.

MORGANTOWN (NOV. 19, 2022)

No. 19/17 Kansas State officially ended the 2022 bowl hopes for West Virginia with a 48-31win at a chilly Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Wildcats scored 28 points in the first quarter and never looked back to win in Morgantown for the first time since 2014. The Mountaineers added 19 points in the opening quarter for a combined 47 points between the two teams, which were the most in school history for one frame.

Electing to receive the ball after winning the coin toss, Kansas State took the game's first possession and easily scored a touchdown in five plays. Gains of 13, 33 and 7 yards set up a 15-yard touchdown run by Deuce Vaughn for a 7-0 K-State lead two minutes into the game.

That lead stretched to 14-0 one minute later as Cincere Mason intercepted WVU quarterback Garrett Greene and scored on a 37-yard return.

To West Virginia's credit, the Mountaineers did not back down and fought back with two straight scores. Greene connected with receiver Sam James for a 26-yard scoring toss before defensive back Malachi Ruffin intercepted Wildcat quarterback Will Howard for a 43-yard interception return. Ruffin's pick canceled out K-State's touchdown return, but WVU missed the extra point and trailed 14-13 at the 6:34 mark of the first quarter.

The high scoring opening quarter continued as the Wildcats got a 49-yard run from DJ Giddens to take a 21-13 advantage before Howard connected with Malik Knowles on a 26-yard scoring toss, giving the visitors a 28-13 lead.

West Virginia closed the scoring in the quarter with a 71-yard touchdown psdd from Greene to James to put the score at 28-19.

In the wild quarter, Kansas State started the game with two straight scores. West Virginia answered back with two straight of its own before the Wildcats added two more only to see the Mountaineers stop the KSU run with the 71-yarder to James.

Second quarter action was slightly milder as the visitors outscored the home team 13-6. Kansas State opened up a 35-19 advantage with a Howard 15-yard touchdown pass to tight end Ben Sinnott. West Virginia quickly answered the score with Greene's third touchdown pass in the half to James. The 5-yard scoring toss put the score at 35-25 with 6:55 left in the second quarter.

The final minutes of the first half ended with two Wildcat field goals. Kicker Ty Zentner connected from 46 and 53 yards, giving Kansas State a 41-25 margin at the intermission.

Neither team scored in the third quarter, setting up the fourth, which saw K-State outscore WVU 7-6. The Wildcat offense hit many big plays in the game, and Knowles' 43-yard scoring reception was yet another, giving KSU a 48-25 lead.

West Virginia got on the board one last time with 9:29 to play on Greene's 13-yard run to close a 75-yard drive, but it was not enough as the Wildcat defense kept the Mountaineers out of the end zone the rest of the way.

Greene accounted for four touchdowns, and James hauled in three catches for an impressive 102 yards to go with his three scores.

The Wildcats were led by 111 yards receiving from Knowles and 294 yards passing from Howard as K-State turned in 10 plays of 20 yards or more,

Final numbers showed WVU with 153 yards rushing and 216 passing for 369 yards. KSU got 143 yards on the ground and 294 through the air for 437 total yards. Prior to the game, WVU honored 19 players as part of Senior Day festivities.

STILLWATER, OKLA, (NOV. 26, 2022)

West Virginia broke a seven-game losing streak to Oklahoma State and won for the first time in Stillwater since 2014 after a 24-19 victory in Boone Pickens Stadium.

The game was played in a heavy, cold downpour for most of the time, which limited the two offenses. However, the rain didn't seem to bother West Virginia running back Jaylen Anderson, who ripped off touchdown runs of 54 and 57 yards en-route to a 155-yard rushing performance to lead the Mountaineers.

In fact, it was the West Virginia running game that led the Mountaineer offense for the entire game as the bad weather conditions limited the passing attack.

Quarterback Garrett Greene started off the scoring with a 36-yard touchdown run at the 7:11 mark of the first quarter. The 7-0 lead came on the first play of West Virginia's second offensive possession and held through the end of the quarter.

Oklahoma State tied the game at the 14:56 mark of the second quarter with a 4-yard rush from receiver Brennan Presley.

With both teams struggling offensively in the weather conditions, the 7-7 score remained until the final minute of the half, when Oklahoma State kicker Tanner Brown connected on a 22-yard field goal with just 13 seconds left for a 10-7 Cowboy advantage at the break.

West Virginia won the opening coin flip and deferred its choice to the second half. The Mountaineers made the most of the opening possession of the third quarter and regained a lead that they would never relinquish.

A six-play, 80-yard drive gave West Virginia a 14-10 lead, when Anderson scampered 54 yards for a touchdown. Also on the drive, Greene was knocked out of the game with a concussion and backup true freshman quarterback Nicco Marchiol, not only finished the last four plays of the drive, but would finish the game as WVU's quarterback.

After the West Virginia defense held the Cowboys on four plays, the Mountaineer offense added to the lead behind a 57-yard touchdown run from Anderson. With 9:46 left to play in the third quarter, the Mountaineers scored on both of their possessions and held a 21-10 advantage.

Oklahoma State was far from out of it and added two more scores in the quarter. Brown converted on a 38-yard field goal, followed by a 23-yard run from Ollie Gordon. A two-point conversion failed, giving the Mountaineers a 21-19 lead heading to the fourth.

The Mountaineer defense continued to play well, limiting the high-powered Cowboy offense enough for West Virginia kicker Casey Legg to pad the lead.

With 5:27 remaining in the contest, Legg's 34-yard field goal gave WVU a five-point lead and forced OSU to score a touchdown to win the game. The Cowboys had two possessions left and 13 plays, but the WVU defense came up big in one of its better performances of the season to seal the win.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with an impressive 250 yards rushing to go along with 77 yards passing for 327 yards of offense. Oklahoma State countered with 180 yards on the ground and 178 passing from freshman quarterback Garrett Rangel for 358 overall yards. Rangel filled in for the injured Spencer Sanders as both teams played the game with young and inexperienced quarterbacks.

With the win, West Virginia now trails the overall series against Oklahoma State by a 9-4 count.

Dr. E. Gordon Gee is one of America's most prominent higher education leaders, having helmed universities for more than four decades. In 2009, Time magazine named him one of the top 10 university presidents in the United States. Recently, the website Great Value Colleges named him the nation's top university president.

In 2014, Gee returned to West Virginia University, where his career as a university president began. His leadership goals include putting students first, advancing the university's research agenda, partnering with West Virginia communities and making sure that 1.8 million West Virginians know in their hearts and minds that West Virginia University is their university.

Born in Vernal, Utah, Gee graduated from the University of Utah with an honors degree in history and earned his J.D. and Ed.D.

degrees from Columbia University. He clerked under Chief Justice David T. Lewis of the U.S. 10th Circuit Court of Appeals before being named a judicial fellow and staff assistant to the U.S. Supreme Court. In this role, he worked for Chief Justice Warren Burger on administrative and legal problems of the Court and federal judiciary. Gee returned to Utah as an associate professor and associate dean in the J. Reuben Clark Law School at Brigham Young University and was granted full professorship in 1978.

One year later, he became dean of the West Virginia University College of Law, and, in 1981, was named WVU president. He served in that role until 1985.

He went on to lead the University of Colorado (1985-1990), Brown University (1998-2000) and Vanderbilt University (2001-2007). He served as president of The Ohio State University from 1990 to 1997 and again from 2007 to 2013.

His service on education-governance organizations and commissions is extensive. He currently serves on the Board of Trustees of the National 4-H Council and the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America. He served as chair of the Big 12 Board of Directors Executive Committee for 2017-18 and is a Big 12 representative on the College Football Playoff Board of Managers. He is an inaugural member of the Education Advisory Board (EAB) Presidents Advisory Council.

Gee has received many honorary degrees, awards, fellowships and recognitions. He is a fellow of the prestigious American Association for the Advancement of Science, the world's largest science organization. In 1994, Gee received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University of Utah, as well as from Teachers College of Columbia University. In 2013, he received the ACE Council of Fellows/Fidelity Investments Mentor Award and received the Outstanding Academic Leader of the Year Award on behalf of Historically Black Colleges and Universities. Gee received the Elite Leadership Academy's 2020 IMPACT Award, which honors exceptional leaders for self-knowledge, a clear vision and active coaching and mentoring relationships. A Distinguished Eagle Scout and lifelong Scouting supporter, he has received the Silver Buffalo Award, Scouting's top honor for adult volunteers.

He is the co-author of more than a dozen books, including his two most recent, "Land-Grant Universities for the Future" and "What's Public About Public Higher Ed?"

Gee's fiancée is Laurie Erickson, leader of the Erickson Foundation. His daughter, Rebekah, is clinical associate professor in obstetrics and gynecology at the LSU Health New Orleans School of Medicine and CEO and founder of Nest Health. Dr. Rebekah Gee is married to David Patrón and they have five children.

WVU VICE PRESIDENT/DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS WREN BAKER

West Virginia University President E. Gordon Gee named Wren Baker as WVU's Vice President and Director of Intercollegiate Athletics on Nov. 30, 2022.

WVU's 13th director of athletics came to Morgantown from the University of North Texas, where he had been the associate vice president and athletics director since 2016. With previous stops at Missouri, Memphis, Northwest Missouri and Rogers State, Baker brought more than 20 years of experience to WVU.

Baker has oversight of 18 varsity sports, a department budget of more than $90 million, approximately 250 employees and nearly 500 student-athletes.

In his first year at West Virginia, Baker has hit the ground running and has never looked back. He has traveled the state to learn its culture, met Mountaineer fans from all over the world, fundraised for his department, addressed budget concerns, put his touches on a new premium club space at the Coliseum and even hired coaches in women's and men's basketball. While he is a native Oklahoman, he has certainly been adopted as the newest Mountaineer by West Virginia fans.

As an athletics director, he has now led 20 head coaching searches, and his hires have a combined 75% winning percentage.

At North Texas, seven Mean Green programs (men's cross country, volleyball, women's soccer, football, men's basketball, women's golf and softball) combined to win 17 conference or division championships during Baker's tenure, and the overall athletics department's winning percentage in the last year was the best in the modern era. In 2019, every Mean Green team achieved a winning season for the first time in school history.

UNT also reached new heights in the classroom under Baker's leadership, posting its top APR scores and four consecutive department Graduation Success Rate (GSR) records. For the first time ever, every Mean Green team recorded a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher with the Spring 2022 department GPA hitting a 3.206 average.

Baker led record fundraising years at North Texas as the school registered its four best fundraising years in its history, and the overall top five largest gifts ever at UNT came under Baker's leadership. He guided North Texas athletics to a school record for fundraising in a single year, nearly doubling the previous department record.

UNT ticket revenue increased by 125% under Baker, and football attendance grew by 71%, while men's and women's basketball crowds grew by more than 60%. Additional achievements at North Texas included a five-year strategic plan, new 20-year facilities master plan and lucrative contracts for multimedia rights, licensing, apparel and equipment.

Baker also led the charge to renovate eight different UNT athletic facilities, while spearheading the design and fundraising for three new facilities including a track and field/soccer stadium, golf practice facility and an indoor practice building.

One of the biggest moments in the history of North Texas Athletics came under his watch, when UNT was invited to join the American Athletic Conference beginning in July 2023.

Prior to North Texas, Baker was the deputy director of athletics at Missouri from 2015 to 2016, serving as the top advisor and chief of staff. He was responsible for assisting with all aspects of administration and led the external unit, helping Mizzou to a record fundraising year. He also served as the interim director of athletics at Missouri before moving on to North Texas.

Before Missouri, he spent time at Memphis from 2013-15 as deputy athletics director. He secured the largest gift in the university's history as Memphis posted its best fundraising year ever. While setting a school record for fundraising, major gifts and multimedia rights revenue, Baker also grew Memphis' scholarship fund, was the sport administrator for men's basketball and worked closely with football during a two-year run that included the Tigers' first conference championship in football in more than four decades.

From 2011-13, Baker was athletics director at NCAA Division II power Northwest Missouri State, where he secured the largest gift in the athletics department's history for improvements to the football stadium. Under Baker, Northwest Missouri saw its revenues increase by 60%, and he hired head football coach Adam Dorrel, who led the Bearcats to three consecutive national championships.

From 2006-11, Baker served as the first athletics director at Rogers State in Claremore, Oklahoma, where he was also the school's first men's basketball coach. His team went 20-11 in his only season at the helm, and RSU teams combined to post a nearly 70% winning percentage despite being a start-up athletic program. During his tenure, Baker developed a full-scale collegiate athletics program.

In 2005, he was the principal and athletics director for Valliant Public Schools and, at age 26, was the youngest principal in Oklahoma history.

Originally fom Valliant, Oklahoma, Baker earned his bachelor's degree in education from Southeastern Oklahoma State in 2001 where he was a member of the honors program. He went on to earn his master's degree in education leadership from Oklahoma State in 2003.

While at Oklahoma State, Baker was a graduate assistant and basketball operations assistant for the Cowboys' men's basketball program under legendary head coach Eddie Sutton. During Baker's time with OSU, the Cowboys posted a 102-30 record, reaching four NCAA tournaments, and advanced to the 2004 Final Four and the 2005 Sweet Sixteen.

Baker and his wife, Heather, a Bokchito, Oklahoma, native, have two daughters, Addisyn and Reagan.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Following are some guidelines for covering the 2023 Mountaineers.

Credentials: All requests for working press, photo and broadcast credentials to cover West Virginia's 2023 home football games must be applied for online at http://www.sportssystems.com/westvirginia at least two weeks prior to the game. Requests submitted the week of the game only will be honored if space permits.

Due to the demand for working credentials, media regularly assigned to cover WVU and the visiting school will receive priority.

All photographers must work outside the 20-yard lines as prescribed by the NCAA; they are not permitted in the bench area extended. Photographers must sign in for field access in the press box prior to each game.

No children (under the age of 16) are allowed on the sidelines for any reason; any children on the sidelines will be removed, along with their guardians.

Any abuse of a working credential to West Virginia football games can result in the media agency losing credential privileges for the remainder of 2023 and possibly the entire 2024 home season.

After The Game: Coach Neal Brown will conduct a postgame news conference in the Milan Puskar Center Team Room. Brown's news conference also can be heard over the press box PA. Select WVU players also will be available in the team room. No media will be granted access to the West Virginia locker room.

During The Week: Coach Neal Brown will meet with the media each Tuesday afternoon at 12:05 p.m. in the Team Room at the Puskar Center.

Mountaineer coordinators and select players will be available for interviews each Tuesday from 12:30 – 2 p.m. This is also the best time for players to return calls to out-of-town media. They will be available to return phone calls on Tuesday and Wednesday as class and practice schedules permit. Any special arrangements for player interviews should be made through assistant athletics director/ football communications Mike Montoro at least a day in advance. Players will not be asked to miss class or study hall for interviews and at no time will a player's phone number be given to the media.

No player interviews will be conducted during practice sessions. The practice and interview schedule for preseason camp and game weeks will be announced in August.
