Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center Featured on Cover of Athletics Administration Magazine

One of the premier college athletics facilities in the country, the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center was featured on the cover of the March 2019 issue of Athletics Administration Magazine, the official magazine of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

Wyoming's $44 million state-of-the-art Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center opened in August 2018. The new facility, located at the north end of War Memorial Stadium, expanded the original Rochelle Athletics Center by 71,000 square feet to a total of 118,000 square feet.

CREDITS

Design Credit: Hugh West of Hugh West Design designed both the cover and editorial pages for this year's Wyoming Football Media Guide. It is always a pleasure to work with you, Hugh. We can't thank you enough for your creativity and the extra time and effort you put into making this publication the best it can be.

Photography Credits: We want to extend our sincere thanks to Troy Babbitt, who provides us exceptional action photos. Thanks to Paul Kanaly for the professional, high-quality head shots of our coaches and players. Also thanks to Ted Brummond at UW Photo Service for your quality photo contributions, and thanks to Nick Seeman, John Durgee and Cobe Wastler of our Athletics Media Relations staff for the outstanding photos they provided to this year's publication.

Content Credits: The 2023 University of Wyoming Football Media Guide was produced by the University of Wyoming Athletics Media Relations Office. It was edited by Tim Harkins, Associate Athletics Director for Media Relations, and Nick Seeman, Assistant Athletics Director for Media Relations. Many thanks to Diane Dodson, Media Relations Assistant Director for Operations, and Bud Denega, Assistant Media Relations Director, for their contributions to this year's guide.

THE COWBOY FOOTBALL SPORTS NETWORK WYOMING FAST FACTS

Keith Kelley

Keith Kelley and Kevin McKinney to Call Games in 2023

All Wyoming Cowboy Football games may be heard live on the affiliate radio stations of the Cowboy Sports Network throughout the states of Wyoming, Colorado and South Dakota. The flagship station for the network is KFBC 1240 AM in Cheyenne, Wyo.

Each Wyoming Football game is also broadcast on the official University of Wyoming athletics website: www.gowyo.com.

Keith Kelley enters his second season as the "Voice of the Cowboys" for Wyoming Football and Basketball in 2023. He has been selected by his peers of the National Association of Sportswriters and Sportscasters as the Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year four times. Kelley is a long-time sportscaster and newscaster for KFBC Radio in Cheyenne, Wyo. He has been the sports director at KFBC since 2004 where he also hosts the SportsZone, Cheyenne's longest running daily sports talk show. Kelley was the play-by-play voice of Cowgirl Basketball for the 2020-21 and 2021-22 seasons, before taking over as the voice of Cowboy Football and Basketball in the 2022-23 season.

Kevin McKinney first served as color analyst for Cowboy Basketball beginning with the 1973-74 season and continues as color analyst today. The upcoming 2023-24 basketball season will be McKinney's 51st season providing color commentary. Since 1996, he has also added color analysis on Cowboy Football games and will continue in that role in 2023. McKinney was inducted into the Wyoming Association of Broadcasters (WAB) Hall of Fame in the summer of 2015. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Intercollegiate Athletics Hall of Fame in the fall of 2013. In 2000, he was named Wyoming's Sportscaster of the Year, and in 2011 he was honored with a lifetime achievement award from the Wyoming State Athletics Hall of Fame. McKinney is a Cheyenne, Wyo., native and University of Wyoming graduate.

Eric Pauley will be entering his second season as sideline reporter for Cowboy Football in 2023. He is currently the Vice President of Operations for The Radio Network in Green River, Wyo. Pauley, like Kelley and McKinney, is a former Wyoming Sportscaster of the Year, winning the award in 2018. He brings a unique perspective to Cowboy Sports Network broadcasts as he is a former football letterman at the University of Wyoming where he played defensive line. A native of Green River, Wyo., Pauley was a standout prep athlete in the state of Wyoming.

2023 FOOTBALL MEDIA INFORMATION

Welcome to the University of Wyoming, and Cowboy Football. The information on these pages is presented to assist the working media in its coverage of the upcoming season. The Wyoming Media Relations Office will be available throughout the year to assist you.

Credential Requests

Requests for press box and photo credentials should be directed to the University of Wyoming Media Relations Office. To ensure consideration, requests should be submitted on company letterhead — either by email, fax or mail — two weeks prior to the game. Requests made the week of the game will be handled as space allows. No requests will be processed later than noon on the day prior to the game. Credentials will either be mailed, or will be held at Will Call.

Media Parking at Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium

Wyoming's Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium is located on the north side of Grand Ave. at the intersection of Grand and 22nd Street in Laramie, Wyo. Most media members will be assigned parking in the FA or S lots on the west side of War Memorial Stadium and the Arena-Auditorium. The FA or S lots may both be accessed by taking Willett Drive, which runs on the north side of War Memorial Stadium. On the west side of the Arena-Auditorium turn south off of Willett Drive into the FA or S parking lots.

Media Facilities

The War Memorial Stadium Press Box facility is located on the top of the Stadium's West Stands. Working media are accommodated in the main "Larry Birleffi Media Area", while broadcast personnel are assigned booth space as available. The Press Box is accessible via an elevator, located in the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium.

Photographic Services

Photographers can either shoot from designated areas on the sidelines or from the camera deck that is located in front of the press box and is accessible from the main press area. Wireless internet access is available in the press box. There is also a room available to photographers during and after games on field level in the former Stadium Club room located underneath the southwest corner of War Memorial Stadium. Wireless internet and high speed data lines will also be available in this room.

Media Services

Complete team and individual stats, running play-by-play and postgame coach and player quotes are provided for working media. A media folder including flip-card, updated statistics and game-day notes will be provided pregame. An internal public address is provided for updated information and notes throughout the game. A pregame meal is served through the first quarter, and coffee, soft drinks and snacks are available during and following the game. For radio, internet lines, as well as regular land lines are available. Ample phone lines and wireless internet are available in the press box.

Ticket Information

Tickets to all University of Wyoming Athletics' events may be purchased through the UW Athletics Ticket Office. Tickets may be ordered over the phone by calling 307-766-7220, or online at www.gowyo.com, and go to the ticket links on the front page.

Practice

Media members are required to check with the Wyoming Media Relations Office prior to attending a practice session.

Craig Bohl Weekly Press Conference and Interviews

Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will be available on a weekly press conference each Monday during the season from Noon-12:30 p.m. The press conference will be held in the High Altitude Performance Center Team Room. Contact the UW Media Relations Office for details regarding the weekly press conference.

Player and Assistant Coach Weekly Interviews

Requested Wyoming football players and assistant coaches will be available to the media to interview during the weekly press conference each Monday following Coach Bohl's portion of the press conference.

Video Services

Media in need of assistance with video may contact the UW Athletics Media Relations Office.

Postgame Press Conferences

Wyoming postgame press conferences following Home Games will take place in the High Altitude Performance Center Team Room at the north end of War Memorial Stadium. Entrance for credentialed media members will be through the center doors immediately off the north end zone. Each press conference will begin approximately 10 minutes after conclusion of each home game. Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl will begin each press conference followed by select Wyoming players. Opponent postgame press conferences will be conducted in War Memorial Fieldhouse.

Wyoming postgame press conferences following Road Games will vary depending on the interview space provided by the host school.

Real Time Data Rights Policy

The acceptance of media credentials is an acknowledgment of the University of Wyoming's rights to the game and play-by-play coverage and your agreement to abide by any restrictions the University of Wyoming may place on real-time play-by-play coverage and use of comprehensive game statistics. Failure to abide by these restrictions implemented by the University of Wyoming may result in revocation of press credentials. The University of Wyoming reserves the right to grant approval for distribution of real time play-by-play, game-related statistics and information through the Internet.

Media Relations Office

The Wyoming Media Relations Office is located at the north end of the Intercollegiate Athletics Building in the Fieldhouse North Addition. The office is located on the second floor, Room 206. The phone number is 307-766-2256.

MICK & SUSIE MCMURRY

HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER

New Strength and Conditioning Center

In the summer of 2018 a new strength and conditioning center opened for Cowboy Football. The new area contains 12,000 square feet of space, and features the newest and the best in strength training equipment.

The Team Room

MICK & SUSIE MCMURRY

HIGH ALTITUDE PERFORMANCE CENTER

New Training Table

With completion of the Mick and Susie McMurry High Altitude Performance Center (HAPC) in the summer of 2018, there has been a dramatic change in how the nutritional needs of student-athletes have been met. A new Training Table area opened in the HAPC and is available for UW student-athletes in all 17 NCAA-sanctioned sports offered by the University of Wyoming. The Training Table is located on the second level of the High Altitude Performance Center.

MARIAN H. ROCHELLE

ACADEMIC CENTER

The Wyoming Athletics Office of Academic Support (OAS) focuses on providing UW student-athletes the academic support system they need to reach the ultimate goal of their college experience — graduation. Five full-time academic counselors are part of the UW Athletics staff, and are available to assist UW student-athletes in pursuing their academic and career goals.

Malcom Floyd

An outstanding receiver for the Wyoming Cowboys from 2000-03, Malcom Floyd went on to play 12 NFL seasons, all with the San Diego Chargers.

A photograph of the interior of the Malcom Floyd Family Recruiting Lounge. The room features a grey sofa, two brown leather armchairs, a dark wood coffee table, and a large Wyoming cowboy logo on the wall. A bar area with a stool is visible on the left.

THE MALCOM FLOYD FAMILY

RECRUITING LOUNGE

A new addition to the High Altitude Performance Center is the Malcom Floyd Family Recruiting Lounge that was funded by a generous donation from former Wyoming Cowboy and San Diego Charger Malcom Floyd. The beautiful area overlooks Jonah Field at War Memorial Stadium and is used to host Wyoming football recruits when they come to visit campus.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING

If you are looking for a wonderful college environment, look no further than the University of Wyoming. From its beautiful mountain setting in Laramie, to its wide range of academic offerings and its nationally-respected football program, UW offers a memorable college experience to its students.

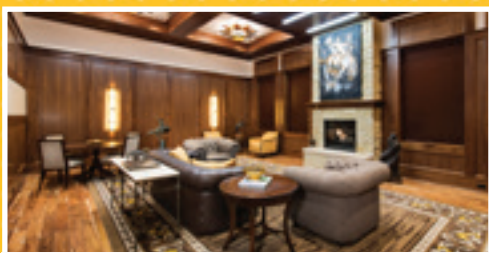

UW provides an atmosphere that allows you to achieve both your academic and athletic goals.

The University of Wyoming was founded in 1886. UW offers a wide range of both undergraduate and graduate degrees and majors through seven colleges and multiple interdisciplinary programs and departments. With a small student/faculty ratio of 14:1, UW is a community of scholars and learners committed to excellence.

Wyoming's seven colleges include: Agriculture, Life Sciences and Natural Resources; Arts and Sciences; Business; Education; Engineering and Physical Sciences; Health Sciences; and Law. This wide range of colleges allows each student to explore many options to find his or her career niche. Another way we contribute to the success of our students is by offering a large number of courses each semester, making it possible for students to graduate in four years.

The Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center

Opened in the fall of 2014, the Marian H. Rochelle Gateway Center was built to be a "Gateway" to the University of Wyoming. It houses the UW Foundation, Alumni Association, Admissions Office and Career Services Center. The Gateway Center serves as a fantastic recruiting tool for UW Athletics. The Cowboy Football team hosts recruiting functions in the Gateway Center.

The College of Health Sciences

At UW, we encourage students to develop their full potential by becoming involved as active members of the university, local community and the world. Opportunities for involvement in some 200 recognized student organizations include student government, publications, the speech and debate team and religious and cultural organizations. Many of our students also take advantage of exceptional international opportunities to become part of the world community through Study Abroad and International Programs. With so many choices, our students enjoy the benefits of meeting new people, making good friends, developing leadership skills and gaining invaluable life experiences.

UW offers a true college-town atmosphere. Laramie has a population of approximately 30,000 with a student enrollment of 11,100. The Laramie campus is composed of 80 major buildings on 785 beautifully landscaped acres. There is a pleasant mix of modern and traditional structures, many built of native Wyoming sandstone quarried northeast of Laramie. At the heart of the campus is the Wyoming Student Union. Fresh from a new multi-million dollar renovation, the Union is where students can kick back between classes, have a sandwich, meet friends, check out an art exhibit or study.

UW is the perfect place for learning in a friendly yet achievement-oriented environment.

As the state's sole four-year educational institution, the university receives strong support from the state and its residents. There is a dedication to making UW the best it can be in terms of its facilities, programs, people and aesthetics. Capital improvements on campus are a high priority, reflecting a commitment to maintaining UW's world-class stature.

Wyoming hosted the No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns before a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium in 2009. Texas made its first-ever appearance in Laramie, and went on to finish the '09 season as the national runnerup.

In 2008, Wyoming defeated the Tennessee Volunteers, 13-7, in Knoxville's Neyland Stadium, becoming the first team from a non-automatic qualifying BCS conference to win there since 1986.

SUCCESS

VS. THE FBS

In 2019, Logan Wilson (#30) and Cassh Maluia (#46) helped lead Wyoming to a 37-31 win over SEC member Missouri in Laramie.

The biggest home game in University of Wyoming school history was played in 2011, as Wyoming hosted Nebraska for the first time before a sellout crowd.

In the 2009 season, Wyoming hosted the then No. 2 ranked Texas Longhorns. It was the Longhorns' first-ever appearance in Laramie, Wyo. Wyoming led the Longhorns 10-6 late in the first half before losing to the eventual national runnerup in front of a sellout crowd in War Memorial Stadium.

Not only have the Cowboys played the best in the nation, but over the past 19 seasons, Wyoming has enjoyed success against those teams, recording victories over:

- Missouri of the Southeastern Conference (37-31 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2019)
- Tennessee of the Southeastern Conference (13-7 in Knoxville, Tenn., in 2008)
- Virginia of the Atlantic Coast Conference (23-3 in Laramie, Wyo., in 2007)
- Ole Miss of the Southeastern Conference (37-32 in Laramie, in 2004, and 24-14 in Oxford, Miss., in 2005)
- UCLA of the Pacific-10 Conference (24-21 in the Pioneer PureVision Las Vegas Bowl in 2004)

UW has faced numerous Top 25 ranked programs over the past 26 years, including: Ohio State (1997); Colorado (1997); Georgia (1998); Tennessee (1999, 2002 and 2008); Auburn (2000); Texas A&M (2000, 2001, 2004); Kansas (2001, 2003); Washington (2002); Oklahoma State (2003); Ole Miss (2004, 2005); Florida (2005); Virginia (2006, 2007), Texas (2009 and 2010), Nebraska (2011, 2013, 2016), Michigan State (2014), Oregon (2014 and 2017), Missouri (2018, 2019), Washington State (2018), Illinois (2022) and BYU (2022).

Looking to the future, Wyoming has upcoming games with: Texas (2023); Texas Tech (2023, 2028); Arizona State (2024); BYU (2024); Colorado (2025); Utah (2025, 2027); Cal (2029, 2032); and Arizona (2030, 2033). Texas Tech (2023), BYU (2024), Utah (2025), Cal (2029) and Arizona (2033) are scheduled to appear once each in Laramie.

The Mountain West Conference's television package includes exciting partnerships with CBS Sports and FOX Sports for the coming season.

Wyoming Cowboy Football is accustomed to playing on national television and against some of the top college football programs in the country -- and they've enjoyed success against the best in the country.

The 2023 Wyoming football season will kick off on Sept. 2 from Laramie with a nationally-televised game on CBS between the Wyoming Cowboys and Texas Tech Red Raiders.

During the 2023 season, five Wyoming games will be televised by CBS or CBS Sports Network and three games will be televised on one of the FOX Sports Networks.

In addition to wide-ranging television coverage of University of Wyoming football games, CBS Sports Network aired a special on Wyoming Football entitled "College Football Confidential" in 2010.

GAMEDAY

ATMOSPHERE

Gameday at War Memorial Stadium is the place to be in the state of Wyoming on Saturdays. As the only NCAA Division I university in Wyoming, everyone is a Cowboy fan.

There is nothing like a college football gameday. From pregame tailgating to the pageantry of bands, cheerleaders and mascots entertaining loyal fans, college football is unmatched in the excitement it generates.

Sharing the day with a group of close friends makes the experience that much more exciting.

And when the game is over and another Wyoming home victory is a reality, the team and Cowboy fans celebrate together by singing the traditional victory song — Ragtime Cowboy Joe.

GAMEDAY

TRADITIONS

There are many traditions associated with Wyoming Football gamedays. From Pistol Pete to the Cowboy Joe Pony and a new tradition, the Cowboy Walk.

The Cowboy Walk sees fans lineup to wish the Cowboys well as they make their way to the locker room prior to each home game.

And of course prior to the game plenty of tailgating activities can be found centered around Wyoming's Tailgate Park.

Cooper Rothe and head coach Craig Bohl attended the 2018 Home Depot College Football Awards Show. Rothe was one of three national finalists for the Lou Groza Award.

SUCCESSFUL COWBOYS

RETURN HOME TO LARAMIE

Matt Lehning

The wonderful college experience that is offered by attending the University of Wyoming is one that remains with student-athletes long after they complete their eligibility as Wyoming Cowboys. The University, the Laramie community and the beauty of the Rocky Mountains draw UW alumni back to the region.

Included among the many former Cowboys who have returned to Wyoming to make their homes is the Cowboys' all-time leading tackler, Galand Thaxton. Thaxton was an Associated Press All-American in 1987 as a middle linebacker. He was part of the Cowboys' 1987 WAC Championship season. Thaxton returned to Laramie in 1999 to establish his own State Farm Insurance agency. He is a native of Denver, Colo.

Randy Welniak returned to Laramie in the summer of 2007. The 1988 WAC Offensive Player of the Year as a quarterback, Welniak led the Cowboys to the 1988 WAC Championship. A native of Ord, Neb., he is currently a Senior Associate Athletics Director at UW.

Eric Worden, a four-year letterwinner from 1988 through 1991, is an engineer for the TriHydro Corporation, an environmental engineering firm located in Laramie. A native of Loveland, Colo., Worden was an outstanding offensive lineman for the Cowboys during that era. He was a member of the 1988 WAC Championship team.

Matt Lehning, owner of Brown 'N Gold Outlet, a retail apparel company in Laramie, was a standout player for the Cowboys. Lehning, who lettered in 1998 and 1999, was a First Team All-MW free safety in 1999. Lehning's hometown is Sublette, Kan.

Julius Stinson was a First Team All-Conference cornerback in 2007, and was one of 12 semifinalists for the 2007 Jim Thorpe award, which honors the top defensive back in the nation each season. Stinson currently works for Cathedral Home for Children in Laramie.

These individuals are only a few of the former Cowboys who make Wyoming their home.

BOWL HISTORY

Bowden Wyatt

Wyoming Head Coach of 1951 Gator Bowl Champions

Bowden Wyatt guided the Wyoming Cowboys to their first-ever bowl appearance in the 1950 season, when on Jan. 1, 1951, Wyoming defeated Washington & Lee, 20-7, to complete an undefeated, 10-0, season.

1968 Sugar Bowl

Wyoming had posted a perfect 10-0 record in 1967 entering its game versus LSU in the 1968 Sugar Bowl on Jan. 1, 1968. While Wyoming lost to the Tigers, 13-20, the Cowboy appearance in the Sugar Bowl is still remembered by Cowboy fans as one of the greatest moments in school history.

1987 Holiday Bowl

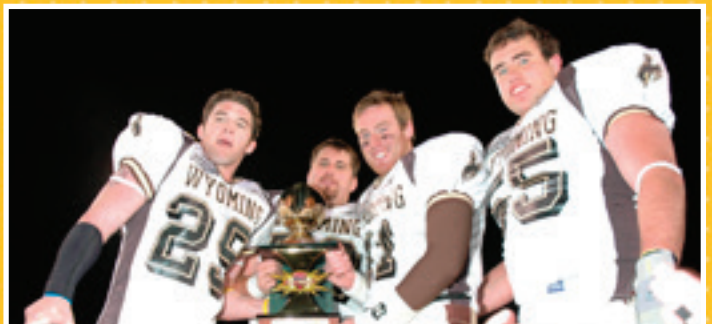

The Wyoming defense, seen swarming an Iowa ballcarrier here, played an outstanding game in the 1987 Holiday Bowl. UW's defense held the Hawkeyes to only one offensive touchdown. But Iowa returned a blocked punt for a TD and returned an interception for another score to give the Hawkeyes a one-point, 20-19, victory.

WYOMING GREATS

IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Jay Novacek

receives his Hall of Fame Award from NFF Board of Director and 1974 and '75 Heisman Trophy Winner Archie Griffin

The University of Wyoming is proud to have seven former football greats inducted into the National Football Foundation's College Football Hall of Fame. Former Cowboy head coaches Bob Devaney (Inducted 1981), William H. "Lone Star" Dietz (2012), Pat Dye (2005), Dennis Erickson (2019) and Bowden Wyatt (1972 Player, 1997 Coach), along with former Wyoming All-Americans Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom (2000) and Jay Novacek (2008) have all been elected to the distinguished Hall.

Devaney coached five years (1957-61) as head coach at Wyoming, posting a record of 35-10-5 and a winning percentage of 75.0 percent, which still ranks as the best winning percentage in Wyoming Football history. Devaney became head coach at Nebraska after leaving Wyoming, and he led the Cornhuskers to two national championships in 1970 and '71, a 32-game unbeaten streak and a 101-20-2 (.829) record. He was named the National Coach of the Year in 1971. His combined head-coaching record was 136-30-7 (.806), which when he retired in 1972 was the winningest among active coaches at the time.

Dietz coached Washington State to a 7-0 mark and a Rose Bowl victory over Brown in 1915. He coached three seasons at Wyoming from 1924-26, where he also spent time coaching the baseball team

Dye was Named National Coach of the Year in 1983 at Auburn. He is one of only seven coaches in history to have coached a winner of the Heisman, Outland and Lombardi trophies. Dye was the head coach at Wyoming for one season in 1980.

Erickson's 23-year career as a head coach was highlighted by two national titles at Miami in 1989 and '91, He coached the Cowboys for one season in 1986.

Wyatt was elected to the College Football Hall of Fame as a player in 1972 and as a coach in 1997. He became the third man to be elected in both categories. In this respect he followed A.A. Stagg and Bobby Dodd. He played end for Tennessee 1936-38 and in his senior year was a team captain and All-American. Wyatt served in the Navy in World War II. He was head coach at Wyoming 1947-52. His 1949 and 1950 teams won Skyline Conference championships. The 1950 team went to the Gator Bowl, beating Washington & Lee 20-7, and finished with a 10-0 record.

Talboom was Wyoming's first All-American in 1950 and led the Cowboys to their first bowl appearance and bowl victory that season in the Gator Bowl.

Novacek was a Consensus All-America tight end at Wyoming in 1984. He went on to win three Super Bowls with the Dallas Cowboys following the 1992, '93 and '95 seasons.

The mission of the National Football Foundation is to promote the power of amateur football in developing the qualities of leadership, sportsmanship, competitive zeal and the drive for academic excellence in America's young people. The NFF was founded in 1947.

The Wyoming Chapter of the National Football Foundation (NFF) was founded in 1993 by former UW head coach and athletics director Paul Roach when he gathered a group of interested ex-players, businessmen, coaches, athletic administrators, educators and football fans together.

The Wyoming Chapter is currently the largest in the nation out of 120 chapters. If you would like to become a member or help support the Wyoming Chapter as it strives to continue to be No. 1 please contact the Wyoming Chapter at: wyofoundation@gmail.com

ACADEMIC

ALL-AMERICANS

Trenton Franz was a First Team Academic All-American in 2004, and earned a prestigious Postgraduate Fellowship from the National Football Foundation. After completing his bachelor's degree in civil engineering, he pursued his graduate studies at Princeton where he earned his master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and his Ph.D. in January 2011. Franz was also a team captain of Wyoming's 2004 Las Vegas Bowl Championship Team.

Luke Ruff

Wyoming's Most Recent First Team Academic All-American, 2012

Luke Ruff, a civil engineering major with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average was named First Team Capital One Academic All-American in 2012.

The University of Wyoming Football program has enjoyed a rich tradition of attracting outstanding student-athletes to UW. The quality of these young men is perhaps best represented by the number of Academic All-Americans who have worn the Cowboy colors.

Since 1952, when the College Sports Information Directors of America began selecting Academic All-America teams, the University of Wyoming has produced 18 First Team Academic All-Americans.

In both 1996 and 1997, Wyoming's football program led the nation in First Team honorees with two First Team selections in 1996 and three in 1997.

The most recent honoree was senior free safety Luke Ruff in 2012. Ruff graduated from UW in 2013, earning a bachelor's degree in civil engineering with a 3.66 cumulative grade-point average. He chose to continue his graduate studies at the University of Wyoming, where he completed his master's degree in environmental engineering in December 2014.

At the conclusion of his undergraduate studies, Ruff was chosen to receive an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship, helping him to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Wyoming.

Among his other honors were: being named a semifinalist for the National Football Foundation's William V. Campbell Trophy, also referred to as the "Academic Heisman"; being selected as one of 30 football national finalists for the Senior CLASS Award; and being honored by the National Football Foundation as a 2013 Hampshire Honor Society member. He was a 2012 Preseason First Team All-Mountain West Conference selection by conference media members. His junior season, Ruff earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors for his achievements on the football field.

Cory Wedel and Jay Korth

Two-Time Academic All-Americans

Teammates Jay Korth and Cory Wedel share the distinction of being the only two Wyoming Cowboys to earn First Team Academic All-America honors twice. Wedel and Korth were both named to the Academic All-America First Team in 1996 and 1997.

Brian Lee

First Team Academic All-American and Consensus All-American

In 1997, Brian Lee accomplished a very rare feat as he earned First Team Academic All-America honors and Consensus All-America honors in the same season. He is the only Cowboy in school history to achieve both those honors.

NATIONAL FOOTBALL FOUNDATION

SCHOLAR-ATHLETES

John Wendling was one of only 17 national finalists for the National Football Foundation's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". It is awarded each year to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. Here Wendling is pictured with 2006 NFF College Football Hall of Fame Inductee Emmitt Smith at the annual NFF & College Hall of Fame Awards Dinner.

NFF National Scholar-Athletes From the University of Wyoming

Beginning in 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program.

The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Four Wyoming Cowboys have been honored as NFF National Scholar-Athletes through the years. Those four are listed below.

- Pat Smyth 1959
- Marty Eliopulos 1986
- Trenton Franz 2004
- John Wendling 2006

Each year since 1959, the National Football Foundation (NFF) has honored the nation's best all-around college football players with its National Scholar-Athlete program. The top college football student-athletes have been recognized by the NFF for their athletic ability, academic prowess and civic leadership.

Through the years, four Wyoming Cowboys have received this prestigious honor. Pat Smyth in 1959, Marty Eliopulos in 1986, Trenton Franz in 2004 and John Wendling in 2006 were chosen by the National Football Foundation for this elite honor.

Wyoming's most recent honoree, John Wendling, was named one of only 17 national finalists for the NFF's Draddy Trophy in 2006. The Draddy Trophy, renamed the Campbell Trophy in 2009, is presented annually by the NFF to the top football scholar-athlete in the country. It is often referred to as the "Academic Heisman". By being named a finalist, Wendling was also named to the NFF's National Scholar-Athlete team, and he was awarded an $18,000 postgraduate scholarship.

Former Cowboy center Trenton Franz earned the honor in 2004. Franz went on to pursue his graduate studies in engineering at Princeton University, where he earned a master's degree in civil and environmental engineering in June 2007 and then received his Ph.D. in January 2011.

Former Wyoming Cowboy Chris Prosinski joined some very elite company when the National Football Foundation (NFF) selected him as one of only five high school student-athletes in the nation to be honored in its 2006 NFF High School Scholar-Athlete Class. Prosinski was the West Region honoree.

Over one million high school student-athletes play football each season. The NFF, through its 120 chapters nationwide, honor approximately 2,500 of these high school student-athletes with over $800,000 in annual scholarships.

From that group of 2,500 scholarship recipients, the NFF chooses only five for the distinct honor of National High School Scholar-Athlete.

THE "BORDER WAR" AND THE BRONZE BOOT

The annual Wyoming-Colorado State "Border War" football game has evolved into one of the most bitterly contested rivalries in college football.

The series began in 1899, and has been played in three different centuries. Wyoming and CSU have waged the "Border War" every year but six since the schools began playing, and the 2023 season will mark the 78th consecutive season the two border rivals will meet, dating back to 1946. This year will mark the 115th overall meeting.

In 1968, the ROTC detachments of the respective schools initiated the "Bronze Boot", traveling trophy awarded to the winner of the contest each year. The Boot was originally worn in Vietnam by Dan Romero, a CSU ROTC instructor. The boot has rested in UW's possession in 30 of the 55 years since its inception.

The "Bronze Boot" has become one of the most famous traveling trophies in college football. This year's 2023 meeting will be the 56th time the trophy has been fought over.

Wyoming 30 Wins, CSU 25 Wins

The statue “Fanning a Twister”, depicting the great Wyoming bucking horse Steamboat was erected in 1991 north of War Memorial Stadium to welcome visitors to the University of Wyoming Athletics complex. Sculptor Peter Fillerup from Cody, Wyo., created “Fanning a Twister”.

BUCKING HORSE AND RIDER

SYMBOL OF WYOMING

Cowboy Tough Statue

The sculpture “Cowboy Tough” was added to the UW Athletics facilities in the early 2000s. Casper, Wyo., artist Chris Navarro created this new bucking horse and rider sculpture.

There are two full-size originals of the statue that are located in the UW Athletics Department — one is on the second floor of the Rochelle Athletics Center and the second sits at the north endzone of War Memorial Stadium. It has become a tradition for the Wyoming Cowboy players and coaches to touch “Cowboy Tough” as they enter and exit the field at War Memorial Stadium on gamedays.

The symbol on the Wyoming Cowboy football helmet depicts a Cowboy riding a bucking horse. That symbol has been a part of the University of Wyoming Athletics Department since the early 1920s, when UW equipment manager Deane Hunton obtained a photograph of cowboy Guy Holt riding the world famous bucking horse “Steamboat” at the Albany County fairgrounds in 1903. Hunton traced the photo of Steamboat and Holt and turned it into a logo for use on athletics equipment. Steamboat was born on a ranch between Laramie and Bosler, Wyo., in 1901, and is regarded as one of the greatest bucking horses in history.

In later years, the symbol used by Wyoming Athletics more closely resembled the logo on the state’s automobile license plates., which depicted another famous bucking horse “Deadman” with a rider by the name of “Stub” Farlow atop it. “Deadman” was owned by the Jackson Hole Frontier Association. The license plate design was developed by the then Secretary of State, Lester C. Hunt, who later became the Governor of Wyoming and a United States Senator in 1935. Hunt utilized a photograph of “Deadman” and Farlow for the design of the state’s license plates, which first appeared in 1936.

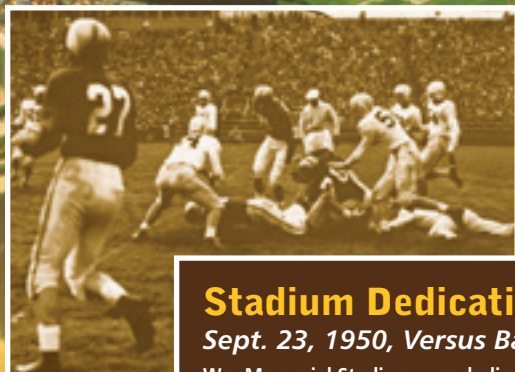

While there are differing opinions on exactly which horse and rider are depicted on all of UW’s athletics uniforms today, it is the symbol that is important. The bucking horse and rider represents the toughness, and the never-say-die spirit that is Wyoming. Whether it is “Steamboat” or “Deadman”, the bucking horse and rider logo is without a doubt one of the best and most distinctive symbols in college sports.

Stadium Dedication

Sept. 23, 1950, Versus Baylor

War Memorial Stadium was dedicated on Sept. 23, 1950, in a game versus Baylor. The Bears came to Laramie nationally ranked. They were led by quarterback Hayden Fry, who later went on to a College Hall of Fame career as head coach at SMU and Iowa. But Wyoming recorded a 7-0 victory over the Bears led by single-wing tailback Eddie "Boom Boom" Talboom, who would also later be inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame as a player. Wyoming went on to achieve an undefeated season, 10-0-0, and earned the school's first bowl bid to the 1951 Gator Bowl.

2005 — First Season of Artificial Turf

In 2005, artificial turf was installed in War Memorial Stadium for the first time after 55 seasons of featuring a natural grass surface in the stadium. This photo from the 2005 TCU game shows the artificial surface that was installed in the summer of 2005 at a cost of slightly more than $1 million.

In conjunction with the installation of the artificial surface, the field at War Memorial Stadium was named Jonah Field to recognize a very generous gift of $5 million by the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families to the UW Athletics Department. The Martin and McMurry families developed the Jonah Field natural gas field in western Wyoming.

JONAH FIELD

AT WAR MEMORIAL STADIUM

The words Jonah Field are displayed prominently on the playing surface in War Memorial Stadium to recognize the generous gift of the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families.

Martin and McMurry Gift Makes Jonah Field Surface Possible

The University of Wyoming named the playing surface at War Memorial Stadium, "Jonah Field" following a $5 million gift from the John and Mari Ann Martin and Mick and Susie McMurry families. Pictured at the press conference are left to right: UW's former NCAA 400-meter hurdle champion Shauna Smith, Senator Alan K. Simpson, the late Susie McMurry, the late Mick McMurry, John Martin, Mari Ann Martin and former UW quarterback Corey Bramlet.

Revolution playing surface that was installed in June 2013. The new Jonah Field will once again include a distinctive Wyoming design that was originally unveiled in 2013. FieldTurf has been installed at many of the top NCAA and NFL football stadiums in the country for its grass-like performance and safety.

Jonah Field will continue as the name of Wyoming Football's playing surface to commemorate the generous donations to UW Athletics by Casper entrepreneurs the late Susie McMurry and the late Mick McMurry and John and Mari Ann Martin and their families.

Sporting one of the finest grass gridirons for its first 55 seasons, the initial switch to artificial turf, in one of the most picturesque stadiums in the country, was completed in August of 2005.

The Martin and McMurry families donated $5 million to UW Athletics in May 2005. That gift was matched by the state of Wyoming for a total of $10 million. The new surface was originally named Jonah Field to recognize not only the prolific natural gas field in Sublette County (Wyoming) that made the Martin-McMurry gift possible, but also to recognize the financial contributions to state funding projects, including higher education, made over time by Wyoming's extractive industries.

Gifts totalling $2 million by George and Dianna Archuleta of La Barge and Ron and Linda Flack of Cheyenne, launched UW's Intercollegiate Athletics capital campaign for facilities. Their gifts were made in March of 2004. Many other alumni, friends and Cowboy supporters also contributed through the Strategic Plan for Intercollegiate Athletics,

The elements of the 2023 design include the words "Jonah Field" prominently displayed on both sidelines. A depiction of Wyoming's iconic mountains are prevalent in both end zones along with the traditional words "WYOMING" and "COWBOYS" in brown on a gameday gold background in opposite end zones. Those words appear in a western-style font. Also included is the lettering "7220 Feet" on both sidelines, indicating the elevation of War Memorial Stadium as the highest NCAA Football Bowl Subdivision field in the nation. Wyoming's traditional "Steamboat" symbol of a bucking horse and rider will remain at midfield in brown, outlined in white and gameday gold.

The original 2013 field design was provided by award-winning graphic designer David Coleman, who is a Wyoming native and UW graduate.

The project was supervised by the Mountain West Regional Vice President for FieldTurf Jed Easterbrook, who is also a UW graduate and Cowboy baseball letterwinner.

War Memorial Stadium is the only state-and privately-funded memorial to Wyoming veterans, but when it was dedicated it honored only those who served in World War II. The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the veterans of all other wars, thereby making the entire stadium truly a Wyoming veterans' memorial.

THE VETERANS' MEMORIAL PLAZA

Gen. Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff who lettered for the Cowboys from 1966 to 1968, spoke to the team prior to a game.

Cowboy fans have witnessed the glory of Wyoming Football in the beautiful confines of War Memorial Stadium since 1950. However, the magnificent football venue, along with its fieldhouse counterpart, had very humble beginnings. The very thought of the two structures started out as just a dream by the UW Board of Trustees at the end of World War II in 1946.

The 'War to End All Wars' hit the University of Wyoming hard, as many of its students left school to serve their country. But at the conclusion of the war, UW President George 'Duke' Humphrey, Athletics Director Glenn 'Red' Jacoby and the UW Board of Trustees started a state-wide campaign to help raise additional money for the construction of a new football stadium and basketball fieldhouse for the Cowboys. The two structures would be living memorials to honor those Wyoming natives who served in World War II. The Board of Trustees believed that such facilities would serve an important role in the physical development of Wyoming's future generations.

On September 16, 1950, the Cowboys downed Montana State 61-13 in their new stadium. A week later, September 23, 1950, President Humphrey, along with Athletics Director Jacoby, dedicated War Memorial Stadium to over thirty-thousand Wyoming veterans who bravely served in World War II. The Pokes went on to win their second home game in the stadium, 7-0 over Baylor.

"War Memorial Stadium is a state memorial to our war heroes. Surely, there could be no better way the people of Wyoming could memorialize the men and women of our state who served so bravely in World War II," said Jacoby in 1950.

Since World War II, many citizens of Wyoming have served their country during times of conflict. Some even gave the ultimate sacrifice for the values of freedom, independence and liberty — values every person in Wyoming holds close to their heart.

The University of Wyoming, along with the Veterans' Memorial Plaza committee dedicated an addition to this beautiful stadium in 2003.

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza recognizes all Wyoming veterans who have bravely and faithfully served their country in any time of armed conflict. This dedication makes true to the title "War Memorial Stadium". In 2017, the Veterans' Memorial Plaza was moved to the northeast corner of War Memorial Stadium.

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza was funded almost identically to how the stadium was funded. The committee received funds from the Wyoming State Legislature, University of Wyoming, the Wyoming Governor's Office, along with veterans, corporations and general public donations. War Memorial Stadium was funded in the same manner as the Wyoming State Legislature and public donations footed much of the cost of its construction.

Prior to its move to the northeast corner of War Memorial Stadium in 2017, the Plaza was separated into two sections in the north end zone. As you looked north, the section on the right displayed flags of every military branch: Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force, Coast Guard and Merchant Marines. That structure also featured a dedication plaque to all Wyoming veterans, as well as two plaques listing all contributors to the memorial funding. The section to the left proudly displayed the United States flag and Wyoming's state flag, along with the P.O.W./M.I.A. banner. The original plaque that dedicated War Memorial Stadium to the veterans of World War II on September 23, 1950, also is located there as is a plaque presented to UW by Vice President Dick Cheney on Veterans Day 1999 (during the 20th Century Commemorative of Veterans celebration.)

The Veterans' Memorial Plaza honors the bravery and faithful service Wyoming veterans have given our country for over half a century. A nation, along with the state of Wyoming, will forever be indebted.

Opened in the fall of 2010, the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites features 12 individual suites and 256 club seats.

An exciting new facility, offering University of Wyoming Football fans the advantages of indoor, luxury seating, began construction in the spring of 2009 and was named the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. The new facility project was completed for the start of the 2010 football season.

A total of 12 individual suites along with a stadium-club area that contains 256 indoor seats is located on the upper east side of War Memorial Stadium and is named after the many successful "Wildcatters" of Wyoming. A Wildcatter is a person who displays the strength and courage to risk drilling oil or gas wells in areas where there is no guarantee that oil or gas will be found.

The project was funded with private donations and matching funds appropriated by the Wyoming State Legislature.

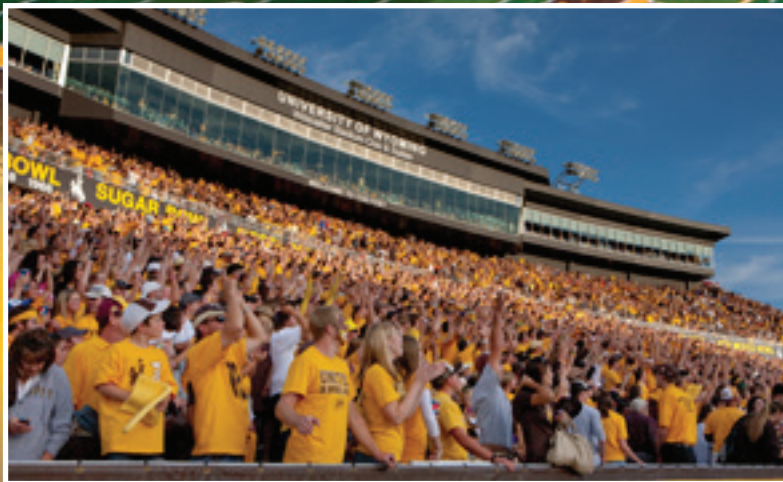

The world-renown architecture and design firm Populous served as designer for the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium. Populous has designed athletic facilities around the world for the past 25 years. Included in its recent projects are: the University of Phoenix Stadium, home of the Arizona Cardinals of the NFL; Heinz Field, home of the Pittsburgh Steelers; a renovation of the University of Oklahoma Stadium; the new Busch Stadium, home of the St. Louis Cardinals; AT&T Park, home of the San Francisco Giants; the new Yankee Stadium; and the London 2012 Olympic Stadium.

In connection with the Wildcatter Stadium Club & Suites at War Memorial Stadium, the new War Memorial Stadium east side renovation was completed at the same time. The renovation of the east side of War Memorial included improved seating, enhanced concession areas and improved and expanded restroom facilities for fans.

Wyoming's War Memorial Stadium, "The War", is the highest NCAA Football stadium in the country at 7,220 feet. It has gone through extensive renovations and new construction over the past decade. The new Wildcatter Stadium Club and Suites, pictured above, were completed in 2010. An extensive renovation of the east side seating, bathroom and concession areas was completed at the same time the Wildcatter addition was constructed.

In the fall of 2007, Wyoming's new Indoor Practice Facility (IPF) opened for use. Containing over 80,000 square feet, the facility includes a full-size 100-yard by 50-yard football field, featuring a state-of-the-art artificial turf surface. A new FieldTurf surface was installed in the summer of 2018.

The Indoor Practice Facility was built at a cost of $11 million.

Wyoming's Indoor Practice Facility is a full-size football field, allowing the Cowboys' workouts to be as efficient as possible with no limitations due to size.

"PEPSI PREGAME ZONE" PROVIDES EXCEPTIONAL TAILGATING EXPERIENCE FOR WYOMING FOOTBALL FANS

PEPSI PREGAME ZONE

Wyoming football fans were offered a new tailgating experience in 2014 as the "Pepsi Pregame Zone" kicked off a new era of Cowboy Football. The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" shifted the pregame tailgating area to the Indoor Practice Facility and Ford Stadium Lot, and incorporated a new "Tailgate Alley" adjacent to Indoor Practice Facility.

"Fan Fest" was held for all six home games in 2014. It was open to all fans, and kicked off three hours prior to each home football game in the Indoor Practice Facility. Food and drink vendors, WYO merchandise sales, kids' games and activities, live music and televised national football games were featured for fans' enjoyment.

"Tailgate Alley", adjacent to the south side of the Indoor Practice Facility and at the north end of the Ford Stadium Lot, was a reserved area for the truest of tailgaters. Reserved spots in "Tailgate Alley" are limited, so make your reservations with the Cowboy Joe Club now for the coming season.

The "Pepsi Pregame Zone" provides a fun, family atmosphere for Wyoming fans — many of whom drive several hours from every corner of the Equality State to come cheer on their Pokes.

Fans can share some food and drink as they talk about the day's upcoming game, while their kids play a game of catch. Others listen to a local band, or wait to see Wyoming's marching band, "Western Thunder", make their regular appearance prior to every home game.

LARAMIE

... BEAUTIFUL COLLEGE TOWN

One of the best things about Laramie is its location between two beautiful mountain ranges — the Snowy Range to the west and the Laramie Range to the east. It's a place of blue skies and clean air. Much of the area surrounding Laramie is public National Forest land. That means great access! You can head for the nearby mountains and find yourself on a hiking, biking or skiing trail within 15 minutes. There's also nearby rock climbing at the impressive Vedauwoo formations. You can be downhill skiing in the Snowy Range within 45 minutes. Laramie is convenient to the world-class skiing offered in Steamboat Springs and other nearby resorts.

For a different kind of fun, you can be in Denver within two and a half hours. There is an amazing array of culture throughout the area, plus the tremendous sports heritage of the Rockies, Broncos, Nuggets and Avalanche.

With its colorful Western heritage, cultural activities and outstanding outdoor recreation, the Laramie area captivates visitors from all over the world.

WYOMING

...THERE'S NO PLACE LIKE IT

They say it's beauty is like no other, and you fall in love with its people.

Wyoming, it is like no place on earth. Within it's boundaries is America's first and largest national park, Yellowstone. The unbounding beauty there includes "Old Faithful" geyser and Yellowstone Lake, the world's largest high-mountain lake. There is Yellowstone Falls, so awe-inspiring, it'll take your breath away. There are over 260 different species of animals and birds located there.

Wyoming's wonders seem to be unending. There is Grand Teton National Park, whose centerpiece is the spectacular Teton Mountain Range. There is Devil's Tower, America's first national monument. There is the world's largest mineral hot springs located in Thermopolis. There is the beauty of Ten Sleep Canyon and a hundred other places.

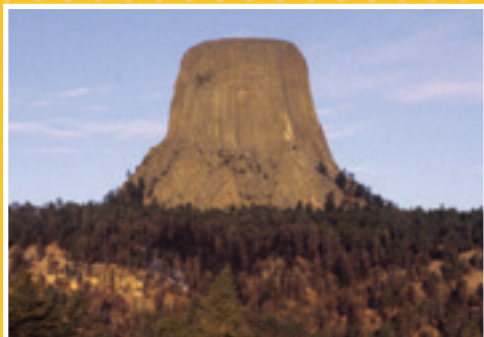

For breathtaking beauty, Wyoming is unmatched. Its reputation brings millions of visitors to its borders each year. Plus, some of the best skiing in America can be found in Wyoming. Tourists and sportsmen can't wait to get here to enjoy the clean mountain air and limitless outdoor attractions.

The history of the great American West can be heard whistling through the trees of Wyoming. Wyoming had an historic place in the taming of the West in the late 1800's. Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid were two of Wyoming's most famous citizens during the era of lawlessness. There remain plenty of reminders of an age that will live forever in American lore.

People are Wyoming's strongest resource. These folks are down to earth, friendly and helpful. And, oh how proud they are of their Cowboys. Wyoming has some of the best fans in America. As their only four-year university, Wyoming folks are tremendously supportive of their teams.

Yet, as down to earth as they are, many Wyomingites are on the cutting edge of politics, entertainment and business. Among some of the most famous are: former Vice President of the United States Dick Cheney; the late Dr. Jerry Buss, owner of the Los Angeles Lakers; Dean Conger, former chief photographer of the National Geographic Society; the late Curt Gowdy, the most decorated national sportscaster in history; Alan Simpson, former United States Senator; Gerry Spence, attorney and television personality; and General Pete Schoomaker, former U.S. Army Chief of Staff.

For great people, great scenery and a great education, there is no place quite like Wyoming.

SEASON OUTLOOK

Cowboys

2023 SEASON OUTLOOK

Wyoming Will Feature a Deep and Experienced Defense and an Offense Blending Key Returnees With Exciting Newcomers

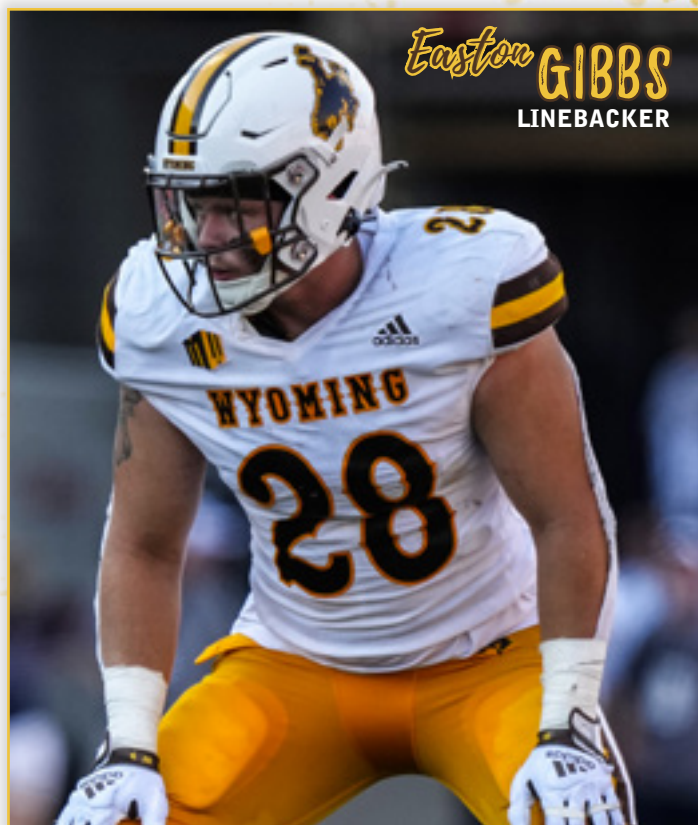

A year ago, the Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as one of the youngest teams in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa.

As Wyoming approaches the 2023 season, the outlook is much different than it was a year ago. A total of 17 of 24 starters return this season, with 10 of 11 starters returning on defense, a group of five starters on offense plus starting place-kicker John Hoyland and starting punter Clayton Stewart.

Those 17 returning starters are among 48 returning letterwinners -- 22 on offense, 22 on defense and four on special teams.

The Pokes will not be shy of leadership either. While team captains for the 2023 season will not be voted on until fall camp, all four team captains return from last year in linebacker Easton Gibbs and nose tackle Cole Godbout on defense and quarterback Andrew Peasley and tight end Treyton Welch on offense.

Nine returning Cowboys earned some type of All-Conference recognition last season. Gibbs, Hoyland, Peasley, Stewart and Welch were among those returners honored. Defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole, offensive tackle Frank Crum, defensive end DeVonne Harris and center Nofoafia Tulafono also received All-Conference accolades in 2022. A 10th Cowboy, Godbout, earned All-Conference recognition in 2021 and was well on his way to earning honors again last year before he was injured mid-season.

Overall Team Evaluation

With an experienced defense returning and an offense that will blend a group of key returnees with exciting newcomers, it is easy to be optimistic about the 2023 Wyoming Cowboys.

Head coach Craig Bohl not only likes the talent and depth coming back from last season, but he likes the mental make-up and of his 2023 team.

"I like the attitude of this team. They're a hard-working group and we do have good ability," said Bohl. "I think our conference is a great conference. We certainly have a very competitive non-conference schedule this year, but I'm excited about coaching this team and we'll see how far we go."

Part of the chemistry that has developed in the Wyoming Football program during Bohl's tenure has come about due to building a team with players who have a passion for being Wyoming Cowboys and adding transfers who fit the team identity that Bohl and his staff have fostered.

"What has occurred is we've been able to distill the players who really want to be here and appreciate that it's a privilege for them to wear the Brown and Gold," said Bohl. "They work hard. They play together. They're the type of team that I got into coaching for. This has been a really good group. They want to learn. They want to play together and want to do things the Wyoming way."

"What we've done with the transfers is we've done our homework and got some really good character references from people we knew and trusted who had worked with these guys before. I think that has helped. We haven't hit on 100 percent of them, but for the most part these guys have fit into our program."

2023 SEASON OUTLOOK

"One of the reasons we had another winning season last year is we had good chemistry in the locker room, and that wasn't by chance.

"Every year is a new year, but it (2022) was probably one of the most enjoyable years I've had as a head football coach because I thought the team chemistry was outstanding. We had a lot of guys who achieved close to their potential, which is one of the things you always look for in a program. It was a good year for us."

Frank CRUM

John HOYLAND
PLACE-KICKER

"It is a favorable schedule from a home game perspective, which we feel is great for our players and our fans," said Bohl. "The non-conference schedule is certainly daunting. Texas Tech played really well in their bowl game against Ole Miss and had an exceptional year overall. Portland State is going to be a very competitive team. The University of Texas on the road is always going to be a challenge and then App State I think has made a name for itself winning some of the games they have in recent years. It is no doubt going to be one of the most challenging non-conference schedules we've played since we've been at Wyoming. It is great having the number of home games we have this season and particularly having them early in the season."

No More Divisions

One of the biggest changes for the 2023 Mountain West Football season is there are no longer Mountain and West Divisions. The 2023 MW season will feature a single division format for the first time since 2012 and the two teams with the highest Conference winning percentage will compete in the championship game.

Challenging 2023 Schedule

Regarding the 2023 schedule, it is without a doubt a challenging schedule, but it also offers the Cowboys the advantage of having seven home games.

The non-conference portion of the schedule will kick off with a nationally-televised game on CBS from Laramie versus Big 12 opponent Texas Tech on Saturday, Sept. 2 at 5:30 p.m. Two weeks later, the Cowboys will face another Big 12 opponent in the Texas Longhorns. That game will be on the road in Austin, Texas on Saturday, Sept. 16.

In between the two games vs. Texas Tech and Texas, Wyoming will host FCS member Portland State of the Big Sky Conference on Saturday, Sept. 9. The Cowboys' other non-conference contest will be a home game on Sept. 23 vs. Appalachian State of the Sun Belt Conference, who has been a team that has recorded some of the biggest upsets in college football in recent history. Last season, the Mountaineers went on the road and defeated Texas A&M, 17-14, and nearly upset North Carolina before losing a two-point game to the Tar Heels, 63-61.

Wyoming will have five of its first six games of the season at home, including their Mountain West opener on Sept. 30 vs. New Mexico followed by a home game against defending MW Champion Fresno State on Oct. 7. UW's other two home games will include a Friday night showdown with rival Colorado State on Friday, Nov. 3 and a Saturday, Nov. 18 game vs. the Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors.

The Pokes will face conference road games against Air Force (Sat., Oct. 14), Boise State (Sat., Oct. 28), UNLV on a Friday night, Nov. 10 and Nevada (Sat., Nov. 25).

Quarterbacks

The quarterback room for the Wyoming Cowboys has three familiar faces back and three newcomers. Returning starter Andrew Peasley is back for his final college season after earning Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors last season. He is joined by two other returners in junior Jayden Clemons and sophomore Evan Svoboda. The newcomers include redshirt freshman Carson May, who transferred from the University of Iowa in the summer of 2023; true freshman Kaden Anderson from Southlake, Texas, who signed with Wyoming in the early signing period in December of 2022; and true freshman Gage Brook, who comes to Wyoming from Rocky Mountain High School in Fort Collins, Colo.

"Andrew (Peasley) will be a sixth-year player. He is a resilient player and earned the respect of his teammates last year by being elected a captain," said Bohl. "He had a good spring, but he needs to play better this year. We have high expectations for Andrew to take another step forward.

"Behind Andrew is a young man in Evan Svoboda, who came to us a year ago from Snow Junior College and physically has the stature of what you're looking for in an NFL quarterback. Evan has tremendous arm strength. I keep looking at the number 17 that he's wearing and have tried to draw some comparisons (to former Wyoming QB Josh Allen who wore #17), even though that is kind of hard to do. But I do think Evan could be an emerging player. Hopefully, we're not going to be in a position to have to call on him in the first game, with Andrew (Peasley) out there leading us, but we're excited with Evan's progress.

"I feel good about the quarterback room and am optimistic about that group, but we need to improve from last year."

Andrew PEASLEY
QUARTERBACK

Running Backs

The running back position for Wyoming has been one of the most productive over the last several years. There have been six 1,000-yard rushing seasons posted by Cowboy running backs in the nine previous seasons that Craig Bohl and his staff have coached at Wyoming -- two by Brian Hill (2015, '16), two by Xazavian Valladay (2019, '21), one by Nico Evans (2018) and one by Titus Swen (2022). When you eliminate the six-game, COVID-shortened season of 2020, that equates to six 1,000-yard rushers in eight full seasons.

This year's Cowboy backfield will be led by junior Dawaiian McNeely, who rushed for 356 yards in 10 games last season and averaged 5.7 yards per carry. At 6-2, 208 pounds, McNeely provides Wyoming with a big back who is both physical but also possesses good speed. He exploded for a 61-yard TD run against Hawai'i last season. Another exciting returner is sophomore D.Q. James. James rushed for 346 yards as a redshirt freshman in 2022. He averaged an amazing 8.7 yards per carry on only 40 carries. James provides Wyoming with a break-away threat at running back. At 5-7 and 170 pounds, his speed and quickness are his main weapons, but he has shown the strength to break tackles. He had two 100-yard rushing games in 2022, running for 179 yards on 14 carries at Hawai'i, including a season-long run of 74 yards. James rushed for 120 yards on only 10 carries against Utah State. The Cowboys also added an experienced back this offseason through the transfer portal. Junior Harrison Waylee comes to Wyoming from Northern Illinois. As a sophomore in 2022, Waylee earned Third Team All-Mid-American Conference (MAC) honors at running back in voting by MAC head coaches. He also was named to the Pro Football Focus (PFF) Third Team All-MAC squad. Waylee led NIU in rushing for the 2022 season, with 899 rushing yards on 165 carries and scored five rushing touchdowns. The third-year sophomore had three 100-yard rushing games in 2022, including a career best 230-yard game at Ball State in which he also scored three rushing TDs. His other 100-yard rushing games in '22 were 158 rushing yards at Eastern Michigan and 138 yards vs. Central Michigan. He has eight career 100-yard rushing games.

"Dawaiian McNeely, before he got hurt last year, was in the midst of having a heck of a year," said Bohl. "He's gotten bigger -- he's about 210 pounds now. He runs with great forward lean. He's a slasher. Dawaiian has capable hands out of the backfield catching the ball.

"We've added a transfer from Northern Illinois in Harrison Waylee. Harrison rushed for over 150 yards (179 yards) when he played against us in 2021. I know he also had a big game against Georgia Tech (144 yards) during that season. Anytime that we've been successful, we've always had a 1-2 punch. Harrison is a very capable running back, and Dawaiian, we think, has a huge upside.

"Behind those two, we have a young man, D.Q. James, who gives us an element of change of direction and acceleration that is different from Dawaiian and Harrison. D.Q. is an under-sized guy but he can go sideways and forward as fast as about anyone that I've ever coached.

"Those will be our top three running backs. We feel really good about our group of running backs when they're all healthy. I think that will be the strength of our offense."

Dawaiian McNEELY
RUNNING BACK

Tight Ends and Fullbacks

Wyoming will return one of the top tight ends in the Mountain West Conference this season in graduate Treyton Welch. Welch was named First Team All-Mountain West in 2022 by Pro Football Focus. He was the only Mountain West tight end to rank in the Top 10 in the MW in TD receptions last season. He tied for No. 4 in the Mountain West in TD receptions, with five total. Welch received an "A" grade from PFF (Pro Football Focus) for the 2022 season. He caught 22 passes for 308 yards, averaging 14.0 yards per reception. His best game of the season was in the Arizona Bowl vs. Ohio, catching five passes for 91 yards and 1 TD. John Michael Gyllenborg is a sophomore who had an excellent spring after playing a limited role as a redshirt freshman in '22. The Cowboys also return senior Colin O'Brien, who was limited last season due to injury, but gives Wyoming another experienced tight end.

2023 SEASON OUTLOOK

Wyatt WIELAND
WIDE RECEIVER

The Pokes also return a veteran fullback in junior Caleb Driskill. He will be utilized at fullback and can also be used in some different formations as he is an effective receiver, as well as being an outstanding blocker.

"Our two tight ends, Treyton Welch and John Mike (Gyllenborg), we think are exceptional. Treyton is a very experienced player and John Mike played a little bit last year. Colin O'Brien is another veteran who has shown good ability when healthy. Like the running backs, we're strong at the tight end position.

"At fullback, Caleb Driskill is going to be our main guy. We will line up with a fullback at times, but we're going to move him around some."

Wide Receivers

There are a number of wide receivers who return for the Cowboys in 2023 and UW also added two experienced wideouts through the transfer portal. Graduates Wyatt Wieland and Ryan Marquez are back and are joined by a third graduate in Gunner Gentry. Gentry missed all of last season due to injury. Juniors Alex Brown and Will Pelissier are two Cowboys who have seen a lot of playing time. Wieland is UW's top returning receiver, catching 23 passes in 2022 for 299 yards. Marquez provides the Pokes with a smart player who also has outstanding leadership qualities. Gentry has struggled with injuries throughout his career, but came out of spring practice healthy and is eager to contribute in his final season. Brown began to come into his own toward the end of last season and caught the winning touchdown pass in Wyoming's "Border War" win over Colorado State. Pelissier, who missed four games a year ago due to injury, possesses excellent speed and gives the Pokes a legitimate deep threat.

The two transfers who joined the Wyoming roster this offseason are Ayir Asante from Holy Cross and Devin Boddie Jr. from Vanderbilt. Asante earned Second Team All-Patriot League honors at wide receiver for the Crusaders in three consecutive seasons (2019, '20 and '21). Boddie Jr. was part of the Commodores' program the past four seasons as a wide receiver. His best season came in 2021 when he ranked fourth on the team, catching 29 passes for 263 yards.

Three other receivers with some playing experience include: junior Caleb Cooley, who is also UW's punt returner; sophomore Jaylen Sargent; and redshirt freshman Caleb Merritt. A number of young wide receivers are also waiting for their opportunity to prove themselves.

There is no denying that being more productive in the passing game was a focus for the Wyoming coaching staff in the offseason.

"This is a group that needs to improve in their play-making ability," said Bohl. "Wyatt Wieland is a sixth-year player, who has shown a really good ability to make plays. Ryan Marquez is another veteran who has graduated already and will provide us good experience. Alex Brown possesses really good down-field speed. The other guy who has good speed is Will Pelissier.

"This group is going to need to emerge. We have some older, experienced guys but now it's time for them to shine.

"We watched an extensive amount of tape on both Ayir (Asante) and Devin (Boddie Jr.). We've got quite a bit of experience in FCS football -- Asante was at Holy Cross -- and watching the teams that he played against we got a good feel for him. There are a lot of really good players in FCS football and when they're hungry and you can identify the right ones they can add great value to your team.

"Boddie showed some play-making ability at Vanderbilt where he was able to stretch the field. They're both going to be on campus this summer, and it will be good to have them here to get acclimated to our program."

Nofoaia TULAFONO
CENTER

Offensive Line

Wyoming's offensive line is another unit that has been very productive the last several seasons. Wyoming's offense ranked third in the Mountain West in rushing for the '22 season, averaging 181.4 rushing yards per game, and paved the way for another 1,000-yard rusher. The O-Line also ranked No. 3 in the MW and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (only 1.46 per game) and were No. 3 in the conference and No. 25 in the FBS in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game). The leaders of the offensive line in 2023 will be graduate offensive tackle Frank Crum and junior center Nofoaia Tulafono. Crum has started 36 of 43 career games he has played as a Cowboy. He will be making a change this year, moving from right tackle, where he has played throughout his college career, to left tackle. Tulafono started all 13 games at center for the Cowboys a year ago and will return to make the offensive line calls for the Pokes. Tulafono was selected by Pro Football Focus (PFF) as a Second Team All-Mountain West performer in 2022 and Crum earned Third Team honors from PFF. Sophomore Jack Walsh may be the most versatile member of the offensive line unit. Walsh can play both guard and tackle.

2023 SEASON OUTLOOK

He started two games at right guard as a redshirt freshman last season and is slotted to start at that spot entering the '23 season. Another sophomore, Caden Barnett, earned a start in '22 as a redshirt freshman, filling in for Crum when he was injured for one game. Barnett is the projected starter at right tackle heading into the '23 season. The projected starter at left guard is redshirt freshman Wes King.

"Our left tackle, Frank Crum, is another graduate and sixth-year player," said Bohl. "He'll move over from right tackle to left tackle this season. He was on the trajectory of having a great year a year ago and then received a hit that had an effect on his neck. He came back from that but didn't play as well toward the end of the season. We anticipate that Frank is going to have a great year. We list him at 6' 7" but I think he may be closer to 6' 8" and 315 pounds. He has excellent feet and great range. He's what you're looking for in a prototypical left tackle.

"The left guard, Wes King, is an emerging player. He redshirted last year. He had a really exceptional spring, and I think he is up a little over 300 pounds now.

"Fia (Nofoafia Tulafono), our center, was really capable last year. He's cut down a little bit of weight and is an experienced player.

"Jack Walsh can play both tackle and guard. We're going to start him out at right guard. He also had an excellent spring.

"Caden Barnett played some right tackle last year when Frank (Crum) was down. Caden had shoulder surgery this offseason, so he missed spring football, but overall I think this group is going to be an imposing offense line. With our non-conference schedule, it is going to be important to provide good protection for our quarterback and then also provide the ability to pop some lanes open for our running backs.

"I would say the sixth guy for us on the offensive line would be Rex Johnsen (redshirt freshman offensive guard) and Luke Sandy (redshirt freshman center/offensive guard) would be our seventh. Between Forrest Scheel (redshirt freshman offensive tackle) and JJ Uphold (sophomore offensive tackle) we're trying to find out who our eighth would be."

DEFENSE

Defensive Line

A dynamic group of players returns for the Cowboys on the defensive line. On the interior, the nose tackle and defensive tackle positions will be manned by graduate Cole Godbout and junior Jordan Bertagnole, respectively. Both were named to the Athlon Sports First Team Preseason All-Mountain West Team for 2023. Godbout entered the 2022 season as a leading All-Conference candidate and the leader of the UW defensive line. He had earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors in 2021 from Mountain West head coaches and media and was voted a 2022 team captain by his teammates. Godbout was outstanding in the first six games of the '22 campaign, recording 32 tackles, 11 quarterback hurries, 4.5 tackles for loss and one pass breakup. He suffered a foot injury against San Jose State that forced him to miss the final six regular-season games, before returning to start in the Arizona Bowl. He is poised for a big year in his final season for the Cowboys in '23. Bertagnole has started 21 of 30 career games at defensive tackle entering his junior season. He recorded 51 total tackles, 5.5 sacks and 7.5 tackles for loss in 11 games during the 2022 season. He was forced to miss the Boise State and Fresno State games late in the season due to injury, but returned for the Arizona Bowl. A very disruptive force in the middle of the Cowboy defense, Bertagnole earned Second Team All-Conference defense honors from Phil Steele in 2022. They will be backed up by junior Gavin Meyer and sophomore Ben Florentine. Meyer stepped in for Godbout in the second half of the season and totaled 40 tackles, recorded 4.0 sacks and 5.0 tackles for loss. Florentine saw action in two games at the end of the season. Junior Caleb Robinson returns after playing in all 13 games in '22 and starting two. Redshirt freshman Jaden Williams appeared in the final three games of the year.

Wyoming returns both of its starting defensive ends from last season in junior DeVonne Harris and sophomore Braden Siders. Harris earned Honorable Mention All-MW honors as a sophomore from MW media and coaches. He was also named to the 2023 First Team Preseason All-Mountain West Team by Phil Steele. Siders was selected an Honorable Mention Freshman All-American last season by College Football News (CFN). The duo led the Cowboys in sacks and tackles for loss. Harris was the team leader in sacks with 8.0 and ranked second in TFLs with 13.0. Siders was the team leader in tackles for loss (13.5) and was second in sacks (7.0). They will be joined this season by sophomore Sabastian Harsh, who is back healthy. Harsh missed the entire 2022 season after being injured in fall camp a year ago.

"I think our strength is going to be our defensive front this year," said Bohl. "We have three defensive tackles who we believe are really bona fide quality players. Cole Godbout is a sixth-year guy who got hurt last year. He's right at 290. Cole was having an outstanding year before he got hurt and played very well for us two years ago. Jordan Bertagnole, like Cole, is an experienced and talented interior D-lineman for us, and Gavin Meyer really played well last year and had a great spring. Those three have separated themselves as our three best interior defensive linemen. Ben Florentine, a sophomore, would be our fourth. We feel really good about the defensive tackle position.

DeVonne
HARRIS
DEFENSIVE END

"Our defensive end group is another one where we believe we will have good depth. The top guy coming into last season, Sabastian Harsh, got hurt in our last scrimmage in fall camp and missed the entire season. But he is back full speed. We feel really good about his ability. We have DeVonne Harris back from an outstanding season, and we have another young defensive end in Braden Siders, who played extremely well last year as a redshirt freshman. Those three will provide us with a strong core of talent at defensive end. They are all good pass rushers. They drop into coverage at times, and we're anticipating great things from them. We're looking for a fourth guy right now to include in that rotation.

2023 SEASON OUTLOOK

"Our front, between our defensive tackles and defensive ends, have good depth with experienced and talented players."

Linebackers

Wyoming returns both of its starting linebackers in junior middle linebacker Easton Gibbs and junior weak-side linebacker Shae Suaiaunoa. The two also return as the Cowboys' two leading tacklers. Gibbs led the Pokes with 121 tackles in 2022 and Suaiaunoa was second with 70. Gibbs also ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West Conference and 22nd nationally in tackles last season, averaging 9.3 tackles per game. With his 121 tackles he became only the 61st Cowboy in the 126-year history of Cowboy Football to record 100 tackles in a single season. Gibbs' 121 tackles tied him for the 18th best single-season tackle total in school history with former UW linebackers Bruce Mowry (1983) and Jim Talich (1997). Gibbs was named to the First Team All-Mountain West team in voting by MW head coaches and media, and was selected

First Team All-MW by Phil Steele. He has been named to 2023 First Team Preseason All-MW teams by both Athlon Sports and Phil Steele. In his first season as a starter, Suaiaunoa had an outstanding season, including being named MW Defensive Player of the Week for his performance versus Northern Colorado. The two will be backed up by two other Cowboys with playing experience in sophomore weak-side linebacker Cole DeMarzo and junior middle linebacker Connor Shay.

"Our bell cow is going to be Easton Gibbs. He's a pro prospect," said Bohl. "Our MIKE (middle) linebacker position through the years has produced quite a few good players for us. Easton stepped into that position last year after moving over from the WILL (weak-side) position. He had some big shoes to fill in Chad Muma, who is now playing for the Jacksonville Jaguars. Of course, Logan Wilson played for us and now starts at middle linebacker for the Cincinnati Bengals. Both Logan and Chad started their careers here playing the WILL position and transitioned over to MIKE. Easton is on the same track as those two. He really played well last year, and we certainly think he'll have another good year for us this year.

"Shae Suaiaunoa had a good season last year on the weak-side, and Cole DeMarzo also played well for us at that position. Those two give us an experienced tandem there. The guy who really had a great spring was Connor Shay, so we'll keep an eye on him to contribute. He started to step into his own."

Nickel Backs

In the seventh game of the 2022 season, redshirt freshman Wrook Brown stepped into the starting lineup and he held onto the starting spot for the final seven games of the season. Brown continued to grow into his starting role as the season progressed and will enter the 2023 season with the confidence of his coaches and teammates. He will be joined at the nickel back position by redshirt freshman Malique Singleton and sophomore Jovan Marsh.

"Wrook (Brown) was inserted into the starting lineup midway through last season and finished off on a really high note," said Bohl. "He improved his man coverage skills, and he's an excellent tackler. Wrook is competitive, and I'm really happy for him that he emerged and came into his own. Wrook is legit and is a good player for us. Malique Singleton is a talented young player but still has a ways to develop. We moved Jovan Marsh over from corner and he will provide us some good depth."

Cornerbacks

Wyoming's top two returners at cornerback both missed 2023 spring practice due to injury. Graduate

Deron Harrell and senior Jakorey Hawkins split starting time in their first season as Cowboys in 2022. Harrell transferred to Wyoming prior to the '22 season from the University of Wisconsin. He started four games for the Pokes last season. Hawkins also transferred to UW a year ago. He came from Ole Miss and started nine games for Wyoming in '22. While the two returners were rehabbing during '23 spring drills, it provided an opportunity for two younger players to gain valuable experience. Sophomore Kolbey Taylor began to emerge toward the end of the 2022 season. He started his first game as a Cowboy in the 2022 Arizona Bowl, but unfortunately was called for targeting on Wyoming's first defensive series of that game and missed the remainder of the game. During 2023 spring drills, Taylor made great strides and drew the attention of the Wyoming coaching staff. The other newcomer who performed well in '23 spring practice was junior-college transfer Tyrecus Davis, who joined the Cowboys in January 2023 from Navarro Community College in Texas. Between Harrell, Hawkins, Taylor and Davis, the Wyoming cornerback position should be as competitive and deep as it has been for many years.

"We have two players returning who started for us last year in Deron Harrell and Jakorey Hawkins," said Bohl. "Both played well at times last year. Jakorey is probably the fastest guy on our team. So we have a couple experienced guys coming back. The next two guys we have at corner are talented young players. Kolbey Taylor had an exceptional spring. He's a 6-4 corner who is really long and took to coaching well this past spring. When we're really good on defense, we've had two good corners. If Kolbey keeps developing in the direction he is, he could be an outstanding corner in the Mountain West. The other guy who came in really hungry this spring was a junior-college transfer, Tyrecus Davis. He plays with a chip on his shoulder. He competes well and had a pick six in our spring game."

Safeties

The last nine games of the 2022 season, Isaac White and Wyett Ekeler started beside each other at safety and both return in 2023 for their junior seasons. White first earned his starting spot at the end of his redshirt freshman season of '21 when he started four of the final five games of the season. He started all 13 games in '22. Ekeler started 10 of the final 11 games a year ago. The two were very productive in their sophomore seasons. Ekeler ranked third on the team in tackles with 67, and White ranked fourth with 66. Ekeler added seven pass break-ups and one interception. White excelled in run support, recording 4.0 tackles for loss and 0.5 sack, while also breaking up three passes. Their experience playing side-by-side should be a big plus for Wyoming this season. Behind them are two sophomores. Buck Coors came out of spring practice as the back-up to Ekeler at free safety. Andrew Johnson is listed as the back-up to White at strong safety.

"Wyett Ekeler is the younger brother of Austin Ekeler, who plays running back for the Los Angeles Chargers," said Bohl. "Wyett runs well and hits well. He is an emerging player for us. Next to him is Isaac White. Isaac may be the smartest football player on our team. His dad was a college coach at Notre Dame and Washington and was a head coach at the FCS level.

SAFETY

"Isaac is a really capable tackler and is always one step ahead of everyone else. The guy who is kind of the wild card right now is Buck Coors. He got hurt last season, but he is a heat-seeking missile. Andrew Johnson is backing up Isaac and is a Wyoming native from Cheyenne."

SPECIAL TEAMS

Place-kickers, Punters, Long Snappers and Holders

One of the nation's best place-kickers will return for the Cowboys in 2023. Junior John Hoyland made 22 of 25 field goals (88.0 percent) in 2022. In addition to leading the Mountain West and ranking No. 7 in the nation in field goals made at 1.69 per game. His 22 field goals set a new Wyoming single-season school record. He broke the record of former Cowboy All-America kickers Cory Wedel, who made 20 field goals in 1996, and J.D. Wallum, who made 20 in 2001. Hoyland's field-goal percentage of 88.0 percent in 2022 was No. 2 in the MW and No. 18 nationally. He made four field goals of over 50 yards in the 2022 season -- 51, 53, 53 and 55. His 55-yarder was tied for the fifth longest in the FBS last season and was the longest in the Mountain West in '22. Hoyland was named a Semifinalist for the 2022 Lou Groza Award. He was named a 2022 PFF (Pro Football Focus) Second Team Mid-Season All-American. Hoyland was selected First Team All-Mountain West by MW media and head coaches and he was the MW Special Teams Player of the Week three times last season. He has been named a 2023 Preseason Second Team All-American by Athlon Sports and Preseason Third Team All-American by Phil Steele.

Clayton Stewart is back as Wyoming's returning starter at punter. The graduate punter was an Honorable Mention All-MW selection by MW media and coaches in 2022. He ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 33 in the nation in punting in '22, averaging 43.8 yards per punt. He will be ably backed up by junior Ralph Fawaz, who served as UW's starting punter in 2021.

Stewart will once again serve as the holder for PATs and field goals. Sophomore Carson York will handle all long-snapping duties for the second consecutive season. He was Wyoming's long snapper for all 13 games in his true freshman season of 2022.

"John (Hoyland) had an exceptional year last year," said Bohl. "He does our field goals, PATs and kickoffs. John has really good accuracy. We've been blessed to have some very good place-kickers. A couple of years ago, Cooper Rothe, was one of three finalists for the Lou Groza Award. John has begun to rival Cooper's competency. John hit a 55-yarder last year, and we're excited about having him back.

"At the punting position, Clayton Stewart served us well last season. He did a nice job, and we have a lot of confidence in him.

"When you're talking about the wins that we had last season, a couple of the key components in those wins were making our field goals: and turning the field over with our punting game. Both Clayton and John are experienced players and we're going to have to leverage their strengths going into this year."

SEASON OUTLOOK

WYOMING

COWBOY COACHES

Cowboys

COWBOY COACHES

CRAIG BOHL

(Nebraska '82)

Head Coach, University of Wyoming

Craig Bohl will enter his 10th season leading the University of Wyoming Football program in 2023 and with his 10th season will become the longest tenured head football coach in school history. He was previously tied with former Cowboy head coaches John Corbett (1915-23) and Lloyd Eaton (1962-70), who each served nine seasons as head coach of the Cowboys. The 2023 season will be Bohl's 21st as a head coach at the collegiate level. During the past nine seasons under the direction of Bohl, Wyoming Football has enjoyed a level of excellence that has never been reached in the rich history of Cowboy Football.

Bohl and his coaching staff became the first Wyoming Football staff to lead UW to three straight bowl victories — the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl and the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

He and his staff are the only football staff in Wyoming history to lead five different teams to bowl appearances. Wyoming's 2022 appearance in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl marked the fifth time in seven seasons (2016, '17, '19, '21 and '22) that Bohl has guided the Cowboys to a bowl bid, which is a first in school history. The Cowboys earned bowl eligibility a sixth time in the 2018 season.

In terms of success, the Cowboys have become regular contenders in the race for the Mountain West Conference title. The Pokes concluded the 2022 season in second place in the Mountain Division. UW also finished second in its division in 2017. In 2016, Wyoming won the Mountain Division and hosted the 2016 Mountain West Championship Game by virtue of being the highest ranked team in the conference at the time of the championship game. UW has enjoyed five winning seasons in the seven seasons since 2016, winning eight games in 2016, '17 and '19 and recording seven wins in 2021 and '22.

Bohl served as President of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) for the 2022 college football season, having been elected as President at the 2022 AFCA Convention. He also served on the AFCA Board of Trustees. Bohl was appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017 and has served on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee.

During Bohl's tenure, Wyoming has had more former Cowboys on NFL rosters than at any other period in Wyoming history. There were a total of 16 former Cowboys on NFL rosters as of Jan. 1, 2022 — some on active rosters and others on developmental squads.

In terms of NFL Draft picks, UW's most recent was linebacker Chad Muma, who was selected as the 6th pick in the 3rd round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Jacksonville Jaguars. Muma became the eighth Wyoming Cowboy to be selected in the NFL Draft during the first eight seasons Bohl was the head coach at Wyoming. The previous NFL Draft picks during the Bohl era include: 2015 Mark Nzeocha, LB (Dallas Cowboys, 7th Round, 19th Pick); 2017 Brian Hill, RB (Atlanta Falcons, 5th Round 12th Pick); 2017 Chase Roullier, C (Washington Commanders, 6th Round 15th Pick); 2018 Josh Allen, QB (Buffalo Bills, 1st Round, 7th Pick); 2019 Marcus Epps, S (Minnesota Vikings, 6th Round, 18th Pick); 2020 Logan Wilson, LB (Cincinnati Bengals, 3rd Round, 1st Pick); and 2020 Cassh Maluia, LB (New England Patriots, 6th Round, 25th Pick).

Wyoming has had at least one player selected in six of the last eight NFL Drafts (2015, '17, '18, '19, '20 and '22) and twice had two players taken in the same draft (2017 and 2020). Three of Bohl's Cowboys have been part of Super Bowl Teams (Epps, Philadelphia Eagles' Super Bowl LVII team; Wilson, Cincinnati Bengals' Super Bowl LVI team; Tyler Hall, CB, L.A. Rams' Super Bowl LVI Champions).

The success that Cowboy Football has enjoyed and the excitement generated around the program under Bohl's direction is just what UW Athletics Director Tom Burman had hoped for when he hired Bohl on Dec. 8, 2013.

When Bohl was hired as head football coach at Wyoming, he was open in saying that he wanted to bring Cowboy Football back to a place of national prominence.

The excitement surrounding Wyoming Football included the extensive coverage of former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen, who was selected as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft by the Buffalo Bills. That marked the highest selection by a Wyoming Cowboy in the history of the program and was the second highest selection by a Mountain West player since Utah's Alex Smith was selected No. 1 in 2005 by the San Francisco 49ers. Leading up to Allen being drafted, Wyoming's Pro Day was covered live by both ESPN and the NFL Network. Beginning with the 2017 football season through the 2018 NFL Draft, media coverage of Wyoming Football for that time period was estimated by Joyce Julius & Associates at over $159 million.

Cowboy linebackers Wilson (in 2019) and Muma (in 2021) were each one of only six national finalists for the 2019 and 2021 Butkus Awards, respectively. The Butkus Award honors the nation's top collegiate linebacker. Wilson earned multiple All-America honors, including being named a First Team All-American by Pro Football Focus, Second Team by USA Today and Third Team by the Associated Press. Muma was named a Second Team All-American by both the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus, while earning Third Team All-America honors from the Associated Press.

In 2018, Wyoming had two finalists for national awards for the first time in program history. Place-kicker Cooper Rothe was one of three national finalists for the Lou Groza Collegiate Place-Kicker Award, that honors the nation's top collegiate place-kicker each year. Free safety Marcus Epps was one of only three national finalists for the Burlsworth Trophy, which is awarded to the most outstanding football player in America who began his career as a walk-on. Epps went on to be drafted by the Minnesota Vikings in the sixth round of the 2019 NFL Draft.

A total of four Cowboys have earned All-America honors during Bohl's tenure. Two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill (Third Team by College Sports Madness), and center Chase Roullier (Second Team by USA Today). They joined linebackers Wilson in 2019 and Muma in 2021 in being selected as All-Americans.

During Bohl's tenure as Wyoming's head coach, he has had a freshman earn Freshman All-America honors from the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) five times. The most recent Cowboy freshman to receive the honor was place-kicker John Hoyland in 2020. The other four Pokes coached by Bohl to be named Freshman All-Americans by the FWAA were: safety Andrew Wingard (2015), linebacker Logan Wilson (2016), center Keegan Cryder (2018) and defensive end Solomon Byrd (2019). College Football News (CFN) named offensive guard Emmanuel Pregnon a Second Team Freshman All-American in 2022 and defensive end Braden Siders joined him as a CFN Honorable Mention selection.

The Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The 2021 season saw the Cowboys score its most points ever in a bowl game in a dominant 52-38 win over Kent State. The Cowboy rushing attack once again ranked among the best in the nation at No. 20, and the Wyoming pass defense ranked No. 12 in the country in fewest passing yards allowed. Wyoming was again one of the most disciplined teams in the country, ranking No. 26 in fewest penalties committed. Linebacker Chad Muma earned All-America honors. The Pokes concluded the season with a 7-6 record.

In the COVID-shortened season of 2020, Wyoming's defense ranked among the Top 30 teams in the nation in 10 defensive categories, including ranking: No. 16 in total defense, No. 21 in rushing defense, No. 24 in scoring defense and No. 29 in pass defense. Wyoming's 2020 offense ranked No. 7 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion, No. 14 in rushing offense and No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed.

The Cowboy defense ranked No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense and No. 11 in rushing defense in 2019. Wyoming's defense also was No. 6 in the country in red-zone defense and scored three defensive touchdowns to rank No. 12 in the FBS. The UW offense ranked No. 10 in the nation in passing yards per completion, was No. 23 in the country in rushing offense and No. 32 in third-down conversions. Senior linebacker Logan Wilson was named an All-American by multiple media outlets. That combination of offensive and defensive balance led to an 8-5 record and a victory in the NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl.

Wyoming was also one of the best defensive teams in the nation in 2018. The Cowboys ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense, No. 25 in rushing defense, No. 28 in scoring defense and No. 32 in pass defense on way to a 6-6 record to earn bowl eligibility for the third straight season.

The 2017 season saw the Cowboys post an 8-5 record and finish second in the MW Mountain Division. The Pokes were led by their defense in 2017, ranking No. 1 in the nation in forcing turnovers (38) and leading the Mountain West and ranking No. 9 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. Wyoming's defense also ranked No. 1 in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored, 13th in the NCAA in pass defense, and 23rd in total defense. UW captured the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl in a convincing 37-14 win over Central Michigan.

In 2016, Bohl's team defeated two Top 25 ranked opponents, was named the National Team of the Week by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) for one of those wins and received votes itself in the national polls. Wyoming also captured the Mountain Division title of the Mountain West Conference, earned the right to host the 2016 MW Football Championship Game as the highest ranked team in the conference and was invited to the San Diego County Credit Union Poinsettia Bowl. His Cowboys ended the year with an 8-6 record and featured one of the NCAA's top scoring offenses, averaging 35.9 points per game to rank No. 25 in the nation. Bohl was recognized for his turnaround of Cowboy Football by being named the 2016 Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Two Cowboys earned All-America honors in 2016 in running back Brian Hill and center Chase Roullier. Linebacker Logan Wilson earned Freshman All-America honors in 2016, joining Andrew Wingard, who earned Freshman All-America honors a year earlier.

Bohl, who was part of building National Championship teams at North Dakota State and Nebraska, was introduced by University of Wyoming Athletics Director Tom Burman as the new head football coach of the Wyoming Cowboys on Sunday, Dec. 8, 2013. Bohl became the 32nd head football coach in University of Wyoming history.

He came to Wyoming after building a national power at North Dakota State as a head coach for 11 seasons from 2003-13. His teams won three consecutive National Championships at the NCAA Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) level in 2011, '12 and '13. NDSU became only the second FCS school in NCAA history to win three consecutive national football titles, tied the FCS record for consecutive wins (24 from 2011-13) and became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since 1996.

"Rarely do you get an opportunity to hire a head coach who has won multiple National Championships and has a reputation as a program builder," said Burman.

"I am absolutely confident we hired one of the best football coaches in the country. All you have to do is look at Craig's record."

"I understand the awesome responsibility to lead this football team," said Bohl. "I also understand how important football is in the fabric of this institution and not only this institution but around the state. Whether you're in Sheridan, Casper or Thermopolis, this is the state team, and I embrace that."

"I'm looking forward to getting to know the people of our great state of Wyoming. It will be an exciting time for us. We understand that the bar is high. I also appreciate the vision that Tom (Burman) has, and I want to thank him for having faith in me to lead this football program. He was able to articulate to me where our football program needs to go and the resources that are going to be provided to allow us to experience success.

"I can't tell you how excited I am to embrace the Cowboy tradition."

Not only did Bohl win three national titles at the FCS level, but he was the linebackers coach at his alma mater, Nebraska, when the Huskers won the 1995 and 1997 National Championships.

Bohl has served on the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Board of Trustees, having been elected by a vote of the membership at the 2012 AFCA national convention. Bohl served as President of the AFCA in 2022. He was also appointed to the 13-member NCAA Division I Football Competition Committee in January of 2017 and also served on the NCAA Division I Football Oversight Committee.

Bohl concluded his career as head coach of the NDSU Bison, with a 104-32 (.765) record. He guided the Bison to the FCS Playoffs each of his final four seasons, posting a 14-1 record in the FCS Playoffs. His last three teams posted records of 14-1 (2011), 14-1 (2012) and 15-0 (2013) for a combined record of 43-2 (.956) on way to their three consecutive FCS national titles.

By winning the 2013 FCS National Championship, North Dakota State extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games, which tied both the NDSU and FCS records for consecutive victories. The Bison teams from 1964-66 originally set the school record with 24 straight victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. That record was later tied by Montana from 2001-02.

The 2013 NDSU team also set a North Dakota State single-season record for wins, posting a perfect 15-0 record. The Bison became the first undefeated FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 FCS title.

The Bison had great success against FBS teams to go with their elite status at the FCS level. In each of his last four seasons at NDSU, Bohl's Bison defeated all four of the FBS teams they faced, and captured all of those wins on the road. NDSU won at Kansas in 2010 (by a score of 6-3), at Minnesota in 2011 (37-24), at Colorado State in 2012 (22-7), and at Kansas State in 2013 (24-21). Overall during his 11 years at North Dakota State, Bohl's teams built a 7-3 record against FBS teams.

Bohl's North Dakota State teams were ranked in The Sports Network or FCS Coaches Top 25 polls for 107 weeks since beginning FCS play in 2004, and earned the No. 1 ranking in both the final 2011, 2012 and 2013 polls, including being named a unanimous No. 1 following the 2013 campaign. The Bison's record versus FCS Top 25 ranked teams under Bohl's direction was 30-8.

In 2012 and '13, Bohl received both The Sports Network Eddie Robinson FCS National Coach of the Year Award and the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) FCS National Coach of the Year Award. He became the first coach in the first 27 years of the Eddie Robinson Award to win it in consecutive seasons. In 2013, he also received the Liberty Mutual FCS Coach of the Year Award, which is presented in partnership with the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. His other National Coach of the Year honor came in 2006, when he was recognized by the Football Gazette as the FCS National Coach of the Year and the Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

He was a finalist for The Sports Network Eddie Robinson Award in 2011, 2007 and 2006, and was the 2011 and 2013 AFCA Region 4 FCS Coach of the Year.

In addition to his 18 years of experience as a head coach, Bohl has 19 years of experience as a full-time assistant coach at the collegiate level and three seasons as a graduate assistant. His last eight years as an assistant coach were spent at Nebraska. He was the linebackers coach under head coach Tom Osborne for five of those seasons and was part of the 1995 and '97 Nebraska National Championship teams. Bohl's final three seasons (2000-02) at Nebraska, he served as the Cornhuskers' defensive coordinator under head coach Frank Solich, before accepting the head-coaching job at North Dakota State in 2003. Bohl was part of 11 bowl-game appearances while at Nebraska — eight as an assistant coach from 1995 to 2002 and three as a graduate assistant coach for the Huskers from 1981-83.

During his time in Fargo, N.D., Bohl coached 10 Academic All-Americans and 37 All-Americans, while six student-athletes in the last 10 years were named to the Allstate/AFCA Good Works team. He added a seventh Allstate/AFCA Good Works team member in 2014 at Wyoming, when senior wide receiver Dominic Rufran earned that honor.

Bohl grew up in Lincoln, Neb., and went on to attend the University of Nebraska where he was a reserve defensive back from 1977 to 1979 under head coach Tom Osborne. Bohl was part of Nebraska's 1979 Orange Bowl and 1980 Cotton Bowl teams.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater in 1981, assisting with the Nebraska linebackers and defensive backs for three seasons from 1981-83. His first full-time coaching position came at North Dakota State in 1984, coaching the defensive backs. He moved on to coach the linebackers at the University of Tulsa for the 1985 and '86 seasons. In 1987 and '88, Bohl was the linebackers coach at the University of Wisconsin. He earned his first defensive coordinator position in 1989 at Rice, where he served as the defensive coordinator for five seasons from 1989-93. In 1994, Bohl accepted the defensive coordinator position at Duke. The following season in 1995, he had the opportunity to return to Nebraska as the linebackers coach, and in his first season back in Lincoln the Huskers won the National Championship. Two seasons later, they captured their second National Championship during Bohl's time as an assistant coach.

Born July 27, 1958, Bohl will be 65 years old when the 2023 season kicks off. He earned his bachelor's degree in business administration from Nebraska in 1982. Bohl's family includes wife Leia, and children Mallory and Morgan, Aaron and Elijah.

Wyoming head football coach Craig Bohl announced on Jan. 21, 2022, the promotion of Mike Grant to the position of Associate Head Coach. Grant has been on the Wyoming coaching staff since 2016. The 2023 season will be Grant's eighth season with the Cowboys and his 31st in college coaching. He will continue to serve as the Offensive Passing Game Coordinator and Wide Receivers Coach for the Pokes.

During his time at Wyoming, Grant has coached former Cowboy standout receivers Tanner Gentry, Isaiah Neyor, Austin Conway, Jake Maulhardt and Raghbi Ismail Jr.

Among the 17 bowl bids he has been part of as a coach are five bowl appearances in his seven previous seasons at Wyoming. Grant has been part of 22 total bowl appearances as a player and coach, including five as a player at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, where he played quarterback for the Huskers.

Grant was promoted to Offensive Pass-Game Coordinator in February of 2021. Prior to coming to Wyoming, Grant spent the previous five seasons at the University of North Texas where he coached the wide receivers, the running backs and served as recruiting coordinator during his time there.

UW's passing game in 2022 was led by Honorable Mention All-Mountain West quarterback Andrew Peasley and tight end Treyton Welch, who earned First Team All-MW honors from Pro Football Focus. UW's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 14 in the nation in red-zone offense (90.6 percent) and No. 3 in the MW and No. 44 nationally in rushing offense (181.4 yards per game). The offense also ranked No. 3 in the league and No. 25 nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game) and ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.46 per game). The Wyoming Cowboys finished the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

In 2021, Grant coached Cowboy wide receiver Isaiah Neyor, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors while leading the conference and ranking No. 8 in the nation in touchdown receptions, with 12. Neyor also led the Mountain West and ranked No. 6 in the FBS in average yards per reception (19.95 yards per catch). Wyoming's rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA in 2021, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Wyoming's 2020 offense featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). Wide receiver Neyor earned Honorable Mention All-Mountain West honors from MW head coaches and media, while averaging 31.0 yards per reception. If Neyor would have caught four more passes, he would have met the NCAA minimum of 2.0 catches per game and would have led the nation in yards per catch.

The 2019 season saw the Cowboy offense rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 yards per game. The Cowboy offense also ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboys concluded the season with an 8-5 record and captured the Arizona Bowl championship.

In 2018, the Wyoming Cowboys would win their last four games of the season to earn bowl eligibility at 6-6. In spite of the UW offense being in transition after former Cowboy quarterback Josh Allen became the No. 7 overall selection in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Wyoming offense hit its stride during that four-game winning streak to end the 2018 season. During that four-game win streak, the Pokes averaged 31.0 points and 415.5 yards per game. UW's 2018 offense also ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 4 in the nation in fewest turnovers, committing only 11 total turnovers for the year.

Grant helped coach a Wyoming offense in 2017 that was extremely efficient in the red zone, scoring on 33 of 34 red-zone opportunities to rank No. 2 in the nation. The offense also did an excellent job of protecting the ball, committing only 14 turnovers to rank No. 19 in the country. UW's offense combined with its defense (38 turnovers forced) to rank No. 1 in the nation in turnover margin, with a +24 turnover margin. Wyoming would record eight wins for the second straight season, and the Pokes posted a convincing 37-14 win in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl over Central Michigan. In that bowl victory, all three of Wyoming's offensive touchdowns came on touchdown passes to Wyoming wide receivers.

During Grant's first season with the Wyoming Cowboys in 2016, he coached senior wide receiver Tanner Gentry, who earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors and signed a free-agent contract with the Chicago Bears in the spring of 2017. Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List for the second consecutive year. He caught 14 touchdown passes in 2016 to lead the Mountain West Conference and rank No. 9 in the nation. Gentry's 1,326 receiving yards in 2016 also led the MW and ranked 12th in the NCAA. He averaged 94.7 receiving yards per game, ranking him No. 3 in the conference and No. 21 in the country. His 18.42 yards per reception was 27th best in the nation. Grant also coached senior wide receiver Jake Maulhardt, who was invited to the New Orleans Saints rookie camp in the spring of 2017.

Grant was part of a coaching staff that led the 2016 Cowboy offense to a very productive season. The Pokes averaged 35.9 points per game to rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 25 in the nation. The passing game, averaged 15.3 yards per completion to rank No. 8 in the NCAA, and in red-zone offense the Pokes converted 90.6 percent of their red-zone opportunities into scores to rank 14th in the country. Wyoming's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 22 in the NCAA in first downs (312), was No. 32 in the nation in time of possession (31:34), ranked No. 33 in the country in passing efficiency (143.82 rating) and No. 36 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 205.4 yards per game.

Grant earned his first full-time coaching position in 1997, coaching the wide receivers and tight ends at James Madison University. Grant has coached at the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) level for the past 24 seasons, including: nine seasons at Iowa State (1998-06), one season at Southern Miss (2007), three at Western Michigan (2008-10), five seasons at North Texas (2011-15) and now six seasons at Wyoming (2016-Present).

While at North Texas, Grant started out as the running backs coach for two seasons in 2011 and '12. As the running backs coach, Grant coached Lance Dunbar, who became the career rushing leader in North Texas history and earned All-Sun Belt Conference honors. Grant took over as the wide receivers coach from 2013-15 and added recruiting coordinator responsibilities in 2014 and '15. Among the top receivers he coached at North Texas were Brelan Chancellor, who in 2013 became the first player in Conference USA history to earn First Team All-Conference honors as both a punt returner and kickoff returner. Chancellor also earned Second Team All-Conference honors at wide receiver. Wide receiver Darnell Smith was an Honorable Mention All-Conference honoree in 2013. In 2015, wide receiver Carlos Harris finished his career No. 2 in North Texas school history in career receptions, No. 5 in career receiving yards and No. 9 in career all-purpose yards.

While coaching the wide receivers at Western Michigan from 2008-10, Grant coached four All-Mid-American Conference receivers. In 2010, he had two receivers, Jordan White and Juan Nunez, record 1,000-yard receiving seasons and each caught over 90 passes. White set a school single-season record with 1,378 receiving yards in 2010 on way to earning Honorable Mention All-America honors from CNN/ISI and First Team All-MAC honors. He also concluded his career as Western Michigan's career record holder for receiving yards. Nunez had 1,032 yards receiving in 2010 and also earned First Team All-MAC honors. In 2008, Grant coached wide receiver Jamarko Simmons, who led the MAC in receptions (98) and receiving yards (1,100). Simmons ranked No. 3 in the NCAA in receptions in 2008 and earned Second Team All-America honors.

Grant's time at Iowa State included him coaching two receivers who would break the Iowa State career receiving record. In 2002, Lane Danielson became the Cyclones' all-time leading receiver and earned All-Big 12 recognition. Then three years later in 2005, Todd Blythe broke Danielson's record on way to earning First Team All-Big 12 honors. Grant also coached First Team All-Big 12 running back Ennis Haywood in 2000.

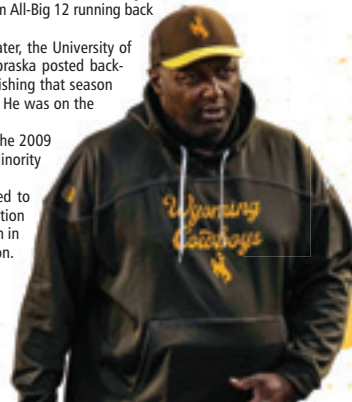

In his four seasons (1993-96) as a recruiting assistant and graduate assistant at his alma mater, the University of Nebraska, he was part of Husker teams that won National Championships in 1994 and '95. Nebraska posted back-to-back undefeated seasons in 1994 (13-0) and '95 (12-0), and posted an 11-2 record in 1996, finishing that season ranked No. 6 in the national polls. Grant helped coach the tight ends and offensive tackles at NU. He was on the same staff at Nebraska in 1995 and '96 as current Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

Grant has continued to develop his coaching skills throughout his career. He participated in the 2009 NCAA Football Coach's Academy, the 2013 NCAA/NFL Coach's Academy and the Bill Walsh NFL Minority Internship Program, serving an internship in 2013 with the Buffalo Bills.

A quarterback at Nebraska from 1988-92, he was a three-year letterwinner and was named to the Phillips 66 Academic All-Big Eight Honor Roll. He earned his bachelor's degree in communication studies from Nebraska in 1993, added a second bachelor's degree in journalism with a concentration in advertising in 1995 and has completed his course work for his master's degree in mass communication.

He and his wife, Nina, have one daughter, Mireia.

Grant recruits the Houston metropolitan area for Wyoming.

2023 WYOMING COACHES

COWBOY COACHES

OSCAR GILES

(Texas '91)

Associate Head Coach/

Defensive Run-Game Coordinator/DTs and NT/Head Freshman Coach

Oscar Giles was promoted to the position of Associate Head Coach and Head Freshmen Coach for Wyoming Football on May 1, 2023. Giles will be entering his 24th season as a college coach in 2023 and will be in his second season with the Wyoming Football program. Giles will continue to coach the Wyoming defensive tackles and nose tackles and will continue to serve as the Defensive Run-Game Coordinator.

During his previous 23 seasons as a college coach, Giles has helped coach 18 teams to bowl appearances, including Wyoming's appearance in the 2022 Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Included in those postseason appearances was a BCS National Championship at the University of Texas in 2005 and a BCS National Runner-up finish at Texas in 2009.

Giles joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2022 to serve as Defensive Run-Game Coordinator and Defensive Tackles Coach for the Cowboys. In 2022, Giles interior defensive linemen helped Wyoming rank No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 21 in the nation in sacks, averaging 2.85 per game. He coached defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole, who earned Second Team All-MW honors from Phil Steele in '22. The Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

Prior to coming to Wyoming, he coached at his alma mater, the University of Texas. Giles served as an assistant coach at Texas on two different coaching staves. He originally coached on the staff of Texas head coach Mack Brown for nine seasons from 2005-13. During that time, Texas won the National Championship in 2005 and played in the BCS National Championship Game at the conclusion of the 2009 season, finishing as the national runner-up. For four seasons from 2017-20, Giles returned to Texas to serve as the defensive line coach on the staff of head coach Tom Herman.

While serving as the defensive line coach at Texas from 2017-20, Giles helped the Longhorns win four consecutive bowl games, including: the 2020 Alamo Bowl (winning 55-23 over Colorado); the 2019 Alamo Bowl (defeating Utah 38-10); the Sugar Bowl at the conclusion of the 2018 season (winning 28-21 over Georgia); and the 2017 Texas Bowl (defeating Missouri 33-16). UT's 2017 defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing defense, allowing opponents only 106.8 rushing yards per game and holding seven of 13 opponents under 100 yards rushing. For three consecutive seasons from 2018-20, Texas ended the season ranked in the Top 25 -- No. 9 in 2018, No. 25 in 2019 and No. 19 in 2020. During that time, Giles coached 2020 Consensus All-America defensive end/outside linebacker Joseph Ossai.

Prior to returning to his alma mater, Giles served as the assistant head coach and defensive line coach at the University of Houston under Herman for the 2015 and '16 seasons. Houston concluded the 2015 season with a 13-1 record, were ranked No. 8 in both the Associated Press and Coaches final polls and defeated Florida State, 38-24, in the Peach Bowl. The 2015 Cougar defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in rushing defense (108.9 yards allowed per game) and ranked No. 20 in scoring defense. In 2016, Houston posted a 9-4 record and played San Diego State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Cougars defeated No. 3 ranked Oklahoma (33-23) in the 2016 season opener and later in the season defeated then No. 3 ranked Louisville (36-10).

Giles spent one season coaching the defensive line at Louisiana Tech in 2014. The Bulldogs posted a 9-5 record, won the Western Division of Conference USA and defeated Illinois (35-18) in the Heart of Dallas Bowl. La Tech's defense led the nation in turnovers gained (42), ranked No. 4 in tackles for loss (8.1 per game) and ranked No. 17 in rushing defense (118.2 rushing yards allowed per game).

For nine seasons, from 2005-13, Giles coached the defensive ends and assisted with special teams at the University of Texas. During that time, Texas won the National Championship at the conclusion of the 2005 season, defeating USC, 41-38, in the Rose Bowl and posting a perfect 9-4 season. The Texas defense ranked No. 8 in the nation in scoring defense (16.4 points per game) and No. 10 in total defense (302.9 yards allowed per game). In 2006, the Longhorns finished with a 10-3 record and a 26-24 win over Iowa in the Alamo Bowl.

The 2007 Longhorns also compiled a 10-3 record and defeated Arizona State, 52-34, in the Holiday Bowl. The Texas defense allowed opponents only 93.4 rushing yards per game in 2007 to rank No. 6 in the nation.

Giles 2008 defensive end group was led by unanimous All-America selection Brian Orakpo. Orakpo also won the Nagurski Award (nation's top defensive player), Lombardi Award (nation's top lineman) and Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end). He was named the Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and was a finalist for the Lott Trophy (nation's top defensive IMPACT player). Orakpo was a First Round pick of the Washington Redskins. Texas enjoyed an outstanding 12-1 season in 2008 and defeated Ohio State, 24-21, in the Fiesta Bowl. UT ended the season ranked No. 4 in the final Associated Press poll.

The 2009 campaign saw Texas go undefeated in the regular season before finishing as the national runner-up after losing to Alabama, 37-21, in the BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl. The Longhorns finished the season with a 13-1 record and a No. 2 ranking in the national polls. Senior defensive end/linebacker Sergio Kindle became the first player in college football history to be a finalist for both the Hendricks Award (nation's top defensive end) and Butkus Award (nation's top linebacker) during the 2009 season. Kindle earned First Team All-America honors in '09.

In 2010, senior defensive end Sam Acho won the William V. Campbell Trophy as the nation's top scholar-athlete, won the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsmanship Award. He also earned Academic All-America honors for the second straight year, and was drafted in the fourth round by the Arizona Cardinals. Texas ended the season with a 5-7 record for the 2010 season.

The 2011 campaign saw Texas post an 8-5 record and defeat Cal, 21-10, in the Holiday Bowl. Defensive end Alex Okafor earned AFCA All-America honors and was a unanimous First Team All-Big 12 selection.

Texas went 9-4 in the 2012 season and defeated Oregon State, 31-27, in the Alamo Bowl.

Giles defensive line group in 2013 included Jackson Jeffcoat, who won the Hendricks Award in 2013 and earned First Team All-America honors, while being named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year. Texas finished the 2013 season with an 8-5 record and played Oregon in the Alamo Bowl.

In 2003 and '04, Giles coached the defensive line and special teams at the University of Houston. The 2003 Houston Cougars earned a bid to the Hawai'i Bowl. That was preceded by a three-year stint as the defensive line and special teams coach at SMU from 2000-02. He was a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Texas, in 1999 and was part of a coaching staff who led the Longhorns to the Cotton Bowl. His first college coaching position was at Southwest Texas State (now Texas State) in 1998.

Giles was a four-year letterman at Texas from 1987-90. He was a three-year starter and earned Associated Press All-Southwest Conference (SWC) honors his senior season as he helped lead Texas to a 10-2 record the 1990 Southwest Conference Championship and an appearance in the Cotton Bowl where the Longhorns played Miami (Fla.). Texas was ranked as high as No. 3 in the Associated Press poll during the 1990 season and ended the season ranked No. 12 in the final AP poll. He also was part of Texas' 1987 team that ended the season ranked No. 19 in the nation and captured a 32-27 victory over Pittsburgh in the 1987 Bluebonnet Bowl.

Giles was a semifinalist for the Outland Trophy and was a two-time GTE Academic All-SWC selection. He led Texas in sacks in 1988 (6.5) and '89 (7.0), finishing with 22.0 career sacks to tie for No. 10 on the Texas career list. He also recorded nine career fumble recoveries to tie for No. 2 in UT school history.

He later played professionally with the Atlanta Falcons as a defensive end and linebacker, and also played in the Canadian Football League from 1994-97. He was part of the Toronto Argonauts Grey Cup Championship team in 1996.

Giles and his wife, Kim, have two daughters, Olivia and Kourtney. A native of Palacios, Texas, he earned his bachelor's degree in speech communication from the University of Texas in 1991.

He recruits central Texas and the Fort-Worth metropolitan area.

Tim Polasek will serve as Wyoming's offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for the third season in 2022. Polasek was the offensive line coach at the University of Iowa the four seasons (2017-20) prior to coming to Wyoming. Before Iowa, Polasek (pronounced PAWL-uh-seck) was the offensive coordinator and running backs coach at North Dakota State for three years from 2014-16. He was a record-setting quarterback himself at Concordia University in Wisconsin.

Polasek coached Wyoming's Honorable Mention All-Mountain West quarterback Andrew Peasley in 2022, and Polasek's offense generated a 1,000-yard rusher in Titus Swen (1,039 yards). UW's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 14 in the nation in red-zone offense (90.6 percent) and No. 3 in the MW and No. 44 nationally in rushing offense (181.4 yards per game). The offense also ranked No. 3 in the league and No. 25 nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game) and ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.46 per game). Wyoming entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

Other Cowboys on offense who earned All-Conference recognition in '22 from Pro Football Focus included: Zach Watts (First Team OG), Treyton Welch (First Team TE), Nofaofa Tulafono (Second Team C), Frank Crum (Third Team OT) and Emmanuel Pregon (Third Team OG). Offensive guard Eric Abojei and running back Titus Swen were named Third Team All-MW by Phil Steele. Pregon was also named a Second Team Freshman All-American by College Football News.

In his first season guiding the Wyoming offense in 2021, the Cowboys' rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). Wyoming's second all-time leading rusher, Kazavian Valladay, recorded a 1,000-yard rushing season (1,070 yards) and earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors in voting by MW head coaches and media and sophomore running back Titus Swen added 785 rushing yards and Second Team All-Conference honors from Pro Football Focus. Cowboy wide receiver Isaiah Neyor earned Second Team All-Mountain West Conference honors while leading the conference and ranking No. 8 in the nation in touchdown receptions, with 12. Neyor also led the Mountain West and ranked No. 6 in the FBS in the yards per reception (19.95 yards per catch). Three Cowboy offensive linemen earned All-Conference recognition -- center Keegan Cryder (First Team by Pro Football Focus), guard Logan Harris (Second Team by PFF) and tackle Frank Crum (Honorable Mention by PFF). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Polasek was part of four FCS national championships, five Missouri Valley Football Conference titles and one Great West Football Conference title at North Dakota State.

At Iowa in 2020, the Hawkeyes won six straight games, all in Big Ten play, to conclude the regular season. The Hawkeyes scored at least 26 points in each of those six wins. The winning streak included road wins at Minnesota, Penn State and Illinois, and trophy game victories over Minnesota, Nebraska and Wisconsin. The Hawkeyes were ranked No. 15 in the nation in the final College Football Playoff (CFP) rankings and the final Coaches Poll rankings, while ranking No. 16 in the final Associated Press media poll.

Iowa won three straight postseason games and 12 straight non-conference games during Polasek's time in Iowa City. The Hawkeyes were selected to compete in the 2020 Music City Bowl, but that event was canceled due to Iowa's scheduled opponent, Missouri, having COVID issues. Iowa's streak of eight straight bowl invitations through the end of the 2020 season matched the longest in school history. The Hawkeyes won 27 games the last three seasons that Polasek was on the Hawkeye coaching staff.

Iowa's offense in 2020 led the Big Ten in red-zone offense (0.917), ranked second in scoring (31.8) and third in fewest tackles for loss allowed (5.1). Sophomore center Tyler Linderbaum and senior tackle Alaric Jackson earned First Team All-Big Ten honors, while senior guard Cole Banwart was a Second Team selection. Linderbaum was one of three finalists for the Rimington Trophy. Linderbaum and Jackson each earned First and Second Team All-America honors from media outlets. Immediately following the conclusion of the 2021 NFL Draft, Jackson signed as a free agent with the Los Angeles Rams. Banwart signed with the Tennessee Titans as a free agent, and tackle Coy Cronk signed as a free agent with the Green Bay Packers.

In 2021 as a junior, Linderbaum would go on to be a unanimous Consensus All-America selection, won the Rimington Trophy as the nation's most outstanding center in the nation. Linderbaum declared for the 2022 NFL Draft and was selected as the 25th Pick in the First Round of the 2022 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Ravens.

The Hawkeyes won their final four games in 2019 and ranked 15th in the nation in the final Associated Press and Coaches Polls. Iowa concluded the 2019 campaign with a 10-3 record and defeated No. 22 USC, 49-24, in the Holiday Bowl. Iowa's three losses were all to ranked opponents by a combined 14 points. The Hawkeyes were 4-1 in trophy games for the third straight season. Iowa ranked third in the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed in 2019 (1.8), led the league in red-zone offense, ranked second in fourth-down conversions and fourth in time of possession.

Iowa's efficient offense in 2019 featured junior tackle Tristan Wirfs, the Big Ten's Rimington-Pace Offensive Lineman of the Year. Wirfs earned First Team All-America honors from as many as three national outlets. Jackson earned Third Team All-Big Ten honors and Linderbaum was named Honorable Mention All-Big Ten. Wirfs declared for the 2020 NFL Draft following his junior season and was the 13th player selected in the first round. Wirfs started every game in his rookie season at right tackle for Tampa Bay, including starting in the 2021 Super Bowl victory.

Iowa won six of its first seven games in 2018 and closed the season with wins in the final three games, including a 27-22 Outback Bowl win over No. 18 Mississippi State. The Hawkeyes won three of four trophy games for the third time in four seasons. The four losses came by a total of 23 points and all were decided in the final minutes of play. Iowa's 5-4 Big Ten record earned a tie for second place in the West Division.

The Iowa offense in 2018 set a school record for most points scored in road games, averaging 42.8 points in the five Big Ten contests. The Hawkeyes averaged 31.2 points in all games, the ninth highest single-season total in school history. Iowa led the Big Ten and ranked 14th in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.2 per game).

Four of Iowa's offensive linemen earned postseason recognition in 2018. Jackson and senior guard Ross Reynolds earned Second Team All-Big Ten honors, while senior center Keegan Render earned Third Team honors and Wirfs gained Honorable Mention recognition. Render and Reynolds were invited to NFL camps immediately following the 2019 NFL Draft, with Reynolds earning a spot on the practice squad of the NFC champion San Francisco 49ers. Quarterback Nate Stanley passed for over 2,800 yards and 26 touchdowns, while Iowa's trio of running backs combined to rush for 1,723 yards and 16 touchdowns.

Iowa won eight games in 2017, including a 27-20 Pinstripe Bowl victory over Boston College to conclude the season. The Hawkeyes scored over 50 points in November wins over third-ranked Ohio State (55-24) and Nebraska (56-14).

Due to injuries to returning senior starters Boone Myers and Ike Boettger in 2017, the Hawkeye offensive line included a redshirt freshman at left tackle and a true freshman at right tackle for the majority of the season. The offensive line paved the way for running back Akrum Wadley (1,109) to surpass 1,000 rushing yards for the second straight season, while Stanley passed for 2,437 yards and 26 touchdowns.

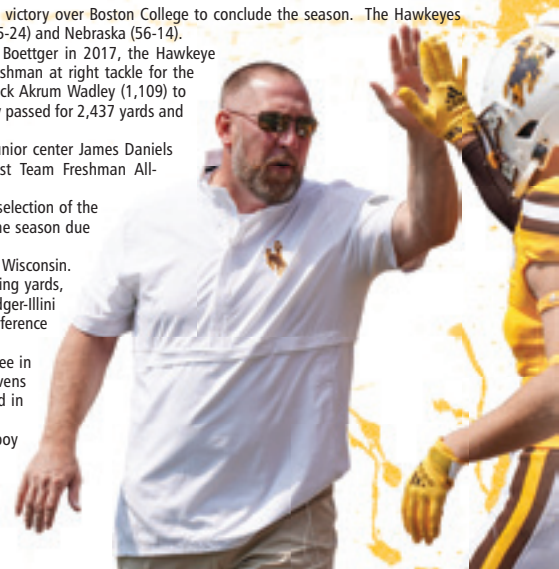

Senior guard Sean Welsh earned First Team All-Big Ten honors, junior center James Daniels earned Honorable Mention recognition, and Jackson was named First Team Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America (FWAA).

Daniels declared for the 2018 NFL Draft and was a second round selection of the Chicago Bears. Boettger and Myers, who both missed the majority of the season due to injury, signed free-agent contracts following the draft.

Polasek is the all-time leading passer at Concordia University in Wisconsin. He set single-game, single-season and career records in TD passes, passing yards, completions and completion percentage. Polasek was the 2000 Badger-Illini Conference Player of the Year. He was a two-time First Team All-Conference selection in 2000 and 2001 and was a Second Team selection in 1999.

Polasek graduated from Concordia in 2002 with a bachelor's degree in physical education. He earned his master's degree from Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2005. A native of Iola, Wis., he and his wife, Jill, were married in May 2014.

He recruits the states of Minnesota and Wisconsin for the Cowboy Football program.

COWBOY COACHES

JAY SAWVEL

(Mount Union '93)
Defensive Coordinator/Safeties

Jay Sawvel will begin his fourth season as Wyoming's defensive coordinator and safeties coach in 2022. He joined the Wyoming coaching staff in February 2020 as defensive coordinator and safeties coach. Sawvel previously served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota and Wake Forest University. He will be entering his 29th season as a college coach in 2022. Over his career, he has been part of 20 teams who advanced to postseason play, including 13 bowl appearances and seven NCAA Playoff appearances.

Sawvel's 2022 defense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 21 in the nation in sacks, averaging 2.85 per game. His defense also ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 33 in the FBS in defensive touchdowns scored, with two. Sawvel's defense featured three All-MW honorees as selected by coaches and media. Those three were: Easton Gibbs (LB), who earned First Team All-MW; and defensive end DeVonne Harris and cornerback Cam Stone, who both earned Honorable Mention honors. Phil Steele's All-MW team included: Gibbs and Stone on his First Team; defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole on his Second Team; and Harris on Steele's Fourth Team. Freshman defensive end Braden Siders was also named an Honorable Mention Freshman All-American by College Football News.

The Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Linebacker Chad Muma was one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award in 2021. Muma earned Second Team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and was a Third Team selection by Associated Press. He was selected as the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Sawvel also had six of his defenders earn All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2021. Muma was a First Team selection (MW Coaches/Media and Pro Football Focus), cornerback C.J. Coldon (Second Team MW Coaches/Media), nose tackle Cole Godbout (Second Team Pro Football Focus and Honorable Mention MW Coaches/Media), cornerback Azizi Hearn (Second Team Pro Football Focus), defensive end Garrett Crall (Honorable Mention MW Coaches/Media), linebacker Easton Gibbs (Honorable Mention Pro Football Focus).

In his first season guiding the Wyoming defense as defensive coordinator in 2020, the Cowboys were among the best in the country, ranking No. 16 in the nation in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game). Three of his Cowboy defenders earned All-Conference recognition in 2020. Junior linebacker Chad Muma earned First Team All-Mountain West honors from MW head coaches and media. Senior free safety Esaias Gandy earned Honorable Mention honors from the conference head coaches and media, and sophomore cornerback C.J. Coldon earned Fourth Team All-MW from Phil Steele.

Before coming to Wyoming, Sawvel served as the defensive coordinator at Wake Forest University in 2017 and '18. He was named the defensive coordinator at Wake Forest in January 2017 and helped the Deacons to the 2017 Belk Bowl. During his first season at the helm of the Wake Forest defense, the Deacons set school records for tackles for loss in a single season and finished the season ranked No. 7 nationally in tackles for loss.

As the cornerbacks coach in 2017, Sawvel coached Essang Bassey, who set a sophomore school record with 19 passes defended and earned Honorable Mention All-ACC honors.

Prior to coaching at Wake Forest, Sawvel served as the defensive coordinator at the University of Minnesota where he constructed a Top 25 ranked defense and helped the Gophers to their best record in 13 seasons in 2016. Minnesota posted a 9-4 record in 2016 and defeated Washington State, 17-12, in the Holiday Bowl. In the Holiday Bowl victory, Minnesota held Washington State's explosive passing offense to just 264 yards, 86 yards below its average, and held the Cougars to their lowest point total of the season.

Sawvel spent six seasons as an assistant at Minnesota. He was the defensive backs and special teams coach from 2011 to 2015. After Jerry Kill's retirement as the head coach at Minnesota, Tracy Claeys was elevated to head coach and Sawvel became the Gophers' defensive coordinator.

Under Sawvel's direction, the 2016 Golden Gopher defense was ranked in the Top 25 in a number of defensive categories including: rushing defense (14th), turnover margin (18th), scoring defense (21st), total defense (21st) and sacks (22nd). In addition, Minnesota ranked 27th nationally in team pass efficiency defense.

Sawvel has helped develop several players who went on to play in the NFL. In 2015, two of his players at Minnesota, Eric Murray and Breian Boddy-Calhoun, earned opportunities in the NFL. Murray was a fourth round pick of the Kansas City Chiefs while Boddy-Calhoun signed with the Jacksonville Jaguars as a free agent. In 2014, both Murray and Boddy-Calhoun were named to the All-Big Ten Team following a season in which the Gophers were 18th in the nation in pass defense.

Brock Vereen, a 2014 First Team All-Big Ten selection and another one of Sawvel's pupils, was drafted in the fourth round of the NFL Draft by the Chicago Bears.

For three seasons from 2014 through 2016, Sawvel had at least one of his secondary players selected in the NFL Draft. Sawvel was part of teams that advanced to four conference championships as a collegiate coach.

Prior to his time at Minnesota, he served as the defensive backs coach on Kill's coaching staff at Northern Illinois for three seasons from 2008-10. As secondary coach at Northern Illinois, he mentored Jimmie Ward, a first round pick of the San Francisco 49ers.

Sawvel was a member of the Southern Illinois staff under Kill for seven seasons from 2001-07, working with the secondary and special teams.

His first full-time coaching position came at Ferris State for two seasons from 1999-2000, where he coached the defensive backs and special teams.

Sawvel was a three-year letterwinner and an All-Conference linebacker in 1993 at Division III power Mount Union. He earned a bachelor's degree in 1993 in sports management with minors in business administration, information systems and physical education. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Eastern Kentucky in 1994 and moved to Notre Dame as a graduate assistant coach for the 1996-98 seasons. Sawvel owns master's degrees from both Eastern Kentucky and Notre Dame, where he completed his master's in administration.

Sawvel has two daughters, Mackenzie and Miranda. He recruits central Illinois and the St. Louis metropolitan area for the Cowboys.

Aaron Bohl is entering his fourth season as the linebackers coach of the Wyoming Cowboys in 2023. He was named the Wyoming Cowboys' full-time linebackers coach in January 2020. He originally joined the Wyoming coaching staff in the January of 2017 as a Defensive Graduate Assistant, making the 2023 season his seventh as a college coach. He was elevated to the position of interim linebackers coach in October of 2019. Bohl has been part of five bowl-eligible teams for the Cowboys in 2017, '18, '19, '21 and '22, three bowl championship teams -- the 2017 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Champions, the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Champions and the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Champs. He has helped coach the Pokes to four bowl appearances, including the 2022 Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl.

A former college linebacker himself at Minnesota State Moorhead from 2013-16, Bohl was a four-year starter and three-year captain. Wyoming's 2022 defense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 21 in the nation in sacks, averaging 2.85 per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 33 in the FBS in defensive touchdowns scored, with two. Bohl coached All-Mountain West linebacker Easton Gibbs in '22. Gibbs earned First Team All-MW honors from conference head coaches and media. He also received First Team All-MW honors from Phil Steele in '22. Gibbs ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 22 in the nation in tackles in the 2022 season, averaging 9.3 tackles per game. His 121 total tackles on the season marked Gibbs first 100-tackle season of his career and ranked as the 18th best single-season total in school history. Gibbs became the third Wyoming linebacker to earn First Team All-Mountain West in the past four seasons -- Logan Wilson (2019), Chad Muma (2020 and '21) and Gibbs (2022).

The Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Linebacker Chad Muma was one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award in 2021. Muma earned Second Team All-America honors from the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and was a Third Team selection by Associated Press. He was selected as the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Muma ranked No. 4 in the nation in tackles (10.9 per game), No. 3 in solo tackles (6.5 per game) and tied for No. 2 in the country in interception returns for touchdowns (2 total).

Muma's accomplishments in 2021 made him the second Wyoming linebacker in three seasons to earn All-America honors, be named a finalist for the Butkus Award and be selected in the third round of the NFL Draft as former Cowboy Logan Wilson achieved all those honors in 2019.

The 2020 season saw Bohl coach Muma as he earned First Team All-Mountain West Conference and led the Mountain West and ranked No. 3 in the nation in tackles, averaging 11.8 tackles per game. The 2020 Wyoming defense was among the best in the country, ranking No. 16 in the nation in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game).

In 2019, Bohl coached All-America linebacker Wilson and Honorable Mention All-MW linebacker Cassh Maluia. Wilson was one of six national finalists for the 2019 Butkus Award, honoring the nation's top collegiate linebacker. Wilson earned multiple All-America honors, including being named a First Team All-American by Pro Football Focus, a Second Team All-American by USA Today and a Third Team All-American by Associated Press. Wilson was the No. 1 pick in the third round of the 2020 NFL Draft by the Cincinnati Bengals. In 2022, Wilson was the starting middle linebacker in Super Bowl LVI for the Cincinnati Bengals. Maluia was a sixth round selection by the New England Patriots in the 2020 NFL Draft. UW concluded the 2019 season with an 8-5 record and a 38-17 win over Georgia State to capture the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship.

The 2019 Cowboy defense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 11 in the nation in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.8 points per game. The UW defense also ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 11 in the nation in rushing defense, giving up only 107.1 rushing yards per game to opponents. Wyoming's defense ranked No. 6 in the country in red-zone defense and scored three defensive touchdowns to rank No. 12 in the FBS.

As a defensive graduate assistant in 2018, Bohl helped coach a Cowboy defense that ranked No. 19 in the nation in total defense (allowing opponents only 326.2 yards per game), were No. 25 in the NCAA in rushing defense (129.5 yards per game), ranked No. 28 in scoring defense (giving up only 22.0 points per game) and were No. 32 in pass defense (196.7 yards per game). The UW defense also ranked No. 16 in the country in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (223) on way to a 6-6 record to earn bowl eligibility for the third straight season.

In 2017, Bohl was part of a Wyoming team that posted an 8-5 record and won the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl Championship. Bohl aided in coaching a defense that ranked No. 1 in the nation in takeaways in 2017, forcing 38 opponent turnovers. The Pokes ranked No. 9 in the country in scoring defense, allowing opponents only 17.5 points per game. UW ranked No. 1 in the NCAA in fumbles recovered (18), No. 2 in the nation in interceptions (20), No. 8 in defensive touchdowns scored (4 TDs), No. 13 in pass defense (174.9 passing yards allowed), and No. 23 in total defense (335.2 total yards allowed).

Bohl came to Wyoming from Minnesota State University Moorhead, where he completed his collegiate playing career in 2016. As a linebacker, he started all 11 games each of his four seasons. Bohl earned Second Team All-Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference (NSIC) honors his senior season, while recording 71 total tackles (34 solo tackles and 37 assists), 4.5 sacks, 7.5 tackles for loss, two pass breakups, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble. He helped lead Minnesota State Moorhead to a 7-4 overall record and 5-2 conference record placing third in the North Division of the NSIC in 2016. For his career, Bohl was credited with 273 career tackles, 8.0 sacks, 22 tackles for loss, eight pass breakups, one interception, two fumble recoveries and four forced fumbles. Bohl graduated in December 2016 from MSUM with a math education degree.

As a high school player at Lincoln East High School in Lincoln, Neb., Bohl was an Honorable Mention All-State honoree and earned All-Conference and All-City honors. He served as a team captain in high school, earning three letters in football. Bohl also lettered in basketball and track.

He and his wife, Anna, have two young daughters, Brynlei Mae and Aubree Marie. Bohl is the son of University of Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl.

Bohl recruits Nebraska and the Kansas City metropolitan area for Wyoming Football.

2023 WYOMING COACHES

COWBOY COACHES

BENNY BOYD

(Aurora '00)

Co-Special Teams Coordinator/Cornerbacks

Benny Boyd will coach the Wyoming cornerbacks and serve as co-special teams coordinator for the fourth season in 2023. He originally joined the Wyoming Football coaching staff in February of 2020. Boyd came to Wyoming from Eastern Illinois University. He will be entering his 22nd season as a college coach in 2023.

Wyoming's 2022 defense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 21 in the nation in sacks, averaging 2.85 per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 33 in the FBS in defensive touchdowns scored, with two. Boyd's special teams blocked two kicks in the '22 season to rank No. 3 in the conference and No. 36 in the nation. In '22, Boyd coached cornerback Cam Stone, who earned First Team All-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele, Second Team from Pro Football Focus (PFF) and Honorable Mention honors from Mountain West head coaches and media.

The Wyoming Cowboys entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country. But given that, the Cowboys went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The Cowboy defense in 2021 was one of the top pass defenses in the nation. Wyoming allowed opponents only 189.8 passing yards per game to rank No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 12 in the nation. The Cowboy defense was also No. 13 in the nation in defensive touchdowns scored, with three. One of those interception returns for a TD was a 50-yard return by one of Boyd's defensive backs, nickel back Keyon Blankenbaker. Wyoming held opponents to 23.7 points per game in the 2021 season to rank No. 5 in the MW and No. 43 in the country out of 130 FBS programs. The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl.

Among Wyoming's six defenders who earned All-Mountain West Conference honors in 2021 were both of the Cowboys' starting cornerbacks. C.J. Coldon was named Second Team All-MW by conference coaches and media, and Azizi Hearn was a Second Team All-MW selection by Pro Football Focus.

The 2021 kickoff return team for the Cowboys ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the FBS, averaging 23.0 yards per return. Leading that unit was another Cowboy cornerback, Cam Stone, who averaged 40.0 yards per kickoff return and returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown in Wyoming's 44-17 road win over eventual MW champion Utah State. Stone was named an Honorable Mention All-MW honoree by Pro Football Focus.

The 2020 Wyoming defense was among the best in the nation, ranking No. 16 in the country among all Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) teams in total defense, allowing opponents only 328.0 yards per game. UW's defense also ranked No. 21 in rushing defense (125.3 yards per game), No. 24 in scoring defense (21.0 points per game) and No. 29 in pass defense (202.7 yards per game). Among the Cowboys who Boyd coached in his first season at Wyoming in 2020 was cornerback Coldon. Coldon earned Fourth Team All-Mountain West honors from Phil Steele in 2020.

Boyd coached the cornerbacks and coordinated special teams at Eastern Illinois in 2019. The Panthers' defense ranked No. 30 in the nation in total defense out of 124 Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) teams, allowing opponents only 350.6 yards per game. EIU's defense also ranked: No. 29 in the FCS in fewest first downs allowed to opponents (215), No. 29 in most fumbles recovered (10), No. 29 in tackles for loss (7.2 per game), No. 40 in pass defense (204.1 passing yards allowed per game), No. 40 in turnovers gained (21) and No. 44 in rushing defense (146.5 rushing yards allowed per game).

From 2015-18, Boyd coached corners and special teams at Central Washington. He was part of back-to-back Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) Championships in 2017 & 2018 at CWU. Boyd coached First Team All-America cornerback Tyler Hasty, who ranked second in the NCAA in passes defended in 2018. Boyd's special teams ranked second in NCAA Division II in blocked kicks in 2018. He also coached Chade DeMoor, the 2018 NCAA individual leader in blocked kicks.

In 2017, the Central Washington defense ranked second nationally in interceptions and fourth in the NCAA Division II in total defense. Boyd coached several All-Conference selections on defense and special teams while at CWU.

In 2014, Boyd served as defensive coordinator and special teams coordinator at his alma mater Aurora (Ill.) University.

He was the special teams coordinator and defensive backs coach at North Dakota for the 2011-13 seasons. UND led all FCS teams in blocked kicks all three seasons he coordinated the special teams, and he coached an All-America kick returner in 2012 and All-America kicker in 2013.

Prior to North Dakota, Boyd was the associate head coach and defensive coordinator at Luther College in Iowa from 2002-10. In 2010, he was a finalist for the AFCA Division III Assistant Coach of the Year. He coached four Division III All-Americans and three Aztec Bowl participants (Division III All-Star Game) while at Luther College. A total of 19 of his players earned All-Conference honors during his time at Luther College.

Boyd played football at Aurora (Ill.) University from 1996-99. He was a two-time All-Conference selection and held the school single-season record for passes defended. Boyd earned his bachelor's degree in social work from Aurora University in 2000 and added a master's degree in social work, also from Aurora University, in 2002. He has completed Bill Walsh Fellowships with four NFL teams during his career (Houston, Seattle, Oakland and Pittsburgh). Boyd is a native of Dixon, Illinois.

He and his wife, Andrea, were married in July of 2023.

Boyd recruits Illinois and southern Wisconsin for the Cowboys.

Gordie Haug will be entering his 10th year as a member of the Wyoming Football staff in 2023 and his 17th as a college coach. He was promoted to the position of Executive Director of Recruiting for Wyoming Football on July 26, 2022, while continuing to coach the Cowboy running backs.

In addition to overseeing Wyoming's recruiting efforts, the 2023 season will mark Haug's sixth consecutive season coaching the running backs. In previous years at Wyoming, Haug has served as the Director of Player Personnel, Director of Recruiting and wide receivers coach.

Each of Haug's first three seasons coaching the Cowboy running backs, UW had the league's No. 1 rusher and a First Team All-Mountain West selection -- Kazavian Valladay in 2019 and '20 and Nico Evans in 2018. All three of those seasons also saw Valladay and Evans record 1,000-yard rushing seasons. In 2022, Titus Swen rushed for 1,039 yards and recorded the fourth 1,000-yard rushing season with Haug as the running backs coach. Swen earned Third Team All-Mountain West honors in '22 from Phil Steele.

In 2002, UW's offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 14 in the nation in red-zone offense (90.6 percent) and No. 3 in the MW and No. 44 nationally in rushing offense (181.4 yards per game). The offense also ranked No. 3 in the league and No. 25 nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game) and ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.46 per game). Wyoming entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The 2021 season saw Valladay and Titus Swen share carries to form an extremely effective tandem. Valladay recorded the second 1,000-yard rushing season of his career (1,070 yards) and Swen rushed for 785 yards. Both earned All-Conference recognition in '21. Valladay received Second Team All-MW honors from head coaches and media. Swen was a Second Team selection by Pro Football Focus. Valladay ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West in rushing yards (82.3 yards per game). Swen ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 26 in the nation in yards per carry (5.95).

UW's 2021 rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Wyoming's 2020 offense again featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country among FBS teams. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). Valladay averaged 110.0 rushing yards per game to lead the Mountain West and rank No. 17 in the nation. He also averaged 131.00 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 27 nationally.

In 2019, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 yards per game. Valladay rushed for 1,265 yards to lead the league. He averaged 105.4 rushing yards per game to rank No. 18 in the nation. He also led the conference and ranked No. 26 nationally in all-purpose yards, averaging 124.08 yards per game. Valladay's 204-yard performance in Wyoming's 38-17 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl victory earned him a spot on the 2019 Associated Press All-Bowl Team. He also caught three passes for 91 yards in the bowl win and scored one touchdown rushing and one receiving while accounting for 295 all-purpose yards. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the AP All-Bowl Team, joining Penn State's Journey Brown and Florida's Lamical Perine.

The 2019 Cowboy offense ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboys concluded the season with an 8-5 record and captured the Arizona Bowl championship.

In his first season coaching the Cowboy running backs, Haug worked with 2018 senior Nico Evans, who led the Mountain West and ranked No. 4 in the nation in rushing as he averaged 132.5 rushing yards per game. Evans also led the MW and ranked No. 12 in the NCAA in all-purpose yards (139.1 yards per game). His 1,325 net rushing yards ranked as the No. 4 best single season in University of Wyoming history. Evans earned First Team All-Mountain West honors and played in the NFLPA Collegiate Bowl, an All-Star game for college seniors leading up to the NFL Draft.

In 2018, Wyoming's rushing attack ranked No. 4 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the NCAA in rushing as a team. UW's offense also ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 4 in the nation in fewest turnovers, committing only 11 total turnovers for the year. In spite of the Wyoming offense being in transition with two young quarterbacks in Sean Chambers and Tyler Vander Waal guiding the offense after former Cowboy Josh Allen moved on to the NFL as the No. 7 overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the Wyoming offense hit its stride during a four-game winning streak to end the 2018 season. During that four-game win streak, UW's offense averaged 31.0 points and 415.5 yards per game.

Haug has been very innovative in directing recruiting efforts for Cowboy Football. He has also coordinated summer camps for Wyoming Football in the past, and has built a very extensive and productive summer satellite camp program.

In 2015 while maintaining his duties as Director of Recruiting, Haug also coached the Wyoming wide receivers. Junior wide receiver Tanner Gentry was named to the Biletnikoff Award Watch List in 2015.

Haug came to Wyoming from North Dakota State where he was a member of head coach Craig Bohl's coaching staff for the 2012 and 2013 seasons, working as an offensive assistant.

In Haug's two years on the NDSU staff, the Bison posted a combined overall record of 29-1 and a Missouri Valley Football Conference record of 15-1, while capturing back-to-back Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) National Championships.

The 2013 NDSU squad became the first undefeated (15-0) FCS National Champion since Marshall went 15-0 to win the 1996 title. That 15-0 record by the Bison also set a North Dakota State school record. NDSU extended its winning streak to 24 consecutive games with the 2013 FCS Championship. That tied both the FCS and NDSU records for consecutive victories. The University of Pennsylvania set the FCS record of 24 consecutive wins from 1992-95. Montana later tied the record from 2001-02. The NDSU record was originally set from 1964-66.

Haug coached the running backs at North Dakota State in 2012 and '13. Each of those two seasons, NDSU had two individuals rush for over 1,000 yards. In 2013, Sam Ojuri rushed for 1,398 yards and John Crockett rushed for 1,277 yards. The 2012 season saw Ojuri rush for 1,047 yards and Crockett rush for 1,038.

In 2013, the North Dakota State offense ranked No. 7 in the nation in rushing offense (257.3 yards per game), No. 10 in scoring offense (38.7 points per game), and No. 14 in total offense (457.5 yards per game).

Before joining the North Dakota State staff, Haug spent five years (2007-11) coaching at his alma mater, Bemidji State University in Minnesota. He began as a student assistant for two years (2007-08), working with the linebackers. Haug then moved into a graduate assistant role for two seasons (2009-10), working with the running backs. He became a full-time assistant coach on the staff his final season (2011), coaching the defensive line.

At Bemidji State, Haug was also involved in recruiting and assisted with the strength and conditioning program.

He earned his bachelor's degree in community health in 2009 and master's degree in sports science in 2011, both from Bemidji State.

Haug recruits northern California and southern California for the Cowboys.

COWBOY COACHES

BRIAN HENDRICKS

(Wyoming '11)
Defensive Ends

A former Wyoming football great returned to his alma mater in February of 2023 when Brian Hendricks was announced as the Cowboys' new defensive ends coach. Hendricks, a native of Burlington, Colo., played for the Pokes from 2008-11 and was honored three times with Mountain West All-Conference honors as a linebacker.

Hendricks returned to Wyoming from Illinois State University where he had been the defensive line coach for five seasons (2018-22) under head coach Brock Spack, who was Wyoming's defensive coordinator in 1995 and '96 under the late Wyoming head coach Joe Tiller.

Prior to that, Hendricks coached for three seasons at Montana (2015-17). His first season with the Griz, Hendricks coached the defensive ends, and he coached the entire defensive line his final two seasons.

In 2013, he earned his first full-time college coaching position at Colorado Schools of Mines and coached the Oredigger defensive line for two seasons from 2013-14. Hendricks also served as a defensive graduate assistant at Colorado State prior to that, working for his former linebacker coach at Wyoming, Marty English, who Hendricks now replaces as UW's defensive ends coach following English's retirement announcement on Feb. 14, 2023.

The Illinois State defense in 2022 ranked No. 5 in the nation among Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) teams in sacks, with 35. ISU also was No. 5 in the country in pass defense (169.8 yards allowed per game), was No. 10 in total defense (318.5 yards allowed) and No. 11 in scoring defense (20.2 points allowed per game).

In 2019, the Redbirds enjoyed an outstanding season, posting a 10-5 record and advancing to the FCS Quarterfinals before losing a defensive battle by a score of 9-3 to eventual national champion North Dakota State. Illinois State was ranked No. 6 in the nation in 2019.

Hendricks' 2019 defensive front led the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in sacks, with 52. That defensive line unit was led by All-Missouri Valley Football Conference (MVFC) First Team defensive end Romeo McKnight and MVFC Honorable Mention nose tackle John Ridgeway. McKnight would go on to play in the East-West Shrine Game and sign as a free agent with the Cleveland Browns. Earlier in their careers, McKnight was named a HERO Sports FCS Sophomore All-American and an MVFC All-Newcomer Team selection in his first season, while Ridgeway also earned MVFC All-Newcomer Team honors.

The 52 sacks in 2019 were also an Illinois State school record. The 2019 Redbird defense ranked in the Top 10 in the nation in seven defensive categories, including: leading the nation in red zone defense (61.4 percent), ranking No. 3 in turnovers gained (33), No. 4 in scoring defense (16.0 points allowed per game), No. 11 in total defense (303.5 yards allowed per game), No. 14 in rushing defense (116.7 yards allowed per game) and No. 19 in pass defense (186.8 yards allowed per game).

The 2018 season was also a strong one for the Redbird defense as it ranked No. 10 in scoring defense (20.0 points allowed per game) and No. 22 in rushing defense (126.8 yards allowed per game). Illinois State also ranked as the the second-best total defense (309.8 ypg) in the conference behind eventual national champion North Dakota State.

Hendricks came to Illinois State after serving as an assistant coach at Montana for three seasons. At Montana, Hendricks served the last two seasons as the Grizzlies' defensive line coach. He coached the defensive ends his first season in 2015 and worked with 2015 STATS FCS Defensive Player of the Year Tyrone Holmes, who led the nation with 18 sacks. The 2015 Griz team posted an 8-5 record, advanced to the Second Round of the FCS Playoffs and earned a No. 14 national ranking.

Hendricks followed Colorado School of Mines head coach Bob Stitt to Montana. Hendricks was an assistant coach for Stitt at Mines for the 2013 and '14 seasons, working with the defensive line. In 2014, Mines had an overall record of 10-2 and tied for the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference title with an 8-1 league mark. The Orediggers advanced to the First Round of the 2014 NCAA Division II Playoffs, and earned a No. 16 national ranking.

With Hendricks coaching the defensive front, the 2014 Orediggers' defense ranked second in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) in scoring defense (23.4 points allowed per game), No. 1 in the RMAC and No. 36 in the nation in Division II in rushing defense (124.9 yards allowed per game) and No. 1 in the RMAC and No. 12 in the nation in sacks (38).

Hendricks coached an Oredigger defense in 2013 that ranked No. 1 in the RMAC and No. 7 in the country in scoring defense (17.0 points allowed per game).

He joined Stitt's staff in 2013, following a short stint as a defensive graduate assistant at Colorado State, working with his former position coach at Wyoming, Marty English, who was CSU's defensive coordinator at the time.

As a linebacker for the Cowboys from 2008-11, Hendricks earned Second Team All-Mountain West honors twice -- as a senior in 2011 and as a sophomore in 2009. He also earned Honorable Mention All-MW honors his junior season of 2010 in spite having to fight thru some nagging injuries throughout that season.

A former Wyoming team captain, Hendricks concluded his career with 309 career tackles, while playing in 45 career games for the Cowboys. He was a starter for the Pokes when they captured the 2009 New Mexico Bowl Championship, with a 35-28 double overtime win over Fresno State. In that game, Hendricks led Wyoming with 13 tackles and he and his defensive teammates posted a remarkable goal-line stand in the first overtime. Fresno State had a first and goal at the Wyoming one-yard line, but the Cowboy defense held the Bulldogs out of the end zone on four straight running plays and UW went on to capture the victory. Hendricks led the Cowboys to a second New Mexico Bowl appearance his senior season of 2011.

He ended the 2009 season ranked No. 12 in the nation in tackles, averaging 10.55 per game. His 116 tackles in the 2009 season ranks as the 24th best single-season performance in school history, and he still holds the school record for most tackles in a single game, recording 23 tackles on the road at Air Force in 2009.

Hendricks is a native of Burlington, Colo., he earned his bachelor's degree in agricultural business from the University of Wyoming in 2011. He and his wife Talia, who is a native of Green River, Wyo., have three children, son Hawk, daughter Quinn and son Westly.

He will recruit his native state of Colorado for the Cowboys.

Shannon Moore will enter his fifth season coaching the Wyoming tight ends and fullbacks and coordinating special teams for the Pokes in 2023. He joined the Wyoming coaching staff in January 2019. Moore came to Wyoming after spending the previous three years at East Carolina University. He will be coaching in his 21st season in '23.

Moore coached Wyoming tight end Treyton Welch in 2022. Welch was selected as the First Team All-Mountain West tight end by Pro Football Focus (PFF) in '22. He also earned Third Team All-MW honors from Phil Steele and was an Honorable Mention All-Mountain selection by MW head coaches and media. Welch was the only Mountain West tight end to rank in the Top 10 in the MW in TD receptions last season, tying for No. 4 with five total touchdown catches. Welch received an "A" grade from PFF for the 2022 season. Welch and fullback/tight end Parker Christensen ranked third and fourth for Wyoming in receptions in '22. Welch caught 22 passes for 308 yards, and Christensen had 19 catches for 169. All total, Moore's tight-end and fullback group accounted for a total of 53 receptions for 604 yards and six TD receptions in '22.

Wyoming's 2022 offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 14 in the nation in red-zone offense (90.6 percent) and No. 3 in the MW and No. 44 nationally in rushing offense (181.4 yards per game). The offense ranked No. 3 in the league and No. 25 nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game) and ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.46 per game). The Cowboys also generated a 1,000-yard rusher in '22 in Titus Swen (1,039 yards). Moore's special teams blocked two kicks in the '22 season to rank No. 3 in the conference and No. 36 in the nation.

Wyoming entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finished second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

The 2021 Wyoming rushing attack ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 20 in the NCAA, averaging 211.7 yards per game. UW's passing attack was fourth best in the MW and No. 38 in the nation in average yards per completion (13.06 yards). The Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Moore's tight ends and fullbacks had a productive 2021 season. Treyton Welch caught 19 passes for 163 yards. Parker Christensen had 13 receptions for 127, while Colin O'Brien caught two passes for 27 yards and Jackson Marcotte added one reception for six yards. Combined, the four tight ends caught 35 passes for 323 yards.

That 2021 tight end group helped block for Wyoming's No. 2 all-time career rusher Kazavian Valladay and sophomore Titus Swen, who combined for an extremely effective season. Valladay recorded the second 1,000-yard rushing season of his career (1,070 yards) and Swen rushed for 785 yards. Both earned All-Conference recognition in '21. Valladay received Second Team All-MW honors from head coaches and media. Swen was a Second Team selection by Pro Football Focus. Valladay ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West in rushing yards (82.3 yards per game). Swen ranked No. 2 in the MW and No. 26 in the nation in yards per carry (5.95).

The 2021 kickoff return team for the Cowboys ranked No. 3 in the Mountain West and No. 39 in the FBS, averaging 23.0 yards per return. Leading that unit was Cowboy cornerback, Cam Stone, who averaged 40.0 yards per kickoff return and returned a kickoff 99 yards for a touchdown in Wyoming's 44-17 road win over eventual MW champion Utah State. Stone was named an Honorable Mention All-MW honoree by Pro Football Focus.

Wyoming's 2020 offense again featured one of the most effective rushing attacks in the country among FBS teams. The Pokes ranked No. 14 in the nation in rushing, averaging 219.5 rushing yards per game. UW's passing attack also ranked No. 7 nationally in passing yards per completion (14.84 yards per pass completion). The Cowboys ranked No. 24 in fewest turnovers committed (9 total turnovers) and were No. 32 in red-zone offense (converting 23 of 26 red-zone opportunities into points). The tight end group combined for 12 catches for 184 yards in six games, with sophomore Treyton Welch leading the group with five receptions for 95 yards. Moore's tight ends and fullbacks were key in opening holes for junior running back Kazavian Valladay, who earned First Team All-Mountain West honors and led the league in rushing for the second consecutive season. Valladay averaged 110.0 rushing yards per game to not only lead the Mountain West but rank No. 17 in the nation. He also averaged 131.00 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 27 nationally.

In 2019, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 2 in the Mountain West and No. 23 in the nation in rushing offense, averaging 214.8 yards per game. The Cowboy offense also ranked No. 10 in the NCAA in passing yards per completion (14.75 yards per completion), No. 14 in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.62 per game), No. 26 in fewest fumbles lost (6), No. 32 in third-down conversions (43.3 percent), No. 32 in fewest sacks allowed (1.62 per game) and No. 33 in fewest turnovers committed (15). The Cowboy fullbacks and tight ends helped block for running back Valladay, who earned First Team All-Mountain West honors for the 2019 season. Valladay was one of only three running backs in the nation named to the Associated Press All-Bowl team. Moore's tight ends combined for 29 receptions for 391 yards and four touchdowns in 2019, and were led by senior team captain Josh Harshman from Casper, Wyo., who had 20 catches for 264 yards and two TDs. On special teams, Wyoming ranked No. 1 in the Mountain West and No. 4 in the nation in kickoff returns, averaging 27.73 yards per return. UW was No. 4 in the MW and No. 34 in the NCAA in punt returns, averaging 10.76 yards per return, and senior punt returner Austin Conway ranked No. 2 in the conference and No. 14 nationally in punt returns (10.8 yards per return). Conway was named Second Team All-Mountain West as a return specialist in voting by conference head coaches and media.

Moore came to Wyoming from East Carolina University, which is a member of the American Athletic Conference. Moore coached at East Carolina for three seasons from 2016-18. His first two seasons, he coached the tight ends and coordinated the special teams for the Pirates, including coordinating the field goal, punt and kickoff return and punt and kickoff coverage teams. In 2016, punter Worth Gregory earned All-American Athletic Conference honors and place-kicker Davis Plowman ranked No. 2 in the AAC in field goals made per game and in field-goal percentage. The 2017 season saw punter Austin Barnes lead the AAC in punting and rank No. 19 in the nation, while place-kicker Jake Verity ranked No. 2 in the AAC and No. 33 in the nation in field goals made per game. Punter Worth went to mini-camp with the Jacksonville Jaguars when his college career ended in 2016, and tight end Stephen Baggett earned a spot in the Cleveland Browns' preseason camp following his senior season of 2017. Moore's final season, he continued to coach the tight ends, while also being given the responsibility of being East Carolina's recruiting coordinator.

Before joining the East Carolina coaching staff, Moore coached for two seasons (2014-15) at Florida International University where he served as the special teams coordinator both seasons. His 2014 Panther special teams' units ranked No. 1 overall in Conference USA in special teams combined rankings, and his 2015 special teams were No. 3 overall. Punt returner Richard Leonard led Conference USA in punt returns both seasons and earned First Team All-Conference honors as a punt returner in both 2014 and '15. Leonard set a new FIU single-season school record for punt returns in 2014, averaging 23.76 yards per return. Leonard went on to play for the Hamilton Tiger Cats of the Canadian Football League. The Panthers ranked No. 1 in C-USA in punt returns as a team in 2014 and ranked No. 2 in the nation. Moore's 2015 special teams led the league and ranked among the country's best in punt return average (10.8 yards per return), most blocked kicks (four) and fewest blocks allowed (zero).

Moore coached for eight seasons as a full-time assistant coach at South Dakota State (2006-13) and two years at SDSU as a graduate assistant (2003-04). During his time at South Dakota State, he coordinated special teams and coached tight ends his last four seasons from 2010-13. Prior to that, Moore coached the running backs and tight ends from 2006-08, before taking on the duties of special teams coordinator and quarterbacks coach during the 2009 season.

During his tenure with the Jackrabbits, Moore coached four All-Conference running backs and a pair of All-Conference tight ends. At running back, Kyle Minett developed into a two-time All-America honoree while ranking second in career rushing with 4,277 yards. Anthony Watson and Cory Koenig also ended their careers in the top five on SDSU's career rushing chart. Moore played an instrumental role in the development of two-time All-Great West Football Conference tight end Chris Wagner, who later signed as a free agent with the Oakland Raiders. Moore also served as a mentor to tight end Colin Cochart, who earned First-Team All-Missouri Valley Football Conference honors in 2010 and later signed with the Cincinnati Bengals. The Jackrabbits consistently ranked among the top teams in the Missouri Valley Football Conference in several special teams categories under Moore's direction. SDSU ranked first or second in kickoff coverage in 2010 and 2011, while ranking among the Top 20 nationally for net punting in those respective campaigns. The Jackrabbits also ranked ninth nationally for kickoff returns with an average of 23.86 yards per return in 2010.

In addition to his coaching duties, Moore performed a key role in the academic success of the South Dakota State football program, which led its league in the number of Academic All-League selections in each of his eight seasons. Six Jackrabbits earned Capital One Academic All-America honors, two received Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) Athletic Directors Association Postgraduate Scholarships and another pair were bestowed with NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships. Moore previously served as a graduate assistant at SDSU during the 2003 and 2004 seasons, working with the running backs, tight ends and special teams.

Before returning to Brookings, he served as head coach of the Wyoming Cavalry of the National Indoor Football League, where he compiled an 18-11 record over two seasons in 2004 and '05. In 2005, Moore led the Casper-based Cavalry to a franchise-best, 10-5 record and a playoff berth, while also serving as the team's offensive coordinator.

Moore played three seasons at Black Hills (S.D.) State, where he earned a bachelor's degree in secondary education in 2000. Moore completed his master's degree in educational administration in 2005 and his master's in sports administration in 2007, both from South Dakota State.

A native of Gordon, Neb., Moore and his wife, Lindsay, have one daughter, Mackenzie Rose. Moore recruits the states of South Dakota and Wyoming and the Dallas metropolitan area.

2023 WYOMING COACHES

COWBOY COACHES

JOE TRIPODI

(Northwestern '06)
Offensive Line

Joe Tripodi joined the Wyoming Football coaching staff as the Cowboys' offensive line coach in February 2022. He will be entering his second season coaching Wyoming's offensive line in 2023 and his 14th season as a college coach. Tripodi previously coached the offensive line at Temple University for three seasons from 2019-21 and coached nine seasons at Northern Illinois from 2010-18.

In his first season with Wyoming in 2022, the Cowboy offense ranked No. 1 in the MW and No. 14 in the nation in red-zone offense (90.6 percent) and No. 3 in the MW and No. 44 nationally in rushing offense (181.4 yards per game). The offense ranked No. 3 in the league and No. 25 nationally in fewest tackles for loss allowed (4.46 per game) and ranked No. 3 in the conference and No. 30 in the nation in fewest sacks allowed (1.46 per game). Tripodi's offensive line helped pave the way for a 1,000-yard rusher in 2022 as Titus Swen rushed for 1,039 yards.

All five of Tripodi's starting offensive linemen earned All-Conference recognition in '22. Offensive guard Zach Watts was selected First Team All-Mountain West by Pro Football Focus (PFF). PFF named Cowboy center Nofofaia Tulafono to its Second Team. Offensive tackle Frank Crum was selected to PFF's Third Team along with offensive guard Emmanuel Pregon. Offensive guard Eric Abojei was named Third Team All-MW by Phil Steele. Pregon was also named a Second Team Freshman All-American by College Football News.

Wyoming entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

Tripodi is a former starting offensive lineman himself at Northwestern University of the Big Ten. He started the final 24 consecutive games he played for the Wildcats and was part of two Northwestern teams to earn bowl bids -- the 2003 Motor City Bowl and the 2005 Sun Bowl. He was the co-recipient of the inaugural Randy Walker Wildcat Award in 2006, which is awarded to the player with the best work ethic, toughness and warrior attitude.

During Tripodi's three seasons at Temple from 2019-21, he coached First Team All-America center Matt Hennessy in 2019. Hennessy was also a finalist for the 2019 Rimington Trophy, which is awarded to the nation's top collegiate center each season. The Owls' earned a berth in the 2019 Military Bowl. Tripodi coached five All-America Athletic Conference players at Temple, and had two of his offensive linemen go on to the NFL, including Hennessy, who was a third-round pick of the Atlanta Falcons.

Prior to Temple, Tripodi spent nine seasons at Northern Illinois. In his last three seasons at Northern Illinois from 2016-18, Tripodi was the Offensive Run-Game Coordinator and Offensive Line Coach for the Huskies. NIU ranked 17th in the nation in rushing offense and 31st in total offense in 2016, while allowing only 8.0 total sacks to opponents to rank No. 2 in the country in fewest sacks allowed.

Tripodi was the offensive line coach at NIU from 2013-15. He coached the tight ends and fullbacks in 2012, and was an offensive graduate assistant coach in 2010-11.

Over his nine years on the Huskies' coaching staff, NIU captured four MAC Championships in 2011, '12, '14 and '18, and won seven MAC West Division titles in 2010, '11, '12, '13, '14, '15 and '18. He coached 19 All-MAC offensive linemen at NIU, had one William V. Campbell Finalist (symbolic of the nation's top football scholar-athlete), and coached six All-America players. Tripodi also had five players earn opportunities with NFL teams, including Max Scharping, who was a second round pick of the Houston Texans. Tripodi's offensive line helped block for quarterback Jordan Lynch at Northern Illinois. Lynch finished seventh in the Heisman voting in 2012 and placed third in the 2013 Heisman balloting.

Tripodi was a member of eight bowl teams at Northern Illinois in nine seasons, highlighted by an appearance in the Orange Bowl at the conclusion of the 2012 season. The Huskies won the 2010 uDrove Humanitarian Bowl, the 2011 GoDaddy.com Bowl, and played in the 2013 Poinsettia Bowl, 2014 Boca Raton Bowl, 2015 Poinsettia Bowl, the 2017 Quick Lane Bowl and the 2018 Boca Raton Bowl.

He and his wife, Rachel, have one daughter, Emma, and one son, Roman. Tripodi completed his bachelor's degree in communications from Northwestern in 2006 and his master's degree in adult and higher education from NIU in 2011.

He recruits central California and southern California for the Cowboys.

Eric Donoval is in his fourth year serving as Director of Sports Performance for Cowboy Football and his sixth overall year at Wyoming. Donoval has been a member of the Wyoming Football strength and conditioning staff since January of 2018. He was the Associate Director of Sports Performance for Wyoming Football in 2018 and '19 before being promoted to the head position in January of 2020. In his current role, he oversees all strength and conditioning training for the Cowboy Football program, including supervising a staff of full-time assistants and graduate assistant coaches that work directly with football.

His first two years at Wyoming, Donoval was instrumental in working with the Cowboy Football skill positions, tailoring their strength and conditioning programs specifically to their position needs. During that time, he was very successful in helping Wyoming achieve bowl eligibility each of those two seasons and win the 2019 NOVA Home Loans Arizona Bowl Championship.

Donoval and his staff helped develop a Wyoming team that entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

In 2021, Donoval developed the Cowboys on way to a 7-6 season and a dominating 52-38 win over Kent State in the 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. It was Wyoming's third consecutive bowl victory. The 52 points were the most scored by a Wyoming team in school history.

Donoval came to Wyoming from Louisiana State University (LSU) where he was an Assistant Strength and Conditioning Coach for the LSU football program from 2013-17. He worked directly in training the Tiger defensive backs and wide receivers. Donoval also created and taught the speed workouts for the entire Tiger football team. He was the head of the Polar GPS monitoring system utilized by LSU football to monitor and evaluate student-athletes' physical activity during both training sessions and competitions. He worked with the highly-respected strength and conditioning coach, Tommy Moffitt, at LSU. Donoval and his staff also use the Polar GPS system at Wyoming to monitor the performance of Wyoming Cowboy Football student-athletes.

Donoval has had the opportunity to work with some elite athletes at both Wyoming and LSU. At Wyoming, he has trained a number of players who went on to the NFL. The most recent of those Cowboys was linebacker Chad Muma, who in 2021 earned Second Team All-America honors from both the Walter Camp Football Foundation and Pro Football Focus and received Third Team All-America recognition from Associated Press. He was also one of six national finalists for the Butkus Award. Muma was the Sixth Pick in the Third Round (70th overall) by the Jacksonville Jaguars in the 2022 NFL Draft. Among other former Cowboys who Donoval worked with who went on to the NFL were: Marcus Epps, Carl Granderson, Tyler Hall, Cassh Maluia, Logan Wilson and Andrew Wingard. Donoval also worked with a number of high NFL Draft picks at LSU, including: Jamal Adams, Odell Beckham Jr., Leonard Fournette, Jarvis Landry, Tyrann Mathieu, Patrick Peterson, Devin White and Tre'Davious White.

Prior to becoming a full-time assistant at LSU, Donoval served as a graduate assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Tigers starting in the summer of 2010 through 2012. He worked with the sports of football and baseball as a graduate assistant, while serving as the head strength coach for both women's volleyball and men's golf.

During his time at LSU, the Tigers won the Cotton Bowl at the conclusion of the 2010 season. LSU played in the BCS National Championship game following the 2011 season, finishing as the national runner-up to Alabama. In 2012, LSU appeared in the Chick-Fil-A Peach Bowl. The Tigers won the Outback Bowl following the 2013 season and appeared in the Music City Bowl in 2014. LSU captured the Texas Bowl Championship in 2015, won the Buffalo Wild Wings Citrus Bowl in 2016 and appeared in the Citrus Bowl following the 2017 season.

Donoval was a student strength and conditioning coach and mentor at his alma mater, Wisconsin-La Crosse, from January 2008 to April 2010 while completing his undergraduate degree.

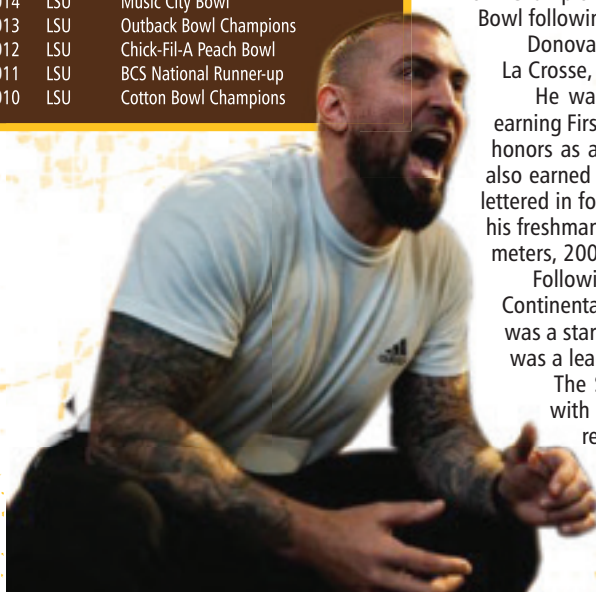

He was an accomplished college running back and return specialist at Wisconsin-La Crosse, earning First Team All-Conference honors as a return specialist and Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a running back as a senior in 2008. Donoval was named his team's MVP in 2008. He also earned Honorable Mention All-Conference honors as a return specialist as a junior in 2007. He lettered in football all four years (2005-08) at Wisconsin-La Crosse. He also lettered in track and field his freshman year of college before giving up that sport to focus on football. He competed in the 100 meters, 200 meters, 4 x 100-meter relay and 4 x 200-meter relay.

Following his college career, Donoval played football for the Wisconsin Wolfpack of the Continental Indoor Football League (CIFL) in Madison, Wis., from January 2009 to April 2010. He was a starting running back and slot receiver for the Wolfpack. Donoval led the CIFL in rushing and was a league MVP nominee in 2010.

The Sheboygan, Wis., native completed his bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science with a concentration in strength and conditioning from Wisconsin-La Crosse in 2010. He received his master's degree in kinesiology and sport pedagogy from LSU in 2012.

Donoval and his wife, Lindsay, have one daughter, Marli.

NICK FULTON

(Sioux Falls '04)

Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations

Nick Fulton was announced as Wyoming's new Associate Athletics Director for Football Operations in January 2022. He will be entering his fourth overall season as a part of the Cowboy Football staff, having also served as a graduate assistant coach at UW in 2010 and '11. Fulton will be entering his 19th year of college football coaching and administrative experience in the 2023 season.

Fulton grew up in Laramie where he was an outstanding high school football player. He went on to play collegiately at the University of Sioux Falls in Sioux Falls, S.D., earning All-Conference and Honorable Mention All-America honors as an offensive lineman. Prior to returning to Wyoming, he most recently was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Colorado Mesa University in Grand Junction, Colo.

He is responsible for a variety of administrative duties with the Cowboys, including planning team travel, monitoring the football budget, serving as a liaison with the UW Athletics academic counseling staff and helping coordinate a number of team functions.

Having worked for the Cowboy Football program previously as a graduate assistant and having grown up in Laramie, Fulton has an excellent understanding of Wyoming Football.

In his first season back with Cowboy Football, Fulton was part of a football staff that developed a team that entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

Fulton served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Colorado Mesa University in Grand Junction, Colo., in the COVID-shortened season of 2020. Prior to that, he was the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at the University of Northern Colorado in Greeley, Colo., for the 2019 season.

Fulton enjoyed a very successful four-year run at Colorado School of Mines from 2015-18. The Orediggers advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs in 2016 and 2018 and captured the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) Championship both seasons. During that four-year span in Golden, Colo., Mines posted records of 8-3 in 2015, 10-3 in 2016, 7-4 in 2017 and 10-2 in 2018.

In 2016, Mines posted a 10-3 record, were champions of the RMAC and advanced to the Second Round of the Division II Playoffs. Fulton coached 2016 Harlon Hill Award winner, quarterback Justin Dvorak. The Harlon Hill Award is presented to the NCAA Division II football player of the year each season. Fulton's offensive unit ranked No. 1 in the nation in total offense, averaging 566.8 yards per game, ranked No. 1 in the country in first downs (373), ranked No. 2 in passing offense (359.8 yards per game) and ranked No. 3 in scoring offense (47.5 points per game).

The 2018 Orediggers recorded a 10-2 record, won the RMAC Championship and advanced to the NCAA Division II Playoffs for the second time in three seasons. Mines' offense again led the nation in total offense, averaging 556.8 yards per game, ranked No. 2 in first downs (307) and passing offense (331.9 yards per game) and ranked No. 4 in the country in scoring offense (47.2 points per game).

Fulton also coached Harlon Hill Award candidate Cameron Mayberry at running back in 2017. Mayberry averaged 156.6 rushing yards per game that season to rank No. 3 in the nation in rushing, and he averaged 200.0 all-purpose yards per game to rank No. 3 in the nation in that category.

Prior to coaching at Colorado School of Mines, Fulton spent three seasons (2012-14) as the offensive coordinator, recruiting coordinator and football academic coordinator at Black Hills State University in Spearfish, S.D. While at Black Hills State, Fulton's offense set a school record for total offense in the 2014 season, averaging 433.3 yards per game, and quarterback Ward Anderson ranked No. 6 in the country in total offense (337.5 yards per game). Fulton coached the Yellow Jackets offensive linemen in 2012 and '13 and coached the quarterbacks in 2014.

Fulton was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Wyoming for the 2010 and '11 seasons. He worked primarily in assisting Wyoming's offensive coordinator in practices and games, including aiding in coaching Cowboy quarterbacks and wide receivers. On game days, Fulton was involved in signaling in offensive plays. In addition to his coaching duties, he also was actively involved in assisting Wyoming's recruiting coordinator in all aspects of the recruiting process. Fulton was part of a 2011 Cowboy team that finished the season with an 8-5 overall record and finished third in the Mountain West behind only TCU and Boise State. The 2011 Cowboys earned a bid to the 2011 New Mexico Bowl.

In the summer of 2006, Fulton was hired as an assistant coach at Doane College in Crete, Neb. For four seasons from 2006-09, Fulton served in several roles on the Doane staff including: offensive line/tight ends coach, interim director of football operations and head junior varsity coach. He coached nine offensive linemen who earned All-Conference honors at Crete.

Fulton's first college coaching job was at his alma mater, the University of Sioux Falls in Sioux Falls, S.D. He served as the offensive line coach for the Cougars for the 2005 season. Sioux Falls advanced to the semifinals of the 2005 NAIA Playoffs and finished the season ranked No. 4 in the national rankings. Upon graduating from Sioux Falls with a bachelor's degree in communications, Fulton served as an admissions counselor at Sioux Falls from July 2004 to August 2006.

Fulton played his college football at the University of Sioux Falls following his graduation from Laramie High School. He was a standout offensive lineman during his college career from 1999-2003. Fulton earned All-Conference and Honorable Mention All-America honors as an offensive lineman. He was part of three consecutive conference championship teams in 2001, '02 and '03 at the University of Sioux Falls. The 2001 team played in the NAIA National Championship Game in 2001, finishing as the national runner-up.

Fulton and his wife, Becki, were married in December of 2014. They have two young daughters, Gwenna and Mara.

Kirby O'Meara joined the Wyoming Football program as Director of Player Personnel in January of 2023. O'Meara came to Wyoming from the University of Central Florida (UCF). The 2023 season will be O'Meara's 10th working in college football.

O'Meara has been involved in college football recruiting since 2014. His most recent experience was as the Director of Player Personnel at UCF beginning in April of 2022. During the 2022 season, he was involved in assisting the Knight football coaches in all aspects of recruiting. He oversaw the identification and evaluation process of all recruiting prospects, assisted in planning and coordinating on-campus recruiting visits and events, managed the recruiting database for UCF Football and was heavily involved in roster management. UCF earned a bid to the 2022 Military Bowl.

Prior to his time at UCF, O'Meara spent four seasons as the Assistant Director of Player Personnel at the University of Florida from January of 2018 through December of 2021. Over that four-year span, he assisted in developing and implementing the action plan for the player personnel department. Among his duties were: evaluating potential prospects, building and managing the database of prospects broken down by coaches' recruiting areas and by prospects' positions, managing recruiting services for the department, hiring and overseeing student recruiting interns and assisting the coaching staff in the recruitment of prospects. During his time at Florida, the Gators won the Peach Bowl at the end of the 2018 season and won the Orange Bowl at the conclusion of the 2019 season. Florida also appeared in the Cotton Bowl in 2020 and the Gasparilla Bowl in 2021.

O'Meara began his college player personnel career at the University of Arkansas in 2014. He started out as a Recruiting Specialist for Razorback Football for three seasons from May of 2014 through March of 2017. He assisted in the evaluation and identification process of potential recruits, assisted in planning and coordinating official and unofficial visits on campus, helped coordinate the videotape on potential recruits for evaluation by the coaching staff and assisted in managing student interns.

In April of 2017, O'Meara was promoted to the position of Personnel Quality Control for Razorback Football, with increased responsibilities within the player personnel department. He served in that role for the 2017 season before moving on to the University of Florida in January of 2018. While he was at Arkansas, the Razorbacks won the Texas Bowl in 2014, won the Liberty Bowl in 2015 and participated in the Belk Bowl in 2016.

He also spent part of the summer of 2016 as a training camp scouting intern for the Jacksonville Jaguars of the NFL.

O'Meara earned his bachelor's degree in business administration with an emphasis in accounting and finance from the University of Central Arkansas in December of 2013. Prior to entering a career in college football, O'Meara worked in the accounting field following graduation through the time he joined the University of Arkansas football program in the summer of 2014.

O'Meara played college football at Central Arkansas from 2010-13 where he was the team's starting long snapper. He began his college career at TCU, redshirting his freshman season of 2009 before transferring to Central Arkansas. A native of Georgetown, Texas, he played his high school football at Georgetown High School.

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

SAMANTHA PATTEN

(Florida '20)

Director of On-Campus Recruiting

Samantha Patten was hired as Wyoming's Director of On-Campus Recruiting in August of 2022. Patten came to Wyoming after most recently serving as a recruiting intern for the University of Florida football program from 2018 to 2020.

At Wyoming, she works closely with the Cowboy coaching staff in coordinating on-campus visits by recruits and hosting recruits and their families while on campus. She also assists the Executive Director of Recruiting and Director of Player Personnel in helping manage all recruiting activities. Patten also assists in hosting special events for Cowboy Football.

Patten's position at the University of Florida in the summer of 2022 was as a football intern and recruiting analyst. She assisted in planning official and unofficial recruiting visits for prospective student-athletes. Patten helped host recruits and their families while on campus, including conducting tours of the Florida campus and the athletics facilities. She held that position from May to July of 2022 before accepting her full-time position with Wyoming Football.

Since graduating from Florida in August 2020, Patten has also gained valuable experience working in two different roles affiliated with the NFL. From September 2021 to April 2022, Patten worked as a coaching and personnel intern with Athletes First, which is one of the most prestigious agencies representing NFL players, coaches, administrative personnel and broadcasters. She attended the 2022 NFL Combine, assisting with setup of the venue and registration. Patten helped create personalized graphics and presentations for clients and was involved in data analysis and execution of other creative materials. She specifically assisted in planning and creating head-coaching interview presentations for Chicago Bears head coach Matt Eberflus.

Patten's other NFL experience was working as a member of the Jacksonville Jaguars' game-day event and entertainment staff from August 2021 to January 2022. She assisted with the Fan Entertainment Zone, coordinating with corporate sponsors on set up and breakdown. During home games, Patten served on the field as a liaison to pre-game and halftime performers. She also engaged with fans to help ensure their overall positive game-day experience.

From December 2020 to June 2021, Patten gained experience as a game operations and marketing intern with the Orlando Solar Bears, a minor-league hockey team affiliated with the Tampa Bay Lightning of the NHL. She helped create and organize all in-game promotions and intermission contests, as well as assisted in planning and implementation of other special events and promotions for the team. Patten was also involved with management of the Solar Bears Twitter account during games.

As an undergraduate at the University of Florida, Patten was a recruiting and administrative assistant with Gator Football from January 2018 to May 2020. She assisted in updating information on prospective student-athletes for use by the Florida recruiting and coaching staffs as they evaluated potential recruits. Patten helped in organizing recruiting events for prospects and their families, and she helped design and create recruiting materials that focused on the various academic programs available at the University of Florida. She was also a Gator Football Ambassador from January 2017 to January 2018, helping host prospects and their families on game days.

Patten earned her bachelor of science degree in advertising, with a concentration in art studies and graphic design from Florida in August 2020.

SUPPORT STAFF

JAKE CHAPMAN

Director of Recruiting Operations/Video Coordinator

Jake Chapman is entering his 10th year as a member of the Wyoming Football staff in 2023. He accepted the additional responsibility of serving as Director of Recruiting Operations for the Wyoming Football program in the Spring of 2019. Chapman will provide technical support to the recruiting efforts of Cowboy Football, while continuing to serve as the Video Coordinator for the UW football program.

Chapman originally joined the Wyoming Athletics Department in January of 2014 as video coordinator for Cowboy Football. Chapman coordinates filming of all practice and game footage for Wyoming Football, and supervises a group of student filmers. He is proficient in utilizing XOS Thunder and DragonFly Software for editing practice footage. He posts edited video footage with the use of XOS ThunderCloud iPad software and makes that footage available to members of the Wyoming Football coaching staff and players for film study. Chapman also coordinates recruiting video on potential recruits, which is utilized by the Cowboy coaching staff in all recruiting efforts. He provides video content for a variety of recruiting events during the year. Management of UW Football meeting rooms is one of Chapman's other responsibilities. He also assists television networks when they arrive on campus by providing video footage for review by TV announce crews.

Prior to Wyoming, Chapman served as the football video coordinator at North Dakota State from 2012 through 2013. His responsibilities at NDSU mirrored those he performs as video coordinator at Wyoming. In addition, Chapman helped conduct facility and campus tours and assisted with coordinating recruit visit schedules for coaches.

Chapman's first video coordinator position came while he was a student at Ohio University. He served as the football video coordinator from 2009-12.

In 2011, Chapman served as a ballpark operations intern at Goodyear Ballpark in Goodyear, Ariz. His initial work in minor-league baseball came as director of player operations and equipment manager for the Southern Ohio Copperheads from 2009-10.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sport management with minors in business administration and economics from Ohio U. in 2012.

DAVID KERNS

Head Football Athletic Trainer

David Kerns was hired as Head Athletic Trainer for Wyoming Football in the spring of 2019. The 2023 season will mark his fifth year at Wyoming and his 39th working as an athletic trainer at the collegiate level. Kerns will oversee all athletic training operations for Cowboy Football, including supervising a staff of full-time athletic trainers and a group of student interns who will work directly with the football team.

He has been a Board of Certification (BOC) certified athletic trainer since 1985.

Kerns will work with student-athletes to help prevent, identify, manage and rehabilitate injuries, while also collaborating with Wyoming Football team physicians to provide the best medical care for UW student-athletes.

For 25 years from 1994-2018, Kerns served as head football athletic trainer at West Virginia University in Morgantown, W.Va. In addition to serving as the head football athletic trainer at West Virginia, Kerns also was a classroom and clinical instructor for the Athletic Training Approved Curriculum Program in the WVU College of Physical Activity and Sport Sciences.

Before joining the West Virginia Athletics Department, Kerns was an Assistant Athletic Trainer and Instructor at Ohio University for seven years from 1987-94. While his title was Assistant Athletic Trainer, he served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Bobcat Football team.

He began at Ohio U. as a graduate assistant athletic trainer from 1985 to 1987, working with the men's basketball team.

Kerns earned his bachelor's degree in health and physical education with an emphasis in athletic training from Penn State in January 1984. He also received his teaching certificate upon his graduation. He worked as the head athletic trainer at Redland High School in Lewisberry, Pa., for the 1984-85 academic year before entering graduate school at Ohio U. in 1985. Kerns completed his master's degree in physical education with a specialization in athletic training from Ohio in 1987.

Throughout his career, he has made numerous presentations at the state and district levels and has served on several National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) committees.

Kerns is originally from Harrisburg, Pa. His wife is Kelly Kerns.

HALEY WALSH

Cowboy Football Office Manager

Haley Walsh is entering her 13th year as office manager for the Wyoming Football program, having joined the athletic department in June of 2011.

As one of the first staff members that visitors to the Wyoming Football program meet, Walsh is an important contributor in projecting a positive image for Cowboy Football. Included in her responsibilities are: helping coordinate coaches' travel, handling financial transactions for the program, assisting in preparing materials for practice preparation, maintaining coaches' schedules, aiding with recruiting, maintaining information on players and coaches and helping with summer camps.

Walsh came to the Cowboy Football program from the University of Wyoming Foundation where she worked from October of 2009 until June 2011. While at the UW Foundation, she was an administrative assistant to the major gift officers. Prior to that, she worked for the City Engineer in Sheridan, Wyo. for one year, and worked at the Albany County Clerk's Office in Laramie, Wyo., from 2003-08 as an election clerk.

Walsh is a 2001 graduate of Laramie High School. In December of 2019, she completed her bachelor's degree in general studies from the University of Wyoming. Walsh grew up on her family's ranch west of Laramie. Her husband, J.T. Walsh, is also a Laramie native and a graduate of the University of Wyoming. He is a local realtor.

2023 WYOMING COACHES

COWBOY COACHES

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

TAYLOR LUCAS

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Taylor Lucas will begin his second season as an offensive graduate assistant with Wyoming Football in 2023. Lucas came to Wyoming after serving as the offensive coordinator and coaching the offensive line at his alma mater, the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point (UWSP) for the 2021 season. Wisconsin-Stevens Point competes at the NCAA Division III level.

In his first season with Cowboy Football, he was part of a football staff that developed a team that entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

Before returning to Wisconsin-Stevens Point, Lucas coached at Saint Anselm College in Manchester, N.H. He coached at the NCAA Division II school for three seasons from 2018-20. Lucas was the offensive line coach and recruiting coordinator for the Hawks. During his time at Saint Anselm, he coached a pair of NE10 All-Conference selections in Alex Casey and Brian Kosicki.

Prior to coaching at Saint Anselm, Lucas spent two years (2016-17) at NCAA Division III Carroll University in Waukesha, Wis., where he coached the tight ends and fullbacks. He also assisted the offensive coordinator and offensive line coach and served as the Academic Coordinator for the Pioneers, overseeing study tables as well as academic meetings. Under Lucas' oversight, the team GPA of the Pioneers hit a record 3.005 in the Spring 2017 semester.

Upon graduation from college and before joining the Carroll coaching staff, Lucas spent the spring semester of 2016 assisting UWSP with game day operations while assisting the football staff.

Lucas was a four-year starter on the offensive line for the UWSP Pointers from 2012 to 2015. He was the first two-time Academic All-America selection in the UWSP football history, earning the honor in 2014 and 2015. He was a three-time recipient of Academic All-District honors. Lucas was named a team captain for UWSP his senior season of 2015, and he was a key contributor to the Pointers 2014 team that was nationally ranked.

A native of Brookfield, Wis., Lucas graduated from UWSP in December 2015 with a degree in business administration. He completed his MBA at Carroll in 2018.

AUSTIN MAUS

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Austin Maus will be serving as a Wyoming graduate assistant for his third consecutive year in 2023. Maus was the Offensive Quality Control Graduate Assistant for Wyoming in 2021 and has been the Offensive Graduate Assistant Coach in 2022 and '23.

As an offensive graduate assistant, Maus assists players in skill development, breaks down weekly opponent film, leads scout team meetings with Wyoming's scout team players and coaches them during practice to simulate opponents' plays. He also helps create opponent scouting reports, generates practice scripts and daily drawings for position groups, participates in game-plan meetings with the coaching staff each week and meets with prospective student-athletes on recruiting visits.

In 2022, he was part of a Wyoming football staff that developed a team that entered the 2022 college football season as the fourth youngest team in the country but went on to record a 7-6 record, finish second in the Mountain West Conference Mountain Division and earn a spot in the Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl. Along the way the '22 Pokes defeated rivals Air Force, Colorado State, Hawai'i, Utah State and American Athletic Conference member Tulsa. Wyoming's 7-6 record gave them their fifth winning season in the past seven seasons.

In 2021, Maus assisted the tight ends/fullbacks coach in practice preparation, creating practice plans and compiling scouting materials on upcoming opponents to provide to the Cowboy coaching staff as they prepared game plans. Maus was also involved in providing information to the coaching staff on game days.

The 2021 Wyoming Cowboys posted a 7-6 record and won their third consecutive bowl game, with a convincing 52-38 win over Kent State in the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. The 52 points scored in the bowl victory was a school record for a bowl game. Wyoming scored 40 or more points four times during the season in victories at Northern Illinois (50 points), vs. Ball State (45), at eventual MW champion Utah State (44) and vs. Kent State.

Before coming to Wyoming in 2021, Maus was a recruiting assistant with the University of Iowa football program from August 2017 to March 2019 and then became a student assistant with Hawkeye Football from March 2019 through June 2021.

Maus earned his bachelor's degree in management with a minor in sports and recreation management from Iowa in May 2021.

DARIAN MEDRAN

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Darian Medran joined the Wyoming football staff in the summer of 2023 as a Defensive Graduate Assistant. He will work with the Cowboy defensive coaching staff in helping players in skill development, will break down weekly opponent film, lead scout team meetings with Wyoming's scout team players and coach them during practice to simulate opponents' plays. He will also help create opponent scouting reports, generate practice scripts and daily drawings for position groups, participate in game-plan meetings with the coaching staff each week and meet with prospective student-athletes on recruiting visits.

Medran came to Wyoming from Sam Houston State University where he served as a graduate assistant in 2022, working with linebackers and defensive backs. He also was the co-video coordinator for the football team in '22. His duties included: helping organize and conduct practices; coaching the scout team; assist in coaching linebackers, defensive backs and special teams; helping produce scouting reports and playbooks; assisting in recruiting efforts; and organizing the football filming staff.

From 2019-21, Medran served as a defensive and recruiting student assistant at Sam Houston State. During his time at Sam Houston State, the Bearcats won the 2020 FCS National Championship. In 2021, Sam Houston State began its two-year transition to the FBS level and captured the Western Athletic Conference (WAC) championship. Sam Houston becomes a member of Conference USA in 2023.

Before working at Sam Houston State, Medran served as a recruiting and equipment intern at the University of Miami in Florida from 2017-19.

Medran earned his bachelor's degree in animal science from Sam Houston State.

As a junior in 2021, Wade was named First Team All-State Class 1A as presented by CHSAANow.com, ColoradoPreps.com and MaxPreps and voted on by head coaches across the state. A four-year starter at Wray High School, Wade completed his high school career with 223 total tackles, including 101 solo tackles, 54.5 tackles for loss, 28.5 sacks, 13 quarterback hurries, seven forced fumbles, five fumble recoveries, six pass breakups and three blocked punts. His senior season, he made 78 tackles, of which 25 were solo stops, 19.0 TFLs, 8.5 sacks, three QB hurries, two forced fumbles and three fumble recoveries. Wade had 55 pancake blocks as an offensive tackle and scored two touchdowns as a senior. He led Wray High School to a 9-4 record his senior season as Wray advanced all the way to the Colorado Class 1A State Championship Game before finishing as the runner-up. Wade placed second in the 285-pound weight class at the 2022 Colorado Class 2A State Wrestling Championships. He played for head football coach Levi Kramer. Wade was also recruited by Air Force, Colorado State and New Mexico State.

WYATT WALTERS

OL 6-4 290 FR. AURORA, COLO. (GRANDVIEW)

Wyatt Walters was selected to the 2022 Second Team All-State Class 5A team as presented by CHSAANow.com, ColoradoPreps.com and MaxPreps. Class 5A is the largest classification in Colorado. He also earned First Team All-Centennial League honors as an offensive lineman in 2022. In Grandview's final regular-season game of the '22 season, the Wolves upset No. 1 ranked and eventual state champion Cherry Creek, which gave the Wolves a share of the Centennial League Championship with Cherry Creek and Arapahoe. Walters helped lead Grandview High to a 9-3 overall record, and a No. 4 seed in the 2022 Colorado Class 5A State Playoffs where the Wolves advanced to the quarterfinals. Walters played for head football coach Tom Doherty. Walters was also recruited by New Mexico State.

JAYDEN WILLIAMS

DT 6-3 270 FR. BRYAN, TEXAS (RUDDER)

Jayden Williams earned Second Team All-District honors as a defensive lineman his senior season of 2022. His senior season, Williams was credited with 78 total tackles, including 11.5 sacks, 5.0 tackles for loss, one fumble recovery and one pass breakup. An outstanding athlete, Williams began his high school career as a linebacker before switching to the defensive line where he was voted a team captain. A three-sport standout, Williams also competes for the Rudder High wrestling team and he throws the shot put and discus on the track and field team in the spring. In the winter of 2022, Williams placed fourth in the heavyweight division at the Region 3-5A regional tournament and advanced to the Class 5A state championships. He played for head football coach Eric Ezar at Rudder High School. Williams was also recruited by UTEP and Washington State.

ILLINOIS RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys fell to the Illinois Fighting Illini in the season opener on Saturday by a score of 38-6 in Memorial Stadium in Champaign, Illinois. It marked Wyoming's first loss in a non-conference season opener since falling to Iowa in 2017. The contest saw 19 new players make their debuts and nine of those make their first career starts.

"We came into the contest with a plan to win, but we didn't execute," UW head coach Craig Bohl said. "Illinois had some playmakers make plays. To beat a Big Ten team, you need to be ahead in the turnover margin, and we didn't do that. We have to work on things to get better and move forward. This will be a learning experience for us, and our guys will band together."

Illinois held the Pokes to 222 yards of total offense. The Fighting Illini offense added 475 yards rushing for 260 yards and passing for 215. Illinois held a 36:36-23:24 advantage in time of possession.

The Cowboy offense was paced by Titus Swen with 98 yards rushing on 17 carries. Quarterback Andrew Peasley rushed for 76 yards and was 6-of-21 passing for 40 yards. Joshua Cobbs added two catches for 14 yards.

The defense was led by linebacker Easton Gibbs with nine tackles. Nose tackle Cole Godbout added seven tackles and one tackle for loss. DeVonne Harris, a defensive end added a career-high six tackles with a tackle for loss. In his first start, linebacker Shae Suaionoa added six tackles for his career high. Wyatt Ekeler added six tackles as well for a career high.

Kicker John Hoyland added a pair of field goals including a career-best 46 yarder.

Illinois got on the board first using a 60-yard kickoff return by Peyton Vinning to set up a two-play drive that ended in a Tommy DeVito touchdown pass to Chase Brown from 14 yards 41 seconds into the contest.

The Cowboy defense settled from their as the Wyoming offense tacked on a field goal from John Hoyland from 22-yards for a 7-3 contest in the closing minute of the first quarter. The drive was set up by a trio of runs. Swen added an 11-yard rush followed by a 17-yard and 37-yard rush from Peasley.

The Illini took a 14-7 advantage in the second quarter on a 11-yard run from Brown with 8:12 left in the first half. Illinois would add a field goal by Caleb Griffin from 27-yards for a 17-7 lead with 4:33 left in the frame. It was paced by an Illini interception returned into Cowboy territory.

The Pokes opened the second half with a field goal for a 17-6 contest for Illinois. This time a career long from Hoyland from 46-yards. The first drive of the frame saw Swen open with a 25-yard scamper. He also added an 11-yard carry, as Treyton Welch and Will Pelissier add a catch on the drive.

Illinois made it a 24-6 contest with 2:56 left in the third quarter on a 11-play, 78-yard drive. The tally was a pass from DeVito to Pat Bryant from six yards. The score was set up by a ground game for the Illini rushing for 31 yards.

The Cowboys went for it on fourth down but were stopped by Illinois. The Fighting Illinois responded with another score to take a 31-6 lead in the opening seconds of the fourth quarter. Brown found the endzone from five yards for his second score of the day.

The Illini added another score in the fourth quarter and took the contest 38-6.

The Illini were led by running back Chase Brown with 151 yards rushing and two touchdowns. Quarterback Tommy DeVito added 192 yards passing going 27-of-37 with two touchdowns.

TULSA RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys excelled in all three phases of Saturday's home opener against the Tulsa Golden Hurricane. Wyoming scored a defensive touchdown, blocked a punt for a touchdown and scored two offensive touchdowns plus place-kicker John Hoyland made a career long 55-yard field goal and tied a career high with four made field goals, including the game winner in the second overtime as Wyoming captured a 40-37 double overtime thriller.

Offensively, Cowboy quarterback Andrew Peasley had an outstanding day, completing 20 of 30 passes (66.7 percent) for 256 yards, two TD passes and no interceptions. Peasley also led Wyoming in rushing with 45 yards and accounted for 301 yards of total offense. He threw a touchdown pass of 48 yards to wide receiver Will Pelissier in the second quarter to give Wyoming a 17-13 lead, and he threw a 51-yard TD to wideout Joshua Cobbs in the fourth quarter to tie the game at 34-34 and force overtime. Cobbs set a new career high in receiving yards with 77 yards on five catches. Pelissier set career highs in both receptions (3) and receiving yards (67). Fullback/tight end Parker Christensen added four catches for 45 yards, which were both career highs for him. Eight different Cowboys caught passes from Peasley on the day. UW running back Titus Swen added 40 yards rushing on Saturday. The Pokes used four different running backs in the game as Dawaiian McNeely, D.Q. James and Joey Braasch all joined Swen in carrying the ball.

Wyoming's defense got the Cowboys off to a fast start as the game began with a big play by defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole and safety Miles Williams. The two Cowboys put pressure on Tulsa quarterback Davis Brin on the second play of the game at the Tulsa 28-yard line. Bertagnole punched the ball out of Brin's hands and the ball bounded into the end zone and was recovered by Cowboy linebacker Easton Gibbs for a touchdown. Place-kicker John Hoyland added the extra point and Wyoming had a 7-0 lead only 37 seconds into the game. Gibbs would lead the Pokes in tackles on the day with eight. His running mate at linebacker, Shae Suaiaunoa was credited with seven tackles and had a huge sack in the second overtime. Nickel back Keonte Glington recorded six tackles, one fumble recovery and three pass breakups, including a critical pass breakup on Tulsa's final possession in the second overtime to force the Golden Hurricane into a field-goal attempt that was unsuccessful and gave Wyoming it's 40-37 victory.

Saturday's game marked the first time since a Sept. 30, 2017, Wyoming home win over Texas State (45-10) that Wyoming scored a touchdown on offense, defense and special teams. Wyoming's special teams' touchdown came in the third quarter when Cowboy wide receiver Ryan Marquez blocked a Tulsa punt and then picked up the blocked punt and returned it nine yards for a TD.

NORTHERN COLORADO

RECAP

RECAP: For the second straight week, all three phases of the Wyoming Cowboy Football team played critical roles in capturing a home victory. Wyoming was fueled by three turnovers from its defense that also held Northern Colorado to 147 yards of total offense, including only 15 rushing yards. The Wyoming special teams were led by place-kicker John Hoyland, who made four field goals for the second consecutive week to tie a career high, and the Cowboy offense featured an extremely balanced attack, rushing for 149 yards and passing for 144 for a total of 293 yards of total offense. In the end, the Cowboys recorded a 33-10 win to improve to 2-1 on the season. Northern Colorado fell to 0-2.

Wyoming's outstanding defense was led by linebacker Easton Gibbs, who totalled nine tackles, 2.0 tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and two quarterback hurries. His running mate at linebacker, Shae Suiaunoa, tallied a career high eight tackles, 1.0 sack, 1.0 tackle for loss, one quarterback hurry and the first pass interception of his career. Safety Wyatt Ekeler added five tackles and a fumble recovery. Ekeler's fumble recovery was caused by his fellow safety Miles Williams, who also added three tackles. Defensive end Oluwaseyi Omotosho had a career high 3.0 sacks and forced one fumble. Omotosho is the first Cowboy to record 3.0 sacks in a single game since former Cowboy linebacker and current Jacksonville Jaguar Chad Muma had 3.0 sacks against UNLV in 2020. Cornerback Cam Stone intercepted the first pass of his career to go with a pass breakup and one quarterback hurry.

On offense, junior running back Titus Swen rushed for 76 yards on 15 carries and scored a career high three rushing touchdowns. He was joined by running backs Dawaiian McNeely, with 48 rushing yards, and Joey Braasch, with 38. Cowboy quarterback Andrew Peasley completed 63.3 percent of his passes (19 of 30) for his second straight game completing over 60 percent of his pass attempts. Peasley threw for 144 yards and once again spread the ball around to eight different receivers. One of those receivers, Wyatt Wieland, caught a career high five passes for a career best 53 yards. Wide receiver Joshua Cobbs and fullback/tight end Parker Christensen each added five catches for 44 and 31 yards, respectively.

On special teams, place-kicker Hoyland was not only a perfect 4 for 4 in field goals on the day, but he also was a perfect 3 for 3 in PATs and scored a total of 15 of Wyoming's 33 points. Cowboy punter Clayton Stewart averaged an amazing 48.5 yards per punt on four punts.

"This game didn't turn out the way I thought it would, but I was glad we got some separation at the end," said Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl at his postgame press conference. "There were some really good things we did. I thought our defensive guys did really well. We got good pressure on the quarterback.

"There was some resolve (among our guys), and there's things to improve. John Hoyland continues to be money, and we are excited about that.

"I'm glad we were able to pull away in the end. What you have (against an FCS opponent) is an opportunity for (their) players to show they belong on a different stage. You're going to get max effort, and we told our guys that. We anticipated that today and certainly got that (from Northern Colorado).

I know they talk about having a prolific passing game (at UNC), which I think they do, but we were able to make them one dimensional. If you can shut the run down, then you have so many more tools in your toolbox. That was going to be critical for us. They were constantly behind the sticks and then our defensive linemen were able to pin their ears back and get some pressure. I don't know how many times we hit the quarterback, but it was countless times."

AIR FORCE RECAP

RECAP: From their first possession of Friday night's game, the Wyoming Cowboys showed they were determined to play their best football of the season and they did just that, winning their third straight game by capturing a 17-14 win over the previously unbeaten Air Force Falcons.

The Cowboy offense out gained the Falcons on both the ground and through the air on Friday night. Wyoming accounted for 180 rushing yards to Air Force's 171. The Cowboys threw for 162 yards to Air Force's 101. Wyoming also converted 6 of 11 third-down attempts and won the all-important time of possession battle when playing the Falcons, holding the ball for 30 minutes and 34 seconds to Air Force's 29 minutes and 26 seconds.

Facing an Air Force rushing attack that entered the game ranked No. 1 in the nation, averaging 508.5 yards per game, the Cowboy defense held the Falcons to 171 rushing yards -- 337.5 yards under their average.

There were plenty of individual accolades to pass around for the Pokes. Middle linebacker and defensive captain Easton Gibbs did not start the game after suffering with flu-like symptoms Thursday night and into Friday. Although he didn't start the game, he came in early in the first quarter and ended the day with six tackles and 1.0 tackle for a loss. His fellow defensive captain, nose tackle Cole Godbout, led all players in the game with nine tackles, had 1.0 tackle for loss and two quarterback hurries. Redshirt freshman defensive end Braden Siders had the best game of his young career with six tackles, and defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole also made six tackles. Redshirt freshman linebacker Read Sunn, who started in place of Gibbs, contributed four tackles against the Falcons.

Cowboy running back Titus Swen recorded his first 100-yard rushing game of the season and the fourth of his career with 102 rushing yards. Swen scored the winning touchdown with 6:06 remaining in the game on a five-yard run where he would not be stopped -- forcing his way into the end zone with the help of his teammates who pushed the Air Force defense back over the goal line. Swen also had a huge run on Wyoming's final possession of the game. Facing a third and 13 at the Wyoming 29-yard line, Swen cut back to his right and out ran the Air Force defense for a 17-yard gain and a first down. That play and a play later in the drive when his running back mate, Dawaiian McNeely, gained three yards on a third and two at the Air Force 46 enabled the Wyoming offense to run out the final 4 minutes and 47 seconds of the game and prevented Air Force from getting the ball back.

Quarterback Andrew Peasley played another exceptional game for the Cowboys. He completed 18 of 23 passes for a 78.3 completion percentage, 162 yards, one touchdown pass and one interception. It marked the third consecutive game this season that Peasley completed over 60 percent of his passes. He completed 20 of 30 passes (66.7 percent) in a win over Tulsa and 19 of 30 passes (63.3 percent) against Northern Colorado in a home victory. It marks the first time a Cowboy quarterback has completed over 60 percent of his passes in three consecutive games since Cameron Coffman accomplished that in 2015 against Washington State, New Mexico and Appalachian State.

The Wyoming Cowboys played a near perfect first half. Wyoming's defense held Air Force to only 87 yards of total offense and only 47 rushing yards, while the Cowboy offense generated 183 total yards in the first half, including 111 rushing yards and 72 passing yards.

BYU RECAP

RECAP: The Cowboys (3-2 overall) dropped a 38-24 decision at longtime rival No. 19 BYU on Saturday evening in Lavelle Edwards Stadium in Provo, Utah in the first meeting between the schools since the 2016 season. The Pokes led in the second quarter, but a score until a late first half score by the Cougars propelled BYU to the victory.

"We had had a competitive first half and to beat BYU on the road we need to be able to stay on the field," UW head coach Craig Bohl said. Defensively we need to play and go after contested balls. We need to tackle better, and some of that has to do with BYU's ability. This is a hostile environment and is a tough place to play. We will hang together as a football team and get ready for San Jose State in War Memorial Stadium next week."

The Pokes were held to 278 yards of total offense in the game with the Cougar offense adding 525 yards for the game. BYU did their damage through the air with 337 passing yards and only 188 yards on the ground. The Pokes rushed for 124 yards and passed for 154 yards. BYU recorded

Wyoming was led by running back Titus Swen with 78 yards on 20 carries. Wide receiver Wyatt Wieland grabbed two catches for 27 yards and had three rushes with one touchdown. Quarterback Andrew Peasley was 14-of-27 passing for 154 yards tying a career best with two touchdown passes. Wide receiver Josh Cobbs added four catches for 64 yards and a touchdown. Tight end Treyton Welch also added a touchdown in the contest.

The Cowboy defense was paced by safety Issac White with a season-high seven tackles. Defensive tackles Jordan Bertagnole added seven tackles as well coming one shy of his career high of eight. Cole Godbout also added seven tackles and had 2.5 tackles for loss and is one more tackle from loss to moving into the top-10 in UW history.

The Cougars were led by Hall with 337 yards passing going 26-of-32 with four touchdowns. Running back Miles Davis rushed for 131 yards on the night with Hill Grabbing five catches for 160 yards and two touchdowns. Defensive back Micah Harper added six tackles to lead the Cougars.

SAN JOSE STATE RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys entered Saturday night's home game versus San Jose State riding a three-game home winning streak, but that came to an end with a 33-16 loss at the hands of the Spartans. The loss evens Wyoming's record at 3-3 overall and 1-1 in the Mountain West Conference. San Jose State improved to 3-1 overall and 1-0 in the Mountain West.

Wyoming took an early lead when the Cowboy defense forced San Jose State into a three-and-out on its first series and the Cowboys took over at their own 39-yard line following a Spartan punt. Wyoming starting quarterback Andrew Peasley was forced out for a couple plays on the first series after taking a hard hit on his first play of the game. Back-up quarterback Jayden Clemons came in and completed a 25-yard pass to wide receiver Joshua Cobbs on a third-and-three, moving the ball down to the San Jose State 29-yard line. After a five-yard run by Swen that took the ball to the 24, place-kicker John Hoyland came in and kicked a 42-yard field goal to give the Pokes a 3-0 lead.

It marked the fifth straight game that Wyoming scored on its first offensive possession of a game.

But the Cowboy offense was challenged throughout the night by a talented San Jose State defense that held the Pokes to 253 yards of total offense (143 rushing and 110 passing), while the Spartan offense was able to generate 456 yards of total offense (142 rushing and 314 passing).

Peasley accounted for 159 yards of total offense (74 rushing and 85 passing) for the Cowboys and threw two touchdown passes of 38 yards to wide receiver Wyatt Wieland and 13 yards to tight end Parker Christensen. Running back Titus Swen added 61 rushing yards. On defense, linebacker Easton Gibbs made 11 tackles for his eighth career double-figure tackle game. Nickel back Keonte Glinton had a career high nine tackles, and safety Wyatt Ekeler added a career high seven tackles. The Pokes were able to create pressure on San Jose State quarterback Chevan Cordeiro, with 10 hurries and 2.0 sacks, but in the end it wasn't enough.

"I think that's an excellent San Jose State team," said Wyoming head coach Craig Bohl in his postgame press conference. "There are certainly things we could have done better tonight. We could have coached better. The players could have played better.

"I was concerned coming into this game. We had a lot of guys that were banged up. Their defensive front, they were much more impressive than on tape. There's a bunch of NFL guys on that front four.

"We had a hard time with some contested balls and that seems to be a broken record. Typically, where we were able to get some movement up front with our offensive line, we got taken to the woodshed.

"It's a disappointing loss, but that's a good football team (San Jose State).

"We got beat on offense. We got beat on defense. We came out ahead in the kicking game, but that's not enough to beat a good football team. It was a rough night. As a coach, I have to encourage these guys to stay in the fight. I don't think there's going to be a quit in them. But we've got to bounce back. There's a lot to play for. We have to get ready for New Mexico on the road."

NEW MEXICO RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys (4-3 overall, 2-1 MW) erased an early 14-0 hole in 27-14 win over New Mexico in University Stadium in Albuquerque, N.M. on Saturday evening. It marked the Cowboys third comeback victory of the season with the Cowboy defense holding the Lobos to under 100 yards of offense in the second half.

“It was a huge win for us tonight and it is tough to win here at New Mexico, UW Head coach Craig Bohl said. We overcame adversity tonight. We hunkered down on defense and made some plays on offense, and it is great to win on the road. Our guys have really hung in there after the start, and we started the second half strong and that was a tipping point. We are young and had some untimely things happen, but we came back strong and will fix those. We need the bye week and have played weeks of hard nose football.”

The Cowboys recorded 304 yards of total offense on the night passing for 174 yards and rushing for 130 yards. The Lobos recorded 319 yards of total offense with 197 yards on the ground and 122 yards passing. Wyoming forced three turnovers in the contest and held the Lobos to 2-of-13 on third down.

Wyoming was led offensively by quarterback Andrew Peasley as he threw for 174 yards on 10-of-21 passing with two touchdowns. Tight end Treyton Welch had a career day with 87 yards receiving on four catches with a career-high two touchdowns. Running back Dawaiian McNeely rushed for a career-high 62 yards. Running back Titus Swen added 50 yards rushing and 43 yards receiving.

The Wyoming defense was paced by linebacker Easton Gibbs with 13 tackles tying a career best. Nickel Wrook Brown in his first start recorded a career-high 10 tackles. Defensive tackle Gavin Meyer added six tackles along with two sacks in the contest. He also blocked a field goal. Corners Cameron Stone and Jakorey Hawkins added interceptions in the contest.

The Lobos were led by Kendrick offensively with 107 yards passing going 11-of-17. He also rushed for 72 yards in the game. Cody Moon led the Lobo defense with nine tackles on the night.

UTAH STATE RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys led from start to finish on Saturday night to win their fifth game of the season in a 28-14 home victory over Utah State on Homecoming. A crowd of 21,420 saw the Cowboys improve to 5-3 overall and 3-1 in the Mountain West to take sole possession of second place in the Mountain Division. Utah State is now 3-5 and 2-2 in the Mountain West.

The Cowboy offense exploded for 529 yards of total offense, which is the most this season for the Pokes and the most since UW totaled 531 yards in a 52-38 win over Kent State in last year's Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. It was the most yards of total offense for the Cowboys in a conference game since tallying 604 yards of total offense against Utah State in 2021 in a 44-17 road win in Logan, Utah.

Defensively, Wyoming held the Aggies to 217 yards of total offense, which was the second lowest offensive output by an opponent this year -- second only to Northern Colorado's 147 total yards.

Wyoming won the Bridger Rifle traveling trophy for the fourth time since the traveling trophy was established in 2013. The Bridger's Battle portion of the series between the Cowboys and Aggies now stands at 5-4 in favor of Utah State. Wyoming has won four of the last six meetings between the two long-time rivals in a series that dates back to 1903. Wyoming is now 48-46-3 in Homecoming games and is 43-27-2 in Homecoming games played in War Memorial Stadium.

The Wyoming offense was fueled by two 100-yard rushers in Titus Swen, who rushed for 160 yards and D.Q. James, who ran for 120. It was Swen's fifth 100-yard rushing game of his career. His only two better games were a 169-yard rushing performance at Utah State a year ago and a 166-yard game against Colorado State in 2021. For James, it was the first 100-yard rushing game of his career. Swen also rushed for a career best three touchdowns on the night, and he added a two-point conversion following UW's final TD for a total of 20 points in the game. He previously scored three rushing TDs against Northern Colorado earlier this season.

Cowboy junior quarterback Andrew Peasley completed 13 of 26 passes for 199 yards. He added 29 rushing yards for 228 yards of total offense. His favorite target on the night was wide receiver Wyatt Wieland, who caught a career high six passes for a career best 94 yards.

On defense, the Cowboys recorded 6.0 sacks and 11.0 tackles for loss led by defensive end DeVonne Harris, who recorded 3.0 sacks and defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole, who was credited with 1.0 sack and nine tackles. Bertagnole and middle linebacker Easton Gibbs both registered nine tackles to lead Wyoming. Safety Wyatt Ekeler intercepted Utah State quarterback Bishop Davenport to create Wyoming's one takeaway on the night. It was the first interception of Ekeler's career. The Cowboys committed only one turnover when Wieland muffed a punt in the second quarter that was recovered by USU's Jamie Nance.

HAWAI'I RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys earned their sixth win of the 2022 season on Saturday with a 27-20 road victory over the Hawai'i Rainbow Warriors, and with that sixth win earned bowl eligibility for the sixth time in the past seven seasons.

The Cowboys' victory on Saturday night was fueled by an outstanding rushing attack and a defense that made numerous key plays at critical moments in the game. UW rushed for 365 yards, which was a season high and marked the second consecutive week the Pokes rushed for over 300 yards. UW rushed for 330 against Utah State a week ago. Wyoming added 76 passing yards for 441 yards of total offense, and the Pokes averaged 7.5 yards per play on 59 total offensive plays.

Against Hawai'i, four different Cowboy running backs contributed. Junior starter Titus Swen carried five times for 14 yards before he was forced out of the game at the end of the first quarter due to injury. Redshirt freshman D.Q. James came in to lead UW with a career high 179 rushing yards. It was the second consecutive week that James rushed for over 100 yards. He had 120 a week ago against Utah State. Sophomore Dawaiian McNeely added a career best 81 yards on only four carries, including a 61-yard TD dash in the fourth quarter that gave Wyoming a lead that it would never relinquish. Junior quarterback Andrew Peasley carried 14 times for 71 yards and scored two rushing touchdowns of 35 and four yards, and redshirt freshman Joey Braasch contributed 18 yards on five carries.

The Cowboys were able to break up several pass plays at critical times. Sophomore cornerback Cameron Stone broke up three Hawai'i pass attempts. Sophomore safety Wyatt Ekeler added two pass breakups, and redshirt freshman defensive end Braden Siders tipped another pass at the line of scrimmage. Sophomore linebackers Shae Suiaunua and Easton Gibbs led the Cowboys in tackles with eight and seven tackles, respectively. Ekeler also added seven tackles.

COLORADO STATE RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys (7-3 overall, 5-1 MW) rallied back from a 10-point deficit to defeat the Colorado State Rams (2-8, 2-4 MW) by a score of 14-13 on Saturday evening in Canvas Stadium in Fort Collins, Colo. It marked the fifth comeback win for the Cowboys this season. Backup quarterback Jayden Clemons connected with wide receiver Alex Brown on a 32-yard touchdown in the fourth that proved to be the winning score, as Wyoming earned the Bronze Boot for the 45th time.

The Cowboys have comeback wins this season over against Tulsa, Air Force, New Mexico and Hawai'i.

Wyoming has now won four-straight games for the longest winning streak since winning four-straight to open last season. The three-game win streak on the road is the longest since 1999 when Wyoming won at Air Force, Louisiana-Monroe and at Utah. The Pokes have also won six of their last seven contests.

"We certainly dug ourselves a hole in the beginning, but the effort was great and for a young team to go on the road and keep believing was great to see," UW head coach Craig Bohl. "It was a very physical game tonight and I'm sure Colorado State feels the same as well. This goes down as one of the classic Wyoming vs. Colorado State rivalry games. We did a good job offensively in the second half getting to the second level on the runs. The quarterback run game was also good for us tonight. But we are going to enjoy the night and start getting ready for Boise State tomorrow."

Wyoming allowed only six points defensively with the Rams recording 372 yards of offense with 251 yards through the air and 121 yards on the ground. Offensively, Wyoming had 236 yards of total offense rushing for 142 yards and passing for 94 yards. The Cowboy defense recorded five sacks and now have 18 sacks in their last four games.

Clemons finished the game 7-of-11 passing for 90 yards with a touchdown and added 32 yards on the ground with a touchdown. He entered the game in the second quarter and led the Pokes to their first score. Running back Titus Swen rushed for 73 yards to lead the team. Tight end Parker Christensen added four catches for 32 yards to lead the team.

"Clemons certainly played well tonight," Bohl said. "He hasn't gotten a lot of repetition, but he has studied well and made some big plays and certainly his pass to Alex Brown was huge."

The Cowboy defense was led by Easton Gibbs with 12 tackles on the night. He also added a sack and two tackles for loss. Safety Isaac White added eight tackles with linebacker Shae Suaiaunoa adding seven along with a career-high seven from nose tackle Gavin Meyer. Defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole added six tackles and a career-high two sacks.

BOISE STATE RECAP

RECAP: Saturday night's final home game of the 2022 season for Wyoming saw the Cowboys do what they've done throughout the season -- fight to the very end. But for the first time this year, Wyoming lost a game decided by one score as Boise State held off the Cowboys for a 20-17 road victory in Laramie. Wyoming is now 7-4 overall and 5-2 in Mountain West play. Boise State improved to 8-3 and 7-0 in conference play and clinched the Mountain Division title.

Wyoming had won four games this season decided by seven or fewer points and the Cowboys had recorded five come-from-behind wins, but that was not to be the case on Saturday.

The Cowboys played without several key players on the night, including quarterback Andrew Peasley, defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole and running back D.Q. James. But the Cowboys responded how they have all season by having other players step in and play well. Bohl applauded his team's effort after the game.

"I'm proud of the effort our guys played with and we made a lot of plays tonight, but they (Boise State) made one more play than what we did and we lost the game," Bohl said. "We have an emerging football team. We had guys out there tonight, like some of our defensive tackles, who hadn't played a lot this year but because of injured players we called on those guys and they played their hearts out. It is a gut punch, but we'll bounce back. This football team has to hang together and move forward and get ready to play Fresno State.

"A lot of ups and downs in this ball game. I'm proud of our players -- how hard they played. They went out and competed. Hats off to Boise State. They are an excellent football team, and they're well coached.

"We knew we'd have an opportunity to win if we played well and a couple things went our way and it about did."

Cowboy running back Titus Swen had a career best night running behind a Wyoming offensive line who played outstanding, consistently opening up holes. Swen ended the game with a career high 212 rushing yards, including his 83-yard TD run. The junior averaged 11.2 yards per carry on 19 carries. He also caught one pass for 17 yards to account for 229 all-purpose yards. For the 2022 season, Swen has 964 yards on the season and will need just 36 yards the rest of this season to record his first 1,000-yard rushing season.

FRESNO STATE RECAP

RECAP: The Wyoming Cowboys could not overcome miscues in a 30-0 loss to Mountain Division Champion Fresno State (8-4 overall, 7-1 MW) on Friday evening in Valley Children's Stadium in Fresno, Calif. Wyoming finishes the regular-season with a 7-5 overall record and a 5-3 record in the Mountain West Conference, finishing in second place in the Mountain West Mountain Division. The Cowboys were picked to finish fifth in the Mountain Division in the preseason media poll.

"It was a rough night for us, and I think Fresno State played well," UW head coach Craig Bohl said. "Our guys fought hard, and our younger guys got some reps. We will learn from this. Fresno State has a great quarterback and defense. We couldn't establish the running game tonight. Overall, our defense really scrapped tonight, and we will move forward from there. We will get ready for the Bowl game and a special opportunity to play one more game this season."

The Cowboys were missing several key players on Friday night due to recent injuries, including defensive tackle Jordan Bertagnole, wide receiver Alex Brown, fullback/tight end Parker Christensen, cornerback Jakorey Hawkins, running back D.Q. James, running back Dawaiian McNeely, wide receiver Will Pelissier and tight end Treyton Welch.

Wyoming recorded 191 yards of total offense passing for 104 yards and rushing for 87 yards. Wyoming held Fresno State to only 297 yards of offense over 100 yards below their season average and 100 yards below their average yards passing per game at 183 for the night.

The Cowboy defense was paced by Easton Gibbs with 12 tackles, as he went over 100 for the season becoming the 61st player in Wyoming history to record 100-plus tackles in a season. Oluwaseyi Omotosho recorded a career-high eight tackles including a sack.

The Wyoming offense was paced by quarterback Andrew Peasley passing for 104 yards on 12-of-29 passing. Running back Titus Swen rushed for 75 yards going over 1,000 for the season. He is the 12th Cowboy to rush for 1,000 yards as that has been done 16 times. Wide receiver Josh Cobbs grabbed four passes for 23 yards. John Michael Gyllenborg recorded a career high three catches for 21 yards.

BARSTOOL SPORTS ARIZONA BOWL VS. OHIO RECAP

RECAP: In one of the most exciting finishes of the college bowl season, the Wyoming Cowboys took a 24-21 lead with 2:08 remaining in regulation, but the Ohio Bobcats came back to send the game to overtime with a 56-yard field goal with only four seconds remaining. In overtime, Wyoming place-kicker John Hoyland gave the Cowboys a 27-21 lead in the first OT, but on a third and eight on Ohio's first overtime possession the Bobcats completed a 10-yard touchdown pass in the back of the end zone to capture a 30-27 win in the 2022 Barstool Sports Arizona Bowl.

For the Cowboys, it broke a three-game winning streak in bowl games. But the Cowboys ended the season with many accomplishments for a team that began the season picked to finish fifth in the Mountain Division of the Mountain West Conference. Wyoming ended the season with a 7-6 record, finished second in the MW Mountain Division and won seven games for the fifth time in the past seven seasons (2016, 2017, 2019, 2021 and 2022). UW also appeared in its fifth bowl game in the past seven seasons (2016 Poinsettia Bowl, 2017 and 2021 Famous Idaho Potato Bowls and 2019 and 2022 Arizona Bowls), which is the most successful period in the 126-year history of Cowboy Football.

- Sophomore place-kicker John Hoyland kicked his 21st and 22nd field goals of the 2022 season, setting a new Wyoming single-season school record.
- Sophomore linebacker Easton Gibbs recorded 10 tackles in the Arizona Bowl to improve his season total to 121. That ties him for the 18th best single-season tackle total in school history, tying him with former Cowboy linebackers Bruce Mowry (1983 season) and Jim Talich (1997 season).
- Junior tight end Treyton Welch caught a single-game best five passes for a career best 91 yards vs. Ohio.
- Redshirt freshman running back Jordon Vaughn, playing in his first game for Wyoming, carried the ball 16 times for 67 yards and scored two rushing touchdowns.
- Junior wide receiver Ryan Marquez caught a career high three passes for a career best 38 yards.
- Sophomore wide receiver Alex Brown caught a career best three passes.

Larry Birleffi

PRESS ROOM

LARRY BIRLEFFI, flanked by former UW Athletics Director Paul Roach (on left) acknowledges the crowd on Oct. 17, 1992, the day UW dedicated the press area in the War Memorial Stadium Press Box as "The Larry Birleffi Press Room".

In 1992 the University of Wyoming Athletics Department honored long-time newspaper, radio and TV personality Larry Birleffi, by naming the working press area in the War Memorial Stadium media facility after him.

For over 50 years, and 1200 events, Birleffi covered the Cowboys and Cowgirls for newspaper, radio and television. While coaches, players and fans have come and gone, Birleffi was there. He was the one common thread through the tapestry that is Wyoming tradition. He carried the word of Wyoming athletics longer, and more effectively, than any other. He was inducted into the University of Wyoming Athletics Hall of Fame in 1996.

Born in Hartville, Wyoming's first incorporated town on April 17, 1918, Birleffi graduated from the University of Wyoming in 1942. He had begun covering the Cowboys for the UW student newspaper the Branding Iron in 1937.

Birleffi died on September 27, 2008.

THE BILETNIKOFF AWARD

Honoring the Nation's Top Receiver

MARCUS HARRIS, 1996

Marcus Harris is presented with the Biletnikoff Award as the nation's top receiver in 1996.

One of Wyoming's most decorated football players, Marcus Harris was a consensus All-American in 1996, being selected First Team All-American by the Associated Press, Football Writers Association of America, American Football Coaches Association, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Football News. In 1996, he won the Biletnikoff Award (named after former Oakland Raiders receiver Fred Biletnikoff), symbolic of the nation's top receiver. He also finished ninth in the Heisman Trophy balloting in 1996. During his college career, Harris became the NCAA's all-time leader in receiving yards with 4,518 career yards, and he remains the only receiver in NCAA history to have three 1,400 yard receiving seasons. With his 1,650 yards in 1996, Harris led the nation in receiving yards, earned First-Team All-Western Athletic Conference honors for the third straight year, and was named the WAC Co-Offensive Player of the Year.

MOUNTAIN WEST

This is the Mountain West

From its inception in 1999, the Mountain West has been committed to excellence in intercollegiate athletics, while promoting the academic missions of its member institutions. Progressive in its approach, the MW continues to cultivate opportunities for student-athletes to compete at the highest level while fostering academic achievement and sportsmanship. Now in its 25th year, the MW has been assertive in its involvement with the NCAA governance structure and has taken a leadership role in the overall administration of intercollegiate athletics.

History

The Mountain West was conceived on May 26, 1998, when the presidents of eight institutions — Air Force, BYU, Colorado State, New Mexico, San Diego State, UNLV, Utah and Wyoming — decided to form a new NCAA Division I-A intercollegiate athletic conference. The split from a former 16-team conference re-established continuity and stability among the membership within the new league and signaled the continuation of its tradition-rich, long-standing athletic rivalries. Three of the MW's eight original members have been conference rivals since the 1960s (New Mexico, Wyoming and Colorado State), while San Diego State (1978) and Air Force (1980) were longtime members as well. UNLV and TCU entered the fold in 1996 and the Rebels continued as one of the original eight institutions that formed the MW in 1999. TCU re-joined the group with its first year of competition in the Mountain West in 2005-06. With conference realignment sweeping the nation in recent years, the MW has been proactive in addressing membership changes. Boise State University joined the Mountain West in 2011-12, followed by Fresno State and the University of Nevada on July 1, 2012. Also on July 1, 2012, the University of Hawai'i became a football-only member of the Conference. On July 1, 2013, the Mountain West further expanded when San José State University and Utah State University joined the Conference, bringing to 11 the number of full-time member institutions and 12 football-playing members. On July 1, 2014, the Colorado College women's soccer program became the first non-football affiliate member of the Mountain West, expanding that sport to 12 Conference participants.

When the Mountain West officially began operations on July 1, 1999, the new league had in place a seven-year contract with ESPN, giving the broadcast entity exclusive national television rights to MW football and men's basketball, and three-year agreements to send the league's football champion to the Liberty Bowl and a second team to the Las Vegas Bowl. Commissioner Thompson also arranged a third bowl tie-in each of the first three seasons (1999 Motor City, 2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans) before securing a four-year deal with the Emerald Bowl in San Francisco in 2002.

Entering the 2021 season, the MW has nine (9) postseason opportunities, including a spot in a New Year's Six Bowl (highest ranked non-autonomous 5 champion), six (6) primary bowl positions with the Jimmy Kimmel Los Angeles Bowl, Arizona Bowl, Famous Idaho Potato Bowl, New Mexico Bowl, SoFi Hawai'i Bowl and an ESPN Events-operated bowl, likely to be held in the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex - and two (2) secondary positions.

An innovator in the postseason bowl structure, the MW engineered many "firsts," as league teams have participated in seven inaugural bowl games (2000 Silicon Valley, 2001 New Orleans, 2002 San Francisco (Emerald), 2005 Poinsettia, 2006 New Mexico, 2015 Arizona, 2015 Cure), as well as placing the first non-automatic-qualifying FBS team into a BCS bowl game with Utah's appearance in the 2005 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl and into the College Football Playoff (CFP) with Boise State's selection to the 2014 Tostitos Fiesta Bowl.

Mountain West Commissioner Gloria Nevarez

Gloria Nevarez, a 25-year veteran of intercollegiate athletics, is the second Commissioner in the history of the Mountain West Conference.

Nevarez comes from the West Coast Conference (WCC), where she served as Commissioner since 2018. While at the WCC, Nevarez shaped nearly every facet of the internal and external operations of the WCC. She directed significant overhauls to the conference's branding, expanding the league's national television contracts, adding a long-term title sponsor for the men's and women's basketball tournaments, and launching groundbreaking social justice initiatives.

After an exhaustive and collaborative six-month review with WCC stakeholders, the brand, reflective of the mission and values of the WCC schools was refreshed with a new brand identity. The WCC also embarked on a comprehensive rebranding initiative to bring consistency across all platforms. In her second full year on the job, Nevarez renegotiated the media rights agreement for the conference, resulting in unprecedented levels of national exposure for the league, including an updated eight-year agreement with ESPN and the addition of two national television partners in CBS Sports and Stadium. The exposure of WCC's men's basketball has nearly doubled from coast-to-coast.

The WCC became the first Division I conference to adopt a diversity hiring initiative with the groundbreaking "Russell Rule" adopted in July 2020. The "Russell Rule" required all WCC schools to include a member of a traditionally underrepresented community in the final candidate pool for every athletic director, senior administrator, head coach, and full-time assistant coaching search.

Nevarez currently serves on the NCAA's Division I Transformation Committee, the NIT Men's Basketball selection committee, the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Oversight Committee, and the Board of Directors of USA Basketball, Women Leaders in College Athletics and is a member of the Knight Commission.

Before her commissioner role at the WCC, Nevarez had a successful stint as the Senior Associate Commissioner, Senior Woman Administrator at the Pac-12 Conference. In her role at the Pac-12, Nevarez oversaw all conference sports and championships except football. She also served as the conference liaison for men's basketball and tournament director of the men's basketball tournament in Las Vegas. Nevarez led all-star teams to China and Australia and brought conference teams to China for the first-ever NCAA regular season game. During her tenure at the Pac-12, Nevarez was instrumental in league expansion, the relocation and success of both the men's and women's basketball tournaments, the creation and operation of the Pac-12 Networks, the development of international initiatives, and advanced the conference's sustainability efforts.

Prior to joining the Pac-10 staff, Nevarez served as Senior Associate Athletic Director at the University of Oklahoma. Her responsibilities were wide-ranging, including sport administration duties and overseeing the department's strength and conditioning, marketing, and human resources units. She also served as the sport administrator for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's cross country, soccer, men's and women's track and field, softball, and women's rowing. Nevarez served Oklahoma as the senior woman administrator and oversaw the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, the department's Staff Council, Title IX compliance, and worked with the fundraising group, the Sooner Stilettes.

Before her time at Oklahoma, Nevarez spent five years working in compliance at the WCC, joining the conference in January 2002. During her first stint at the WCC, her primary emphasis was to direct the conference's compliance efforts. In that role, she was involved in education efforts at all member institutions and the league office. She assisted the schools with their certification efforts, violations, waivers, and rule interpretations.

Prior to the WCC, Nevarez was at the University of California, where she served in multiple roles. She was the lone compliance officer and served as an executive officer for the department and its 29 intercollegiate athletics teams. She conducted NCAA and Pac-10 rules education workshops for student-athletes, coaches, and department staff on an annual basis. Nevarez was also involved with legal matters involving the department, including lawsuits, serving as the department's campus liaison. She was responsible for processing all departmental contracts, including game contracts, and served as the department's campus contact for all athletic-related contracts. Her efforts at Cal went beyond the legal realm as she served as co-coordinator of the team that conceived and ran the first Cy-Bear auction, the first time a collegiate entity had partnered with an online group — Yahoo! — to host an online auction, raising more than $180,000.

Nevarez began her athletics administrative career at San José State University, where she was the first full-time Director of Compliance in school history and developed and implemented an NCAA compliance program

A graduate of the NCAA Fellows Program and the NACWAA Executive Institute, Nevarez completed five years as an adjunct faculty member at the University of San Francisco's Sport Management Master's program, teaching sports law.

Nevarez received her Juris Doctorate from the University of California. A four-year scholarship athlete and letter-winner in basketball at the University of Massachusetts, she graduated cum laude from UMass. While a student, Nevarez served on the La Raza Law Journal and was a co-founder of the Boalt Hall Sport and Entertainment Law Society. She served on the board of advisors for the UMass sports management department, a division of the Isenberg School of Business.

A native of Santa Clara, California, Nevarez is married to fellow Berkeley Law graduate Richard Young.

DR. EDWARD SEIDEL

University of Wyoming, President

Ed Seidel began service as the University of Wyoming's 28th president July 1, 2020. The distinguished scholar has led academic, research and innovation programs at multiple universities.

Before coming to UW, Seidel was the vice president for economic development and innovation for the University of Illinois System, building and supporting programs that engage university, public and private partners -- and strengthening the links among higher education, research and business to stimulate economic development across that state.

His long record of leadership experience includes more than three years as director of the National Center for Supercomputing Applications at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign, where he was among the original co-principal investigators for Blue Waters, a federally funded project that brought one of the world's most powerful supercomputers to Urbana-Champaign.

Seidel spearheaded the creation of the Discovery Partners Institute and the Illinois Innovation Network, for which $500 million was appropriated by the State of Illinois. He also oversaw the University of Illinois System's commercialization pipeline, including the Offices of Technology Management at Urbana-Champaign and Chicago, and the early-stage technology investment firm Illinois Ventures, which has catalyzed over $1.7 billion in venture funding for companies.

Previously, he was the senior vice president for research and innovation for the Skolkovo Institute of Science and Technology in Moscow, Russia, in collaboration with the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. There, he was responsible for building research capacity, guiding the institute's strategic focus on innovation and entrepreneurship, establishing international partnerships, directing the development of 21st century research facilities and programs, and overseeing quality and compliance.

Before that, he directed the Office of Cyberinfrastructure and led the Directorate of Mathematical and Physical Sciences as National Science Foundation assistant director. The MPS Directorate possesses an annual budget of more than $1.4 billion. Within the Directorate, he oversaw national programs in astronomy, chemistry, materials science, mathematical sciences and physics. The Office of Cyberinfrastructure is responsible for national programs supporting advanced computing environments, software, computer networking and their application for addressing complex problems in science and engineering. He led the launch of new programs in computational and data-intensive science and engineering and the NSF-wide Cyberinfrastructure Framework for 21st Century Science and Engineering. At NSF, he also led emerging activities on data, public access to publications, and catalyzed development of interdisciplinary research programs, including the development of grand challenge programs to attack complex problems in science and engineering.

Prior to joining NSF, he held senior appointments as Floating Point Systems Professor in Physics and Astronomy, and Computer Science at Louisiana State University, where he founded and directed the interdisciplinary Center for Computation and Technology, an interdisciplinary research and innovation center involving more than four dozen faculty across the entire university. He had an integral part in the $50 million Louisiana Optical Network Initiative, connecting six research universities and two medical schools across the state of Louisiana.

Seidel also directed the numerical relativity group at the Max Planck Institute for Gravitational Physics (Albert Einstein Institute) in Germany.

Seidel has played central roles in launching international and regional research consortiums in Europe and the U.S., including the EU Astrophysics Network and GridLab projects that collectively involved a dozen countries.

Dr. Edward Seidel

Seidel is a fellow of the American Physical Society and of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and has earned a number of awards, including the 2006 IEEE Sidney Fernbach Award, the Association for Computing Machinery's 2001 Gordon Bell Prize, and the 1998 Heinz Billing Prize of the Max Planck Society for his work in research, and the 2018 Business Leadership Award of the America-Israel Chamber of Commerce for work in economic development.

Seidel has supervised dozens of graduate students and postdocs in physics, astronomy, computer science and other disciplines, and has published about 200 papers in professional journals. His work in general relativity and scientific computing is widely cited in scientific literature. His research has focused on Einstein's equations, applications to black holes and gravitational waves, and algorithms for high-performance computing.

Seidel received his Ph.D. in relativistic astrophysics from Yale University, earned a master's degree in physics at the University of Pennsylvania, and received a bachelor's degree in mathematics and physics from the College of William and Mary.

UNIVERSITY OF WYOMING ATHLETICS MISSION STATEMENT & GUIDING PRINCIPLES

MISSION STATEMENT

The University of Wyoming Department of Intercollegiate Athletics is committed to the development of tomorrow's leaders by creating an environment that promotes personal growth, academic and athletic excellence in a progressive, inclusive, and transparent manner. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics will support the overall University of Wyoming mission, provide an outstanding fan experience, encourage community engagement, and serve as a source of pride for alumni, supporters, and the state of Wyoming.

CORE VALUES

Dedication to Student-Athletes

We will promote the well-being of student-athletes and provide opportunities for academic, athletic, and personal success. We will foster academic excellence, graduate student-athletes, support their development as citizens, and prepare them to be leaders.

Integrity

We will demonstrate integrity in all areas. We are dedicated to financial stability, rules compliance, diversity, and personal accountability.

Respect

We will celebrate a climate of mutual respect, inclusiveness, loyalty, and sportsmanship by recognizing contributions to our teams, our department, and the university.

Competitive Success

We will endeavor to be the very best when representing the University of Wyoming and our state. We are committed to providing the resources and personnel for our teams to achieve success.

Tradition

The legacy of the University of Wyoming athletics is proud and strong. We will honor our outstanding tradition.

Excellence

We believe in a spirit of comprehensive excellence. We will strive for excellence in all we do.
